

Problem Of Poland Was Toughest At Yalta Parley

(Fourth of Five Articles)
By DOUGLAS E. CORNELL
(Copyright, 1945, by The Associated Press)

Washington, March 16 (AP)—The Polish issue was the most complicated task of the Yalta conference, and the most ticklish.

Judging by the time they spent discussing it with Parliament and Congress, it was the point on which Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt felt themselves most vulnerable.

It took two days of intensive work to produce a compromise—and even then Mr. Roosevelt acknowledged he wasn't altogether satisfied with it.

To start with, there was a definite conflict of views, even as to facts. Give-and-take came only after the hottest arguments of the meeting.

Invasion Corridor
Some trouble arose because any settlement appeared likely to conflict with Atlantic Charter declarations for territorial integrity of small nations and their right to select their own governments.

More trouble arose because Russia recognized the Polish government seated in Lublin, Poland, whereas Britain and the United States recognized the exile government in London.

There were territorial issues of no small proportions.

Twice within a quarter of a century, Marshal Stalin said, Poland had been the gateway through which Germans invaded Russia. To seal off this gateway, he called for the Curzon line as his western border.

Stalin's Position

Stalin said he could not accept anything less even though it meant taking away a third of 1939 Poland. He was entirely frank in expressing concern that England and America might soften toward Germany to the point that the Reich might some day ascend to power again.

Stalin said he wanted a Poland he could trust, and a Poland strong enough to check any future attack long enough to permit Red armies to go into battle beyond their own soil.

Stalin was in position to enforce practically any demand he cared to make about Poland. Soviet forces had driven the Germans from the country, and the government functioning in Polish territory was the one recognized by Russia.

Many Concessions

The Yalta agreement generally gives Russia the Curzon line. In compensation, Poland will get "substantial accessions of territory in the north and west"—bites out of Germany.

While the action on Poland has been interpreted widely as a diplomatic coup for Stalin, the Premier did have to make concessions with respect to the Polish government.

He agreed to reorganize the Lublin regime so as to bring in other "democratic elements." He consented to an arrangement under which Russia could be outvoted on the make-up of the new government. The commission to set it up has one Russian, one British and one American member.

The plan for reorganizing the Polish government is a specific application of the declaration on liberated Europe. It works out this way:

The Allied commission will consult with members of the present government in Poland and with other Polish leaders, including some of those in London. They will bring into being a "Polish provisional government of national unity."

This government, pledged to "free and unfettered elections as soon as possible," will be the basis for the new Polish government.

(Please Turn to Page 2)

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

Truth Our Guide—The Public Good Our Aim

With Honor To Ourselves And Profit To Our Patrons

ESTABLISHED 1902 Leased Wire Member of The Associated Press GETTYSBURG, PA., FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 16, 1945 Read by Nearly Everybody in Adams County PRICE THREE CENTS

Good Evening
If this is a preview of spring, let's have more of it.

ONE COUNTIAN SLAIN, 2 OTHERS ARE WOUNDED

Cpl. Parker E. Prosser, 23, son of John Prosser, York Springs, was killed in action March 2 in Germany, according to a war department telegram received Thursday by his father.

The county soldier served with a reconnaissance outfit with the First Army which was fighting close to Cologne at the time of his death.

He was inducted June 10, 1943, and received his basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky. He spent a seven-day leave at his home in January, 1944, and went overseas early the next month. Shortly after the invasion he landed in France and served in Belgium, Holland and France. His last letter to his father was written February 22 and was received March 6.

Cpl. Prosser attended York Springs high school and was a member of the school band and the York Springs citizens band. He was a member of the Chestnut Grove Lutheran church and Latimore Lodge 686, Order of Independent Americans. He was employed by LeFever brothers, Dillsburg, three years before his induction.

Surviving are his father and two sisters, Jean and Mary Prosser at home.

Pfc. Smyers Wounded

Pfc. Richard M. Smyers, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Smyers, Idaville, is convalescing at a hospital in France from wounds received January 15 in Belgium. His parents have learned. Smyers received an injury to his left ear and an ankle wound.

He has been awarded the Purple Heart. His infantry outfit recently received a Presidential citation.

Pfc. Smyers was serving with the First Army when he was wounded. He took part in the invasion June 6, 1944, which was his 25th birthday anniversary.

Smyers attended Biglerville high school and was an auto salesman for the Adams County Motors corporation here for two years. He was employed for a year and a half at the C. H. Musselman plant, Biglerville, and served as a guard at the York Ice and Machinery corporation, York, for eight months prior to his induction on September 15, 1942.

He received his infantry training at Camp Bullis, Texas. Later he trained at Camp McCoy, Wis., and went overseas in October, 1943.

Wounded in Germany

Pfc. James R. Rebert, 34, recently received a shrapnel wound while fighting in Germany according to a letter he wrote March 6 to his wife who resides at 307 Baltimore street.

Rebert is now in a hospital in Germany. He is a member of an infantry outfit with General Patton's Third Army.

The local soldier entered the service March 6, 1944, and trained with the Air Corps at Shepherd Field, Texas. Later he was transferred to the infantry and trained at Camp McCoy, Wis. He went overseas late last November.

He is the father of a son and daughter.

ARRIVES IN FRANCE

Sgt. Herbert Deardorff has arrived safely in France according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Paul Deardorff, Orrtanna.

Peep Explodes Land Mine In Southern France And Blinds Sergeant Nelson E. Schultz

A long, heavily armed column of American soldiers was moving north over a dust-covered road in southern France last October 18. It was shortly after 6 p. m. The column was driving deep into once enemy-held territory, pushing their advantage to rid France of the German invaders.

The men were slogging along in the center of the road, leaving the sides to motor vehicles moving south. Two peeps, one on each side of the column, approached from the north and whizzed southward. Suddenly one of the peeps passed over and exploded an anti-personnel mine. The peep and its occupants were blown to bits. Five men in the column also received the full blast of the explosive. One of the five marchers was Nelson Eugene Schultz, 21-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schultz, Orrtanna R. I.

He Never Felt Pain

On December 28 surgeons at the Valley Forge Memorial General hospital removed the bandages from Nelson Schultz's eyes and told him that he was blind, both eyes having been blown into darkness by the land mine planted by the retreating Germans in southern France 71 days before.

Thursday afternoon T. Sgt. Nelson Schultz, who will observe his 22nd birthday next June 21, sat on a wooden box in the kitchen of his parents' four-room log and board home, a few miles west of Cashtown, and told a reporter for The Gettysburg Times that up to this day he has never felt a single pain since he was so badly wounded.

In heavy doughboy shoes, open neck, torn shirt that stuck out of his torn pants, Nelson Schultz, the oldest of fourteen children, all of whom are home except Cpl. Donald Edward Schultz 20, now somewhere

3,600 EGGS ARE BROKEN ON ROAD

About 3,600 eggs were broken—definitely beyond repair—and a truck was considerably damaged Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock when a York County Farms truck from Hanover struck a tree and overturned before sliding along the road for about 20 feet at the edge of McSherrystown on the Gettysburg road.

The driver, Calvin Kitzmiller, of Hanover, escaped with a few brush burns and a shaking up.

The 18,618 eggs on the truck suffered more serious damage. About 3,600 were smashed and the others will have to be sold as an inferior grade product because the jostling "will cause the eggs' air cells to become tremulous and they won't pass government inspection as top grade produce," a York County Farms employee said this morning.

The truck was badly damaged in the mishap which Kitzmiller said resulted when a spring broke causing the vehicle to swerve. He was returning to Hanover after covering a rural collection route. The truck, lying in the potential mammoth omelet, completely blocked the highway for some time after the crash.

MINUTEMEN OF COUNTY MARK ANNIVERSARY

With a special dinner and program, Adams county's company of Minutemen observed the second anniversary of the unit's organization Thursday evening at the state armory.

A short drill was held at 7 o'clock after which the Minutemen and their guests were served dinner in the armory basement. Following the dinner the company assembled on the drill floor where Capt. C. Arthur Brame, company commander, presented special marksmanship awards earned by 26 of the men in a target shooting contest which had been conducted for the last two months.

The highest award, that of Expert Rifleman, went to three men. They were George Bushman, Robert Gitt and Chester Shriver, Jr. There were ten recipients of the Sharpshooter badge, the second highest award: Joseph Arter, George Coshun, Andrew Ecker, Crosby Hartzell, Jack Hetrick, Milton Hoffman, Charles Hykes, Bernard Miller, Harold Smallwood and Cleason Stoner.

Commended by Judge

A total of 16 of the company received the third award, the Marksman's badge. They included Paul Cluck, Charles Cutshall, George DeHoff, Francis Garlach, R. Dale Guise, Robert Kime, George Martin, Raymond Menges, Daniel Miller, Kenneth Myers, George Naugle, H. B. Millar, William Schultz, Fred Swisher, Richard Swisher and Curtis Stoner.

Judge W. C. Sheely was the principal speaker of the evening and he briefly compared the present national, state and local situation with that two years ago when the Minutemen were organized.

Youths Hurt In Unusual Accident

Two Hunterstown youths were injured in an unusual accident Thursday evening when they were knocked off a bridge railing by shafts of a hay rake protruding from the sides of a passing truck. The mishap occurred at the edge of Hunterstown about 9:30 o'clock.

Gene King, aged 16 years, spent the night at the Warner hospital where his injuries were found to include a broken nose and lacerations of the mouth. Harold Watson, 19, escaped with a bump on the head. The boys were knocked to the roadway and rendered unconscious by the blows on the head.

Investigation by Private George Ackerson of the state police here disclosed that the truck involved was operated by Charles Millhimes, New Oxford R. 2, and owned by his brother, George, same address. Charles is being charged before Justice of the Peace William D. Brown, Hunterstown, with hauling a load protruding too far over the side of the truck.

Capt. Joe Reaser Now On Leave Here

Capt. Joseph Reaser, thrice wounded on the western front, arrived Thursday evening in Gettysburg on leave.

Capt. Reaser, who earned the now famous title of "Indian Joe" when he burned out several German soldiers sheltered in a house, has received the Purple Heart, Distinguished Service Cross, Silver Star and the Bronze Star.

Yanks Cut Superhighway As 3rd And 7th Rip Saar; Violent New Red Attack

By WILLIAM L. RYAN (Associated Press War Editor)

American troops in the Rhine bridgehead cut the great Ruhr-Frankfurt superhighway with machinegun fire today from positions 200 yards away, while to the south the smashing offensives of the U. S. Seventh and Third Armies threatened to rip away the Saarland and the Palatinate, last German holdings of importance west of the Rhine.

Russian troops opened a violent new attack on last Nazi positions east of the Oder in the Stettin area after a withering artillery barrage which was followed by a lunge of massed tanks and infantry, the Germans said. In East Prussia a Russian breakthrough to the Frisches Haff, Baltic lagoon, split the remnants of 200,000 Germans defending the Koenigsberg zone, another major attack was reported opening southwest of Breslau in Silesia.

U. S. heavy bombers smashed several headquarters buildings and rows of barracks in yesterday's heavy attack on Hitler's army staff headquarters at Zossen, 20 miles south of Berlin, it was announced officially. Great fires were spread.

Aerial reconnaissance indicate the Germans had begun a flight from the Reich Palatinate and the industrial Saar toward Frankfurt, as the Third and Seventh clamped a steel vice on the valley. Six divisions have been hurled into the Seventh army offensive, which fought to within a half mile of Saarbruecken and outflanked Bitche, burning Maginot line fortress town. The Third, meanwhile, swung down behind Saar river fortifications from the middle Moselle, and French forces with the Seventh attacked the last German picket in northeast Alsace before Karlsruhe.

"Great Allied Power"
Americans across the Rhine now are 6 1/2 miles from the river at their deepest penetration of inner Germany.

In the Remagen bridgehead the Germans reported "the biggest single concentration of power on a narrow front ever seen in this war." The Nazis said four more divisions were hurled into the rising battle there. Previously they had reported more than 100,000 Americans in the bridgehead, including forces of the new U. S. 15th Army.

"Even during the invasion of Normandy there was nothing to compare with it, a Nazi commentator said. "The situation is like a boiler under maximum pressure and ready to explode from pent-up energy." Northward-driving U. S. forces had broken into Koenigswinter, north of Honnef, by official report. Yesterday four more towns were captured. The bridgehead has lengthened to 13 miles.

7th Army Rolls On
Allied forces on the northern Rhine prepared for a possible invasion of the north German plain. Headquarters disclosed the U. S. Ninth Army had sent patrols across the river at Duisburg from time to time.

The Third Army crossed the Moselle in two more places, one only six miles from sealed off Coblenz, while armor broke out of the original bridgehead southwest of Coblenz and dashed 12 miles to the southeast. To the south the Seventh Army offensive rolled forward on a 50-mile front from Saarbruecken to the Rhine. The two Armies threatened to trap the Germans still remaining in outflanked Siegfried line positions.

The Red Army has driven a rapidly expanding wedge between Koenigsberg and Braunsberg in East Prussia in a savage new offensive which threatened to annihilate trapped German divisions in the Junkers Province. The fortress cities are 35 miles apart. Liquidation of the Braunsberg defenders was expected momentarily.

Fierce Red Attacks
Soviet troops mounted fierce attacks in the southwest suburbs of Koenigsberg, the besieged capital of the Province. Massed field guns and rockets rained death on enemy positions as Red Army tank and infantry assault teams drove ahead. The Russians also have slashed anew into the German Danzig-Gdynia defense perimeter in the Polish corridor.

On the front due east of Berlin, the Russians said, only local fighting occurred yesterday. The Germans have reported Soviet forces across the Oder river in strength.

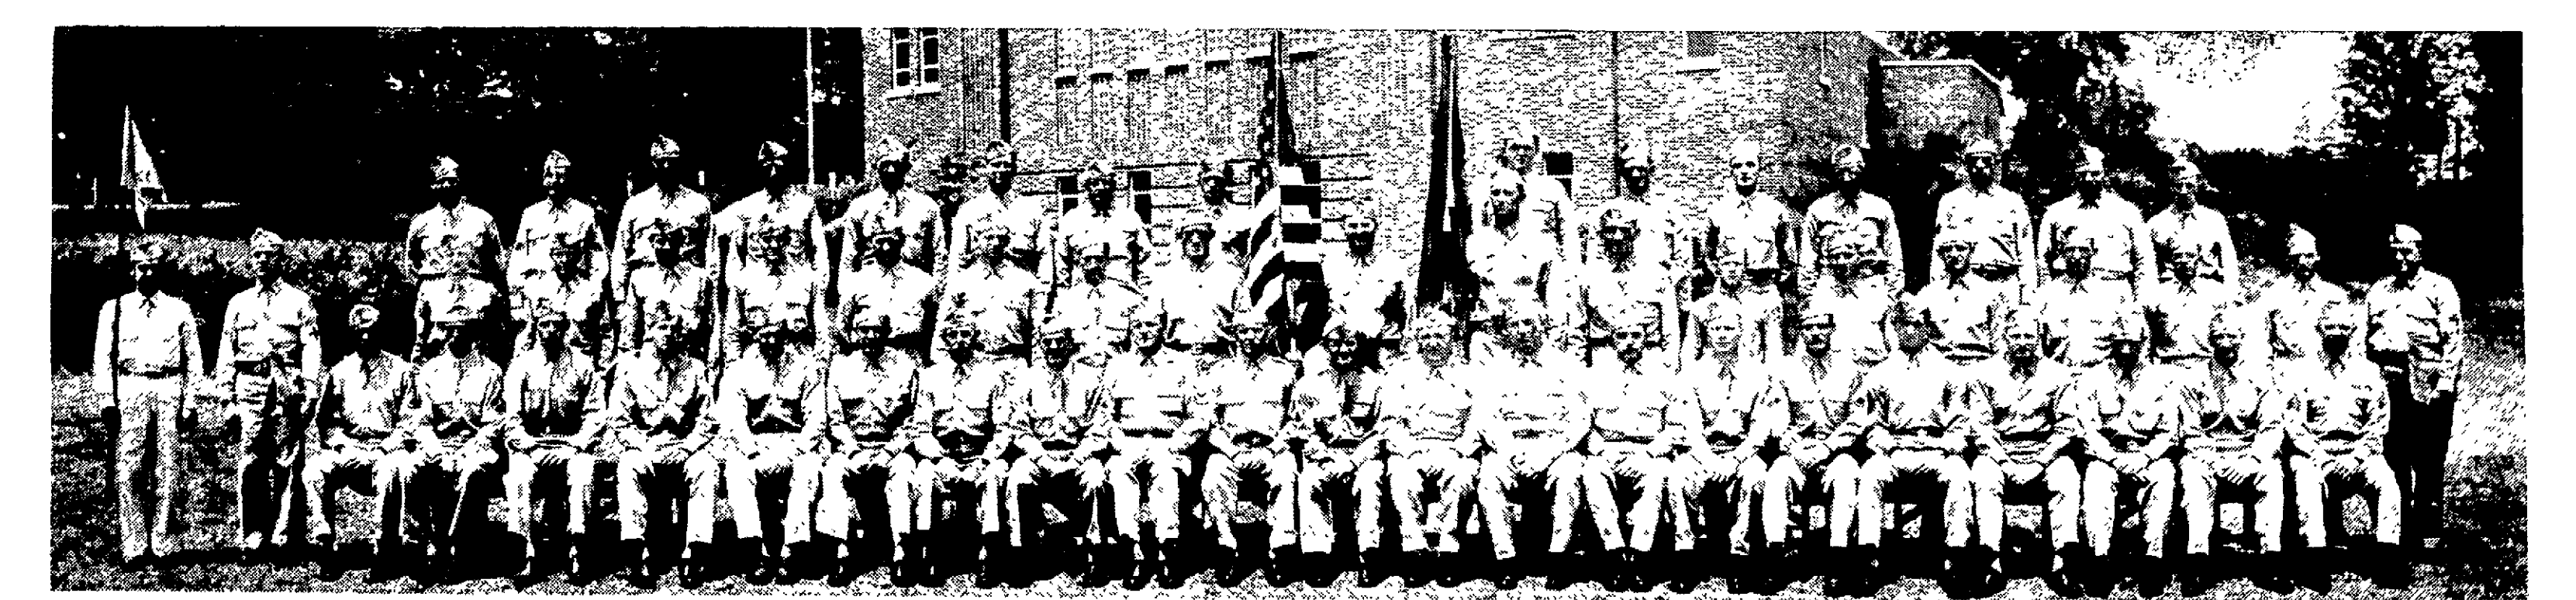

BULLETINS

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force, Paris, March 16 (AP)—The first Allied military government east of the Rhine has been established in the Remagen bridgehead.

Manila, March 16 (AP)—American infantrymen smashed a wedge two miles deep into the crumbling Shimbu line on Luzon Island today, perhaps trapping several thousand Japanese, and seized 15 more villages in the southern Philippines to spread their Mindanao beachhead over 28 miles.

A Japanese machine gun burst killed Maj. Gen. Edwin D. (Please Turn to Page 2)

County Company Of Pennsylvania Minutemen Mark Second Anniversary

Shown above are most of the members of the present Company 1-A of Pennsylvania Minutemen. The company picture was taken last fall at the armory along West Confederate avenue which the Minutemen use as their headquarters. They are: Front row (left to right): Donald Myers, Sgt. George Naugle, Sgt. Harry McDannell, Sgt. Henry Small, James Hykes, Charles Baker, Aaron Rohrbach, Harold Smallwood, Sgt. Clarence Deardorff, Sgt. George Bushman, 1st Sgt. Amidee Ecker, 1st Lt. W. A. Raffensperger, Capt. C. Arthur Brame, 2nd Lt. George DeHoff, 2nd Lt. F. T. Watson, Corp. Crosby Hartzell, Sgt. George Coshun, Sgt. David Alwine, Sgt. Chester Shriver, Jr., Kenneth Myers, Edwin Lawver, Bernard Miller, Sgt. E. Peter Markie. Second row: Cpl. Edgar Moser, Sgt. B. V. Miller, Milton Hoffman, Francis Garlach, Charles Hykes, Earl Keefe, Kenneth Olinger, Sgt. Curtis Stoner, Sgt. Ray Reindollar, Charles Lightner, Kermit Deardorff, Paul Cluck, L. Luckenbill, Earl Alwine, Chester Chronister, Blaine Danhey, Raymond Dayhoff and John Baschore. Third row: Sgt. Louis Chamberlain, Sgt. George Martin, Richard Cole, R. Dale Guise, William Schultz, Robert Newman, Fred Swisher, Sgt. Glenn Sherman, Gerald Dakey, Sgt. Daniel Miller, Dean Stoner, Luther Sillick, Sgt. Amos Kuhn, Clair Lookenbill and Richard Swisher. Other members of the company include: Raymond E. Menges, John N. and Edward F. Luckenbaugh, who were not present when the picture was taken, and the following who have joined since that time: Robert L. Kime, Robert E. Gitt, George W. Gulden, Ralph Batt, Francis McClell, William Anthony, Jr., Joseph Arter, Charles Smith, William Bancroft, James Sillick, Harold Kane, Charles J. Cutshall, Jack F. Hetrick, Ralph Broom, Donald E. Folkenroth, Ira S. Klipfeller and Cleason W. Stoner. The company has sworn in 112 county men, nearly 80 of whom are now serving in the armed forces. Weather Forecast: Fair tonight and Saturday.

Problem Of Poland Was Toughest At Yalta Parley

(Fourth of Five Articles)
By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
(Copyright, 1945, by The Associated Press)

Washington, March 16 (AP)—The Polish issue was the most complicated task of the Yalta conference, and the most ticklish.

Judging by the time they spent discussing it with Parliament and Congress, it was the point on which Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt felt themselves most vulnerable.

It took two days of intensive work to produce a compromise—and even then Mr. Roosevelt acknowledged he wasn't altogether satisfied with it.

To start with, there was a definite conflict of views, even as to facts. Give-and-take came only after the hottest arguments of the meeting.

Invasion Corridor
Some trouble arose because any settlement appeared likely to conflict with Atlantic Charter declarations for territorial integrity of small nations and their right to select their own governments.

More trouble arose because Russia recognized the Polish government seated in Lublin, Poland, whereas Britain and the United States recognized the exile government in London.

There were territorial issues of no small proportions.

Twice within a quarter of a century, Marshal Stalin said, Poland had been the gateway through which Germans invaded Russia. To seal off this gateway, he called for the Curzon line as his western border.

Stalin's Position

Stalin said he could not accept anything less even though it meant taking away a third of 1939 Poland. He was entirely frank in expressing concern that England and America might soften toward Germany to the point that the Reich might some day ascend to power again.

Stalin said he wanted a Poland he could trust, and a Poland strong enough to check any future attack long enough to permit Red armies to go into battle beyond their own soil.

Stalin was in position to enforce practically any demand he cared to make about Poland. Soviet forces had driven the Germans from the country, and the government functioning in Polish territory was the one recognized by Russia.

Many Concessions

The Yalta agreement generally gives Russia the Curzon line. In compensation, Poland will get "substantial accessions of territory in the north and west"—bites out of Germany.

While the action on Poland has been interpreted widely as a diplomatic coup for Stalin, the Premier did have to make concessions with respect to the Polish government.

He agreed to reorganize the Lublin regime so as to bring in other "democratic elements." He consented to an arrangement under which Russia could be outvoted on the make-up of the new government. The commission to set it up has one Russian, one British and one American member.

The plan for reorganizing the Polish government is a specific application of the declaration on liberated Europe. It works out this way:

The Allied commission will consult with members of the present government in Poland and with other Polish leaders, including some of those in London. They will bring into being a "Polish provisional government of national unity."

This government, pledged to "free and unfettered elections as soon as possible," will be the first step.

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

Truth Our Guide—The Public Good Our Aim

With Honor To Ourselves And Profit To Our Patrons

ESTABLISHED 1902 Leased Wire Member of The Associated Press

GETTYSBURG, PA., FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 16, 1945

Read by Nearly Everybody in Adams County

PRICE THREE CENTS

Good Evening

If this is a preview of spring, let's have more of it.

ONE COUNTIAN SLAIN, 2 OTHERS ARE WOUNDED

Cpl. Parker E. Prosser, 23, son of John Prosser, York Springs, was killed in action March 2 in Germany, according to a war department telegram received Thursday by his father.

The county soldier served with a reconnaissance outfit with the First Army which was fighting close to Cologne at the time of his death.

He was inducted June 10, 1943, and received his basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky. He spent a seven-day leave at his home in January, 1944, and went overseas early the next month. Shortly after the invasion he landed in France and served in Belgium, Holland and France. His last letter to his father was written February 22 and was received March 6.

Cpl. Prosser attended York Springs high school and was a member of the school band and the York Springs citizens band. He was a member of the Chestnut Grove Lutheran church and Latimore Lodge 696, Order of Independent Americans. He was employed by Levee brothers, Dillsburg, three years before his induction.

Surviving are his father and two sisters, Jean and Mary Prosser at home.

Pfc. Smyers Wounded

Pfc. Richard M. Smyers, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Smyers, Idaville, is convalescing at a hospital in France from wounds received January 15 in Belgium, his parents have learned. Smyers received an injury to his left ear and an ankle wound.

He has been awarded the Purple Heart. His infantry outfit recently received a Presidential citation.

Pfc. Smyers was serving with the First Army when he was wounded. He took part in the invasion June 6, 1944, which was his 25th birthday anniversary.

Smyers attended Biglerville high school and was an auto salesman for the Adams County Motors corporation here for two years. He was employed for a year and a half at the C. H. Musselman plant, Biglerville, and served as a guard at the York Ice and Machinery corporation, York, for eight months prior to his induction on September 15, 1942.

He received his infantry training at Camp Bullis, Texas. Later he trained at Camp McCoy, Wis., and went overseas in October, 1943.

Wounded in Germany

Pfc. James R. Rebert, 34, recently received a shrapnel wound while fighting in Germany according to a letter he wrote March 6 to his wife who resides at 307 Baltimore street.

Rebert is now in a hospital in Germany. He is a member of an infantry outfit with General Patton's Third Army.

The local soldier entered the service March 6, 1944, and trained with the Air Corps at Shepherd Field, Texas. Later he was transferred to the infantry and trained at Camp McCoy, Wis. He went overseas late last November.

He is the father of a son and daughter.

ARRIVES IN FRANCE

Sgt. Herbert Deardorff has arrived safely in France according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Paul Deardorff, Orrtanna.

Peep Explodes Land Mine In Southern France And Blinds Sergeant Nelson E. Schultz

A long, heavily armed column of American soldiers was moving north over a dust-covered road in southern France last October 18. It was shortly after 6 p. m. The column was driving deep into once enemy-held territory, pushing their advantage to rid France of the German invaders.

The men were slogging along in the center of the road, leaving the sides to motor vehicles moving south. Two peeps, one on each side of the column, approached from the north and whizzed southward. Suddenly one of the peeps passed over and exploded an anti-personnel mine. The peep and its occupants were blown to bits. Five men in the column also received the full blast of the explosive. One of the five marchers was Nelson Eugene Schultz, 21-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schultz, Orrtanna R. 1.

He Never Felt Pain

On December 28 surgeons at the Valley Forge Memorial General hospital removed the bandages from Nelson Schultz's eyes and told him that he was blind, both eyes having been blown into darkness by the land mine planted by the retreating Germans in southern France 71 days before.

Thursday afternoon T. Sgt. Nelson Schultz, who will observe his 22nd birthday next June 21, sat on a wooden box in the kitchen of his parents' four-room log and board home, a few miles west of Cashtown, and told a reporter for The Gettysburg Times that up to this day he has never felt a single pain since he was so badly wounded.

In heavy doughboy shoes, open neck, torn shirt that stuck out of his torn pants, Nelson Schultz, the oldest of fourteen children, all of whom are home except Cpl. Donald Edward Schultz 20, now somewhere

3,600 EGGS ARE BROKEN ON ROAD

About 3,600 eggs were broken—definitely beyond repair—and a truck was considerably damaged Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock when a York County Farms truck from Hanover struck a tree and overturned before sliding along the road for about 20 feet at the edge of McSherrystown on the Gettysburg road.

The driver, Calvin Kitzmiller, of Hanover, escaped with a few brush burns and a shaking up.

The 18,618 eggs on the truck suffered more serious damage. About 3,600 were smashed and the others will have to be sold as an inferior grade product because the jostling "will cause the eggs' air cells to become tremulous and they won't pass government inspection as top grade produce," a York County Farms employee said this morning.

The truck was badly damaged in the mishap which Kitzmiller said resulted when a spring broke causing the vehicle to swerve. He was returning to Hanover after covering a rural collection route. The truck, lying in the potential mammoth omelet, completely blocked the highway for some time after the crash.

in Belgium, optimistically looked to the future.

Married Last Saturday

During the interview he said that he was married last Saturday to Miss Mabel Price, a war-plant worker, in Philadelphia. His mother said she didn't believe him but Nelson said: "You better had, because I am married."

Sgt. Schultz modestly told his story. He said that he entered service January 8, 1943 at New Cumberland, received his basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala., went to Fort

(Please Turn to Page 2)

NEARLY THIRD OF RED CROSS FUND IS RAISED

Well on its way to the $10,000 mark the Adams County 1945 American Red Cross War Fund began this morning its 15th day of an effort to raise $28,000 for the use of the Red Cross services during the coming year.

Led by a $45-donation from the Gettysburg Gas corporation, the fund reached a total of $9,217.02 by 11 o'clock this morning. Second on the list was a gift of $40 from the Barlow Fire company.

Contributions of $25 each were presented by the Gettysburg National bank and Barge A. Donmoyer, while Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Culp gave $20 to the fund. A $15 gift was donated by the Mothers' class and Nursery department of the St. James Lutheran church Sunday school.

List of Donors

One $6 contribution was recorded from G. E. Lings. $5 was given by the following: O. A. Logan and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carbaugh, Mrs. Belle Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Beard Sharretts, Margaret Tressler, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Menchey, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fair, Miss Anna Reck, Mr. and Mrs. John Anzengruber, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Stultz, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stahle, Miss Emma Benner, Miss L. Blanche Benner, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adelsberger, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Sachs, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Bucher, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Scott, Miss Pague Hargleroad, Miss Catherine Ross, Pfc. and Mrs. Clair Fissel and Mr. and Mrs. Sando Kitzmiller, I. C. Bucher, Mr. and Mrs. Guyon Buehler, the Adams County Fish and Game association, Mrs. R. Peale Herriek, Mrs. John Sponseller, Mrs. C. H. Huber, Miss Mary Himes, Mrs. Lila Craig, and Miss Allene Irvin.

Included in the organization gifts received today was one of $3 from the Annie Danner club and another of $2 from the St. Paul's A.M.E. Zion church.

SPENDS LEAVE

Cpl. C. Richard Hartman, who has been stationed in Florida, is spending a short furlough with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bittinger, Cashtown. Corporal Hartman's mother, Mrs. Helen B. Hartman, of Harrisburg, also is visiting at the Bittinger home.

MINUTEMEN OF COUNTY MARK ANNIVERSARY

With a special dinner and program, Adams county's company of Minutemen observed the second anniversary of the unit's organization Thursday evening at the state armory.

A short drill was held at 7 o'clock after which the Minutemen and their guests were served dinner in the armory basement. Following the dinner the company assembled on the drill floor where Capt. C. Arthur Brame, company commander, presented special marksmanship awards earned by 26 of the men in a target shooting contest which had been conducted for the last two months.

The highest award, that of Expert Rifleman, went to three men. They were George Bushman, Robert Gitt and Chester Shriver, Jr. There were ten recipients of the Sharpshooter badge, the second highest award: Joseph Arter, George Coshun, Amidee Ecker, Crosby Hartzell, Jack Hetrick, Milton Hoffman, Charles Hykes, Bernard Miller, Harold Smallwood and Cleason Stoner.

Commended by Judge

A total of 16 of the company received the third award, the Marksman's badge. They included Paul Cluck, Charles Cuthall, George DeHoff, Francis Garlach, R. Dale Guise, Robert Kline, George Martin, Raymond Menges, Daniel Miller, Kenneth Myers, George Naugle, H. B. Millar, William Schultz, Fred Swisher, Richard Swisher and Curtis Stoner.

Judge W. C. Sheely was the principal speaker of the evening and he briefly compared the present national, state and local situation with that two years ago when the Minutemen were organized.

Youths Hurt In Unusual Accident

Two Hunterstown youths were injured in an unusual accident Thursday evening when they were knocked off a bridge railing by shafts of a hay rake protruding from the sides of a passing truck. The mishap occurred at the edge of Hunterstown about 9:30 o'clock.

Gene King, aged 16 years, spent the night at the Warner hospital where his injuries were found to include a broken nose and lacerations of the mouth. Harold Watson, 19, escaped with a bump on the head. The boys were knocked to the roadway and rendered unconscious by the blows on the head.

Investigation by Private George Ackerson of the state police here disclosed that the truck involved was operated by Charles Millhimes, New Oxford R. 2, and owned by his brother, George, same address. Charles is being charged before Justice of the Peace William D. Brown, Hunterstown, with hauling a load protruding too far over the side of the truck.

Capt. Joe Reaser Now On Leave Here

Capt. Joseph Reaser, thrice wounded on the western front, arrived Thursday evening in Gettysburg on leave.

Capt. Reaser, who earned the now famous title of "Indian Joe" when he burned out several German soldiers sheltered in a house, has received the Purple Heart, Distinguished Service Cross, Silver Star and the Bronze Star.

Yanks Cut Superhighway As 3rd And 7th Rip Saar; Violent New Red Attack

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

(Associated Press War Editor)

COLLEGE CHOIR AT ST. JAMES SUNDAY, MAR. 25

The Gettysburg college choir, under the direction of Prof. Parker B. Wagmild, will present its annual spring concert and final appearance of the current year's tour at the St. James Lutheran church Sunday evening, March 25, at 8:30 o'clock.

This year marked the first tour the choir has taken since the United States entered the war. The choir presented two previous concerts this season at the Zion Lutheran church in York and the Grace Lutheran church in Red Lion. Sunday evening the group will sing in the Zion Lutheran church at Harrisburg.

This is the tenth year the choral group has been organized. It is composed of 46 members including three students from Gettysburg. They are Dorothy Keeney, Charles Weigle and Phyllis Schwartz.

The program will be presented in three groups. Included in the first part are "Come Holy Light," by Black; "We Have No Other Guide," by Shvedoff; "Rock and Refuge," a Swedish folk melody; and "Hosannah," by Christiansen.

Selections in the second part are "Salvation Is Created," by Tschernokoff; "Born Anew," by Christiansen; "Song of the Sea," by Ole Bull, with a solo by Miss Dorothy L. Moss; and "Built On The Rock," by Lindeman.

Included in the final group are "Lo, How A Rose E'er Blooming," a Rhenish folk song; "A Lullaby for Christmas," by Lockwood; "So Soberly," a Norwegian folk melody; and "Wake, Awake for Night is Flying," by Nicolai.

The public has been invited to the concert. Dr. W. C. Waltemyer is faculty manager of the choir and Kenneth W. Zimmerman is the student manager.

Emmitsburg Flyer Receives Air Medal

Lt. George W. Baker, one of four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker, 290 Frailey road, Emmitsburg, who are in the service, was recently awarded the Air Medal in recognition of his courageous service with his combat organization.

Lieutenant Baker, who had been reported as missing at the time of the attack on Pearl Harbor, was cited by Lt. Gen. George C. Kenny for meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flights in the southwest Pacific area from July 15 to October 21, 1944.

At present Lieutenant Baker is serving with General MacArthur in the Philippines.

80 DEGREES

A temperature of 80 degrees was recorded on thermometers of Dr. Henry Stewart at 1 p. m. today.

American troops in the Rhine bridgehead cut the great Ruhr-Frankfurt superhighway with machinegun fire today from positions 200 yards away, while to the south the smashing offensives of the U. S. Seventh and Third Armies threatened to rip away the Saarland and the Palatinate, last German holdings of importance west of the Rhine.

Russian troops opened a violent new attack on last Nazi positions east of the Oder in the Stettin area after a withering artillery barrage which was followed by a lunge of massed tanks and infantry, the Germans said. In East Prussia a Russian breakthrough to the Frisches Haff, Baltic lagoon, split the remnants of 200,000 Germans defending the Koenigsberg zone, another major attack was reported opening southwest of Breslau in Silesia.

U. S. heavy bombers smashed several headquarters buildings and rows of barracks in yesterday's heavy attack on Hitler's army staff headquarters at Zossen, 20 miles south of Berlin, it was announced officially. Great fires were spread.

Aerial reconnaissance indicate the Germans had begun a flight from the Reich Palatinate and the industrial Saar toward Frankfurt, as the Third and Seventh clamped a steel vice on the valley. Six divisions have been hurled into the Seventh army offensive, which fought to within a half mile of Saarbrücken and outflanked Bitche, burning Maginot line fortress town. The Third, meanwhile, swung down behind Saar river fortifications from the middle Moselle, and French forces with the Seventh attacked the last German picket in north-east Alsace before Karlsruhe.

"Great Allied Power"
Americans across the Rhine now are 6 1/2 miles from the river at their deepest penetration of inner Germany.

In the Remagen bridgehead the Germans reported "the biggest single concentration of power on a narrow front ever seen in this war." The Nazis said four more divisions were hurled into the rising battle there. Previously they had reported more than 100,000 Americans in the bridgehead, including forces of the new U. S. 15th Army.

"Even during the invasion of Normandy there was nothing to compare with it, a Nazi commentator said. "The situation is like a boiler under maximum pressure and ready to explode from pent-up energy." Northward-driving U. S. forces had broken into Koenigswinter, north of Bonn, by official report. Yesterday four more towns were captured. The bridgehead has lengthened to 13 miles.

7th Army Rolls On
Allied forces on the northern Rhine prepared for a possible invasion of the north German plain. Headquarters disclosed the U. S. Ninth Army had sent patrols across the river at Duisburg from time to time.

The Third Army crossed the Moselle in two more places, one only six miles from sealed off Coblenz, while armor broke out of the original bridgehead southwest of Coblenz and dashed 12 miles to the

BULLETINS

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force, Paris, March 16 (AP)—The first Allied military government east of the Rhine has been established in the Remagen bridgehead.

Manila, March 16 (AP)—American infantrymen smashed a wedge two miles deep into the crumbling Shimbun line on Luzon Island today, perhaps trapping several thousand Japanese, and seized 15 more villages in the southern Philippines to spread their Mindanao beachhead over 28 miles.

A Japanese machine gun burst killed Maj. Gen. Edwin D. (Please Turn to Page 2)

County Company Of Pennsylvania Minutemen Mark Second Anniversary

Shown above are most of the members of the present company I-A of Pennsylvania Minutemen. The company picture was taken last fall at the armory along West Confederate avenue which the Minutemen use as their headquarters. They are: Front row (left to right):

Donald Myers, Sgt. George Naugle, Sgt. Harry McDannell, Sgt. Henry Small, James Hykes, Charles Baker, Aaron Rohrbach, Harold Smallwood, Sgt. Clarence Deardorff, Sgt. George Bushman, 1st Sgt. Amidee Ecker, 1st Lt. W. A. Raffensperger, Capt. C. Arthur Brame, 2nd Lt.

George DeHoff, 2nd Lt. F. T. Watson, Corp. Crosby Hartzell, Sgt. George Coshun, Sgt. Ray Reindollar, Charles Lightner, Kermit Deardorff, Paul Cluck, I. Luckenbill, Earl Alwine, Chester Chronister, Blaine Bushey, Raymond Dayhoff and John Baschore.

Second row: Cpt. Edgar Moser, Sgt. B. V. Miller, Milton Hoffman, Francis Garlach, Charles Hykes, Earl Keefe, Kenneth Olinger, Sgt. Curtis Stoner, Sgt. Ray Reindollar, Charles Lightner, Kermit Deardorff, Paul Cluck, I. Luckenbill, Earl Alwine, Chester Chronister, Blaine Bushey, Raymond Dayhoff and John Baschore.

Third row: Sgt. Louis Chamberlain, Sgt. George Martin, Richard Cole, R. Dale Guise, William Schultz, Robert Newman, Fred Swisher, Sgt. Glenn Sherman, Gerald Daley, Sgt. Daniel Miller, Dean Stover, Luther Sillick, Sgt. Amos Kuhn, Clair Lookenbill and Richard Swisher.

Other members of the company include: Raymond E. Menges and John N. and Edward F. Luckenbaugh, who were not present when the picture was taken, and the following who have joined since that time: Robert L. Kline, Robert E.

Gitt, George W. Gulden, Ralph Butt, Francis McClellan, William Anthony, Jr., Joseph Arter, Charles Smith, William Bancroft, James Sillick, Harold Kane, Charles J. Cuthall, Jack F. Hetrick, Ralph Bream, Donald E. Folkenroth, Ira S. Klinefelter and Cleason W.

Stoner. The company has sworn in 132 county men, nearly 60 of whom are now serving in the armed forces.

Weather Forecast

Fair tonight and Saturday.

CHURCHILL HAS FIRED FIRST IN POLITICAL WAR

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)

British Prime Minister Churchill yesterday unexpectedly fired the first gun in the great political engagement which will tell how far England (like many other countries) has swung to the "left" during the war years while there has been no general election to register public leanings—a momentous development in a Europe which is on the verge of epochal changes!

Churchill flung his battle-banner during a conference of the now dominant conservative party which he heads. He served notice that, contrary to widespread expectations, he not only has no intention of abandoning the premiership at the end of the war, but plans to carry right on into the peace.

With that he proclaimed his platform. Lashing out at "our Socialist friends," he declared their program "for nationalizing all the means of production, distribution and exchange, would imply 'not only destruction of the whole existing system of society and life and labor, but the creation and enforcement of another system or systems borrowed from foreign lands, and alien minds.' As opposed to this he named his own doctrine:

Sensational Attack

"At the head of our mainmast we fly the flag of free enterprise."

It was a bold and sensational attack, delivered with all the generalship learned in a generation of political struggle. It left nothing to imagination.

It was a declaration for progress — but against Communistic methods.

It's highly interesting that Churchill's speech also forecast that the European war might be over "before the summer ends or even sooner." The launching of his political offensive indicates that he indeed believes the Hitlerian conflict is drawing to a close—as who doesn't?

Well now, what are we likely to see in the general election which Churchill has promised as soon as possible after the European war ends?

It's ten years since Britain went to the polls and, as already remarked, in that time she has swung "left." However, she shouldn't make the mistake of thinking that traditionally conservative England has swung heavily to the "red." She has gone "left" in the sense that she recognizes the time has come when there must be sweeping social and economic reforms for the general good.

Peep Explodes

(Continued from Page 1)

George G. Meade Md., then to Newport News, Va., and then to North Africa. He said he doesn't remember his first engagement but does remember going to Sicily and then to Italy where he served on the Anzio beachhead. He reached Rome and then was returned to a rest camp prior to the invasion of southern France.

His memory is vague on the invasion, but he does remember October 18, the last time he was able to see.

When the mine exploded "almost in my face," Sergeant Shultz said he felt no pain whatever, although he admitted he could not see. He said he was not stunned or even knocked down by the blast. He and four other soldiers were removed to a first aid station in a jeep and later was transferred to the 59th Evacuation Hospital. The next morning he was removed to the 36th General Hospital where surgeons removed his left eye. Again he said he felt no pain.

Sails for States
One month later he was in the 70th Hospital station and on December 12 he boarded ship and sailed for the States arriving in Boston on December 24. He spent four days in the Camp Edwards hospital and then was transferred to Valley Forge. There his bandages were removed from his eyes and he learned for the first time that he was blind. He does not remember when his right eye was removed.

The young soldier, who is 5 feet, 7 inches tall and weighs 172 pounds, says he hasn't decided what he is going to do in the future. He has his choice of trades for which the government will train him and he said he will decide in the early future. He has learned to read Braille and readily tells time with his Braille watch, a gift from the government. He prefers to shave himself and travels from the hospital to his home alone. "I can go anywhere, anytime," he boasted. He proudly displayed a black braided leather belt he made at the hospital and praises the care and attention he has received since he was wounded.

Has Some Plans
Sergeant Shultz returns to Valley Forge next Tuesday where he expects to remain another four months before he receives his discharge.

When he leaves the service Shultz said that he wants to live near Philadelphia with his wife and he plans to take two of his young brothers to live with him.

Schultz is the first Adams county man to lose the sight of both eyes in the current world war.

Social Happenings

Phone Gettysburg 640 or Biglerville 8

The U. S. Forest Service ladies met at the home of Mrs. Walter Astel Wednesday evening. Mrs. Albert C. Spaulding and Mrs. Victor O. Goodwin assisted the hostess. Yarn was distributed for the afghan which is being knitted for the Red Cross. The next meeting will be held March 28 at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Barry.

Over-the-Topscups will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Clutz, West Broadway, with Mrs. W. E. Tilberg in charge of the program.

Members of the Women's Service Guild of Christ Lutheran church will serve as hostesses at the Youth Center this evening and Saturday evening.

Mrs. P. W. Edwards has returned to her home on the Harrisburg road after spending a week in Baltimore at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank J. Wixon. While in Baltimore Mrs. Edwards underwent an examination by a bone specialist.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Kramer will entertain the members of the Saturday Night Reading club Saturday evening at their home on West Broadway.

Donald K. Weiser has returned to Oak Park, Illinois, after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weiser, E. Lincoln Ave.

Mrs. J. Paul Martin, Camp Hill, who has been spending several months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lloyd Palmer, East Water street, has gone to Ft. Benning, Ga., to spend several weeks with her husband, O. C. Martin.

The Dorcas class of Christ Lutheran church will hold its March meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. C. Spicer, Seminary avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Berkheimer, West Stevens street, will attend capping exercises at the Union Memorial hospital, Baltimore, this evening. Their daughter, Miss Doris Jean Berkheimer, will receive her cap with the class.

The Iris club met Thursday evening with Mrs. A. Z. Rogers, York street. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. N. L. Minter, East Middle street.

The Needlepoint club met Thursday evening with Mrs. John Rhoads, Springs avenue. Mrs. James Martin, Broadway, will be hostess at the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gaines, Baltimore street, will attend the capping exercises this evening at the Union Memorial hospital, Baltimore, where their daughter, Miss Rose Zita Gaines, is a member of the class.

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge club met this week with Mrs. Loretta Deatrick at the Chi Omega sorority house, college campus. Additional guests were Mrs. Lola Poole and Mrs. Pearl Sadler. The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. E. Berkheimer, West Stevens street.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter H. Danforth, West Broadway, and Mrs. Norman Storrick, West Lincoln avenue, spent Thursday in Lancaster.

The Hospital Benefit club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Bruce N. Wolff at a dessert-bridge at Hotel Gettysburg.

Arendtsville Wins Post-Season Tilt

Coach "Bill" Whiteley's Arendtsville high school girls' basketball team won the Honor squad quarter of Shippensburg State Teachers' college in a post-season game at Shippensburg Thursday evening 45-34.

Three Adams county girls are members of the Shippensburg squad. They are Miss Louise Singler, Arendtsville; Miss Althea Rider, Littlestown, and Miss Ellen H. Morgan, Cashtown.

Sunday Musical In SCA Building

The regular Sunday evening musical will be held at the SCA building on the Gettysburg college campus Sunday evening at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Murray B. Frazer, Jr., soprano; Mrs. John Sanderson, accompanist, and Dr. Francis C. Mason, reader, will present the program.

The public is invited to attend

HOSPITAL REPORT

Mrs. Monroe Wertz, Littlestown R. 2; Gene H. King, Gettysburg R. 4; Mrs. Norman Dittrow, Fairfield; Mrs. John Eckard, Taneytown, and Charles Curley, Gettysburg R. 3, have been admitted as patients to the Warner hospital. Those discharged were Mrs. Emmert Shultz, Orrtanna R. 2; Mrs. Clarence Forsythe and infant son, Clarence Wilfred, Gettysburg R. 2; Fern A. Bachman, Taneytown; Mrs. Charles A. Wert and infant son, Terry Edward, Orrtanna R. 1; Charles Sterner, 70 Stevens street; Mrs. David Warner, Taneytown, and Paul Hoffman, Chambersburg street.

WRIGHT GIVES ANNUAL REPORT

More than 1,000 pumps and scales in Adams county were inspected during 1944 by Edward W. Wright, county sealer of weights and measures, and about five per cent of them were condemned as inaccurate, the annual report of the county official discloses. Most of the condemned scales and pumps were corrected and later returned to use. Mr. Wright checked 588 scales and condemned 24 of which 20 had been corrected and returned to service by the end of the year. Two hundred sixty-two gasoline pumps were tested and 30 found to be inaccurate. They were condemned but by the end of the year 24 of them had been returned to use.

The sealer also examined 200 oil pumps, condemning four and allowing three of them to return to use after adjustments had been made.

Thirty liquid and dry measure units were checked and eight cases of inaccurate avoirdupois weights—chiefly in coal deliveries—were settled without prosecution. There were 39 active weighmasters operating in the county last year for whom Mr. Wright signed their applications for licenses.

Accepts Pastorate Of Hellam Charge

The Rev. Richard E. Shaffer, pastor of the East Berlin Evangelical and Reformed church, has announced that he will resign his present pastorate to accept a call to the Kreutz Creek Evangelical and Reformed church, Hellam, York county.

The Rev. and Mrs. Shaffer and son, Robert Kern, plan to move to Hellam shortly after Easter. The clergyman went to East Berlin in the summer of 1937, shortly after his ordination, to succeed the Rev. Harry D. Houtz, now of Selmsgrove. The Rev. Mr. Shaffer was married to Miss Anna Mae Nace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Nace, Jefferson, some months after his acceptance of the East Berlin pastorate. The social annex to Zwingle Reformed church was built during his term in his present charge.

Included in the East Berlin charge are Zwingle church, East Berlin; St. Paul's church, Red Run; Mt. Olivet church, Bermudian; St. John's church, New Chester, and Emmanuel church, Hampton.

East Berlin Youth Wounded In Germany

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Kime, East Berlin, received word this week from their only son, David S. Kime, Jr., serving overseas with the infantry, stating that he has been under treatment for a foot wound sustained recently while fighting in Germany. He assured them that his condition is not believed serious although he has been awarded the Purple Heart in recognition of this service.

The young man, a former student at the East Berlin high school and Valley Forge Military academy, has been in the army for two years. He arrived overseas during the past month.

Films On Libraries Available To Groups

Announcement was made today that several films on free county library service are available for showing by organizations and may be procured by contacting Richard Brown, Esq., chairman of the membership drive in Adams county. One film is in technicolor. All are 16 millimeter films.

Several films showing the operation of free county libraries in a number of states will be shown at the Gettysburg college library this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited.

Rites Sunday For Harry C. Pitzer

Funeral services for Harry C. Pitzer, 72, Aspers R. D., who died at his home Thursday afternoon from a complication of diseases, will be held from the Bendersville Lutheran church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. Dr. H. D. Hoover. Interment in the Bendersville cemetery.

Friends may call at the late home Saturday evening. The body will lie in state at the church Sunday afternoon from 1 o'clock until the time of the services.

Survivors in addition to those previously reported are two grandchildren and seven step-grandchildren.

FILES PETITION

Herbert Welkert, present tax collector in Gettysburg, has filed his petition for entry in the primary election June 19 for that position. It was disclosed at the office of the county election board this morning.

NOW IN FRANCE

Pvt. Robert M. Miller has arrived safely in France according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Miller, York street.

COUNCIL BOARD HEARS REPORTS ON YEAR'S WORK

A meeting of the executive board of the Gettysburg Council of Church Women was held Thursday evening at the St. James Lutheran church with the president, Mrs. Ralph R. Gresh, presiding. Mrs. Gresh also led in the opening and closing devotions.

Mrs. W. C. Waltemyer, chairman of the evangelism committee reported on the work of her group and Mrs. Dunning Idle, Sr., made a report as chairman of the missionary education committee. She told of the two programs sponsored by her committee, a mission study program held last fall and the World Day of Prayer service held at the opening of Lent. A report on a Dumbarton Oaks discussion program held last fall was given by Mrs. Donald Myers, chairman of the Christian social and action committee.

Mrs. C. T. Ziegler reported as chairman of the publicity committee. Boxes for Russian Relief

Another report on the number of boxes of civilian necessities that have been packed by the various churches of Gettysburg for the Russian War Relief program was given. It showed that the following numbers had been packed: Presbyterian church, 24; Reformed, 22; St. James Lutheran, 10; Church of the Brethren, six; Christ Lutheran, four, and A. M. E. Zion, one.

The evangelism committee was placed in charge of the annual spring dinner meeting to be held in May at one of the churches. New officers will be elected and a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. F. K. Swartz, Mrs. Harold J. Pegg and Mrs. W. Preston Hull, was named. Mrs. Earl J. Bowman was named a member of the evangelism committee to replace Mrs. Ralph Baker who has moved from town.

Mrs. Gresh announced that the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Church Women which was scheduled to be held in Harrisburg May 1, has been cancelled. She also announced that a meeting of the legislative body of the Women's Council will be held, however, April 24 in Harrisburg. One delegate from each of the local councils may attend and Mrs. Gresh was elected as the Gettysburg representative. Mrs. Idle was named alternate.

Windsor Resigns Bahamas Position

Nassau, Bahamas, March 16 (AP)—This tiny colony will bid farewell next month to the Duke of Windsor, the royal governor who steered the Bahamas island safely through a wartime economic storm, and to his American-born Duchess.

An announcement that the former King of England had resigned the governorship which he has held since August 17, 1940, and would be succeeded by W. L. Murphy, Bermuda colonial secretary, came yesterday as a surprise even to members of the official household.

The Duke himself said the resignation should not have been unexpected, pointing out that by the end of April he will have served all but about three, and a half months of a term of five years, usually the maximum tenure for colonial governors.

ATTACKED BY DOG

G. Elmer Nickey, East Berlin, is recovering from severe lacerations of both hands and a painfully lacerated chest, sustained early this week when he was attacked by a Newfoundland dog. The attack occurred while he was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes L. Anthony, neighbors, who were caring for the animal while his owner was absent on a trip. Mrs. Anthony had difficulty in dragging the dog from Nickey. Dr. Eugene Elgin, East Berlin, administered first aid.

TAKEN TO PRISON

John Wesley Peck colored Gettysburg R. 1, who was sentenced Monday to one and a half to three years in the Eastern penitentiary on a serious charge was removed to the prison today by Deputy Sheriff E. Blaine Bixler and a member of the local substation of the state police.

IN ARMY HOSPITAL

Pvt. Sterling Baur, New Oxford, who became ill in France in January and was a patient in a hospital in England, is now at the Camp Pickett General hospital, Blackstone, Va. Baur arrived at the Camp Shanks Embarkation hospital on March 5, and was sent from there to Pickett.

LEGION MEETING

The Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion will hold a regular meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the post home on Baltimore street. Adjutant Edgar A. Moser announced today. A door prize will be awarded and refreshments will be served.

POSTPONE MEETING

The meeting of the Adams County Welfare committee, scheduled for next Monday evening, has been postponed until April. It was announced today. Conflicting schedules was given as the reason.

Coast Guard invaders landed troops in small boats in the Mexican War.

Upper Communities

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Lott, Gardners R. D., have returned after a week's visit in Troy, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Bigham, Biglerville, were visitors in Red Lion Thursday with Mr. Bigham's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Trout.

Miss Ellanora Linton, of Washington, D. C., will arrive Saturday to spend the week-end with Miss Nancy Dill, Biglerville.

A service of dedication of new church hymnals will be held at Trinity-Benders Reformed church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, will lead the congregation in the hymn ritual of dedication in which the congregation will also have part and offer the prayer of dedication at its close. The boys in this year's confirmation class will distribute the hymnals to the congregation. One hundred and thirty new hymnals have been purchased for the use of the congregation.

Mrs. Richard C. Walton returned today to her home in Biglerville after a visit of a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Meyer, Washington, D. C.

The Christian Endeavor society of Trinity-Benders Reformed church, Biglerville, will meet Sunday evening at 6:30 at the church. The leader for the meeting, Larry Lawler, will have as his topic, "Working With Other Christians." Special music will be presented by Miss Barbara Geiselman.

Jimmy Sillik, of Biglerville, left Thursday with his uncle, Guy J. Fohl for a short visit in Florida.

The High School Christian Endeavor society will meet in Biglerville Sunday evening at 6:30. Miss Barbara Kleinfelter, leader for the evening, will have as her topic, "How to Tell Right from Wrong."

The Cricketer Sunday school class of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville, held a covered dish luncheon and social Thursday evening at the home of the teacher, Mrs. S. A. Ehlman. Miss Mary Auvil and Miss Louise Hemphill were in charge of the entertainment. The program was in charge of Miss Janet Garretson and Mrs. Ellis McCracken. St. Patrick's Day decorations were used.

Mrs. Wilmer Bream, Biglerville, was a visitor in Harrisburg, Wednesday.

The American Legion Auxiliary of the Ira E. Lady Post 262 met Thursday evening with Mrs. John Wilson, the president, in charge. The members voted to donate $10 to the Red Cross. Various phases of child welfare were discussed. The next meeting will be held April 19.

Mrs. Charles Reed, Biglerville, spent the day in Harrisburg.

Cpl. C. Richard Hartman, Tyndal Field, Fla., is spending a 14-day furlough at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bittlinger, Cashtown. At the conclusion of his furlough he will report to Westover Field, Mass. Cpl. Hartman's mother, Mrs. Helen Hartman, Harrisburg, is also visiting her parents in Cashtown.

BULLETINS

(Continued from Page 1)
Patrick, commander of the Sixth Division, while sitting in a fox-hole on the northern end of the Shimbu line.

San Francisco, March 16 (AP)—Many thousands of Japanese were burned to death, severely injured or left homeless by recent B-29 incendiary raids, Japan's chief propaganda spokesman said today as the government hastened the evacuation of millions of civilians from Nippon's five largest cities.

Washington, March 16 (AP)—President Roosevelt declared today that the American people have got to tighten their belts before the war is won.

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Bituminous coal operators banded John L. Lewis their counterproposal for a new contract today. They were estimated to net the average miner an increase of $1.69 a week or about 28 cents a day. The mine workers' president gave no indication of his reaction to the counter proposals.

Grand Master Of Odd Fellows Dies

Chambersburg, March 16 (AP)—George B. Horn, grand master of the Pennsylvania Grand Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows, died last night at a hospital after an illness of several weeks. He was 57.

Horn, who was installed as head of the Pennsylvania Grand Lodge at Pittsburgh last June, had been identified with the order for many years. He previously was grand marshal and grand guardian of the Pennsylvania order.

Arendtsville

The Clover Leaf club was entertained by Mrs. A. R. Heckenluber Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Reeder will move from their home to an apartment in the house of Mrs. Sally Guise, Saturday. The Reeders have sold their house to Mr. and Mrs. William N. Raftensperger, who will move there within a few days.

Mrs. Harry Fohl has returned to her home in Biglerville after spending several months with Mrs. Bertha Saucke. Mrs. Saucke is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bushey, near town.

Mrs. H. S. Raftensperger is visiting relatives in York today.

Miss Sarah Ann Barr is spending the week-end at her home in Honeybrook.

A. E. Orner was a recent business visitor in Baltimore.

Miss Sara M. Grove is in Harrisburg for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harper, who have been ill for some time, are reported to be improving.

The fifth in the series of community Lenten services will be held in the Zion Reformed church, Sunday evening.

MINUTEMEN OF

(Continued from Page 1)

utemen were organized. The Judge commended the local company on the fact that while approximately 60 of the original members of the group now are serving in the armed forces, the present membership includes over 50 per cent of the first enrollees. He also commended them on holding together "such a fine organization now that the first stress and strain has passed."

Col. Frank E. Sharpless, commander of the ROTC unit at Gettysburg college, was another guest and also spoke briefly.

Other Guest Speakers
"You should be commended for your work and should be proud," Col. Sharpless told the Minutemen. "Captain Brame has done an excellent job. He is intensely interested in this work and is a real leader."

The colonel told the men that their training "will come in good stead in the future no matter what you do." "From what I have observed," he said, "the unit as a whole is equally efficient and I congratulate you."

Other speakers were Capt. Frank A. Conway and Capt. J. E. McQueen, both members of the ROTC staff at Gettysburg college. Among the other guests were Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer, County Commissioner; George P. Taylor, J. Arthur Boyd and Quintin D. Rebert, ex-commissioner Edgar C. McDannel; Clarence C. Smith, chief clerk of the commissioners, and Master Sgt. Raymond F. Strohm and Tech. Sgt. R. F. Schuh, also members of the ROTC staff.

Given Company Pictures
Louis Chamberlain, a former member of the Minutemen company and now serving with the Merchant Marine, also attended the exercises.

As a special feature of the program, a volunteer drill squad, under the direction of St. George Bushman, performed a rapid drill. Also included in the program was a short resume of the history of the company presented by Captain Bream.

Judge Shiley and the commissioners were presented with framed photographs of the company, similar to the picture appearing today in The Gettysburg Times.

The company will assemble again March 29 for drill and the beginning of a schedule of new outdoor activities.

Problem Of

(Continued from Page 1)
possible," will be recognized by the Big Three.

Under the election agreement, all democratic, anti-Nazi parties will have a right to offer candidates in a secret ballot.

Probably half a dozen or more treaties will be submitted to the Senate calling for agreement to the Polish boundary settlement—and for proper constitutional props—for other structures erected at Yalta, and some to be erected at San Francisco.

By employing this strategy, the administration avoids putting all its eggs in one basket. Its whole international security program need not fail because some part is unsatisfactory to 33 Senators.

Some of the decisions at Yalta were not announced. One may have dealt with the use of force to back up a world security agency.

By no means all the subjects discussed were translated into definite agreements.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Wertz, Littlestown R. 2, announce the birth of a daughter at the Warner hospital, Thursday evening.

A daughter was also born at the hospital Thursday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. John Eckard, Taneytown. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dittrow, Fairfield, announce the birth of a son Thursday evening at the hospital.

GIFT Jewels

TREASURED FOR ITS LASTING BEAUTY AND SENTIMENT
Suitable for Every Occasion

BLOCHER'S

Jewelers since 1867
227 CHAMBERSBURG ST.

POULTRY FEEDERS and FOUNTS

Complete From Day Old To Growing Chicks

GEORGE M. ZERFING
"Hardware on the Square"

Auto Repairing

TRouble's END
Away with all your worries—soon as our Tow-Car starts your way! Phone us immediately car-trouble besets you. A call to us, means trouble ends—for you. We'll have you Towed to the shop without a moment's loss. And back on the road again, car Dependably Repaired, with expense saved!

H. & H. MACHINE SHOP
So. Wash. St., Gettysburg, Pa.

Stork News

FOLDING BABY CARRIAGES

- All Steel
- Leatherette
- Rubber Tires
- Steel Wheels

NURSERY CHAIRS HIGH CHAIRS
BATHINETTES CRIBS
BASKINETTES

HOME FURNISHING CO.

FURNITURE ON THE SQUARE

Fur Coat Storage

CONVENIENT
DEPENDABLE
SAFE

Full Insurance Coverage
All Losses

BREHM

The Tailor
TELEPHONE 171-Y

FOR SEE

All Lines of INSURANCE

JOHN H. BASEHORE
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

Murphy Building
Gettysburg, Pa.

Garden Tools, Wheel Barrows

For Cleaning Up and Preparing for Spring
Bamboo Lawn Rakes $1.00

GETTYSBURGHARDWARESTORE

J. C. SHANK Phone 16-X GETTYSBURG

CHURCHILL HAS FIRED FIRST IN POLITICAL WAR

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)

British Prime Minister Churchill yesterday unexpectedly fired the first gun in the great political engagement which will tell how far England (like many other countries) has swung to the "left" during the war years while there has been no general election to register public leanings—a momentous development in a Europe which is on the verge of epochal changes!

Churchill flung his battle-banner during a conference of the now dominant conservative party which he heads. He served notice that, contrary to widespread expectations, he not only has no intention of abandoning the premiership at the end of the war, but plans to carry right on into the peace.

With that he proclaimed his platform, lashing out at "our Socialist friends," he declared their program "for nationalizing all the means of production, distribution and exchange, would imply 'not only destruction of the whole existing system of society and life and labor, but the creation and enforcement of another system or systems borrowed from foreign lands, and alien minds.' As opposed to this he named his own doctrine:

Sensational Attack
"At the head of our mainmast we fly the flag of free enterprise."

It was a bold and sensational attack, delivered with all the generalship learned in a generation of political struggle. It left nothing to imagination.

It was a declaration of progress—but against Communistic methods. It's highly interesting that Churchill's speech also forecast that the European war might be over "before the summer ends or even sooner." The launching of his political offensive indicates that he indeed believes the Hitlerian conflict is drawing to a close—as who doesn't.

Well now, what are we likely to see in the general election which Churchill has promised as soon as possible after the European war ends?

It's ten years since Britain went to the polls and, as already remarked, in that time she has swung "left." However, we shouldn't make the mistake of thinking that traditionally conservative England has swung heavily to the "red." She has gone "left" in the sense that she recognizes the time has come when there must be sweeping social and economic reforms for the general good.

Peep Explodes

(Continued from Page 1)

George G. Meade Md., then to Newport News, Va., and then to North Africa. He said he doesn't remember his first engagement but does remember going to Sicily and then to Italy where he served on the Anzio beachhead. He reached Rome and then was returned to a rest camp prior to the invasion of southern France.

His memory is vague on the invasion, but he does remember October 18, the last time he was able to see.

When the mine exploded "almost in my face," Sergeant Schultz said that he felt no pain whatever, although he admitted he could not see. He said he was not stunned or even knocked down by the blast. He and four other soldiers were removed to a first aid station in a peep and later was transferred to the 59th Evacuation hospital. The next morning he was removed to the 36th General hospital where surgeons removed his left eye. Again he said he felt no pain.

Sails for States
One month later he was in the 70th Hospital station and on December 12 he boarded ship and sailed for the States arriving in Boston on December 24. He spent four days in the Camp Edwards hospital and then was transferred to Valley Forge. There his bandages were removed from his eyes and he learned for the first time that he was blind. He does not remember when his right eye was removed.

The young soldier, who is 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighs 172 pounds, says he hasn't decided what he is going to do in the future. He has his choice of trades for which the government will train him and he said he will decide in the early future. He has learned to read Braille and readily tells time with his Braille watch, a gift from the government. He prefers to shave himself and travels from the hospital to his home alone. "I can go anywhere, anytime," he boasted. He proudly displayed a black braided leather belt he made at the hospital and praises the care and attention he has received since he was wounded.

Has Some Plans
Sergeant Schultz returns to Valley Forge next Tuesday where he expects to remain another four months before he receives his discharge.

When he leaves the service Schultz said that he wants to live near Philadelphia with his wife and he plans to take two of his young brothers to live with him.

Schultz is the first Adams countyman to lose the sight of both eyes in the current world war.

Social Happenings

Phone Gettysburg 640 or Biglerville 8

The U. S. Forest Service ladies met at the home of Mrs. Walter Astel Wednesday evening. Mrs. Albert C. Spaulding and Mrs. Victor O. Goodwin assisted the hostess. Yarn was distributed for the afghan which is being knitted for the Red Cross. The next meeting will be held March 28 at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Barry.

Over-the-Teacups will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Clutz, West Broadway, with Mrs. W. E. Tilberg in charge of the program.

Members of the Women's Service Guild of Christ Lutheran church will serve as hostesses at the Youth Center this evening and Saturday evening.

Mrs. P. W. Edwards has returned to her home on the Harrisburg road after spending a week in Baltimore at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank J. Wixon. While in Baltimore Mrs. Edwards underwent an examination by a bone specialist.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Kramer will entertain the members of the Saturday Night Reading club Saturday evening at their home on West Broadway.

Donald K. Weiser has returned to Oak Park, Illinois, after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weiser, E. Lincoln Ave.

Mrs. J. Paul Martin, Camp Hill, who has been spending several months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lloyd Palmer, East Water street, has gone to Ft. Benning, Ga., to spend several weeks with her husband, O. C. Martin.

The Dorcas class of Christ Lutheran church will hold its March meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. C. Spicer, Seminary avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Berkheimer, West Stevens street, will attend capping exercises at the Union Memorial hospital, Baltimore, this evening. Their daughter, Miss Doris Jean Berkheimer, will receive her cap with the class.

The Iris club met Thursday evening with Mrs. A. Z. Rogers, York street. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. N. L. Minter, East Middle street.

The Needlepoint club met Thursday evening with Mrs. John Rhoads, Springs avenue. Mrs. James Martin, Broadway, will be hostess at the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gaines, Baltimore street, will attend the capping exercises this evening at the Union Memorial hospital, Baltimore, where their daughter, Miss Rose Zita Gaines, is a member of the class.

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge club met this week with Mrs. Loretta Deatrick at the Chi Omega sorority house, college campus. Additional guests were Mrs. Lola Poole and Mrs. Pearl Sadler. The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. E. Berkheimer, West Stevens street.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter H. Danforth, West Broadway, and Mrs. Norman Storrick, West Lincoln avenue, spent Thursday in Lancaster.

The Hospital Benefit club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Bruce N. Wolff at a dessert-bridge at Hotel Gettysburg.

Arendtsville Wins Post-Season Tilt

Coach "Bill" Whiteley's Arendtsville high school girls' basketball team downed the Honor squad quarter of Shippensburg State Teachers' college in a post-season game at Shippensburg Thursday evening 45-34.

Three Adams county girls are members of the Shippensburg squad. They are Miss Louise Singler, Arendtsville; Miss Alethea Rider, Littlestown; and Miss Ellen H. Morgan, Cashtown.

Sunday Musical In SCA Building

The regular Sunday evening musical will be held at the SCA building on the Gettysburg college campus Sunday evening at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Murray B. Frazee, Jr., soprano; Mrs. John Sanderson, accompanist, and Dr. Francis C. Mason, reader, will present the program.

The public is invited to attend.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Mrs. Monroe Wertz, Littlestown R. 2; Gene H. King, Gettysburg R. 4; Mrs. Norman Duttrow, Fairfield; Mrs. John Eckard, Taneytown; and Charles Curley, Gettysburg R. 3, have been admitted as patients to the Warner hospital. Those discharged were Mrs. Emmert Shultz, Orrtanna R. 2; Mrs. Clarence Forsythe and infant son, Clarence Wilfred, Gettysburg R. 2; Fern A. Bachman, Taneytown; Mrs. Charles A. Wert and infant son, Terry Edward, Orrtanna R. 1; Charles Sterner, 70 Stevens street; Mrs. David Warner, Taneytown; and Paul Hoffman, Chambersburg street.

WRIGHT GIVES ANNUAL REPORT

More than 1,000 pumps and scales in Adams county were inspected during 1944 by Edward W. Wright, county sealer of weights and measures, and about five per cent of them were condemned as inaccurate, the annual report of the county official discloses. Most of the condemned scales and pumps were corrected and later returned to use.

Mr. Wright checked 588 scales and condemned 24 of which 20 had been corrected and returned to service by the end of the year. Two hundred sixty-two gasoline pumps were tested and 30 found to be inaccurate. They were condemned but by the end of the year 24 of them had been returned to use.

The sealer also examined 200 oil pumps, condemning four and allowing three of them to return to use after adjustments had been made.

After liquid and dry measure units were checked and eight cases of inaccurate avoirdupois weights—chiefly in coal deliveries—were chiefly in coal deliveries—were tested and found to be accurate. There were 39 active weighmasters operating in the county last year for whom Mr. Wright signed their applications for licenses.

Accepts Pastorate Of Hellam Charge

The Rev. Richard E. Shaffer, pastor of the East Berlin Evangelical and Reformed church, has announced that he will resign his present pastorate to accept a call to the Kreutz Creek Evangelical and Reformed church, Hellam, York county.

The Rev. and Mrs. Shaffer and son, Robert Kern, plan to move to Hellam shortly after Easter.

The clergyman went to East Berlin in the summer of 1937, shortly after his ordination, to succeed the Rev. Harry D. Houtz, now of Selinsgrove. The Rev. Mr. Shaffer was married to Miss Anna Mae Nace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Nace, Jefferson, some months after his acceptance of the East Berlin pastorate. The social annex to Zwingli Reformed church was built during his term in his present charge.

Included in the East Berlin charge are Zwingli church, East Berlin; St. Paul's church, Red Run; Mt. Olivet church, Bernadine; St. John's church, New Chester; and Emmanuel church, Hampton.

East Berlin Youth Wounded In Germany

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Kline, East Berlin, received word this week from their only son, David S. Kline, Jr., serving overseas with the infantry, stating that he has been under treatment for a foot wound sustained recently while fighting in Germany. He assured them that his condition is not believed serious although he has been awarded the Purple Heart in recognition of this service.

The young man, a former student at the East Berlin high school and Valley Forge Military academy, has been in the army for two years. He arrived overseas during the past month.

Films On Libraries Available To Groups

Announcement was made today that several films on free-county library service are available for showing by organizations and may be procured by contacting Richard Brown, Esq., chairman of the membership drive in Adams county. One film is in technicolor. All are 16 millimeter films.

Several films showing the operation of free county libraries in a number of states will be shown at the Gettysburg college library this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited.

Rites Sunday For Harry C. Pitzer

Funeral services for Harry C. Pitzer, 72, Aspers R. D., who died at his home Thursday afternoon from a complication of diseases, will be held from the Bendersville Lutheran church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. Dr. H. D. Hoover. Interment in the Bendersville cemetery.

Friends may call at the late home Saturday evening. The body will lie in state at the church Sunday afternoon from 1 o'clock until the time of the services.

Survivors in addition to those previously reported are two grandchildren and seven step-grandchildren.

FILES PETITION

Herbert Weikert, present tax collector in Gettysburg, has filed his petition for entry in the primary election June 19 for that position. It was disclosed at the office of the county election board this morning.

NOW IN FRANCE

Pvt. Robert M. Miller has arrived safely in France according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Miller, York street.

COUNCIL BOARD HEARS REPORTS ON YEAR'S WORK

A meeting of the executive board of the Gettysburg Council of Church Women was held Thursday evening at the St. James Lutheran church with the president, Mrs. Ralph R. Gresh, presiding. Mrs. Gresh also led in the opening and closing devotional.

Mrs. W. C. Waltemyer, chairman of the evangelism committee reported on the work of her group and Mrs. Dunning Idle, Sr., made a report as chairman of the missionary education committee. She told of the two programs sponsored by her committee, a mission study program held last fall and the World Day of Prayer service held at the opening of Lent. A report on a Dumbarton Oaks discussion program held last fall was given by Mrs. Donald Myers, chairman of the Christian social and action committee.

Mrs. C. T. Ziegler reported as chairman of the publicity committee.

Boxes for Russian Relief
Another report on the number of boxes of civilian necessities that have been packed by the various churches of Gettysburg for the Russian War Relief program was given. It showed that the following numbers had been packed: Presbyterian church, 24; Reformed, 22; St. James Lutheran, 10; Church of the Brethren, six; Christ Lutheran, four, and A. M. E. Zion, one.

The evangelism committee was placed in charge of the annual spring dinner meeting to be held in May at one of the churches. New officers will be elected and a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. P. K. Swartz, Mrs. Harold J. Pegg and Mrs. W. Preston Hull, was named. Mrs. Earl J. Bowman was named a member of the evangelism committee to replace Mrs. Ralph Baker who has moved from town.

Mrs. Gresh announced that the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Church Women which was scheduled to be held in Harrisburg May 1, has been cancelled. She also announced that a meeting of the legislative body of the Women's Council will be held, however, April 24 in Harrisburg. One delegate from each of the local councils may attend and Mrs. Gresh was elected as the Gettysburg representative. Mrs. Idle was named alternate.

Windsor Resigns Bahamas Position

Nassau, Bahamas, March 16 (AP)—This tiny colony will bid farewell next month to the Duke of Windsor, the royal governor who steered the Bahamas island safely through a wartime economic storm, and to his American-born Duchess.

An announcement that the former King of England had resigned the governorship which he has held since August 17, 1940, and would be succeeded by W. L. Murphy, Bermuda colonial secretary, came yesterday as a surprise even to members of the official household.

The Duke himself said the resignation should not have been unexpected, pointing out that by the end of April he will have served all but about three and a half months of a term of five years, usually the maximum tenure for colonial governors.

ATTACKED BY DOG

G. Elmer Nickey, East Berlin, is recovering from severe lacerations of both hands and a painfully lacerated chest, sustained early this week when he was attacked by a Newfoundland dog. The attack occurred while he was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes L. Anthony, neighbors, who were caring for the animal while his owner was absent on a trip. Mrs. Anthony had difficulty in dragging the dog from Nickey. Dr. Eugene Elgin, East Berlin, administered first aid.

TAKEN TO PRISON

John Wesley Peck colored Gettysburg R. 1, who was sentenced Monday to one and a half to three years in the Eastern penitentiary on a serious charge was removed to the prison today by Deputy Sheriff E. Blaine Bixler and a member of the local substation of the state police.

IN ARMY HOSPITAL

Pvt. Sterling Bair, New Oxford, who became ill in France in January and was a patient in a hospital in England, is now at the Camp Pickett General hospital, Blackstone, Va. Pvt. Bair arrived at the Camp Shanks Embarkation hospital on March 5, and was sent from there to Pickett.

LEGION MEETING

The Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion will hold a regular meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the post home on Baltimore street. Adjutant Edgar A. Moser announced today. A door prize will be awarded and refreshments will be served.

POSTPONE MEETING

The meeting of the Adams County Welfare committee, scheduled for next Monday evening, has been postponed until April. It was announced today. Conflicting schedules was given as the reason.

Coast Guard invaders landed troops in small boats in the Mexican War.

Upper Communities

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Lott, Gardners R. D., have returned after a week's visit in Troy, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Bigham, Biglerville, were visitors in Red Lion Thursday with Mr. Bigham's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Trout.

Miss Ellanora Linton, of Washington, D. C., will arrive Saturday to spend the week-end with Miss Nancy Dill, Biglerville.

A service of dedication of new church hymnals will be held at Trinity-Benders Reformed church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, will lead the congregation in the hymn ritual of dedication in which the congregation will also have part and offer the prayer of dedication at its close. The boys in this year's confirmation class will distribute the hymnals to the congregation. One hundred and thirty new hymnals have been purchased for the use of the congregation.

Mrs. Richard C. Walton returned today to her home in Biglerville after a visit of a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Meyer, Washington, D. C.

The Christian Endeavor society of Trinity-Benders Reformed church, Biglerville, will meet Sunday evening at 6:30 at the church. The leader for the meeting, Larry Lawver, will have as his topic, "Working With Other Christians." Special music will be presented by Miss Barbara Geiselman.

Jimmy Sillik, of Biglerville, left Thursday with his uncle, Guy J. Fohl for a short visit in Florida.

The High School Christian Endeavor society will meet in Biglerville Sunday evening at 6:30. Miss Barbara Kleinfeiler, leader for the evening, will have as her topic, "How to Tell Right from Wrong."

The Cricketer Sunday school class of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville, held a covered dish luncheon and social Thursday evening at the home of the teacher, Mrs. S. A. Ehlman. Miss Mary Anvil and Miss Louise Hemphill were in charge of the entertainment. The program was in charge of Miss Janet Garrettson and Mrs. Ellis McCracken. St. Patrick's Day decorations were used.

Mrs. Wilmer Bream, Biglerville, was a visitor in Harrisburg, Wednesday.

The American Legion Auxiliary of the Ira E. Lady Post 262 met Thursday evening with Mrs. John Wilson, the president, in charge. The members voted to donate $10 to the Red Cross. Various phases of child welfare were discussed. The next meeting will be held April 19.

Mrs. Charles Reed, Biglerville, spent the day in Harrisburg.

Cpl. C. Richard Hartman, Tyndal Field, Fla., is spending a 14-day furlough at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bittinger, Cashtown. At the conclusion of his furlough he will report to Westover Field, Mass. Cpl. Hartman's mother, Mrs. Helen Hartman, Harrisburg, is also visiting her parents in Cashtown.

BULLETINS

(Continued from Page 1)
Patrick, commander of the Sixth Division, while sitting in a fox-hole on the northern end of the Shimbun line.

San Francisco, March 16 (AP)—Many thousands of Japanese were burned to death, severely injured or left homeless by recent B-29 incendiary raids, Japan's chief propaganda spokesman said today as the government hastened the evacuation of millions of civilians from Nippon's five largest cities.

Washington, March 16 (AP)—President Roosevelt declared today that the American people have got to tighten their belts before the war is won.

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Bituminous coal operators handed John L. Lewis their counter-proposals for a new contract today. They were estimated to net the average miner an increase of $1.69 a week or about 28 cents a day. The mine workers' president gave no indication of his reaction to the counter-proposals.

Grand Master Of Odd Fellows Dies

Chambersburg, March 16 (AP)—George B. Horn, grand master of the Pennsylvania Grand Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows, died last night at a hospital after an illness of several weeks. He was 57.

Horn, who was installed as head of the Pennsylvania Grand Lodge at Pittsburgh last June, had been identified with the order for many years. He previously was grand marshal and grand guardian of the Pennsylvania order.

Arendtsville

The Clover Leaf club was entertained by Mrs. A. R. Heckenluber Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Reeder will move from their home to an apartment in the house of Mrs. Sally Guise, Saturday. The Reeders have sold their house to Mr. and Mrs. William N. Raffensperger, who will move there within a few days.

Mrs. Harry Fohl has returned to her home in Biglerville after spending several months with Mrs. Bertha Sauke. Mrs. Sauke is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bushey, near town.

Mrs. H. S. Raffensperger is visiting relatives in York today.

Miss Sarah Ann Barr is spending the week-end at her home in Honeybrook.

A. E. Orner was a recent business visitor in Baltimore.

Miss Sara M. Grove is in Harrisburg for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harper, who have been ill for some time, are reported to be improving.

The fifth in the series of community Lenten services will be held in the Zion Reformed church, Sunday evening.

MINUTEMEN OF

(Continued from Page 1)
utemen were organized. The judge commended the local company on the fact that while approximately 60 of the original members of the group now are serving in the armed forces, the present membership includes over 50 per cent of the first enrollees. He also commended them on holding together "such a fine organization now that the first stress and strain has passed."

Other guest speakers
"You should be commended for your work and should be proud," Col. Sharpless told the Minutemen. "Captain Brame has done an excellent job. He is intensely interested in this work and is a real leader."

The colonel told the men that their training "will come in good stead in the future no matter what you do." "From what I have observed," he said, "the unit as a whole is equally efficient and I congratulate you."

Other speakers were Capt. Frank A. Conway and Capt. J. E. McQueen, both members of the ROTC staff at Gettysburg college. Among the other guests were Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer, County Commissioners George P. Taylor, J. Arthur Boyd and Quintin D. Rebert; ex-commissioner Edgar C. McDannel; Clarence C. Smith, chief clerk of the commissioners, and Master Sgt. Raymond F. Strohm and Tech. Sgt. R. F. Schuh, also members of the ROTC staff.

Given Company Pictures
Louis Chamberlain, a former member of the Minutemen company and now serving with the Merchant Marine, also attended the exercises. As a special feature of the program, a volunteer drill squad, under the direction of St. George Bushman, performed a rapid drill. Also included in the program was a short resume of the history of the company presented by Captain Bream.

Judge Sheely and the commissioners were presented with framed photographs of the company, similar to the picture appearing today in The Gettysburg Times.

The company will assemble again March 29 for drill and the beginning of a schedule of new outdoor activities.

Problem Of

(Continued from Page 1)
possible," will be recognized by the Big Three.

Under the election agreement, all democratic, anti-Nazi parties will have a right to offer candidates in a secret ballot.

Probably half a dozen or more treaties will be submitted to the Senate calling for agreement to the Polish boundary settlement—and for proper constitutional proposals for other structures erected at Yalta, and some to be erected at San Francisco.

By employing this strategy, the administration avoids putting all its eggs in one basket. Its whole international security program need not fall because some part is unsatisfactory to 33 Senators.

Some of the decisions at Yalta were not announced. One may have dealt with the use of force to back up a world security agency.

By no means all the subjects discussed were translated into definite agreements.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Wertz, Littlestown R. 2, announce the birth of a daughter at the Warner hospital, Thursday evening.

A daughter was also born at the hospital Thursday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. John Eckard, Taneytown. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Duttrow, Fairfield, announce the birth of a son Thursday evening at the hospital.

GIFT Jewels

TREASURED FOR ITS LASTING BEAUTY AND SENTIMENT
Suitable for Every Occasion

BLOCHER'S
Jewelers since 1897
29-27 CHAMBERSBURG ST.

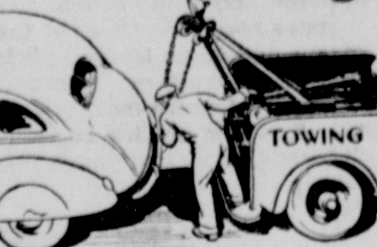

POULTRY FEEDERS and FOUNTS

Complete From Day Old To Growing Chicks

GEORGE M. ZERFING
"Hardware on the Square"

Auto Repairing

AWAY with all your worries—soon as our Tow-Car starts your way! Phone us immediately car-trouble beats you. A call to us, means trouble ends—for you. We'll have you Towed to the shop without a moment's loss. And back on the road again, car Dependably Repaired, with expense saved!

H. & H. MACHINE SHOP
So. Wash. St., Gettysburg, Pa.

Stork News

FOLDING BABY CARRIAGES

- All Steel • Leatherette
- Rubber Tires • Steel Wheels

NURSERY CHAIRS HIGH CHAIRS
BATHINETTES CRIBS
BASKINETTES

HOME FURNISHING CO.

FURNITURE ON THE SQUARE

Fur Coat Storage

CONVENIENT
DEPENDABLE
SAFE

Full Insurance Coverage
All Losses

BREHM

The Tailor
TELEPHONE 171-Y

FOR SEE

Learner Permits
Auto-Title Transfers
All Kinds of Permits and Forms
Collection of Rents
Collection of Accounts
Other Justice of the Peace and Notary Work
Help on All Rationing Forms
2

SACRIFICES FOR IWO JIMA PAY DIVIDENDS

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, March 16 (AP)—Two Jima is saved about 30 Superfortresses and their crews from probable destruction, the 21st Bomber Command reported today, disclosing the first dividends from the costly island for which perhaps 4,000 United States airmen paid with their lives.

An Air Force spokesman said 30 Superfortresses from the three great bombardier squadrons in the last week of the Iwo Jima campaign have been repaired. Without the island, he said, most of them never would have reached their Marianas bases. The lives of approximately 330 men are at stake in the big bombers.

The battle for Iwo, now 26 days old, was still being fought bitterly against steadily dwindling, but well equipped and armed, pockets of stubborn Japanese.

Rockey's Men Advance
(The German Transocean radio as heard in London quoting a Tokyo dispatch that American transports had been sighted off northern Iwo, suggesting the Marines may attempt to land at the rear of the Japanese making a last stand at Iwano Point).

Adm. Richmond Kelly Turner, commander of Fleet Amphibious Forces, said "the major fighting is finished." It was Admiral Turner who suggested the figure of around 900 Marine dead by saying American losses were less than one-fifth those of the Japanese. The latest official estimate of enemy losses is one to 20,000.

This morning's communique said Maj. Gen. Keller E. Rockey's Fifth Marine Division on the northwest beach inched closer to Kitano Point. "Intense small arms and mortar fire in that sector throughout the night," Thursday. The enemy forces appear to be well organized and capable.

DISCLOSE NAZI AIR VICTORY

Philadelphia, March 16 (AP)—Unopposed German bombers destroyed 47 grounded Flying Fortresses in an entire wing—last June 21 in a 40-hour night attack for which the Russians and Americans have blamed each other. Alexander Kendrick, returned Moscow correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, said Wednesday.

The Fortresses, Kendrick wrote, were "desperately needed to support our beachhead operations in Normandy."

The attack had been kept secret, he said, although "the Germans knew perfectly well what they had done, since after the bombing they covered over the field for 15 minutes almost taking flashlight pictures of the destruction."

"The Russians blamed the Americans for letting German reconnaissance planes come in on their tail to see where they landed," Kendrick said. "Some Americans grumbled over what they called lack of adequate protection at the field—and I know security was the responsibility of the Russians."

12 Killed, 16 Hurt In Transport Crash

San Carlos, Calif., March 16 (AP)—Twelve persons were reported killed and 16 injured in the crash of a Navy transport plane Wednesday 5 miles southwest of here on a storm-lashed hillside.

Twelfth Naval District headquarters in San Francisco officially announced seven dead. The higher figure was received from reliable but unquotable sources. All of the plane's passengers were Navy and Marine personnel.

After lying in cold rain and mud for one and a half to three hours before rescuers could reach them, 13 of the injured were removed to nearby hospitals.

BRITISH USING SUPERBOMBS

London, Mar. 16 (AP)—Allied warplanes ripped into the Reich again Thursday in the 31st day of a sustained aerial offensive which saw RAF raiders unleash a new weapon Wednesday—an 11-ton super-bomb credited with knocking out the vital Berlin-Ruhr railway viaduct at Bielefeld, 80 miles east of the Rhine.

British bombers were in action during the night, heavies striking at the western front supply centers of Zweibrücken and Homburg, while Mosquitoes rocked Berlin for the 23rd straight night.

More than 5,000 British and American planes participated in the operations Wednesday during which new RAF super-bombs were introduced in the attack on Bielefeld.

The Air Ministry announced that six to eight spans of the viaduct had been destroyed simultaneously. RAF Lancasters attacked another viaduct at Arnburg, 27 miles southwest of Dortmund, with six-ton "earthquake" bombs.

The two viaducts were described as the most vulnerable points on what are now perhaps the most important railway routes in the whole of Germany.

Mexico City, March 16 (AP)—A half dozen former major league players and a number of minor leaguers will play with the six teams comprising the Mexican major league which begins its season next week. Former big leaguers signed up include Shortstop Antonio Ordenana of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Chile Gomez of the Phillies.

The Fortresses, Kendrick wrote, were "desperately needed to support our beachhead operations in Normandy."

The attack had been kept secret, he said, although "the Germans knew perfectly well what they had done, since after the bombing they covered over the field for 15 minutes almost taking flashlight pictures of the destruction."

"The Russians blamed the Americans for letting German reconnaissance planes come in on their tail to see where they landed," Kendrick said. "Some Americans grumbled over what they called lack of adequate protection at the field—and I know security was the responsibility of the Russians."

Things Of The Soil

By DAN F. VAN GORDER
The Gettysburg Times Agricultural Editor

Questions of our readers on lawns, flowers, vegetable growing, poultry, fruit, livestock and general agriculture will be answered by return personal letter without charge if a 3-cent stamp is enclosed.

Address Letters To
The Gettysburg Times Agricultural Editor
Box 1532, Washington, 13, D. C.

Safety With Mercuric Chloride

Gardeners and farmers have perhaps already observed the increasing number of finances where mercuric chloride, often called corrosive sublimate, is recommended for disinfecting certain seed to prevent seed-borne diseases, also to combat such insects as the cabbage and onion root maggots and gladiolus thrip.

But the knowledge that this chemical is a deadly poison causes many persons to hesitate to use it in connection with food plants. Here, therefore, are some simple facts to remove doubtful points from methods of employing this disinfectant. Mercuric chloride is sold in bulk form by many spraying material dealers and drug stores, also in tablet form in small bottles. The tablets are shaped like miniature golf balls.

Emphasis is always placed on the fact that this chemical should be mixed and handled in glass, earthenware or wooden vessels, never in metal. This is explained by remembering that it corrodes metals. In preparing it the recommended quantity should be dissolved in a little hot water and then diluted with cool or cold water to the advised strength. It dissolves very slowly in cold water. Use a wooden spoon or paddle for stirring.

Handle With Care
One standard tablet dissolved in one pint of water makes a 1:1000 solution, the strength recommended for disinfecting most seeds before planting and for use around newly set cabbage plants to kill root maggots. A 1:2000 strength is used for disinfecting tomato seed, prepared by dissolving one standard tablet in a quart of water. The 1:1000 solution, as advised for disinfecting potato seed and gladiolus corms, is prepared in larger quantities at the rate of 1 ounce to 7½ gallons of water.

Persons preparing or otherwise handling mercuric chloride should wear gloves. Portions remaining after seed treatments or other usages should be buried deeply or destroyed so that children, animals and birds are not endangered by the residue. Likewise any treated seed not needed for planting should be burned or buried.

No dangers, even remote, are incurred by or transmitted to the growing plant. This question is frequently raised by beginners when mercuric chloride is recommended for use on cabbage plants to curb root maggots. The chemical is soon dissipated in the soil and there are no possibilities of the plants taking any part of it into their tissues, much less retaining it until maturity.

Extra Tips Available

When treating such small seeds as cabbage, cucumber, eggplant, tomato and cauliflower to prevent seed-borne disease, it is important to remember that strength of solution and methods or duration of treatment vary somewhat. But in all cases the seed must be washed for 15 minutes after immersion, preferably in cold running water, and then dried before sowing.

To treat potatoes to prevent scab and rhizoctonia, soak the tubers for 2 hours in a 1:1000 solution and allow them to dry before cutting to plant.

In all cases where readers are in doubt about how to use this valuable chemical, especially beginners in gardening, they are invited to write the editor for needed advice. A few questions may save many dollars' worth of crops. And of course, the proper time to obtain needed information is before the date when the knowledge must be used.

Flowers

for
ALL OCCASIONS
CREMER'S
HANOVER, PA.

Persons preparing or otherwise handling mercuric chloride should wear gloves. Portions remaining after seed treatments or other usages should be buried deeply or

COMPROMISE ON BILL IS ASKED

Harrisburg, March 16 (AP)—Governor Martin left the way open today for the Legislature to work a compromise on differing fair employment practice proposals.

"There is no administration bill," the executive told a press conference. "I've just expressed myself as favorable to the principle involved."

Martin made the statement in a discussion Wednesday of the Keppel-Bowers Bill to give the task of combating job discrimination to the state Labor Relations Board and a differing proposal of Rep. Homer S. Brown (D., Allegheny) to set up an independent agency with wide powers to handle the matter.

"Homer Brown is very much interested in the educational side," declared Martin after disclosing he had conferred with the Allegheny legislator yesterday. "I agree with him that you can't make equality by legislation."

"You can by education create a better feeling between different sections, different races and different religions. In that line, I'm agreed with him, but I don't like the idea of setting up an expensive bureau if you can utilize an existing agency."

Cocoa and chocolate come from the tropical cacao tree.

BEST-KNOWN
home remedy for relieving misery of children's colds.

VICKS
VAPORUB

UNRULY HAIR
needs hygienic care

HERBEX
CONDITIONER NO. 3

A Parker Herbex product
Used for over 50 years
... Ask any Hairdresser
NOW AT YOUR DRUGGIST

VERIFIED
Esso
LUBRICATION
ESSO MOTOR OIL
BATTERIES
Champion SPARK PLUGS
TIRE REPAIR SERVICE
Hartzell Esso Station
—Lincoln Highway, East of G-Burg—
Phone 44-9-2

ROYALE DAIRY
HOME OF
Special Baby Milk

It's Homogenized Vitamin D Milk, each drop of Cream broken down into 200 tiny particles. Easy to digest—Easy to mix baby's formula. Sealed in cellophane to safeguard baby's health.

OTHER DAIRY PRODUCTS
Milk with cream top—it whips
Chocolate Milk Butter
Cream Buttercream
Whipping Cream by doctor's prescription
ROYALE Ice Cream
All products are Laboratory controlled
209 High St. Phone 5163 Hanover, Pa.

Chick Starter and Grower
Time-Tested FEEDS
MARCH'S
FEED STORE
Phone Fair 27-R-5
ORRTANNA, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

Pittsburghers May Soon Lack Chickens

Pittsburgh, March 16 (AP)—The chicken dinner is soon to go the way of the vanishing steak and butter, William M. Walsh, War Food Administration area director, said Thursday.

Walsh told dealers, who had asked government agency officials to divert more surplus poultry to Pittsburgh, that the poultry situation here will grow steadily worse. Walsh explained the Army is taking the bulk of poultry for military hospitals, and said the WFA is unable to remedy the difficulty.

John Walker, an Englishman made the first really useful friction match in 1827.

Need Money for that Easter Outfit
It pays to look well-dressed . . . and it also pays to borrow the necessary money from THRIFT PLAN.

Loans from $20 to $300, for all purposes, quickly and confidentially.

THRIFT PLAN
OF PENNSYLVANIA, INC.
Weaver Building, Gettysburg, Pa.

GOOD PASTURES
ARE YOUR CHEAPEST FEED

TRIPLE Purpose Pasture Mixture is offered by the Farm Bureau because it assures a three-way crop . . . pasture, hay or ensilage. During the present seed shortage, this mixture is good insurance for the farmer.

Triple Purpose Pasture Mixture—5 lbs. of Timothy, 4 of Alfalfa, 3 of Medium Red Clover, 2 of Alsike, 1 of Ladino—was prepared in consultation with Pennsylvania State College Agronomists. To insure greater silage or hay yields and improved midsummer grazing, you may add Orchard Grass, Smooth Brome, Alta Fescue, Tall Oat, Perennial Rye, Kentucky Blue or Birdsfoot Trefoil, according to your needs.

Pasture Mixtures
Your Co-op store manager will advise you on the right pasture mixture for your farm. Place your order now.

See the Pasture Mixture display at your local FARM BUREAU CO-OP

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

Pittsburghers May Soon Lack Chickens

Pittsburgh, March 16 (AP)—The chicken dinner is soon to go the way of the vanishing steak and butter, William M. Walsh, War Food Administration area director, said Thursday.

Walsh told dealers, who had asked government agency officials to divert more surplus poultry to Pittsburgh, that the poultry situation here will grow steadily worse. Walsh explained the Army is taking the bulk of poultry for military hospitals, and said the WFA is unable to remedy the difficulty.

John Walker, an Englishman made the first really useful friction match in 1827.

Need Money for that Easter Outfit
It pays to look well-dressed . . . and it also pays to borrow the necessary money from THRIFT PLAN.

Loans from $20 to $300, for all purposes, quickly and confidentially.

THRIFT PLAN
OF PENNSYLVANIA, INC.
Weaver Building, Gettysburg, Pa.

GOOD PASTURES
ARE YOUR CHEAPEST FEED

TRIPLE Purpose Pasture Mixture is offered by the Farm Bureau because it assures a three-way crop . . . pasture, hay or ensilage. During the present seed shortage, this mixture is good insurance for the farmer.

Triple Purpose Pasture Mixture—5 lbs. of Timothy, 4 of Alfalfa, 3 of Medium Red Clover, 2 of Alsike, 1 of Ladino—was prepared in consultation with Pennsylvania State College Agronomists. To insure greater silage or hay yields and improved midsummer grazing, you may add Orchard Grass, Smooth Brome, Alta Fescue, Tall Oat, Perennial Rye, Kentucky Blue or Birdsfoot Trefoil, according to your needs.

Pasture Mixtures
Your Co-op store manager will advise you on the right pasture mixture for your farm. Place your order now.

See the Pasture Mixture display at your local FARM BUREAU CO-OP

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West
NEW OXFORD, PA.
North Washington St.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU
CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway

SACRIFICES FOR IWO JIMA PAY DIVIDENDS

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Guam, March 16 (AP)—Iwo Jima has saved about 30 Superfortresses and their crews from probable destruction, the 21st Bomber Command reported today, disclosing the first dividends from the costly island for which perhaps 4,000 United States Marines paid with their lives.

An Air Force spokesman said 30 B-29's returning from the three great incendiary raids within the last week on major Japanese industrial cities landed at Iwo to refuel or for emergency repairs. Without the island, he said, most of them never would have reached their Marianas bases. The lives of approximately 330 men were at stake in the big bombers.

The battle for Iwo, now 26 days old, was still being fought bitterly against steadily dwindling, but well organized and armed, pockets of stubborn Japanese.

Rockey's Men Advance
(The German Transocean radio was heard in London quoting a Tokyo dispatch that American transports had been sighted off northern Iwo, suggesting the Marines may attempt to land at the rear of Nipponese making a last stand at Kitano Point.)

Adm. Richmond Kelly Turner, commander of Fleet Amphibious Forces, said "the major fighting is finished." It was Admiral Turner who suggested the figure of around 4,000 Marine dead by saying American losses were less than one-fifth those of the Japanese. The latest official estimate of enemy losses is more than 20,000.

This morning's communique said Maj. Gen. Keller E. Rockey's Fifth Marine Division on the northwest side inched closer to Kitano Point despite "intense small arms and mortar fire in that sector throughout the day" Thursday. The enemy forces still appear to be well organized and capably led.

DISCLOSE NAZI AIR VICTORY

Philadelphia, March 16 (AP)—Unopposed German bombers destroyed an American-built Russian airfield and 47 grounded Flying Fortresses—an entire wing—last June 21 in a two-hour night attack for which the Russians and Americans have blamed each other, Alexander Kendrick, returned Moscow correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, said Wednesday.

The Fortresses, Kendrick wrote, were "desperately needed to support our beachhead operations in Normandy."

The attack had been kept secret, he said, although "the Germans knew perfectly well what they had done, since after the bombing they hovered over the field for 15 minutes calmly taking flashlight pictures of the destruction."

"The Russians blamed the Americans for letting German reconnaissance planes come in on their tail to see where they landed," Kendrick said. "Some Americans grumbled over what they called lack of adequate protection at the field—and ground security was the responsibility of the Russians."

12 Killed, 16 Hurt In Transport Crash

San Carlos, Calif., March 16 (AP)—Twelve persons were reported killed and 16 injured in the crash of a Navy transport plane Wednesday 5 miles southwest of here on a storm-lashed hillside.

Twelfth Naval District headquarters in San Francisco officially announced seven dead. The higher figure was received from reliable but unquotable sources. All of the plane's passengers were Navy and Marine personnel.

After lying in cold rain and mud for from one and a half to three hours before rescuers could reach them, 13 of the injured were removed to nearby hospitals.

BRITISH USING SUPERBOMBS

London, Mar. 16 (AP)—Allied warplanes ripped into the Reich again Thursday in the 31st day of a sustained aerial offensive which saw RAF raiders unleash a new weapon Wednesday—an 11-ton super-bomb, credited with knocking out the vital Berlin-Ruhr railway viaduct at Bielefeld, 80 miles east of the Rhine.

British bombers were in action during the night, heavies striking at the western front supply centers of Zweibrücken and Homburg, while Mosquitoes rocked Berlin for the 23rd straight night.

More than 5,000 British and American planes participated in the operations Wednesday during which new RAF super-bombs were introduced in the attack on Bielefeld.

The Air Ministry announced that six to eight spans of the viaduct had been destroyed. Simultaneously RAF Lancasters attacked another viaduct at Arnburg, 27 miles southwest of Dortmund, with six-ton "earthquake" bombs.

The two viaducts were described as the most vulnerable points on what are now perhaps the most important railway routes in the whole of Germany.

Mexico City, March 16 (AP)—A half dozen former major league players and a number of minor leaguers will play with the six teams comprising the Mexican major baseball league which begins its season next week. Former big leaguers signed up include Shortstop Antonio Ordenana of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Chile Gomez of the Phillies.

Things Of The Soil

By DAN F. VAN GORDER
The Gettysburg Times Agricultural Editor

Questions of our readers on lawns, flowers, vegetable growing, poultry, fruit, livestock and general agriculture will be answered by return personal letter without charges if a 3-cent stamp is enclosed.

Address Letters To
The Gettysburg Times Agricultural Editor
Box 1528, Washington, 13, D. C.

Safety With Mercuric Chloride

Gardeners and farmers have perhaps already observed the increasing number of finances where mercuric chloride, often called corrosive sublimate, is recommended for disinfecting certain seed to prevent seed-borne diseases, also to combat such insects as the cabbage and onion root maggots and gladiolus thrip. But the knowledge that this chemical is a deadly poison causes many persons to hesitate to use it in connection with food plants. Here, therefore, are some simple facts to remove doubtful points from methods of employing this disinfectant.

Mercuric chloride is sold in bulk form by many spraying material dealers and drug stores, also in tablet form in small bottles. The tablets are shaped like miniature coffins.

Emphasis is always placed on the fact that this chemical should be mixed and handled in glass, earthenware or wooden vessels, never in metal. This is explained by remembering that it corrodes metals. In preparing it the recommended quantity should be dissolved in a little hot water and then diluted with cool or cold water to the advised strength. It dissolves very slowly in cold water. Use a wooden spoon or paddle for stirring.

Handle With Care
One standard tablet dissolved in one pint of water makes a 1:1000 solution, the strength recommended for disinfecting most seeds before planting and for use around newly set cabbage plants to kill root maggots. A 1:2000 strength is used for disinfecting tomato seed, prepared by dissolving one standard tablet in a quart of water. The 1:1000 solution, as advised for disinfecting potato seed and gladiolus corms, is prepared in larger quantities at the rate of 1 ounce to 7½ gallons of water.

Persons preparing or otherwise handling mercuric chloride should wear gloves. Portions remaining after seed treatments or other usages should be buried deeply or destroyed so that children, animals and birds are not endangered by the residue. Likewise any treated seed not needed for planting should be burned or buried.

No dangers, even remote, are incurred by or transmitted to the growing plant. This question is frequently raised by beginners when mercuric chloride is recommended for use on cabbage plants to curb root maggots. The chemical is soon dissipated in the soil and there are no possibilities of the plants taking any part of it into their tissues, much less retaining it until maturity.

Extra Tips Available

When treating such small seeds as cabbage, cucumber, eggplant, tomato and cauliflower to prevent seed-borne disease, it is important to remember that strength of solution and methods or duration of treatment vary somewhat. But in all cases the seed must be washed for 15 minutes after immersion, preferably in cold running water, and then dried before sowing.

To treat potatoes to prevent scab and rhizoctonia, soak the tubers for 2 hours in a 1:1000 solution and allow them to dry before cutting to plant.

In all cases where readers are in doubt about how to use this valuable chemical, especially beginners in gardening, they are invited to write the editor for needed advice. A few questions may save many dollars' worth of crops. And of course, the proper time to obtain needed information is before the date when the knowledge must be used.

Flowers
for
ALL OCCASIONS
CREMER'S
HANOVER, PA.

COMPROMISE ON BILL IS ASKED

Harrisburg, March 16 (AP)—Governor Martin left the way open today for the Legislature to work a compromise on differing fair employment practice proposals.

"There is no administration bill," the executive told a press conference. "I've just expressed myself as favorable to the principle involved." Martin made the statement in a discussion Wednesday of the Keppel-Bowers Bill to give the task of combating job discrimination to the state Labor Relations Board and a differing proposal of Rep. Homer S. Brown (D., Allegheny) to set up an independent agency with wide powers to handle the matter.

"Homer Brown is very much interested in the educational side," declared Martin after disclosing he had conferred with the Allegheny legislator yesterday. "I agree with him that you can't make equality by legislation."

"You can by education create a better feeling between different sections, different races and different religions. In that line, I'm agreed with him, but I don't like the idea of setting up an expensive bureau if you can utilize an existing agency."

Cocoa and chocolate come from the tropical cacao tree.

BEST-KNOWN
home remedy for relieving miseries of children's colds,
VICKS
VAPORUB

UNRULY HAIR
needs hygienic care

HERBEX
CONDITIONER NO. 3

A Parker Herbex product
Used for over 50 years
... Ask any Hairdresser
NOW AT YOUR DRUGGIST

VERIFIED
Esso
LUBRICATION
ESSO MOTOR OIL
BATTERIES
Champion SPARK PLUGS
TIRE REPAIR SERVICE
Hartzell Esso Station
—Lincoln Highway, East of G-Burg—
Phone 44-3-Z

ROYALE DAIRY
HOME OF
Special Baby Milk

It's Homogenized Vitamin D Milk, each drop of Cream broken down into 200 tiny particles. Easy to digest—Easy to mix baby's formula. Sealed in cellophane to safeguard baby's health.
OTHER DAIRY PRODUCTS
Milk with cream top—it whips
Chocolate Milk Butter
Cream Buttermilk
Whipping Cream by doctor's prescription.
ROYALE Ice Cream
All products are Laboratory controlled
209 High St. Phone 5163 Hanover, Pa.

Finish me off faster...with a big saving in feeding costs

NOW AVAILABLE...the revolutionary new development in feeding...
MASTER MIX SOW and PIG CONCENTRATE with M-V (Methio-Vite)
Come in. Ask about it.
SCHWARTZ FARM SUPPLY
Willis R. Schwartz, Prop.
100 Carlisle St., Phone 281-Y, Gettysburg, Pa.

GIVE YOUR HOME THIS E-X-T-R-A PROTECTION

WITH TEXACO THICK BUTT SHINGLES

You'll appreciate the better job of protecting your home these Texaco shingles will do. You'll enjoy their handsome pattern and deep shadow lines on the roof. You'll like the rich solid colors and the beautiful blends. It's the extra layer of asphalt and colorful mineral granules that gives these Texaco shingles their name. Come in and see samples and colors!

CITIZENS OIL CO.
Your Texaco Roofing Dealer
46 York St. Phone 264 GETTYSBURG, PA.

Pittsburghers May Soon Lack Chickens

Pittsburgh, March 16 (AP)—The chicken dinner is soon to go the way of the vanishing steak and butter, William M. Walsh, War Food Administration area director, said Thursday.

Walsh told dealers, who had asked government agency officials to divert more surplus poultry to Pittsburgh, that the poultry situation here will grow steadily worse. Walsh explained the Army is taking the bulk of poultry for military hospitals, and said the WFA is unable to remedy the difficulty.

John Walker, an Englishman made the first really useful friction match in 1827.

Need Money for that Easter Outfit

It pays to look well-dressed... and it also pays to borrow the necessary money from THRIFT PLAN.

Loans from $20 to $500, for all purposes, quickly and confidentially.

THRIFT PLAN Phone 610
OF PENNSYLVANIA, INC.
Weaver Building, Gettysburg, Pa.

GOOD PASTURES ARE YOUR CHEAPEST FEED

TRIPLE Purpose Pasture Mixture is offered by the Farm Bureau because it assures a three-way crop... pasture, hay or ensilage. During the present seed shortage, this mixture is good insurance for the farmer. Triple Purpose Pasture Mixture—5 lbs. of Timothy, 4 of Alfalfa, 3 of Medium Red Clover, 2 of Alsike, 1 of Ladino—was prepared in consultation with Pennsylvania State College Agronomists. To insure greater silage or hay yields and improved midsummer grazing, you may add Orchard Grass, Smooth Brome, Alta Fescue, Tall Oat, Perennial Rye, Kentucky Blue or Birdfoot Trefoil, according to your needs.

Pasture Mixtures
Your Co-op store manager will advise you on the right pasture mixture for your farm. Place your order now.
See the Pasture Mixture display at your local FARM BUREAU CO-OP

ADAMS COUNTY FARM BUREAU CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
Lincolnway West NEW OXFORD, PA. North Washington St. GETTYSBURG, PA.

Glorious New Creation

Strawberry Real Fruit SHERBET

Take Home A Quart
NON-RATIONED DESSERT

Not an Ice Cream...
Not an Ice...
but a new taste-tingling treat!

NEW IN FLAVOR!
NEW IN TEXTURE!
NEW IN QUALITY!

FABER'S
"ON THE SQUARE"

Fashions FOR MEN!

Men's and Young Men's SUITS

Tailor Made to Fit Your Size.
Exact Measurements...

Haberdashery for Easter
1945 Knox Hats
Spring Sport Coats
Cheney Neckwear
Leather Belts

Pitzer's For The Well Dressed Man

THE TAILOR SHOP
J. T. Pitzer, Proprietor
We Clean, Press and Repair Everything You Wear
CENTER SQUARE, GETTYSBURG, PA.

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

(A Daily Newspaper)
1500 Chestnut Street
Gettysburg, Pa.

Published at regular intervals
on each weekday by
Times and News Publishing Co.
A Pennsylvania Corporation

President Samuel G. Spangler
Manager Carl A. Baum
Editor Paul L. Roy

Non-partisan in Politics
Entered at the Postoffice at Gettysburg as second class matter under the Act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One Week (By Carrier) 12 cents
One Month (By Carrier) 60 cents
One Year $6.00
Single Copies Three cents

Member of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association and the Interstate Advertising Managers' Association.

National Advertising Representative: Fred Kimball, Incorporated, 67 W. 44th Street, New York City.

Gettysburg, Pa., March 16, 1945

Just Folks

BROTHERS
I hold, because I think it true.
In spite of all the wrong they do
And love of pleasure,
That whether men be poor or rich,
One scarce can tell just which is which
By spirit-measure.
Pat purse away, and foolish pride,
Most men are much alike, inside.
From bench or desk or lathe away,
Most men with children like to play—
Their own and neighbors.
Most men would have them nobly trained,
With one, perhaps, for church or dined.
The man who labors
Has dreams, if but the truth were known,
As high as those the richest own.
Most men are strengthened by belief;
Are saddened by another's grief,
And turn to share it.
Seldom a cross on man is laid
But one, like Simon, comes to aid
And begs to bear it.
No doubt, by every spirit-test,
All men are brothers at their best.

Today's Talk

NOURISHMENT
Many of the most significant things in life, we give little or no notice to. For example: We have to have fresh breath, which means air, every few seconds. Then we have to put food into our body, and also water. These are the elementary essentials to life.
Every growing thing has to have nourishment. The plant, the flower, the tree, all take nourishment from the ground and from the air. And the sun stimulates their growth. The very same rules that apply to Nature, apply to man.
There is so much more to be nourished in man, however, than in the case of any inanimate creation. Man's body, his mind, his heart, and his spirit must be nourished. He can be only a half-nourished man, whose nature has known but a part of this nourishment.
It is very easy to complain and to blame someone else for our lack of nourishment, but we are free agents and it is expected of us that we look after our own needs and fulfill them. It is the privilege of each one of us to develop our own personality, feeding it and nourishing it with a love of beauty, of music, of literature, of people, and of everything that touches the senses, or which adds to our enjoyment of life.
When nourishment is cut off from any part of our nature, a light goes out somewhere. You have known the highly talented, who with the years, neglected to nourish his gifts, and so allowed something precious of himself to slip away.
The enriched mind gives out nourishment to every other mind that it contacts. That's the great joy of being nourished. It enables us to nourish others. There is no limit to the nourishment of the mind. Every worthwhile book has mental food between its covers. And many a one nourishes the spirit as well.
And we humans are just like the birds, when we are well nourished. We are happy—we sing and rejoice in our good fortune.
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Lines And Designs In Nature."

FOUR YEARS AGO TODAY

(By The Associated Press)
March 16, 1941—Adolf Hitler, replying to President Roosevelt's pledge of aid to democracies, says no support from any part of world can prevent German victory or fall of Britain. British announced labor draft for girls of 20 to 21 and men 41 to 45.

Mountain Home, Idaho, (AP)—

Slot machines in the officers' club at the Mountain Home Army Air Base are topped by this sign: "In case of air raid, stand near these machines—they haven't been hit yet."

The Almanac

March 17—Sun rises 7:10; sets 7:08.
March 18—Sun rises 7:13; sets 7:09.
Moon sets 12:44 a. m.
EQUINOX
1945 1945 1945

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the
Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Two Teachers Wed Saturday: Charles I. Rafensperger, principal of the Biglerville schools, and Miss Erma Kathryn Myers, a teacher in the Littlestown schools, were married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Myers, East Berlin. The Rev. Paul Gladfelter, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, East Berlin, performed the ring ceremony.

Birth Announcement: A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eiker, East Middle street, at the Warner hospital, Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Breighner, Stevens street, announce the birth of a son at the Warner hospital, Sunday.

Change of Residence: Benton Gilbert moved Thursday from the Kalfbleisch apartments to 301 Bedford avenue.

Students to Hear Author-Traveler: Edward Tomlinson, noted traveler, author and lecturer, will address the student body of Gettysburg college in Bruns Chapel next Thursday morning. His subject will be "Down the River of Silver," which deals with Brazil, Uruguay and Argentina.

Birth Announcement: A son was born at the Warner hospital Tuesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Snyder, Chambersburg street.

Department Store Stock to be Sold by Trustee: Charles W. Gardner, Gettysburg merchant, on Wednesday, began his duties as trustee to close out the stock of the Gettysburg Department store, for the corporation, which was headed by the late J. Frank Hartman. The trustee's sale began Saturday morning.

Hoover to Attend Service: Washington, March 16 (AP)—President and Mrs. Hoover tomorrow will go directly from the White House to the All Souls Unitarian church for the funeral of William Howard Taft and do not expect to attend the ceremonies in the rotunda of the capitol, where the body of the former president will lie in state for three hours.

From the Mr. and Mrs. Hoover will go to Arlington National Cemetery for the service at the grave.

Birth Announcement: A daughter was born Monday morning at the Warner hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Dale W. Guse, Gettysburg.

250 Rotarians at Inter-City Meeting Here: Wade Marr, past district governor of the 51st Rotary district, of North Carolina, put the finishing touches to the inter-city meeting of Rotary clubs Monday night, in the Eddie Plank gymnasium. More than 200 Rotarians from neighboring clubs attended the meeting, served by ladies of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Marie Codori sang several selections, accompanied by Miss Mary Ramer.

Dr. M. Hadwin Fischer was master of ceremonies. Harry Kimmey of Westminster was the song leader, and the Rev. Earl J. Bowman gave the invocation.

The Gettysburg college orchestra played throughout the dinner. John T. McCaslin, of Baltimore, entertained with tricks of magic and humorous stories.

Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson introduced Mr. Marr. John D. Lipsey, president of the Gettysburg Rotary club, presided.

Visiting Band at High School: The Hanover high school orchestra, under the direction of Prof. C. H. Stenger, presented a concert in the auditorium of the Gettysburg high school Friday afternoon in return for the program given at the Hanover high school recently by the local orchestra.

Pilot Charles Flies at Night: Paul D. Charles, chief pilot at the Gettysburg airport, gave local residents a thrill late last night by flying over Gettysburg for almost half an hour. His plane was equipped with the regulation lights for night flying, and the field of Oak Ridge was specially illuminated to permit taking off and landing.

Personal: Mrs. Donald P. McPherson has returned from a cruise of several weeks to Bermuda. She was accompanied by Mrs. David Dale, Bellefonte, and Mrs. Donald Paxton, of Wayne.

John H. Baschore played host to his Sunday school class on a trip to Lebanon Tuesday evening.
L. Taylor and Edmund W. Thomas have returned from Philadelphia where they spent several days attending a bankers' conference.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cairns, Springs avenue, returned Sunday from a trip of several weeks to Florida.

Mrs. Lloyd C. Keefeauver, worthy matron of the Gettysburg chapter of Order of the Eastern Star, entertained the officers of that lodge at supper at her home on Steinwehr avenue, Friday evening. Sixteen guests were in attendance.
The campus tea will be held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Clutz, Broadway.

YANKS BLAST NAZI STAFF'S HEADQUARTERS

London, March 16 (AP)—Bomb-blasted Berlin underwent its 24th consecutive RAF night raid last night after specially trained American fliers had climaxed a peak day of Allied air operations with a 650-plane pulverizing attack on Adolf Hitler's army staff headquarters at Zossen, 20 miles from the German capital.

RAF night raiders also struck at oil refineries in Misburg, near Hannover.

U. S. Eighth Air Force officers reported great success in the Zossen attack, which was the first time American bombers had blasted the Nazi high command nerve center.

Hit Surface Quarters
More than 1,350 bombers, guarded by 750 fighters, roared straight for Berlin and then split in half to loop around the capital for the Zossen raid and attacks on the Oranienburg rail yards to the north.

The Americans encountered only sporadic and light anti-aircraft fire as they smashed at all the headquarters buildings above-ground. Part of the Zossen center is known to be deep underground.

The bombers dropped 6,000 high explosive bombs totaling 1,500 tons, plus 325,000 incendiaries that returning crewmen said started fires which soon engulfed many buildings.

Soldier Pleads 'Self-Defense'

Williamsport, Pa., March 16 (AP)—Army Private James E. Buckley, 22, of Bath, N. Y., renewed a plea of self defense Thursday from witness stand at his trial on a murder charge in the hitch-hike slaying of Vincent Nowakowski, 51, Blossburg farmer.

Buckley, testifying as the first defense witness, told jury Wednesday that Nowakowski made improper advances to him last August while he was riding in the farmer's automobile and that they struggled in a clearing along the roadside.

In the struggle, Buckley testified, he used an "Army trick" of pressing against Nowakowski's Adam's apple to "black him out" and did not know the man was dead when he left him. Buckley said he was unable to find anything to tie up Nowakowski and piled stones on him so that the man could not pursue him when he returned to consciousness.

Committee Favors Truck Weight Change

Harrisburg, Mar. 16 (AP)—Favorable committee action Thursday placed in position for a House vote next week legislation to make permanent the wartime increases in permissible truck weights on Pennsylvania highways.

Backed by the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, the measure would amend the motor vehicle code to continue the legal use after the war of trucks and trailers with a gross weight up to 45,000 pounds. The pre-war limit was 39,000 pounds.

The Fellowship Of Prayer

Trustees: "What is man that thou art mindful of him?" "Thou madest him to have dominion—" Psalm 8:4 and 6 Read Psalm 8.
"Man is only a reed" said Blaise Pascal, "the feeblest thing in Nature; but he is a reed that thinks." His dominion is in his thought and though the stars awe him he can weigh and measure them. His dominion is a trust; so many things are helpless before him and when he builds his Robots he is helpless before himself. His dominion needs a higher dominion to control it. Power, says the Psalmist, is a trust. God has given it to us and judges our use of it.
What is man? Despair says, "the only creature under the stars who uses his sovereignty to destroy himself." Christian faith says, "still God's child waiting for the pierced hand of Jesus Christ to subdue his power to love and tenderness and fulfill the promise of his creation."

Prayer: As Thou has given us dominion and power, O Lord, help us to use it according to Thy will. May no creature of Thine suffer through our carelessness or be broken by our cruelty. Help us to be true to our trust and be worthy of it in thought and deed. In the name of the Compassionate, Amen.

PUBLIC SALE

SATURDAY, MARCH 17TH
1 P. M.

Household goods and farming equipment; also one horse and one calf. Farming equipment consists of separator; two horse moving machine; plows; cultivators; two buggies; wagon; etc. Numerous household items.
Sale to be held at the Amos M. Sprinkle farm, Fairfield R. 1. Along Mt. Hope road.

CHURCH SERVICES

Gettysburg The County

Memorial United Brethren
The Rev. H. V. March, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.; Junior Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m.; Young People's Christian Endeavor at 8 p. m.; evangelistic services at 7 p. m. Evangelistic services will continue each evening at 7:30 o'clock with the Rev. and Mrs. Brian King in charge.

Christian Science, Kadel Building
Service with Lesson-Bernheim, "Substance," at 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Services the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30 p. m. Reading room open every Thursday from 2 to 4 p. m.

St. Francis Xavier Catholic
The Rev. Mark E. Stock, rector. Masses Sunday at 7, 9 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; sodality meeting at 7 p. m.; Rosary and benediction at 7:30 p. m. Masses Holy days at 5:30, 7:30 and 9 a. m.

Foursquare Gospel
The Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Myers, pastors. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.; young people's crusader meeting at 6:30 p. m.; evangelistic service at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, prayer and praise service at 7:45 p. m.

Prince Of Peace Episcopal
The Rev. A. G. Vandell, vicar. Holy Eucharist at 9 a. m. Wednesday. Lenten service with study, "The Sacrament of Holy Orders," at 7:30 p. m.

Trinity Evangelical Reformed
The Rev. Howard Schley Fox, pastor. Church school at 9:30 a. m.; divine service at 10:30 a. m.; children's league at 2:30 p. m.; vespers at 7 p. m. Tuesday, sprung meeting of the Women's Guild at the church at 7:30 p. m. with address by Mrs. J. August Boels on the Philippines. Wednesday, junior choir rehearsal for Palm procession at 6:30 p. m.; Lenten vespers with examination of the catechumens at 7:30 p. m.; meeting of men of the church in the church school chapel at 8:30 p. m. Saturday, final meeting of the catechetical class at 1 p. m.

Church of the Brethren
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "The Ransom Price for Our Souls," by the Rev. W. N. Zoller at 10:30 a. m.

St. James Lutheran
The Rev. R. R. Cress, pastor. Sunday school with Men's Bible class taught by Robert Rau at 9:15 a. m.; worship with sermon, "The Way of Salvation," at 10:30 a. m.; junior Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m.; worship with sermon, "Our Offering to Christ," at 7 p. m. Monday, Girl Scouts at 4 p. m.; Sunday school official board at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school orchestra rehearsal at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, week-day Bible school at 4 p. m.; Women's Missionary Guild at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, Silver Circle at 2 p. m., followed by Mission Study class, conducted by the Women's Missionary society with Mrs. C. C. Culp in charge of devotions and Mrs. R. R. Gresh as teacher; junior choir rehearsal at 6 p. m.; Lenten service with sermon, "Bearing the Cross," at 7:30 p. m.; senior choir rehearsal at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, senior high school choir rehearsal at 7 p. m.; Boy Scouts at 7 p. m. Saturday, catechetical class at 1:30 p. m.

St. Paul's A. M. E. Zion
The Rev. R. M. Everette, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.; V. C. E. society at 4 p. m.; worship with sermon at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, prayer service at 8 p. m.

Presbyterian
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; morning worship at 10:45 a. m. with sermon by the Rev. Dr. William F. Quillian, Jr., of the Gettysburg college faculty; Ky-Ro-Nika Fellowship at 2:30 p. m.; Tuesday at 4 p. m.; Week-Day Bible school, and choir rehearsals Thursday at 6 and 7 p. m.

Christ (College) Lutheran
The Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; confirmation class at 9:45 a. m.; worship with sermon, "God—Father of Perfect Love," at 10:45 a. m. Monday, meeting of the Dorcas Sunday school class at the home of Mrs. W. C. Spicer at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Women's Service Guild at 2:30 p. m.; children's choir at 4 p. m. Thursday, Boy Scouts at 7:15 p. m.; senior choir at 7:30 p. m.

Pittsburgh, March 16 (AP)—Edward J. Weffing, 65, of Edgewood, drowned Wednesday when he leaped fully clothed into a swimming pool in Bradock township, the coroner reported.

Salern United Brethren
The Rev. H. V. March, pastor. Sunday school at 1:30 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2:30 p. m.

Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian
The Rev. Harry S. Ecker, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Christian Trusteeship," at 10:30 a. m.

Trinity Lutheran, East Berlin
The Rev. Snyder Alleman, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Jesus Hid Himself," at 10:45 a. m. Wednesday, catechism at 6:30 p. m.; Lenten prayer meeting at 7:45 p. m.

St. Paul's Reformed, Red Run
The Rev. Richard E. Shaffer, pastor. Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Church school at 10:30 a. m.

Mt. Olivet Reformed, Bermudian
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.

St. Paul's Lutheran, Biglerville
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; worship with sermon, "The Pioneer of Our Salvation Reveals God," at 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor societies at 6:30 p. m.; Women's Missionary society Lenten vespers with theme, "The Challenge of the Future in Southeast Asia," at 7 p. m. Wednesday, midweek parish Lenten service with theme, "Lord Increase Our Faith in Loving Service," at 7:45 p. m. Thursday, catechetical class at 7 p. m.

Trinity Evangelical Reformed, Cashtown
The Rev. John H. Ehrhart, pastor. Church school at 9:30 a. m.; Youth Fellowship at 7 p. m. Tuesday, catechetical class at 7 p. m. Wednesday, Sunshine Sunday school class at 8 p. m.

St. John's Evangelical Reformed, Fairfield
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, March 17, catechetical class at 6 p. m.

St. John's Evangelical Reformed, McKnightstown
Worship with sermon at 9 a. m.; Church school at 10 a. m. Tuesday, catechetical class at 7 p. m.

Christ Reformed, Littlestown
The Rev. John C. Brumback, pastor. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Divine Fire," at 10:15 a. m.; choir rehearsal and meeting of the executive board of the Sunday school following the worship service. Monday, catechetical class in the Sunday school room at 7 p. m.

Trinity Lutheran, Arendville
Church school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon by the Rev. Paul Gladfelter at 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

Flohr's Lutheran
Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Church school at 10:30 a. m.

Hanoverstown Methodist
The Rev. Earl N. Rowe, pastor. Church school at 2 p. m.; worship with sermon at 3 p. m.

Bendersville Methodist
The Rev. G. W. Harrison, pastor. Worship with sermon, "Stoning Jesus," at 9:15 a. m.; Church school at 10:15 a. m. Monday, Gettysburg-Hanover sub-district Youth Fellowship meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Ortanna Methodist
Church school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.

Wenksville Methodist
Church school and Membership class at 1 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2 p. m. followed by meeting of the official board and membership committee.

Heidersburg United Brethren
The Rev. O. A. Kerns, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 7:30 p. m.

Mt. Olivet United Brethren
Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.

Idaville United Brethren
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.

St. Mary's Catholic, New Oxford
The Rev. Robert D. Hartnett, rector. Masses at 7:30 and 10 a. m.; devotions and benedictions at 7:30 p. m.

Salern United Brethren
The Rev. H. V. March, pastor. Sunday school at 1:30 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2:30 p. m.

Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian
The Rev. Harry S. Ecker, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Christian Trusteeship," at 10:30 a. m.

Trinity Lutheran, East Berlin
The Rev. Snyder Alleman, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Jesus Hid Himself," at 10:45 a. m. Wednesday, catechism at 6:30 p. m.; Lenten prayer meeting at 7:45 p. m.

St. Paul's Reformed, Red Run
The Rev. Richard E. Shaffer, pastor. Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Church school at 10:30 a. m.

Mt. Olivet Reformed, Bermudian
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.

St. Paul's Lutheran, Biglerville
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; worship with sermon, "The Pioneer of Our Salvation Reveals God," at 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor societies at 6:30 p. m.; Women's Missionary society Lenten vespers with theme, "The Challenge of the Future in Southeast Asia," at 7 p. m. Wednesday, midweek parish Lenten service with theme, "Lord Increase Our Faith in Loving Service," at 7:45 p. m. Thursday, catechetical class at 7 p. m.

Trinity Evangelical Reformed, Cashtown
The Rev. John H. Ehrhart, pastor. Church school at 9:30 a. m.; Youth Fellowship at 7 p. m. Tuesday, catechetical class at 7 p. m. Wednesday, Sunshine Sunday school class at 8 p. m.

St. John's Evangelical Reformed, Fairfield
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, March 17, catechetical class at 6 p. m.

St. John's Evangelical Reformed, McKnightstown
Worship with sermon at 9 a. m.; Church school at 10 a. m. Tuesday, catechetical class at 7 p. m.

Christ Reformed, Littlestown
The Rev. John C. Brumback, pastor. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Divine Fire," at 10:15 a. m.; choir rehearsal and meeting of the executive board of the Sunday school following the worship service. Monday, catechetical class in the Sunday school room at 7 p. m.

Trinity Lutheran, Arendville
Church school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon by the Rev. Paul Gladfelter at 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

Flohr's Lutheran
Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Church school at 10:30 a. m.

Hanoverstown Methodist
The Rev. Earl N. Rowe, pastor. Church school at 2 p. m.; worship with sermon at 3 p. m.

Bendersville Methodist
The Rev. G. W. Harrison, pastor. Worship with sermon, "Stoning Jesus," at 9:15 a. m.; Church school at 10:15 a. m. Monday, Gettysburg-Hanover sub-district Youth Fellowship meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Ortanna Methodist
Church school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.

Wenksville Methodist
Church school and Membership class at 1 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2 p. m. followed by meeting of the official board and membership committee.

Heidersburg United Brethren
The Rev. O. A. Kerns, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 7:30 p. m.

Mt. Olivet United Brethren
Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.

Idaville United Brethren
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.

St. Mary's Catholic, New Oxford
The Rev. Robert D. Hartnett, rector. Masses at 7:30 and 10 a. m.; devotions and benedictions at 7:30 p. m.

Salern United Brethren
The Rev. H. V. March, pastor. Sunday school at 1:30 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2:30 p. m.

Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian
The Rev. Harry S. Ecker, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Christian Trusteeship," at 10:30 a. m.

Trinity Lutheran, East Berlin
The Rev. Snyder Alleman, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Jesus Hid Himself," at 10:45 a. m. Wednesday, catechism at 6:30 p. m.; Lenten prayer meeting at 7:45 p. m.

St. Paul's Reformed, Red Run
The Rev. Richard E. Shaffer, pastor. Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Church school at 10:30 a. m.

Mt. Olivet Reformed, Bermudian
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.

St. Paul's Lutheran, Biglerville
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; worship with sermon, "The Pioneer of Our Salvation Reveals God," at 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor societies at 6:30 p. m.; Women's Missionary society Lenten vespers with theme, "The Challenge of the Future in Southeast Asia," at 7 p. m. Wednesday, midweek parish Lenten service with theme, "Lord Increase Our Faith in Loving Service," at 7:45 p. m. Thursday, catechetical class at 7 p. m.

Trinity Evangelical Reformed, Cashtown
The Rev. John H. Ehrhart, pastor. Church school at 9:30 a. m.; Youth Fellowship at 7 p. m. Tuesday, catechetical class at 7 p. m. Wednesday, Sunshine Sunday school class at 8 p. m.

St. John's Evangelical Reformed, Fairfield
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, March 17, catechetical class at 6 p. m.

St. John's Evangelical Reformed, McKnightstown
Worship with sermon at 9 a. m.; Church school at 10 a. m. Tuesday, catechetical class at 7 p. m.

Christ Reformed, Littlestown
The Rev. John C. Brumback, pastor. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Divine Fire," at 10:15 a. m.; choir rehearsal and meeting of the executive board of the Sunday school following the worship service. Monday, catechetical class in the Sunday school room at 7 p. m.

Trinity Lutheran, Arendville
Church school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon by the Rev. Paul Gladfelter at 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

(A Daily Newspaper)
16-20 Carlisle Street
Telephone—640

Published at regular intervals
on each weekday by
Times and News Publishing Co.
A Pennsylvania Corporation

President Samuel G. Spangler
Manager Carl A. Baum
Editor Paul L. Roy

Non-partisan in Politics
Entered at the Postoffice at Gettysburg as second class matter under the Act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One Week (By Carrier) 12 cents
One Month (By Carrier) ... 50 cents
One Year $6.00
Single Copies Three cents

Member of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association and the Interstate Advertising Managers' Association.

National Advertising Representative: Fred Kimball, Incorporated, 67 W. 44th Street, New York City.

Gettysburg, Pa., March 16, 1945

Just Folks

BROTHERS
I hold, because I think it true,
In spite of all the wrong they do
And love of pleasure,
That whether men be poor or rich,
One scarce can tell just which is which
By spirit-measure.
Put purse away, and foolish pride,
Most men are much alike, inside.
From bench or desk or lathe away,
Most men with children like to play—
Their own and neighbors.
Most men would have them nobly trained,
With one, perhaps, for church or dined.
The man who labors
Has dreams, if but the truth were known,
As high as those the richest own.
Most men are strengthened by belief;
Are saddened by another's grief,
And turn to share it.
Seldom a cross on man is laid
But one, like Simon, comes to aid
And begs to bear it.
No doubt, by every spirit-test,
All men are brothers at their best.

Today's Talk

NOURISHMENT
Many of the most significant things in life, we give little or no notice to. For example: We have to have fresh breath, which means air, every few seconds. Then we have to put food into our body, and also water. These are the elementary essentials to life.
Every growing thing has to have nourishment. The plant, the flower, the tree, all take nourishment from the ground and from the air. And the sun stimulates their growth. The very same rules that apply to Nature, apply to man.
There is so much more to be nourished in man, however, than in the case of any inanimate creation. Man's body, his mind, his heart, and his spirit must be nourished. He can be only a half-nourished man, whose nature has known but a part of this nourishment.
It is very easy to complain and to blame someone else for our lack of nourishment, but we are free agents and it is expected of us that we look after our own needs and fulfill them. It is the privilege of each one of us to develop our own personality, feeding it and nourishing it with a love of beauty, of music, of literature, of people, and of everything that touches the senses, or which adds to our enjoyment of life.
When nourishment is cut off from any part of our nature, a light goes out somewhere. You have known the highly talented, who with the years, neglected to nourish his gifts, and so allowed something precious of himself to slip away.
The enriched mind gives out nourishment to every other mind that it contacts. That's the great joy of being nourished. It enables us to nourish others. There is no limit to the nourishment of the mind. Every worthwhile book has mental food between its covers. And many a one nourishes the spirit as well.
And we humans are just like the birds, when we are well nourished. We are happy—we sing and rejoice in our good fortune.
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Lines And Designs In Nature"

FOUR YEARS AGO TODAY
(By The Associated Press)
March 16, 1941—Adolf Hitler, replying to President Roosevelt's pledge of aid to democracies, says no support from any part of world can prevent German victory or fall of Britain. British announce labor draft for girls of 20 to 21 and men 41 to 45.

Mountain Home, Idaho, (AP)—Slot machines in the officers' club at the Mountain Home Army Air Base are topped by this sign: "In case of air raid, stand near these machines—they haven't been hit yet."

The Almanac
March 17—Sun rises 7:10; sets 7:08.
Moon sets 11:25 p. m.
March 18—Sun rises 7:08; sets 7:09.
Moon sets 12:46 a. m.
MOON PHASES
29—First Quarter
26—Full Moon

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the
Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Two Teachers Wed Saturday: Charles I. Raffensperger, principal of the Biglerville schools, and Miss Erma Kathryn Myers, a teacher in the Littlestown schools, were married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Myers, East Berlin. The Rev. Paul Gladfelter, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, East Berlin, performed the ring ceremony.

Birth Announcement: A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Elker, East Middle street, at the Warner hospital, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Breighner, Stevens street, announce the birth of a son at the Warner hospital, Sunday.

Change of Residence: Benton Gilbert moved Thursday from the Kalfbeisch apartments to 301 Buford avenue.

Students to Hear Author-Traveler: Edward Tomlinson, noted traveler, author and lecturer, will address the student body of Gettysburg college in Brua Chapel next Thursday morning. His subject will be "Down the River of Silver," which deals with Brazil, Uruguay and Argentina.

Birth Announcement: A son was born at the Warner hospital Tuesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Snyder, Chambersburg street.

Department Store Stock to be Sold by Trustee: Charles W. Gardner, Gettysburg merchant, on Wednesday began his duties as trustee to close out the stock of the Gettysburg Department store, for the corporation which was headed by the late J. Frank Hartman. The trustee's sale began Saturday morning.

Hoover to Attend Service: Washington, March 10 (AP)—President and Mrs. Hoover tomorrow will go directly from the White House to the All Souls Unitarian church for the funeral of William Howard Taft and do not expect to attend the ceremonies in the rotunda of the capitol, where the body of the former president will lie in state for three hours.

From there Mr. and Mrs. Hoover will go to Arlington National Cemetery for the service at the grave.

Birth Announcement: A daughter was born Monday morning at the Warner hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Dale W. Guise, Gettysburg.

250 Rotarians at Inter-City Meeting Here: Wade Marr, past district governor of the 51st Rotary district, of North Carolina, put the finishing touches to the inter-city meeting of Rotary clubs Monday night, in the Eddie Plank gymnasium. More than 200 Rotarians from neighboring clubs attended the meeting, served by ladies of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Marie Codori sang several selections, accompanied by Miss Mary Ramer.

Dr. M. Hadwin Fischer was master of ceremonies. Harry Kimmey of Westminster was the song leader, and the Rev. Earl J. Bowman gave the invocation.

The Gettysburg college orchestra played throughout the dinner.

John T. McCaslin, of Baltimore, entertained with tricks of magic and humorous stories.

Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson introduced Mr. Marr. John D. Lipsey, president of the Gettysburg Rotary club, presided.

Visiting Band at High School: The Hanover high school orchestra, under the direction of Prof. C. H. Stenger, presented a concert in the auditorium of the Gettysburg high school Friday afternoon in return for the program given at the Hanover high school recently by the local orchestra.

Pilot Charles Flies at Night: Paul D. Charles, chief pilot at the Gettysburg airport, gave local residents a thrill late last night by flying over Gettysburg for almost half an hour. His plane was equipped with the regulation lights for night flying, and the field of Oak Ridge was specially illuminated to permit taking off and landing.

Personal: Mrs. Donald P. McPherson has returned from a cruise of several weeks to Bermuda. She was accompanied by Mrs. David Dale, Bellefonte, and Mrs. Donald Paxton, of Wayne.

John H. Bashore played host to his Sunday school class on a trip to Lebanon Tuesday evening.

I. L. Taylor and Edmund W. Thomas have returned from Philadelphia where they spent several days attending a bankers' conference.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cairns, Springs avenue, returned Sunday from a trip of several weeks to Florida.

Mrs. Lloyd C. Keefeauver, worthy matron of the Gettysburg chapter of Order of the Eastern Star entertained the officers of that lodge at supper at her home on Steinwehr avenue, Friday evening. Sixteen guests were in attendance.

The campus tea will be held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Clutz, Broadway.

YANKS BLAST NAZI STAFF'S HEADQUARTERS

London, March 16 (AP)—Bomb-blasted Berlin underwent its 24th consecutive RAF night raid last night after specially trained American fliers had climaxed a peak day of Allied air operations with a 650-plane pulverizing attack on Adolf Hitler's army staff headquarters at Zossen, 20 miles from the German capital.

RAF night raiders also struck at Hagen in the industrial Ruhr and at oil refineries in Milsburg, near Hannover.

U. S. Eighth Air Force officers reported great success in the Zossen attack, which was the first time American bombers had blasted the Nazi high command nerve center.

Hit Surface Quarters
More than 1,350 bombers, guarded by 750 fighters, roared straight for Berlin and then split in half to loop around the capital for the Zossen raid and attacks on the Oranienburg rail yards to the north.

The Americans encountered only sporadic and light anti-aircraft fire as they smashed at all the headquarters buildings above-ground. Part of the Zossen center is known to be deep underground.

The bombers dropped 6,000 high explosive bombs totaling 1,500 tons, plus 325,000 incendiaries that returning crewmen said started fires which soon engulfed many buildings.

Soldier Pleads 'Self-Defense'
Williamsport, Pa., March 16 (AP)—Army Private James E. Buckley, 22, of Bath, N. Y., renewed a plea of self defense Thursday from witness stand at his trial on a murder charge in the hitch-hike slaying of Vincent Nowakowski, 51, Blossburg farmer.

Buckley, testifying as the first defense witness, told jury Wednesday that Nowakowski made improper advances to him last August while he was riding in the farmer's automobile and that they struggled in a clearing along the roadside.

In the struggle, Buckley testified, he used an "Army trick" of pressing against Nowakowski's Adam's apple to "black him out" and did not know the man was dead when he left him. Buckley said he was unable to find anything to tie up Nowakowski and piled stones on him so that the man could not pursue him when he returned to consciousness.

Committee Favors Truck Weight Change

Harrisburg, Mar. 16 (AP)—Favorable committee action Thursday placed in position for a House vote next week legislation to make permanent the wartime increases in permissible truck weights on Pennsylvania highways.

Backed by the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, the measure would amend the motor vehicle code to continue the legal use after the war of trucks and trailers with a gross weight up to 45,000 pounds. The pre-war limit was 39,000 pounds.

The Fellowship Of Prayer

Trustees: "What is man that thou art mindful of him?" "Thou madest him to have dominion—" Psalm 8:4 and 6. Read Psalm 8.

"Man is only a reed" said Blaise Pascal, "the feeblest thing in nature; but he is a reed that thinks." His dominion is in his thought and though the stars awe him he can weigh and measure them. His dominion is a trust; so many things are helpless before him and when he builds his Robots he is helpless before himself. His dominion needs a higher dominion to control it. Power, says the Psalmist, is a trust. God has given it to us and judges our use of it.

What is man? Despair says, "the only creature under the stars who uses his sovereignty to destroy himself." Christian faith says "still God's child waiting for the pierced hand of Jesus Christ to subdue his power to love and tenderness and fulfill the promise of his creation."

Prayer: As Thou has given us dominion and power, O Lord, help us to use it according to Thy will. May no creature of Thine suffer through our carelessness or be broken by our cruelty. Help us to be true to our trust and be worthy of it in thought and deed. In the name of the Compassionate, Amen.

PUBLIC SALE

SATURDAY, MARCH 17TH
1 P. M.

Household goods and farming equipment; also one horse and one calf. Farming equipment consists of separator; two horse mowing machine; plows; cultivators; two buggies; wagon, etc. Numerous household items.

Sale to be held at the Amos M. Sprinkle farm, Fairfield R. 1. Along Mt. Hope road.

CHURCH SERVICES

IN  IN Gettysburg The County

Memorial United Brethren
The Rev. H. V. March, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.; Junior Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m.; Young People's Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m.; evangelistic services at 7 p. m. Evangelistic services will continue each evening at 7:30 o'clock with the Rev. and Mrs. Brian King in charge.

Christian Science, Kadel Building
Service with Lesson—Sermon, "Substance," at 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Services the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30 p. m. Reading room open every Thursday from 2 to 4 p. m.

St. Francis Xavier Catholic
The Rev. Mark E. Stock, rector. Masses Sunday at 7, 9 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; sodality meeting at 7 p. m.; Rosary and benediction at 7:30 p. m. Masses Holy days at 5:30, 7:30 and 9 a. m.

Four-square Gospel
The Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Myers, pastors. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.; young people's crusader meeting at 6:30 p. m.; evangelistic service at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, prayer and praise service at 7:45 p. m.

Prince of Peace Episcopal
The Rev. A. G. VanElden, vicar. Holy Eucharist at 9 a. m. Wednesday, Lenten service with study, "The Sacrament of Holy Orders," at 7:30 p. m.

Trinity Evangelical Reformed
The Rev. Howard Schley Fox, pastor. Church school at 9:30 a. m.; divine service at 10:30 a. m.; children's league at 2:30 p. m.; vespers at 7 p. m. Tuesday, spring meeting of the Women's Guild at the church at 7:30 p. m. with address by Mrs. J. August Boriels on the Philippines. Wednesday, junior choir rehearsal for Palm procession at 6:30 p. m.; Lenten vespers with examination of the catechisms at 7:30 p. m.; meeting of men of the church in the church school chapel at 8:30 p. m. Saturday, final meeting of the catechetical class at 1 p. m.

Church of the Brethren
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "The Ransom Price for Our Souls," by the Rev. W. N. Zabler at 10:30 a. m.

St. James Lutheran
The Rev. R. R. Gresh, pastor. Sunday school with Men's Bible class taught by Robert Rau at 9:15 a. m.; worship with sermon, "The Way of Salvation," at 10:30 a. m.; junior church and nursery at 6 p. m.; Junior, High School and Senior Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m.; worship with sermon, "Our Offering to Christ," at 7 p. m. Monday, Girl Scouts at 4 p. m.; Sunday school official board at 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school orchestra rehearsal at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, week-day Bible school at 4 p. m.; Women's Missionary Guild at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, Silver Circle at 2 p. m. followed by Mission Study class, conducted by the Women's Missionary society with Mrs. C. C. Culp in charge of devotions and Mrs. R. R. Gresh as teacher; junior choir rehearsal at 6 p. m.; Lenten service with sermon, "Bearing the Cross," at 7:30 p. m.; senior choir rehearsal at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, senior high school choir rehearsal at 7 p. m.; Boy Scouts at 7 p. m. Saturday, catechetical class at 1:30 p. m.

St. Paul's A. M. E. Zion
The Rev. R. M. Everett, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.; V. C. E. society at 4 p. m.; worship with sermon at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, prayer service at 8 p. m.

Presbyterian
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; morning worship at 10:45 a. m. with sermon by the Rev. Dr. William F. Quillian, Jr., of the Gettysburg college faculty; Ky-Ro-Nika Fellowship at 2:30 p. m.; Tuesday at 4 p. m.; Week-Day Bible school, and choir rehearsals Thursday at 6 and 7 p. m.

Christ (College) Lutheran
The Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; confirmation class at 9:45 a. m.; worship with sermon, "God—Father of Perfect Love," at 10:45 a. m. Monday, meeting of the Dorcas Sunday school class at the home of Mrs. W. C. Spicer at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Women's Service Guild at 2:30 p. m.; children's choir at 4 p. m. Thursday, Boy Scouts at 7:15 p. m.; senior choir at 7:30 p. m.

Pittsburgh, March 16 (AP)—Edward J. Weffing, 65, of Edgewood, drowned Wednesday when he leaped fully clothed into a swimming pool in Braddock township, the coroner reported.

Heidersburg United Brethren
The Rev. O. A. Kerns, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 7:30 p. m.

Mt. Olivet United Brethren
Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.

Idaville United Brethren
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.

St. Mary's Catholic, New Oxford
The Rev. Robert D. Hartnett, rector. Masses at 7:30 and 10 a. m.; devotions and benedictions at 7:30 p. m.

Salem United Brethren
The Rev. H. V. March, pastor. Sunday school at 1:30 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2:30 p. m.

Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian
The Rev. Harry S. Ecker, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Christian Trusteeship," at 10:30 a. m.

Trinity Lutheran, East Berlin
The Rev. Snyder Allemen, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Jesus Hid Himself," at 10:45 a. m. Wednesday, catechise at 6:30 p. m.; Lenten prayer meeting at 7:45 p. m.

St. Paul's Reformed, Red Run
The Rev. Richard E. Shaffer, pastor. Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Church school at 10:30 a. m.

Mt. Olivet Reformed, Bernadine
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.

Zwingli Reformed, East Berlin

Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 7 p. m.

Holtzschwann Lutheran
The Rev. Elwood G. Johnson, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.

St. Ignatius Catholic, Buchanan Valley
The Rev. Daniel J. Crowley, rector. Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.

Mummasburg Mennonite
The Revs. Amos W. Myer and Roy M. Geigley, pastors. Sunday school at 9 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10 a. m.

Great Conewago Presbyterian
Sunday school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon by the Rev. U. A. Guss at 11 a. m.

Zion Lutheran, Fairfield
John C. McCune, II, pastor. Church school at 9:15 a. m.; The Service at 10:30 a. m.; Christian Endeavor at 7:30 p. m. Friday, choir rehearsal at 8 p. m.

Mummasburg Mennonite
The Rev. A. A. Landis, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.

St. Mary's Catholic, Fairfield
The Rev. Joseph Gotsdiner, rector. Mass with Children's Communion at 9 a. m.; Sunday school at 10 a. m. Week-day mass at 8 a. m. Holy Day masses at 5:30 and 7:30 a. m.

Mt. Zion Lutheran, Goodyear
The Rev. P. J. Horick, pastor. Sunday school at 9 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10 a. m.; young people's meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Upper Meridian Lutheran, Ground Oak
Sunday school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.

Marsh Creek Brethren
Worship with sermon, "The Cup, the Cross, the Crown," by the Rev. W. A. Keeney at 9:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.

Friends Grove Brethren
Sunday school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon, "The Cup, the Cross, the Crown," by the Rev. Mr. Keeney at 11 a. m.

St. Mark's Evangelical Reformed, Gettysburg R. 1
Friday, Lenten vespers with Litany and instruction at 7:30 p. m.; choir rehearsal at 8:30 p. m.

Mt. Tabor United Brethren
Sunday school at 1:30 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2:30 p. m.; official board at 3:30 p. m.

Mt. Zion United Brethren
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.; Junior Christian Endeavor at 10:30 a. m.; official board at 7:30 p. m.

Brethren in Christ, Iron Springs
The Rev. John Garman, pastor. Unified service at 9:30 a. m.; program of sacred music by the male chorus of Messiah Bible college, Grantham, at 7:30 p. m.

Zion Reformed, Ardenstville
The Rev. Nevin R. Prantz, pastor. Worship with sermon at 9 a. m.; Church school at 10 a. m.; union Lenten service at 7:30 p. m.

Trinity-Bender's Reformed, Biglerville
Church school at 10 a. m.; dedication at 11 a. m.

Wenksville Methodist
Church school and Membership class at 1 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2 p. m. followed by meeting of the official board and membership committee.

Heidersburg United Brethren
The Rev. O. A. Kerns, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 7:30 p. m.

Mt. Olivet United Brethren
Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.

Idaville United Brethren
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.

St. Mary's Catholic, New Oxford
The Rev. Robert D. Hartnett, rector. Masses at 7:30 and 10 a. m.; devotions and benedictions at 7:30 p. m.

Salem United Brethren
The Rev. H. V. March, pastor. Sunday school at 1:30 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2:30 p. m.

Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian
The Rev. Harry S. Ecker, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Christian Trusteeship," at 10:30 a. m.

Trinity Lutheran, East Berlin
The Rev. Snyder Allemen, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon, "Jesus Hid Himself," at 10:45 a. m. Wednesday, catechise at 6:30 p. m.; Lenten prayer meeting at 7:45 p. m.

St. Paul's Reformed, Red Run
The Rev. Richard E. Shaffer, pastor. Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Church school at 10:30 a. m.

Mt. Olivet Reformed, Bernadine
Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m.

Predicts Broader Aeronautics Powers

Harrisburg, March 16 (AP)—Chairman William R. McMillen (R-Indiana) of the House Aeronautics Commission Thursday predicted favorable committee action next week on a measure to broaden the aeronautics commission powers.

Part of an administration post-war airport development program, the bill would allow the commission to expend money for surveys and plans for airports and to purchase lands for airport construction.

Other measures to appropriate $3,725,000 for development of a state-wide airport plan on a fifty-fifty basis with local communities or the federal government and to allocate to the commission gasoline tax funds received for fuel used by aircraft are still before the House Appropriations Committee.

tion and consecration of new church hymnals at 11 a. m.

Elias Lutheran, Emmitsburg
The Rev. Philip Bower, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; The Service with sermon, "The Doctrine of Grace," at 10:30 a. m.; vespers with sermon, "Symbols of Christ's Suffering," at 7:30 p. m. Catechise class this evening at 6:45 o'clock; Lenten service at 7:45 p. m.

Sheely's United Brethren
The Rev. H. O. Sipe, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; worship with sermon at 11 a. m. Thursday, prayer service at 8 p. m.

Mt. Carmel United Brethren
Sunday school at 1:30 p. m.; worship with sermon at 2:30 p. m.; Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m.

Mt. Hope United Brethren
Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m.; worship with sermon at 7:30 p. m.

Biglerville United Brethren
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; High School Christian Endeavor group at 6:30 p. m.

Bethlehem United Brethren
Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.

First Lutheran, New Oxford
The Rev. G. E. Shaffer, pastor. Church school at 9:15 a. m.; worship with sermon by the Rev. Robert L. Lang, Washington, D. C., at 10:15 a. m.; song service with theme, "Striving for Peace," at 7 p. m. Saturday, catechise at 2 p. m. Wednesday, Lenten service at 7:30 p. m.

St. Paul's Reformed, New Oxford
The Rev. D. F. Ehlman, pastor. Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.

Emmanuel Reformed, Abbottstown
Worship with sermon at 9:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.

New Oxford Methodist
The Rev. Earl N. Rowe, pastor. Church school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.

St. Paul's Lutheran, The Pines
The Rev. Elmer Drumm, pastor. Worship with sermon at 9 a. m.; Sunday school at 10 a. m.

St. Mark's Lutheran, Heidersburg
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.

LOAFERS
$4.95
THE SHOE BOX

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

FOR SALE GENERAL

LANT THIS SPRING AND ENJOY fresh berries from your own garden. We offer postpaid 25 Cumberland Blackcap Raspberries for $4.25 or 50 plants—each of Cumberland and Latham, the best red, for $12.25. Famous Boystrawberries for $5.65—100 Blackmore strawberries $3.60. Write for free copy of new low price Planting Guide. Waynesboro Nurseries, Inc., Waynesboro, Virginia.

OR SALE: PAIR OF BLACK mares, 4 and 5 years old, one a good leader, very gentle for children, weigh about 1,400, also pair of mules, 6 years old, iron roans, weigh 1,000 pounds, one a good leader and very gentle. Dan Bucher, Gardners, Phone Bigler-123-R-22.

OR SALE: TWO MULES, ONE single leader; two horses; four sets harness; two McCormick Deering corn plows; weeder; good mower with grass bar and special pen box, and winnower. A. Irvin Hostetter, Littlestown.

OR SALE: OAK WOOD, STOVE length; also fireplace wood. Chas. Hess, 15 Fifth Street, Phone 38-Y.

SEED FURNITURE AND STOVES. See us if you need used or re-built furniture, rugs or stoves. Prices reasonable. Trade-In Furniture Exchange, 55 W. Clark Ave., Rear—York Supply Co., York, Pa.

OR SALE: RED CLOVER SEED. A. J. Welmer, Cashman farm, Barlow, Gettysburg R. 1.

OR SALE: BROWN LEATHER folding baby carriage. Good condition. 123 W. Middle Street. Phone 64-W.

OR SALE: ELECTRIC MILK coolers, 3, 4, 6, 8, and 10 can sizes in stock; also good electric and ice coolers. Daniel L. Yingling, Gettysburg R. 1.

OR SALE: HOME-GROWN POTatoes. A. Irvin Hostetter, Littlestown.

GRAY BROOD MARE, 1,600 LBS. Hoffman and Winebrenner farm, near old Airport.

OR SALE: BLACK HORSE, 8 years old, works wherever hitched. Call Andrew, Orrtanna. Phone 933-R-22.

YES, WE HAVE SPRINGFIELD studio couches and sofa-beds, also a beautiful variety of overstuffed springfield chairs, as well as springfield living room sofas, low as $108.00. York Supply Company, 43 W. Market St., York, Pa.

OR SALE: ELECTRIC INCUBATOR, 50-egg capacity. Phone Gettysburg 861-R-2.

OR SALE: YORK IMPERIAL and Stayman apples, not storage apples. Donald C. Boyer, Bigler-135-R-11.

OR SALE: PEDIGREED BABY chicks, White Leghorn and Rocks (Leader and Park strains) Sires record 282-542. Hatches weekly. J. Earl Plank, Gettysburg, R. 2. Phone 931-R-21.

OR SALE: THREE PIECE LIVING room suite, 318 North Stratton Street. Call 543-X evenings and Saturday.

OR SALE: BLACK MARE, WORK wherever hitched. Howard Waybright, Gettysburg R. 1.

OR SALE: GIRLS' CLOTHING, size 10 to 14, including three white dresses. Apply Times Office.

OR SALE: METAL CANARY cage, like new. Phone 272-Y.

OR SALE: MAYTAG ELECTRIC washer with portable tub; also new five horse power air cooler motor. C. L. Sowers, Fairfield. Phone 34-R-31.

OR SALE: UPRIGHT PIANO, in good condition, just tuned. Call 133-Y.

OR SALE: TWO GIRLS Bicycles, twenty-two and twenty-eight inch. Harry Harmon, Munnasburg.

OR SALE: BABY CHICKS FOR broilers, also turkey poulters. J. H. Smith, McKnightstown.

REAL ESTATE

AUSHERMAN BROS. REALTORS
M. O. Rice, Repr. Room 2, Kadel Bldg. Res. 785 Baltimore street.
Office 161-Y, Residence 182-X.

FOR SALE: 8-ROOM STUCCO house, lot 150x280, mile east of Caledonia, 2 1/2 bathrooms, 2-car garage, electricity, oil-burning hot water furnace, 3 large porches. For year-around use. Auserman Brothers.

FOR SALE: 117 ACRE COUNTRY home, nine room house, hardwood floors, every convenience, beautiful lawn. Auserman Brothers.

FOR SALE: BRICK DUPLEX, Hanover street, New Oxford, large rooms, steam heat, $7,000. Auserman Brothers.

FOR SALE: DOUBLE FRAME house, York street, conveniences, large frontage. Auserman Brothers.

FOR SALE: 83 ACRE FARM, Harrington road, 11 room house, bank barn, electric, $7,000. Auserman Brothers.

WEST'S 1945 CATALOGUE—100's of farms and businesses 6 states; special list of farms handy Gettysburg; free. West's Farm Agency, J. C. Bream, Rep., Fairfield Road, Gettysburg, Pa.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT: BEAUTIFUL HOME in country for small family. Large stone house, furnace, electricity, running water, garden, poultry houses, garage, good road. Seven miles from Gettysburg, four miles to New Oxford. Apply with reference. Write Box 322 Times Office.

FOR RENT: APPROXIMATELY forty acres of farm land, including five acres of permanent pasture, located one-fourth mile from Aspers. Will rent on your own terms, either for cash or on shares; whichever you prefer. Write Arthur C. Sheely, 1047 Patapasco Ave., Baltimore 25, Md.

FOR RENT: TWO MODERNLY furnished bedrooms, centrally located, kitchen privileges. Write letter 308 Times Office or Phone 627-W after 6 o'clock.

FOR RENT: FARM LOCATED 1 mile east of Bonneauville, containing 120 acres. Can be rented for $350 for one year. For further details call or communicate with John P. Butt, Esq., Gettysburg.

A LIMITED NUMBER OF SAFE deposit boxes for rent, now available. Biglerville National bank.

MALE HELP WANTED

WANTED
Inside and Outside
Salesmen

For local, growing concern. Please reply in your own handwriting as to qualifications, age, draft status and previous experience.

Release from War Manpower Commission necessary.

Write Letter "324"
TIMES OFFICE

WANTED: MAN BETWEEN THE age of 25 and 45 to manage our Shoe department. Must be experienced and capable of taking complete charge of department.
Good salary and bonus plan. Write or call and an interview will be arranged. Montgomery Ward and Company, Hagerstown, Md.

WANTED: BOY OVER FIFTEEN
for week-ends and evenings. Plaza
Company, Taneytown road, Route 134

WMC RULING—MALE HELP MAY be hired solely upon USES referral.

MEN WANTED: OYLER AND Spangler, Central Chemical Corp.

HELP WANTED

WANTED
EXPERIENCED REPORTER
One with knowledge of court house,
good salary and bonus plan. Write or call and an interview will be arranged. Montgomery Ward and
Company, Hagerstown, Md.

WANTED: PARTY WITH ORchard equipment to care for Orchard of approximately 1,000 apple trees, 3 to 5 hundred pear trees, four acres of grapes. On percentage basis for one to two years agreement. Call evenings 130-R-12, Lincolnton west, New Oxford.

WANTED: TWO MARried couples to work at Adams County Home, one for second farmer and attendant and the other for janitor and assistant cook. Good wages and living conditions. Apply to Adams County Commissioners' office, Courthouse, Gettysburg.

WANTED: RESTAURANT HELP,
no Sunday work. Apply Butt's
Diner, Buford avenue.

WANTED: SHORT ORDER COOK,
Plaza Restaurant.

WANTED: MEN AND WOMEN
for general factory work. Gettysburg Furniture Company.

WANTED TO BUY

WANTED: USED CARS, ANY make, any model, will pay highest cash dollar. Get my price before you sell. 20 used cars for sale. Glenn L. Bream, 100 Buford avenue.

WANTED: HOLSTEIN BULL,
also brood sow. Phone Gettysburg
938-R-2.

WANTED: POULTRY OF ALL kinds. Will pay highest price and will call for R. J. Brindle, 531
South Franklin street, Hanover.
Phone 5278.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WMC RULING—FEMALE HELP
in essential activities may transfer to other essential activities only and must have statement of availability.

WANTED: COUNTER GIRL,
Greyhound Post House. Apply
Miss Maddox.

WANTED WOMAN IN COUNTRY to assist in housecleaning, will take care of transportation. Write letter 326, Times Office.

WANTED: WAITRESS, NO SUNday work. Apply Butt's Diner, Buford avenue.

WANTED: RELIABLE WOMAN TO help with housework, one day a week. Write Box 321, Times Office.

LOST

LOST: POOL TABLE RAIL BEtween Eberhart hotel and Grandview Terrace. Robert D. Lee, Gettysburg R. 3.

MISCELLANEOUS

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES IN the armed forces: From Gettysburg, Upper Tyrone and Upper Huntington townships and Bendersville
Borough. The Bendersville Fire Company is sponsoring an Honor Roll board in the borough of Bendersville for the men and women serving in the armed forces during World War II.

Please assist the committee by mailing the full names from these districts to Robert D. Peters,
Bendersville, Pa.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED A shipment of Loudon Tubular Arch stalls and stanchions, made of fine carbon hearth steel tubing.
Also have steel columns, utility carrier and hay tracks and door hangers. If you are remodeling your barn, check with Loudon equipment. Daniel L. Yingling, Gettysburg R. 1.

RADIO REPAIRING: ALL MAKES, models. Baker's Battery Service, opposite Post Office.

BINGO: KARAS STORE, THURSday and Saturday nights. Children, grocery bags and fresh fruit.

PIPE AND FITTINGS
Pipe cut to suit your needs
Electric Supplies
Lower's Store
Table Rock, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE: ON THE WESTbrook farm, Route 34, 1 mile north of Biglerville, Thursday, March 29th. Horses, cows, hogs and farm machinery. M. E.
Knouse.

FOOD SALE: MARCH 24TH BENedict Good Times Club of Cashtown
Reformed church.

NOTICE: PLEASE ARRANGE AT once to have your Victory Garage, located northeast of Stratton and Lincoln avenues. Call
J. E. Codori or Dr. C. B. Stover.

112 RATS KILLED WITH JAR
"Rat" Rat Killer. Guaranteed
"Roach" Killer kills roaches.
Zerling's Hardware.

RUMMAGE SALE: TROXEL'S store, March 16th, 1 to 7 p. m. and March 17th, 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

WALL PAPER AND PAPERHANG-
ing. Harry Gilbert.

WILL SELL MODEL W CLETRAC
tractor at Earl Guley sale on Mar.
20. Harry Luckenbaugh.

BAKED HAM SUPPER, METHOdist Church, Orrtanna, March 17th

500 CARD PARTY EVERY TUESday evening 8:30 p. m. Dance every Friday night. Barlow Fire
Company, Taneytown road, Route 134

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF EXECUTRICES
In re Estate of Charles C. Weaver, deceased.

Letters Testamentary on the last Will and Testament of Charles C. Weaver, deceased, late of Bendersville Borough, Adams County, Pa., having been duly resued to the undersigned, they hereby give notice to all persons indebted to said deceased to make immediate payment, and those having claims or demands against the same to present them properly authenticated without delay for settlement.

EDNA E. WEANER
NITA M. SCHRIVER,
Executrices
Bendersville, Pa.

R. F. Topper, Esq.,
Att'y for Estate,
Gettysburg, Pa.

NOTICE
In re Estate of J. S. Sedler, late of the Borough of Gettysburg, Adams County, Pennsylvania, deceased.

Letters Testamentary on the estate of the above named deceased, having been duly granted to the undersigned by the Register of Wills of Adams County, Pennsylvania, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims to present the same without delay, to the undersigned.

DAVID MARCH, Executor
Biglerville, Pennsylvania

Or to
Swope Brown & Swope,
Attorneys for the Estate,
Gettysburg, Pennsylvania

NOTICE
Notices hereby given that Sarah O.
Sowers, Administratrix of the estate of William J. Sowers, late of Tyrone Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania, having fully administered the estate and distributed the assets, has filed her petition to be discharged from her duties as such Administratrix in the office of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court of Adams County, Pennsylvania, and will present said petition to said court at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, April 7, 1946, and ask for an order of final discharge.

SARAH O. SOWERS,
Administratrix of the Estate of William J. Sowers.

Bullett & Bullett,
Attorneys

ANOTHER BLASTED ILLUSION
Evanston, Ill. (AP)—You may have thought it was romance or homosexuality that made birds migrate, but a zoology researcher says it's only fat. Dr. Albert Wolfson of Northwestern university, said his researchers indicated birds get fat as the sun comes north. "It is this excess of fat energy which sends the bird on its spring migration to its breeding grounds," he added.

Second Marriage

By EVELYN MURRAY CAMPBELL

YESTERDAY: Cynthia refuses to give up her business and Carey drops the issue for the moment. He asks her to visit the Brandons with him where Cynthia is bored by Brandon's young wife. The other three hit it off, but Cynthia feels she is an outsider. On the way home she voices the thought that Joan is too young, and then almost bites her tongue off for making that remark.

Chapter 11

The big sedan turned into the drive just before them and Aunt Maud and the two younger children got out. It was after eleven and Maud was the worst of drivers. She hadn't mentioned taking the car out.

"We went to the theatre," she said in a meek complaining voice.
"It was so lonely at home for the poor little things. I hope you don't mind, Cynthia."

"Carey will walk to the garden house with you, Maud. It's dark in all that shrubbery."

"Oh—no. Thank you." She faded into the path preceded by a blinding flashlight.

Cynthia followed the children upstairs while Carey put both cars away. All elasticity was gone from her and she walked heavily. "It's only the way people live," she thought. "Going and coming, amusing themselves, being independent and dependent on one another.

What's the matter with me? Why do I let little things take the taste out of life and spoil my happiness at its very crest?"

Peter was already in his blue pajamas, his clothes in a heap on the floor. He began to talk about the picture as if it was the most important thing in the world. "Boy!
Did that plane make a nose dive!
And Clark Gable was in it. Himself! I saw him as plain as anything even if Aunt Maud did say—"

She tried to put her arms around him but he wriggled away like an eel.

"Maud doesn't know everything, does she?" She did not know that her voice was wistful.

"Gee, mom, let me tell you the rest of it."

"Tell me something else, Peter.
Do you like Carey?" A whisper that was like disloyalty. "Do you mind it that he's come here to live?"

He was in bed, his stubby face, half boy, half child, outlined on the white pillow. But his eyes looked past her to blankness.

"Carey? I like him all right. He knows a lot about engines. He could make one himself if he tried."

"But—do you like him every day
—all the time?"

"Gee, mom, how do I know?"
He was half asleep. There are no tomorrows for twelve year olds. It wasn't fair to ask about them.

Eidris was lost in the heavy darkness of Aunt Maud's abandoned room, so different from the dainty smallness of her own. All this would have to be re-arranged, Cynthia thought, when she could find time.

She and Carey would turn Vera out and move into the big front bedroom and Eidris would have her own place again. The girls should be together—she planned while she waited for Eidris in the ponderous four poster.

The slim body was rigid, unresponsive. "Eidris, why are you like this? Has anyone been talking to you? Saying unkind things to you?"

"That was wrong but she couldn't hold it back. She couldn't bear the coldness of Eidris."

"No, mother. Do you mind if we don't talk. My head aches. The picture was so noisy. I think I hate airplanes."

"Eidris, won't you come back to your own room tonight? It's so lonely here. I want you near me."

"No, mother, no. I like it here.
Really, I do."

Eidris' lips were cool and remote as the petals of a water lily.

Cynthia was divided between tears and a human impulse to spank her child. It was a problem that would have to be served another day. Midnight was not the time to approach a recalcitrant youngster.

Maud with her virginal methods was triumphant.

"Would you like some Ovaltine, darling?"

"Oh, mother—please! Just let me go to sleep. My head aches so dreadfully."

"Well—then. Poor little head.
You shouldn't look at such long pictures. Perhaps we'd better think about glasses, nice big, horny rims."

Afterward, Cynthia remembered every word of that pointless persuasion of hers. Ovaltine. Horn rimmed glasses for Eidris. Everything but the real cause of the child's pains. She evaded that. She went out, closing the door softly.

Down a short corridor, around a corner and Carey was waiting at the top of the stairs by the light switch.

"Don't turn it off, Carey darling.
Vera isn't in yet."

"It's pretty late. After twelve."

"What nonsense. They're off somewhere dancing. They won't get home 'til all hours. She's only with Chester. It's summer, you know."

It was summer. The soft night wind stirred the curtains and moonlight was in the room. The ocean pounded eternally against the shore and searched with long dark, mysterious fingers for new channels;

retreating, leaving shells and sea weed to mark the spot. Fog, presag-ing the morning, rolled like feathers in low places and the little ravines in the hills; over the lost ocean turning to pearl, a bell buoy tolled wearily.

Cynthia stirred in Carey's arms.
There was a murmur of voices somewhere near and presently a door closed. It was only Vera coming home.

The office did not take all of Cynthia's day. It was the slack season when routine and Miss Lee could keep the wheels moving. But Cynthia went down town every morning an hour later than usual.

Murder, Suicide
Follow Telegrams

Easton, Pa., March 16 (AP)—Two women were found shot to death in their home in nearby Hecktown Tuesday.

Coroner David Bachman told this story:

A month ago, Mrs. Grace Rosko,
23, expecting a baby, received notice that her soldier husband had been wounded in action.

Distraught, she required a psy-chiatrist's services.

Two weeks ago her baby was born,
and stayed until early afternoon.

What would she do otherwise, she asked herself, with a day so crowded with long hours?

To be continued

Prudential
FARM
LOANS

- ✓ Low Interest
- ✓ Long Term
- ✓ Fair Appraisal
- ✓ Prompt Service

Ausherman Bros.
Kadel Building
GETTYSBURG, PA.

Authorized Mortgage Loan Solicitor for
The Prudential Insurance Company of America

PUBLIC SALE

THURSDAY, MARCH 22ND

12:00 Noon

The undersigned will have sale at his residence along the Gettysburg and Taneytown road, one mile north of Harney, the following personal property:

Four head of horses consisting of pair gray mares, good workers and pair black colts coming three years old. These horses are all of good size.

Seventeen head of cattle consisting of eight milk cows, three with calves by side, four stock bulls and five heifers.

Thirty head of hogs, consisting of three brood sows, one with pigs six weeks old, balance shoats.

Farming Implements
Osborne binder, eight-foot cut, good canvas; Osborne mower, hay loader, Case side-delivery rake, good as new; fodder shredder, two riding corn plows, two walking corn plows,
Ontario drill, eight hoes; Case corn planter, truck body, 6x11 feet, with racks; two wagons, one heavy wagon and other two-horse wagon and bed;
hay carriage, 16 feet long, good, 28-disc harrow, four-section spring tooth harrow, Massey-Harris corn binder in good order. E.B. manure spreader, lot of harness, collars and bridles, pair wheels for Osborne mower, Buckeye egg incubator, power churn, butter worker, two wood stoves and refrigerator and other articles not mentioned.

Terms cash. Stand rights reserved.

C. B. NAIL
D. Edwin Benner, Auctioneer
Carl Haines and H. S. Schwartz,
Clerks

Then came another War department notice—the father, Pfc. Paul Rosko, now is reported missing in action.

Mrs. Rosko shot her mother, Mrs.
Truman Bittenbender, 47, ten turned the gun on herself.

PUBLIC SALE

MARCH 21ST, 12:00 NOON SHARP

The undersigned will offer at public sale the farming equipment on the J. P. Bigham farm in Freedom Township, along the road leading to McCleary's schoolhouse, 1/4 mile west of Greenmount and five miles south of Gettysburg, the following:

Farm Machinery
Deering under, seven-foot cut;
mower, five-foot cut. Keystone hay loader, side delivery rake, dump rake, hay tedder, corn planter, New Idea manure spreader, eight-hoe grain drill, two riding corn plows, Oliver plow, steel land roller, lever harrow, 3-section; spike harrow, drag harrow, four-horse wagon and bed, two horse wagon and bed, two-horse wagon and two sets hay carriages, feed grinder, grindstone, bag wagon, single trees, double trees, hog troughs, two brooder stoves, hog feeder, wheelbarrow and steel drums

Household Goods
Wood or coal range, Perfection five-burner oil stove with built-in oven and hot water tank, with five gallons oil, tank in good condition;
ice refrigerator, 100-pound size, enamel lined; large old fashioned ten-plate stove, two large copper kettles, large iron kettle, odd chairs and tables, crocks and jars, and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms cash

MARY C. BIGHAM YATES
Benner, Auctioneer
Collins, Clerk

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

FOR SALE GENERAL

PLANT THIS SPRING AND ENJOY fresh berries from your own garden. We offer postpaid 25 Cumberland Blackcaps Raspberries for $4.25 or 50 plants—each of Cumberland and Latham, the best red, for $7.25. Famous Boysenberries for $5.65—100 Blackmore strawberries $3.60. Write for free copy of new low price Planting Guide. Waynesboro Nurseries, Inc., Waynesboro, Virginia.

FOR SALE: PAIR OF BLACK mares, 4 and 5 years old, one good leader, very gentle for children, weigh about 1400, also pair of mules, 6 years old, iron roans, weigh 1000 pounds, one a good leader and very gentle. Dan Bucher, Gardeners, Phone Bigler-ville 123-R-22.

FOR SALE: TWO MULES, ONE single leader; two horses; four sets harness; two McCormick Deering corn plows; weeder; good mower with grass bar and special pea bar, and winnower. A. Irvin Hostetter, Littlestown.

FOR SALE: OAK WOOD, STOVE length; also fireplace wood. Chas. Hess, 15 Fifth Street, Phone 38-Y.

USED FURNITURE AND STOVES. See us if you need used or re-built furniture, rugs or stoves. Prices reasonable. Trade-In Furniture Exchange, 55 W. Clark Ave., Rear—York Supply Co., York, Pa.

FOR SALE: RED CLOVER SEED. A. J. Weimer, Cashman farm, Barlow, Gettysburg R. 1.

FOR SALE: BROWN LEATHER folding baby carriage. Good condition. 123 W. Middle street, Phone 644-W.

FOR SALE: ELECTRIC MILK coolers, 3, 4, 6, 8, and 10 can sizes in stock; also good used electric and ice coolers. Daniel L. Yingling, Gettysburg R. 1.

FOR SALE: HOME-GROWN POTATOES. A. Irvin Hostetter, Littlestown.

GRAY BROOD MARE, 1600 LBS. Hoffman and Winebrenner farm, near old Airport.

FOR SALE: BLACK HORSE, 8 years old, works wherever hitched. Clyde Andrew, Orrtanna, Phone 933-R-22.

YES, WE HAVE SPRINGFILLED studio couches and sofa-beds, also a beautiful variety of overstuffed springfilled chairs as well as springfilled living room suites as low as $109.00. York Supply Company, 43 W. Market St., York, Pa.

FOR SALE: ELECTRIC INCUBATOR, 50-egg capacity. Phone Gettysburg 961-R-2.

FOR SALE: YORK IMPERIAL and Stayman apples, not storage apples. Donald C. Boyer, Bigler-ville 135-R-11.

FOR SALE: PEDIGREED BABY chicks, White Leghorn and Rocks (Leader and Park strains) Sires record 282-342. Hatches weekly. J. Earl Plank, Gettysburg, R. 2, Phone 931-R-21.

FOR SALE: THREE PIECE LIVING room suite, 318 North Stratton street. Call 543-X evenings and Saturday.

FOR SALE: BLACK MARE, WORK wherever hitched. Howard Waybright, Gettysburg R. 1.

FOR SALE: GIRLS' CLOTHING, size 10 to 14, including three white dresses. Apply Times Office.

FOR SALE: METAL CANARY cage, like new. Phone 272-Y.

FOR SALE: MAYTAG ELECTRIC washer with portable tubs; also new five horse power air cooler motor. C. L. Sowers, Fairfield, Phone 34-R-31.

FOR SALE: UPRIGHT PIANO, IN good condition, just tuned. Call 133-Y.

FOR SALE: TWO GIRLS Bicycles, twenty-two and twenty-eight inch. Harry Harmon, Mummasburg.

FOR SALE: BABY CHICKS FOR broilers, also turkey poults. J. H. Smith, McKnightstown.

USED CARS FOR SALE

FOR SALE: 1935 DIAMOND T truck with 12 foot stake bed, good running order and good tires, ceiling price with bed $555.00. Daniel L. Yingling, Gettysburg R. 1.

FOR SALE: 1931 CHEVROLET truck, stake body, T license. Cameron Peters, Gardeners R. 2.

WANTED TO RENT

WANTED: SMALL HOUSE OR apartment in town or country. Apply Times Office.

WANTED TO RENT: FARM stocked or not. Write Box 323, Times Office.

Markets

Gettysburg-Grain-Eggs

Market prices at the Gettysburg warehouse and the Egg Group Association corrected daily as follows:

WHEAT—Large	40 1/2
EGGS—Large	34 1/2
Ducks	45

Baltimore Fruit-Poultry

APPLES—Mkt. doll. Bus. bas. U. S. 1's, 2 1/2-in. min., Md., Pa., Va. and W. Va., Red Delicious, Staymans, $2.50—3, few higher; Yorks, Stars, Black Twigs, Romeys, $2—2.50, various varieties ungrd., best, $1.50—1.75; poorer, 50—75c.

LIVE POULTRY—Market firm. Receipts very light. Wholesale selling prices (including commission) in Baltimore. Prices shown reflect sales reported within existing regulations, but do not cover other poultry sold on the market for which prices were not available.

ROASTERS, FRYERS AND BROILERS—Weekly $4c.

EGGS—All breeds, 80—90 1/2c.

REAL ESTATE

AUSHERMAN BROS. REALTORS
M. O. Rice, Repr. Room 2, Kadel Bldg. Res. 785 Baltimore street.
Office 161-Y, Residence 182-X.
FOR SALE: 8-ROOM STUCCO house, lot 150x280, mile east of Caledonia, 2 tile bathrooms, 2-car garage, electricity, oil-burning hot water furnace, 3 large porches. For year-around use. Ausherman Brothers.

FOR SALE: 117 ACRE COUNTRY home, nine room house, hardwood floors, every convenience, beautiful lawn. Ausherman Brothers.

FOR SALE: BRICK DUPLEX, Hanover street, New Oxford, large rooms, steam heat, $7,000. Ausherman Brothers.

FOR SALE: DOUBLE FRAME house, York street, conveniences, large frontage. Ausherman Brothers.

FOR SALE: 83 ACRE FARM, Harrisburg road, 11 room house, bank barn, electric, $7,000. Ausherman Brothers.

WEST'S 1945 CATALOGUE—100's farms and businesses 6 states; special list of farms handy Gettysburg; free. West's Farm Agency, J. C. Bream, Rep., Fairfield Road, Gettysburg, Pa.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT: BEAUTIFUL HOME in country for small family. Large stone house, furnace, electricity, running water, garden, poultry houses, garage, good road. Seven miles from Gettysburg, four miles to New Oxford. Apply with reference. Write Box 322 Times Office.

FOR RENT: APPROXIMATELY forty acres of farm land, including five acres of permanent pasture, located one-fourth mile from Aspers. Will rent on your own terms, either for cash or on shares, whichever you prefer. Write Arthur C. Shelly, 1047 Patapasco Ave., Baltimore 25, Md.

FOR RENT: TWO MODERNLY furnished bedrooms, centrally located, kitchen privileges. Write letter 308 Times Office or Phone 627-W after 6 o'clock.

FOR RENT: FARM LOCATED 1 mile east of Bonnevillie, containing 120 acres. Can be rented for $350 for one year. For further details call or communicate with John P. Butt, Esq., Gettysburg.

A LIMITED NUMBER OF SAFE deposit boxes for rent, now available. Biglerville National bank.

MALE HELP WANTED

WANTED

Inside and Outside Salesmen

For local, growing concern. Please reply to your own handwriting as to qualifications, age, draft status and previous experience.

Release from War Manpower Commission necessary.

Write Letter "324" TIMES OFFICE

WANTED: MAN BETWEEN THE age of 25 and 45 to manage our Shoe department. Must be experienced and capable of taking complete charge of department. Good salary and bonus plan. Write or call and an interview will be arranged. Montgomery Ward and Company, Hagerstown, Md.

WANTED: BOY OVER FIFTEEN for week-ends and evenings. Plaza.

WMC RULING—MALE HELP MAY be hired solely upon USES referral.

MEN WANTED: OYLER AND Spangler, Central Chemical Corp.

HELP WANTED

WANTED

EXPERIENCED REPORTER One with knowledge of court house, run preferred. Permanent situation. Group insurance and hospitalization, retirement plans, etc., available. Telephone or write.

Mr. Keyser
Intelligencer Journal
Lancaster 5252

WANTED: PARTY WITH ORCHARD equipment to care for Orchard of approximately 1,000 apple trees, 3 to 5 hundred pear trees, four acres of grapes. On percentage basis for one to two years agreement. Call evenings 130-R-12, Lincolnway west, New Oxford.

WANTED AT ONCE: TWO MARRIED couples to work at Adams County Home, one for second farmer and attendant and the other for janitor and assistant cook. Good wages and living conditions. Apply to Adams County Commissioners office, Courthouse, Gettysburg.

WANTED: RESTAURANT HELP, no Sunday work. Apply Butt's Diner, Buford avenue.

WANTED: SHORT ORDER COOK, Plaza Restaurant.

WANTED: MEN AND WOMEN for general factory work. Gettysburg Furniture Company.

WANTED TO BUY

WANTED: USED CARS, ANY make, any model, will pay highest cash dollar. Get my price before you sell. 20 used cars for sale. Glenn L. Bream, 100 Buford avenue.

WANTED: HOLSTEIN BULL, also brood sow. Phone Gettysburg 938-R-2.

WANTED: POULTRY OF ALL kinds. Will pay highest price and will call for. R. J. Brendle, 531 South Franklin street, Hanover. Phone 8279.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WMC RULING—FEMALE HELP in essential activities may transfer to other essential activities only and must have statement of availability.

WANTED: COUNTER GIRL, Greyhound Post House. Apply Miss Maddox.

WANTED WOMAN IN COUNTRY to assist in housecleaning, will take care of transportation. Write letter 326, Times Office.

WANTED: WAITRESS, NO SUNDAY work. Apply Butt's Diner, Buford avenue.

WANTED: RELIABLE WOMAN TO help with housework, one day a week. Write Box 321, Times Office.

LOST

LOST: POOL TABLE RAIL, Between Eberhart hotel and Grandview Terrace, Robert D. Lee, Gettysburg R. 3.

MISCELLANEOUS

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES IN the Armed forces: From Menallen, Upper Tyrone and Upper Huntington townships and Benderville Borough. The Benderville Fire Company is sponsoring an Honor Roll board in the borough of Benderville for the men and women serving in the armed forces during World War II.

PLEASE assist the committee by mailing the full names from these districts to Robert D. Peters, Benderville, Pa.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a shipment of Loudon Tubular Arch stalls and stanchions, made of finest carbon hearth steel tubing. Also have steel columns litter carrier and hay tracks and door hangers. If you are remodeling your barn, check with Loudon equipment. Daniel L. Yingling, Gettysburg R. 1.

RADIO REPAIRING: ALL MAKES, models. Baker's Battery Service, opposite Post Office.

BINGO: KARAS STORE, Thursday and Saturday nights. Chickens, grocery bags and fresh fruit.

PIPE AND FITTINGS Pipe cut to suit your needs Electric Supplies

LOWER'S STORE Table Rock, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE: ON THE WEST, brook farm, Route 34, 1 mile north of Biglerville, Thursday, March 29th. Horses, cows, hogs and farm machinery. M. E. Knouse.

FOOD SALE: MARCH 24TH BENEFIT Good Times Club of Cashtown Reformed Church.

NOTICE: PLEASE ARRANGE AT once to have your Victory Garden plot reserved, northeast of Stratton and Lincoln avenue. Call J. E. Codori or Dr. C. B. Stover.

112 RATS KILLED WITH JAR "Star" Rat Killer, Guaranteed "Roach Master" kills roaches. Zerling's Hardware.

RUMMAGE SALE: TROXELL'S store, March 16th, 1 to 7 p. m. and March 17th, 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

WALL PAPER AND PAPERHANGING. Harry Gilbert.

WILL SELL MODEL W CLETRAC tractor at Earl Guise sale on Mar. 20. Harry Luckenbach.

BAKED HAM SUPPER, METHODIST Church, Orrtanna, March 17th.

500 CARD PARTY EVERY TUESDAY evening 8:30 p. m. Dance every Friday night, Barlow Fire Company, Taneytown road, Route 134.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF EXECUTRICES In re: Estate of Charles C. Weaver, deceased.

Letters Testamentary on the last Will and Testament of Charles C. Weaver, deceased, late of Benderville Borough, Adams County, Pa., having been duly issued to the undersigned, they hereby give notice to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims or demands against the same to present them properly authenticated without delay for settlement.

EDNA E. WEANER
NITA M. SCHRIVER,
Executrices,
Benderville, Pa.

R. F. Topper, Esq.,
Att. for Estate,
Gettysburg, Pa.

NOTICE In re: Estate of C. E. Sadler, late of the Borough of Arden, Adams County, Pennsylvania, deceased.

Letters Testamentary on the estate of the above named decedent having been duly granted to the undersigned by the Register of Wills of Adams County, Pennsylvania, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims to present the same without delay, to:

DAVID MARCH, Executor
Biglerville, Pennsylvania

Or to:
Swope, Brown & Swope,
Attorneys for the Estate,
Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

NOTICE hereby is given that Sarah O. Sowers, Administratrix of the estate of William J. Sowers, late of Tyrone Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania, having fully administered the estate and distributed the assets, has filed her petition to be discharged from her duties as such Administratrix in the office of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court of Adams County, Pennsylvania, and will present said petition to said Court at 10 o'clock, Saturday morning, April 7, 1944, and ask for an order of final discharge.

SARAH O. SOWERS,
Administratrix of the estate of William J. Sowers.

Bullett & Bullett,
Attorneys.

ANOTHER BLASTED ILLUSION

Evanston, Ill. (AP)—You may have thought it was romance or homesickness that made birds migrate, but a zoology researcher says it's only fat. Dr. Albert Wolfson of Northwestern university, said his researchers indicated birds get fatter as the sun comes north. "It is this excess of fat energy which sends the bird on its spring migration to its breeding grounds," he added.

Second Marriage

By EVELYN MURRAY CAMPBELL

YESTERDAY: Cynthia refuses to give up her business and Carey drops the issue for the moment. He asks her to visit the Brandons with him where Cynthia is bored by Brandon's young wife. The other three hit it off, but Cynthia feels by the conversation of Joan, that she is an outsider. On the way home she voices the thought that Joan is too young, and then almost bites her tongue off for making that remark.

Chapter 11

The big sedan turned into the drive just before them and Aunt Maud and the two younger children got out. It was after eleven and Maud was the worst of drivers. She hadn't mentioned taking the car out.

"We went to the theatre," she said in a meek complaining voice. "It was so lonely at home for the poor little things. I hope you don't mind, Cynthia."

"Carey will walk to the garden house with you, Maud. It's dark in all that shrubbery."

"Oh—no. Thank you." She faded into the path preceded by a blinding flashlight.

Cynthia followed the children upstairs while Carey put both cars away. All elasticity was gone from her and she walked heavily. "It's only the way people live," she thought. "Going and coming, amusing themselves, being independent and dependent on one another. What's the matter with me? Why do I let little things take the taste out of life and spoil my happiness at its very crest?"

Peter was already in his blue pajamas, his clothes in a heap on the floor. He began to talk about the picture as if it was the most important thing in the world. "Boyd! Did that plane make a nose dive! And Clark Gable was in it. Himself! I saw him as plain as anything even if Aunt Maud did say—"

"She tried to put her arms around him but he wriggled away like an eel."

"Maud doesn't know everything, does she?" She did not know that her voice was wistful.

"Gee, mom, let me tell you the rest of it."

"Tell me something else, Peter. Do you like Carey?" A whisper that was like disloyalty. "Do you mind it that he's come here to live?"

He was in bed, his stubby face, half boy, half child, outlined on the white pillow. But his eyes looked past her to blankness.

"Carey? I like him all right. He knows a lot about engines. He could make one himself if he tried."

"But do you like him every day—all the time?"

"Gee, mom, how do I know?"

He was half asleep. There are no tomorrows for twelve year olds. It wasn't fair to ask about them.

Edris was lost in the heavy darkness of Aunt Maud's abandoned room, so different from the dainty smallness of her own. All this would have to be re-arranged, Cynthia thought, when she could find time.

She and Carey would turn Vera out and move into the big front bedroom and Edris would have her own place again. The girls should be together—she planned while she hunted for Edris in the ponderous four poster.

The slim body was rigid, unresponsive.

"Edris, why are you like this? Has anyone been talking to you? Saying unkind things to you?"

That was wrong but she couldn't hold it back. She couldn't bear the coldness of Edris.

"No, mother. Do you mind if we don't talk. My head aches. The picture was so noisy. I think I hate airplanes."

"Edris, won't you come back to your own room tonight? It's so lonely here. I want you near me."

"No, mother, no. I like it here. Really, I do."

Edris' lips were cool and remote as the petals of a water lily.

Cynthia was divided between tears and a human impulse to spank her child. It was a problem that would have to be served another day. Midnight was not the time to approach a recalcitrant youngster.

Maud with her virginal methods was triumphant.

"Would you like some Ovaltine, darling?"

"Oh, mother—please! Just let me go to sleep. My head aches so dreadfully."

"Well—then. Poor little head. You shouldn't look at such long pictures. Perhaps we'd better think about glasses, nice big, horny rims."

Afterward, Cynthia remembered every word of that pointless persuasion of hers. Ovaltine. Horn rimmed glasses for Edris. Everything but the real cause of the child's pain.

She evaded that. She went out, closing the door softly.

Down a short corridor, around a corner and Carey was waiting at the top of the stairs by the light switch.

"Don't turn it off, Carey darling. Vera isn't in yet."

"It's pretty late. After twelve."

"What nonsense. They're off somewhere dancing. They won't get home 'til all hours. She's only with Chester. It's summer, you know."

It was summer. The soft night wind stirred the curtains and moonlight was in the room. The ocean pounded eternally against the shore and searched with long dark, mysterious fingers for new channels; retreating, leaving shells and seaweed to mark the spot. Fog, presaging the morning, rolled like feathers in low places and the little ravines in the hills; over the lost ocean turning to pearl, a bell buoy tolled wearily.

Cynthia stirred in Carey's arms. There was a murmur of voices somewhere near and presently a door closed. It was only Vera coming home.

The office did not take all of Cynthia's day. It was the slack season when routine and Miss Lee could keep the wheels moving. But Cynthia went down town every morning an hour later than usual.

Murder, Suicide

Follow Telegrams

Easton, Pa., March 16 (AP)—Two women were found shot to death in their home in nearby Hecktown Tuesday.

Coroner David Bachman told this story:

A month ago, Mrs. Grace Rosko, 23, expecting a baby, received notice that her soldier husband had been wounded in action.

Distraught, she required a psychiatrist's services.

Two weeks ago her baby was born.

and stayed until early afternoon. What would she do otherwise, she asked herself, with a day so crowded with long hours?

To be continued

Prudential

FARM

LOANS

✓ Low Interest

✓ Long Term

✓ Fair Appraisal

✓ Prompt Service

Ausherman Bros.

Kadel Building

GETTYSBURG, PA.

Authorized Mortgage Loan Solicitor for The Prudential Insurance Company of America

PUBLIC SALE

THURSDAY, MARCH 22ND

12:00 Noon

The undersigned will have sale at his residence along the Gettysburg and Taneytown road, one mile north of Harney, the following personal property:

Four head of horses consisting of pair gray mares, good workers and pair black colts coming three years old. These horses are all of good size.

Seventeen head of cattle consisting of eight milk cows, three with calves by side, four stock bulls and five heifers.

Thirty head of hogs, consisting of three brood sows, one with pigs six weeks old, balance shoats.

Farming implements—Osborne binder, eight-foot cut, good canvas; Osborne mower, hay loader, Case side-delivery rake, good as new; fodder shredder, two riding corn plows, two walking corn plows, Ontario drill, eight hoes; Case corn planter, truck body, 6x11 feet, with racks; two wagons, one heavy wagon and other two-horse wagon and bed; hay carriages, 16 feet long, good, 25-disc harrow, four-section spring tooth harrow, Massey-Harris corn binder in good order, E.B. manure spreader, lot of harness, collars and bridles, pair wheels for Osborne mower, Buckeye egg incubator, power churn, butter worker, two wood stoves and refrigerator and other articles not mentioned.

Terms cash. Stand rights reserved.

C. B. NAILL
D. Edwin Benner, Auctioneer
Carl Haines and H. S. Schwartz,
Clerks

Then came another War department notice—the father, Pfc. Paul Rosko, now is reported missing in action.

Mrs. Rosko shot her mother, Mrs. Truman Bittenbender, 47, ten turned the gun on herself.

PUBLIC SALE

MARCH 21ST, 12:00 NOON SHARP

The undersigned will offer at public sale the farming equipment on the J. P. Bigham farm in Freedom Township, along the road leading to McCleary's schoolhouse, 3 1/2 mile west of Greenmount and five miles south of Gettysburg, the following:

Farm Machinery
Deering binder, seven-foot cut, mower, five-foot cut. Keystone hay

MAJESTIC Last 2 Days
Features Today 2:30 - 4:30 - 6:30 Tomorrow 1:10 - 3:50 - 4:35 - 6:30

OBJECTIVE, BURMA

WARNER'S Triumph Starring
ERROL FLYNN

William Prince • James Brown
Dick Erdman • Geo. Tobias
Henry Hull • Warner Anderson

— Added Today & Tomorrow — FIRST PICTURES —

BATTLE of IWO JIMA

GREATEST ACTION PICTURES OF THE WAR IN THE PACIFIC FILMED UNDER FIRE. TOUGHEST BATTLE IN THE 168 YEARS OF MARINE CORPS HISTORY. SCENES THAT SHOW WHY IWO TAKES ITS PLACE WITH GETTYSBURG & VALLEY FORGE.

"MUST" Pictures for Every American to See

WARNER STRAND Tomorrow Only
Doors Open 11:15 Continuous Showing

Johnny Mack BROWN—Raymond HATTON
in "West of the Rio Grande"

3 REASONS

Why You Should Sell Your Car to Me

1st: I will pay as much or more than any other buyer.

2nd: I will give you an early promise in writing for a new Oldsmobile or a Cadillac or a late model certified used car that is traded in.

3rd: Don't store your automobile — an essential worker may need it.

10 MEN IN MY SHOP

So There Is No Waiting for Expert Mechanical Work, No Job Too Big.

12 FINE USED CARS FOR SALE

GLENN L. BREAM 100 or RALPH A. WHITE Buford 315 Ave.
337 Olds — Cadillac Sales and Service

"The Ten Commandments"

STANDARD OF THE JUDGMENT BASIS OF CIVIL LAW.
THE MODERN CONCEPTION OF.

FREE LECTURE—
Sunday Night, 7:30 March 18
Odd Fellow's Hall
GETTYSBURG, PA.

YOU ARE INVITED

ARTHUR WADE — Lecturer
(NOT Jehovah Witness)

AUTOMOBILE PARTS

FOR EVERYBODY

DISCOUNT TO DEALERS

"If we don't have it, We know where to get it."

GETTYSBURG MOTOR SALES

GATES Tires and Tubes Glenn L. Bream ALUMITE LURRICATION PHYSICIAN
Open 7 to 9 — PHONE 484 — Closed Sundays

WANTED!

1 1/2 Ton Truck, Stake Body, Long Wheel-base, 1940 Model,
or Later

DODGE or CHEVROLET, PREFERRED

Answer by
LETTER 325, TIMES OFFICE, GETTYSBURG, PA.

BUY U. S. WAR BONDS

RADIO PROGRAMS

FRIDAY

6:00-6:15 AM WEAP-154M
4:00-Back Stage
4:15-Studio Dallas
4:30-Lorenzo Jones
4:45-Walter Brown
5:00-George Harrison
5:15-Portia
5:30-Plain Bill
5:45-Front Page
6:00-News
6:15-Serenade
6:30-L. Thomas
7:00-Supper Club
7:15-News
7:30-Ruth Ork.
7:45-News
8:00-Melody
8:15-Duffy's
8:30-Waltz Time
8:45-Funny People
9:00-Annex, Andy
10:30-Sports
10:45-Unannounced
11:00-News
11:15-R. Harkness
11:30-Great Novels

7:00-WEAP-422M
4:00-News
4:15-J. Johnson
4:30-Food Forum
5:00-Uncle Don
5:15-Superman
5:30-Mystery
5:45-Tom Mix
6:00-S. Moseley
6:15-Dance Music
6:30-News
6:45-Sports
7:00-News
7:15-Answer Head
7:30-Keep Ahead
7:45-News
8:00-Vocalist
8:15-Vocalist
8:30-Opportunity
8:45-G. Heater
9:15-Stories
9:30-Double
10:00-Boxing
11:00-News
11:30-Dance Or.

7:00-WEAP-422M
4:00-News
4:15-Tell Me
4:30-News
4:45-Hop Harrigan
5:00-Terry
5:15-Dick Tracey
5:30-J. Armstrong
5:45-Capt. Mid N't
6:00-News
6:15-Unannounced
6:30-Whose war?
6:45-Vocalist
7:00-News
7:15-R. Swing
7:30-Lone Ranger
8:00-Stars
8:15-Variations
8:30-Jury Trial
8:45-Spot Band
9:00-News
9:15-Kaye Orch.
9:30-Doctors
9:45-Letter
10:00-News
10:15-Kobblers
11:00-Melody

8:00-WEAP-675M
4:00-News
4:15-Story
4:30-Record
4:45-Service Time
5:00-Talk
5:15-Allen
5:30-Wilderness
5:45-News
5:55-Murray Or.
6:00-Vocalist
6:15-World Today
6:30-J. Kirkwood
6:45-Dorsey Orch.
7:00-Broadway
8:00-Aldrich
8:15-Thin Man
8:30-It Pays
8:45-Websters
9:00-J. Durante
9:15-Cantata
9:30-News
9:45-Vocalist
10:00-Dorsey Orch.

6:00-WEAP-454M
8:00 a. m. News
8:15-Listen
8:30-News
8:45-R. Hendrickson
9:00-Rome
9:15-A. Hawley
9:30-Encore
9:45-Sports
10:00-News
10:15-Vocalist
10:30-Ed McConnell
12:00-News
12:15-Consumer
12:30-Spotlight
1:00-Music
1:30-Baxters
1:45-Telescope
2:00-Musica
2:30-Sports
3:00-Orchestra
4:00-Doctors

4:30-Music
5:00-Grand Hotel
5:30-News
5:45-Tin Pan
6:00-News
6:15-Ranch
6:30-Religion
7:00-Foreign Policy
7:30-The Saint
8:00-Gayeties
8:30-Truth
9:00-Bruce Daise
9:30-Top This
10:00-Judy Canova
10:30-Ole Opry
11:00-News
11:15-Talk
11:30-Sgt. Blossome

7:00-WEAP-454M
8:00 a. m. Music
8:15-Review
9:00-Breakfast Club
10:00-Cookin'
10:30-Fantasy
11:00-Local
11:30-Betty Moore
11:45-Lois Long
12:00-Vocalist
12:15-R. Harris
12:30-Home, Garden
1:00-Jazz Concert
1:30-Soldiers
2:00-Opera
2:30-Unannounced
3:00-News
3:15-Music
3:30-News
3:45-Labor
4:00-News
4:15-Sports
4:30-News
4:45-Your Navy
5:00-Dance Music
5:30-Symphony
6:00-News
6:15-Grand Show
6:30-News
6:45-News
7:00-News
7:15-News
7:30-News
7:45-News
8:00-News
8:15-News
8:30-News
8:45-News
9:00-News
9:15-News
9:30-News
9:45-News
10:00-News
10:15-News
10:30-News
10:45-News
11:00-News
11:15-News
11:30-News

CRONIN LOOMS AS 1ST SACKER FOR RED SOX

By JOE REICHLER

New York, March 16 (AP)—Beginning his 20th year in the major leagues, Manager Joe Cronin of the Red Sox, generally regarded as one of baseball's greatest shortstops of the last two decades, may become Boston's regular first baseman this season.

Cronin, who passed the military draft age last October 12, never played the initial sack until last year when the tardy appearance of Lou Finney, coupled with the sale of Tony Lupien to the Philadelphia Phillies, led the jut-jawed Irishman to don the first baseman's mitt. He appeared in 76 games and hit .241, including five homers.

Other training camp notes:

Detroit Tiger squad reached 12 with arrival of Pitchers Hal Newhouse and Frank Overmire. Glasses, worn for the first time, helping Joe Cicero, veteran minor leaguer, to belt ball all over the field.

St. Louis Browns—Hurrier John Miller, recently discharged from army, arrived.

Chicago White Sox—Ed Lopat, winner of 11 games last year, signed up.

Cubs Holdouts

Chicago Cubs—Roy Hughes and Andy Pafko in first workout; Pitcher George Woodard's arrivals swells squad to 16. Phil Cavaretta and Paul Erickson are holdouts.

Cleveland Indians — Outfielders Mynl Hoag, Paul O'Dea and Casey Kroeninger join club.

Philadelphia Phillies—Squad of 13 expected to be increased today with arrival of Pitchers Ken Raffensberger, Mitchell Chetkovich and Catcher Gus Mancuso.

Philadelphia A's—Luther Knerr, 13-game winner with Toronto last year, signed with Philadelphia Athletics; Pitcher Don Black and Outfielder Ed Levy still holdouts.

Brooklyn Dodgers — Outfielder Luis Olmo and Rookie Pitcher By Buker, who won 11 and lost three for St. Paul, sign contracts. Shortstop Bill Hart, Pitcher Clyde King and Outfielders Red Durrett and Max Aderholt arrive in camp.

Washington Senators—Nine Latins report, along with Jake Powell, Ed Butka and Jim Langley.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 16 (AP)—The latest report from Iran reveals that American boxing promoters who think they have headcases can learn a little about the subject from Sgt. Allen Lacombe, the New Orleans boy who talks Brooklynese. . . . Lacombe writes about the big Allied boxing show which was scheduled to start a few days ago: "My poor lieutenant is one who is blowing his top trying to arrange meals, because Egyptians, Indians, Russians, Arabs, Persians do not eat certain foods on certain days. I guess he will have to fix separate meals for each team. . . . When I left here in December I had about 47 fighters training every day and now that I'm back I only have five left. All my Persian Gulf Command and Middle East champions have been transferred back home. The only ones left are Maxie Schindler, a good featherweight from Lorain, Ohio; Mike Bocanegra, California lightweight, and Harold Guldernick, light heavy from Wisconsin."

Roofing

SOLD & APPLIED
Built-Up Roofs a Specialty
Texaco Roofing Products
Siding
Various Styles and Colors
Roof Repairing

Roy E. Goldsmith
37 Breckenridge St., Phone 265-X
Gettysburg, Pa.

WRITE OR PHONE

Get authorized HOOVER Service Here

★ Give it a little care and watch your faithful Hoover Cleaner get a new lease on life.

We are the authorized Hoover Service Agency equipped with special tools and genuine Hoover replacement parts.

Service is prompt. Charges are low. All work guaranteed. Estimates furnished.

WENTZ'S

121 Balto. St. Phone 415
GETTYSBURG, PA.

Franklin Township Cagers Win Final

Coach Mueselman's Franklin Township Consolidated school basketball team closed its season, Tuesday, with a victory over Arendsville grade school 14-12 in an extra 3-minute period. Kump and Bream sank fouls to clinch the game which was played on the victor's court.

Coach Bosserman's men put up stiff opposition with Schlosser leading for the Bosserman men.

The F.T.C. team scored a victory over the same team last week, 19-18.

F.T.C.	G. F. P.
Allison, f.	2 1 5
Kump, f.	1 1 3
McDaniel, c.	1 0 2
Bream, g.	1 2 4
Spense, g.	0 0 0
Deaner, g.	0 0 0
Bucher, g.	0 0 0

Totals 5 4 14

Arendsville	G. F. P.
Bowling, g.	0 1 1
Schlosser, f.	2 2 6
Staub, c.	1 0 2
Kimple, f.	1 0 2
Weirman, g.	0 0 0
Garretson, c.	0 1 1

Totals 4 4 12

Frown On Side-Trips For Exhibition Tilts

Washington, March 16 (AP)—The National and American league presidents will recommend that their clubs cancel all pre-season baseball exhibitions involving side-trips as a mileage reducing measure.

This decision was announced yesterday by Ford Frick of the National and Will Harridge of the American league following a conference with Col. J. Monroe Johnson, director of the Office of Defense Transportation.

"We'll probably play almost as many exhibitions," Frick said. "The principal thing will be rejuggling of schedules" to relieve the burden on wartime transportation.

The type of game ruled out is that calling for a trip from one camp to another camp in a different town. No estimate was made of the number of games that will be cancelled.

HIPPODROME

DICK POWELL
CLARE TREVOR • ANNIE SHIRLEY MURDER MY SWEET

JACK PEPPER
LAWYER ARES • KAY VERNON
THE THREE KINGS

PUBLIC SALE

THURSDAY, MARCH 29TH,
12:30 P. M.

The undersigned will offer at public sale on the Sites farm, Orrtanna, the following:

Live Stock
Two horses, one five-year-old black mare; one eight-year-old black mare. Both well broken. Polled Angus heifer with first calf by side. Some shoats.

Farm Implements
New Ideal mower, six-foot-cut, in good condition; good horse rake, riding corn plow, three-horse riding barshare plow, three-horse Wiard plow, Old Buckeye corn planter, two wagons, one low iron wheel wagon, bed and hay loader; triple and double trees, two-horse spreader, single trees, cow chains, halters and jockey sticks.

Household Goods
One iron bed and spring, dressers, chairs, chunk stove, day bed, drop-leaf table, glass jars, other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms cash.

MAURICE SHARRAH,
Orrtanna, Pa.
Auct., Kretsinger

Land Bank LOANS have many uses!

—I refinanced an old indebtedness at high interest rate, with a land bank loan at 4%. I'm saving money.

—I needed money to make permanent improvements on my farm and used a land bank loan to good advantage.

—Once I was a tenant, but 18 years ago the land bank loaned me the money to pay the balance on my farm. Now I'm a happier man.

Let's Talk It Over

YOU too can probably use a land bank loan to good advantage. If you're a farmer and need money, it costs nothing to investigate. Drop in and talk it over. Our transactions are confidential.

NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

York Co. — Adams Co.
C. BAKER BERNHART
38 East King Street
YORK, PA.

Boston Bruins Win Play - Off Berth

(By The Associated Press)

The Boston Bruins are in and the Chicago Black Hawks are out. So ended the season-long play-off berth struggle in the National Hockey league.

The Hawks' hopes to step over the Bruins into fourth spot disintegrated last night when they lost 5-3 to Boston at Chicago. The defeat wrote a decisive finish to the fourth-place battle which has been the only significant feature of N. H. L. picture since Montreal's Canadiens, Detroit's Red Wings and Toronto's Maple Leafs, in that order, seized the first three positions in the standing early in the season.

CLARENCE SWISHER GROCERY

Stevens Street Phone 345-W

CASH FOR YOUR CAR

Gettysburg Motor Sales
204 Chambersburg St.

Dine Out Sunday SPECIAL DINNER

Sunday, March 18th
Roast or Fried Chicken
Country Ham or Steaks
Served Family Style $1.00
We Cater to Special Clubs, Parties and Banquets

The Battlefield Hotel
Baltimore St., Gettysburg
Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Knox

First Time IN GETTYSBURG

Don't Miss the BIG Broadcast Direct from

Gettysburg High School Auditorium

Sat. Nite, March 17
8:30 Till 12
Adm. 30c to 14 — 60c Adults Including Tax

IN PERSON The Entire WFMD RADIO JAMBOREE

All Your Favorite Stars from Your Favorite Station WFMD Frederick, Md. 930 on Your Dial

Proudly Presents Radio's BRIGHTEST STARS

- ★ UNCLE JOE and his Barn-dance Gang
- ★ Dixie Rogers "The Yodeling Cowgirl"
- ★ The Helton Bros. "From Tenn."
- ★ Herb and Joe "The Carolina Buddies"
- ★ Crazy Elmer "Funniest Man in the World"
- ★ ED MOOSE and his South Mountain Rangers
- ★ Leona "The Accordion Girl"
- ★ Gary Epply "A Boy and His Guitar"
- ★ Uncle Bill and Little Bill
- ★ Little Willie and His Blue Valley Boys and Girls
- ★ Dusty the Wonder Boy
- ★ Helen and Bonnie "The Blue Valley Girls"

FOR OUR NEXT AUCTION

Tuesday, March 20, 1945, at 1 P. M., Sharp

I will have one truck load of blood tested Susquehanna County cows—those good big Holsteins that milk up to 80 lbs. of milk per day; all second and third calf cows. Also I will have 15 York and Adams County cows—fresh and close springers, good as money can buy—Holstein and Guernsey.

I have 4 horses, 6 and 8 years old—all good leaders, broke for any child or old man to work; one pair bay horse colts, coming 3 yrs. old; spotted mare pony, 2 yrs. old.

I have 5 Hereford stock bulls, all fit for service, good as grow 10 fat steers, weighing 1100 lbs. each, 3 reg. Hereford cows, carrying second calves 3 steer calves, weighing 450 lbs. 1 piece out of the above cows.

Also I have 10 Brood Sows for this sale—2 have 10 pigs each by their side; the rest will farrow in March and April. One Reg. Berkshire seed hog. The above sows are all bred to this registered hog.

Also there will be a lot of Dairy cows, fat bulls, steers and heifers; fat hogs, pigs and shoats; fat cows and trimmers; stock bulls and heifers, sold here on commission for near and far farmers and dealers.

This will be one of the largest Auctions we have held yet.

EVERYBODY COME!

If you have any kind of livestock to sell, be sure to bring it in Sale Every Two Weeks, Rain or Shine at 1:00 in the Afternoon. Commission charge is 3% plus a small feed charge of 50c per head each day.

Also want to buy all kinds of livestock. Drop me a card.

F. M. ANDERSON,
R. D. No. 1 York Springs, Pa.

FIRST NATIONAL FERTILIZER LOANS

Good crops come from good soil that has been treated with plenty of fertilizer. You know that.

You know, too, that the First National Bank will lend money to responsible farmers to buy fertilizer.

For friendly cooperation in all farm matters the place to come is Center Square, Gettysburg—farm headquarters for 88 years.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Gettysburg, Pennsylvania
ON CENTER SQUARE SINCE 1857

Member of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

EASTER Fashions for Men!

SUITS and TOPCOATS

$22.50 to $40.00

Beautiful new Easter suits and topcoats for men—first quality and range of sizes.

BOY'S SUITS

$7.95 to $20.00
Sundial Shoes . . . $3.95

FOOTWEAR for EASTER

Florsheim Shoes for Men
$10.00 up

Jarman Shoes . . . $5.85 to $8.85
Fortune Shoes . . . $5.00 to $5.50
Sundial Shoes . . . $4.50 to $5.00

Stetson HATS

$7.50 to $10.00

CHAMP HATS

$6.50 - $7.50

Sugar & Spice Ties $1.00
Dress Shirts $1.95-$3.50

HARRIS BROS.

30-32 BALTIMORE STREET GETTYSBURG, PA.

MAJESTIC
Last 2 Days
Features Today 2:20 - 6:39 - 9:20 Tomorrow 1:10 - 3:50 - 6:35 - 9:20

OBJECTIVE, BURMA

WARNER'S Triumph Starring
ERROL FLYNN

William Prince • James Brown
Dick Erdman • Geo. Tobias
Henry Hull • Warner Anderson

— Added Today & Tomorrow — FIRST PICTURES —

BATTLE of IWO JIMA

GREATEST ACTION PICTURES OF THE WAR IN THE PACIFIC FILMED UNDER FIRE. TOUGHEST BATTLE IN THE 188 YEARS OF MARINE CORPS HISTORY. SCENES THAT SHOW WHY IWO TAKES ITS PLACE WITH GETTYSBURG & VALLEY FORGE. "MUST" Pictures for Every American to See

WARNER BROS. STRAND Tomorrow Only
Doors Open 11:15
Continuous Showing
Johnny Mack BROWN—Raymond HATTON
in "West of the Rio Grande"

3 REASONS

Why You Should Sell Your Car to Me

- 1st: I will pay as much or more than any other buyer.
- 2nd: I will give you an early promise in writing for a new Oldsmobile or a Cadillac or a late model certified used car that is traded in.
- 3rd: Don't store your automobile — an essential worker may need it.

10 MEN IN MY SHOP

So There Is No Waiting for Expert Mechanical Work, No Job Too Big.

12 FINE USED CARS FOR SALE

Phones 315 337 GLENN L. BREAM or RALPH A. WHITE
Olds — Cadillac Sales and Service

RADIO PROGRAMS

FRIDAY	4:30-Music
6:00-WEAF-454M	5:00-Grand Hotel
4:00-Back Stage	5:30-News
4:15-Stella Dallas	5:45-Tin Pan
4:30-Lorenz Jones	6:00-News
4:45-Widder Brown	6:15-Ranch
5:00-Girl Marries	6:45-Religion
5:15-Portia	7:00-Foreign Policy
5:30-Plain Bill	7:30-The Saint
5:45-Front Page	8:00-Gayeties
6:00-News	8:30-Truth
6:15-Serenade	9:00-Barn Dance
6:45-L. Thomas	9:30-Top This
7:00-Supper Club	10:00-July Canova
7:15-Talk	10:30-Old Opry
7:30-Roth Orch.	11:00-News
7:45-News	11:15-Talk
8:00-Melody	11:30-Sgt. Bluestone
8:30-Duffy's	7:00-WJZ-685M
9:00-Waiter Time	8:00 a.m.-Music
9:30-Funny People	8:30-Review
10:00-Amos, Andy	9:00-Breakfast Club
10:30-Sports	10:00-Cookin'
10:45-Unannounced	10:30-Fantasy
11:00-News	11:00-Vocalist
11:15-R. Harvess	11:30-Betty Moore
11:30-Great Novels	11:45-Lola Long
	12:00-Vocalist
	12:15-R. Harris
	12:30-Home, Garden
	1:00-Jazz Concert
	1:30-Soldiers
	2:00-Opera
	2:30-Unannounced
	3:00-News
	3:15-Sports
	3:30-News
	3:45-Labour
	4:00-News
	4:15-Dorsey Orch.
	4:30-News
	4:45-Sports
	5:00-News
	5:15-Answer Man
	5:30-Keep Ahead
	5:45-C. Brown
	6:00-Opportunity
	6:15-G. Heatter
	6:30-Stories
	6:45-Douglas
	7:00-Boxing
	7:15-Dance Or.
	7:30-Dance Or.
	7:45-WJZ-685M
	4:00-News
	4:15-Tell Me
	4:30-News
	4:45-Hop Harrigan
	5:00-Terry
	5:15-Dick Tracy
	5:30-J. Armstrong
	5:45-Capt. Mid N't
	6:00-News
	6:15-Unannounced
	6:30-Whose war?
	6:45-Vocalist
	7:00-News
	7:15-R. Swing
	7:30-Lone Ranger
	7:45-Start
	8:00-Variations
	8:15-Jury Trial
	8:30-Spot Band
	8:45-Kaye Orch.
	9:00-Doctors
	9:15-Letter
	9:30-News
	9:45-Platform
	10:00-World Today
	10:15-Barrymore
	10:30-In the Air
	10:45-Danny Kaye
	11:00-F.B.I.
	11:15-Hit Parade
	11:30-J. Dragonette
	11:45-A. Pearce
	12:00-Talks
	12:15-Track Meet
	7:00-WOR-422M
	8:00 a.m.-News
	8:15-Breakfast
	8:30-News
	8:45-Wings
	9:00-News
	9:15-Rainbow H
	9:30-News
	9:45-Hooky Hall
	10:00-On Farm
	10:15-News
	10:30-Answer Man
	10:45-Album
	11:00-Lopez Orch.
	11:15-Phonies
	11:30-News
	11:45-Maxed
	12:00-Halloran
	12:15-A. Jones
	12:30-News
	12:45-J. Johnson
	1:00-Music
	1:15-Uncle Don
	1:30-Encore Action
	1:45-Dance Orch.
	2:00-S. Elder
	2:15-S. Moseley
	2:30-News
	2:45-Sports
	3:00-Guest Who?
	3:15-Confidentially
	3:30-Answer Man
	3:45-Music
	4:00-Dr. Sachar
	4:15-Symphony
	4:30-Traveler
	4:45-Theater
	5:00-News
	5:15-Orchestra

Roofing

SOLD & APPLIED
Built-Up Roofs a Specialty
Texaco Roofing Products
Siding
Various Styles and Colors
Roof Repairing

Roy E. Coldsmith
37 Breckenridge St., Phone 265-X
Gettysburg, Pa.

WRITE OR PHONE

Get authorized
HOOVER
Service Here

★ Give it a little care and watch your faithful Hoover Cleaner get a new lease on life.
We are the authorized Hoover Service Agency equipped with special tools and genuine Hoover replacement parts.
Service is prompt. Charges are low. All work guaranteed. Estimates furnished.

VENTZ'S
121 Balto. St. Phone 415
GETTYSBURG, PA.

CRONIN LOOMS AS 1ST SACKER FOR RED SOX

By JOE REICHLER
New York, March 16 (AP)—Beginning his 20th year in the major leagues, Manager Joe Cronin of the Red Sox, generally regarded as one of baseball's greatest shortstops of the last two decades, may become Boston's regular first baseman this season.
Cronin, who passed the military draft age last October 12, never played the initial sack until last year when the tardy appearance of Lou Finney, coupled with the sale of Tony Lupien to the Philadelphia Phillies, led the jut-jawed Irishman to don the first baseman's mitt. He appeared in 76 games and hit .241, including five homers.
Other training camp notes:
Detroit Tiger squad reached 12 with arrival of Pitchers Hal Newhouse and Frank Overmire. Glasses, worn for the first time, helping Joe Cicero, veteran minor leaguer, to belt ball all over the field.
St. Louis Browns—Hurler John Miller, recently discharged from army, arrived.
Chicago White Sox—Ed Lopat, winner of 11 games last year, signed up.

Cubs Holdouts
Chicago Cubs—Roy Hughes and Andy Pafko in first workout; Pitcher George Woodard's arrivals swells squad to 16. Phil Cavaretta and Paul Erickson are holdouts.
Cleveland Indians — Outfielders Myril Hoag, Paul O'Dea and Casey Kroeninger join club.
Philadelphia Phillies—Squad of 13 expected to be increased today with arrival of Pitchers Ken Raffensberger, Mitchell Chetkovich and Catcher Gus Mancuso.
Philadelphia A's—Luther Knerr, 13-game winner with Toronto last year, signed with Philadelphia Athletics; Pitcher Don Black and Outfielder Ed Levy still holdouts.

Brooklyn Dodgers — Outfielder Luis Olmo and Rookie Pitcher By Buker, who won 11 and lost three for St. Paul, sign contracts. Shortstop Bill Hart, Pitcher Clyde King and Outfielders Red Durrett and Max Aderholt arrive in camp.
Washington Senators—Nine Latin report, along with Jake Powell, Ed Butka and Jim Langley.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, March 16 (AP)—The latest report from Iran reveals that American boxing promoters who think they have headaches can learn a little about the subject from Sgt. Allen Lacombe, the New Orleans boy who talks Brooklynese. . . . Lacombe writes about the big Allied boxing show which was scheduled to start a few days ago: "My poor lieutenant is one who is blowing his top trying to arrange meals, because Egyptians, Indians, Russians, Arabs, Persians do not eat certain foods on certain days. I guess he will have to fix separate meals for each team. . . . When I left here in December I had about 47 fighters training every day and now that I'm back I only have five left. All my Persian Gulf Command and Middle East champions have been transferred back home. The only ones left are Maxie Schindler, a good featherweight from Lorain, Ohio; Mike Bocanegra, California lightweight, and Harold Gildernick, light heavy from Wisconsin."

THE BRIGHTER SIDE
"In the tournament there will be 67 fighters in all; the Egyptians sent down 14, the British 17, the Russians, Arabs and Persians for each. Indians two. The Americans will have 22 men and will be the best dressed men in the big show, thanks to the swell people of New Orleans who sent them shoes, trunks and other equipment. The kids have been fighting in rags so long they may be lost wearing all new outfits."

SHORTS AND SHELLS
Chick Meehan's trans-America pro football league now is paying some attention to Akron, O., where they say there's a great future for athletes who have studied engineering in college and would be interested in learning the rubber business in the oil season. . . . The Cincy Reds can find some justification for signing those overage pitchers—Hod Lisenbee really is 44—no further away than Peoli, Ohio. Cy Young, Peoli's No. 1 citizen, pitched a no-hitter against the Yankees in 1908, when he was 41 years old. . . . Frank Kilroy, Philadelphia Eagles' tackle who was on the Normandy beach on D-Day, has gone to sea again as a ship's doctor.

Fights Last Night
(By The Associated Press)
Harrisburg, Pa. — George Williams, 153, Baltimore, outpointed Rocky Luciano, 155, Harrisburg, 8; Carrington (Bill) McNutt, 182, Washington, outpointed Stoney Jackson, 178, Pittsburgh, 6.
Fall River, Mass. — Freddie Camuso, 143, Fall River, outpointed Julie Bort, 137, New York, 10.
Pittsburgh — Sammy Parrotta, 133½, Pittsburgh, outpointed Billy Reed, 135, Gary, Ind., 6.

Franklin Township Cagers Win Final

Coach Musselman's Franklin Township Consolidated school basketball team closed its season, Tuesday, with a victory over Arendtsville grade school 14-12 in an extra 3-minute period. Kump and Bream sank fouls to clinch the game which was played on the victor's court.
Coach Bosserman's men put up stiff opposition with Schlosser leading for the Bosserman men.

The F.T.C. team scored a victory over the same team last week, 19-18.
F.T.C. G. F. P.
Allison, f. 2 1 5
Kump, f. 1 1 3
McDaniel, c. 1 0 2
Bream, g. 1 2 4
Spencer, g. 0 0 0
Deaner, g. 0 0 0
Bucher, g. 0 0 0

Totals 5 4 14
Arendtsville G. F. P.
Bowling, g. 0 1 1
Schlosser, f. 2 2 6
Staub, c. 1 0 2
Kimpfe, f. 1 0 2
Weirman, g. 0 0 0
Garretson, c. 0 1 1

Frown On Side-Trips For Exhibition Tilts

Washington, March 16 (AP)—The National and American league presidents will recommend that their clubs cancel all pre-season baseball exhibitions involving side-trips as a mileage reducing measure.
This decision was announced yesterday by Ford Frick of the National and Will Harridge of the American league following a conference with Col. J. Monroe Johnson, director of the Office of Defense Transportation.
"We'll probably play almost as many exhibitions," Frick said. "The principal thing will be rejuggling of schedules" to relieve the burden on wartime transportation.
The type of game ruled out is that calling for a trip from one camp to another camp in a different town. No estimate was made of the number of games that will be cancelled.

The cacao tree was first known in Latin America.
HIPPODROME
DICK POWELL
TREVOR + SHIRLEY
MURDER MY SWEET
JACK PEPPER
LEWIS & JAMES + KAY VERNON
THE THREE KINGS

PUBLIC SALE

THURSDAY, MARCH 29TH, 12:30 P. M.
The undersigned will offer at public sale on the Sites farm, Orrtanna, the following:
Live Stock
Two horses, one five-year-old black mare; one eight-year-old black mare. Both well broken. Polled Angus heifer with first calf by side. Some shoats.
Farm Implements
New Ideal mower, six-foot-cut, in good condition; good horse rake, riding corn plow, three-horse riding barshare plow, three-horse Ward plow, Old Buckeye corn planter, two wagons, one low iron wheel wagon, bed and hay loader; triple and double trees, two-horse spreader, single trees, cow chains, halters and jockey sticks.
Household Goods
One iron bed and spring, dressers, chairs, chunk stove, day bed, drop-leaf table, glass jars, other articles too numerous to mention.
Terms cash.
MAURICE SHARRAH,
Orrtanna, Pa.
Auct., Kretsinger

Land'Bank LOANS have many uses!

—I refinanced an old indebtedness at high interest rates, with a land bank loan at 4%. I'm saving money.
—I needed money to make permanent improvements on my farm and used a land bank loan to good advantage.
—Once I was a tenant, but 10 years ago the land bank loaned me the money to pay the balance on my farm. Now I'm a happier man.

Let's Talk It Over
YOU too can probably use a land bank loan to good advantage. If you're a farmer and need money, it costs nothing to investigate. Drop in and talk it over. Our transactions are confidential.

NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
York Co. — Adams Co.
C. BAKER BERNHART
38 East King Street
YORK, PA.

Boston Bruins Win Play - Off Berth

(By The Associated Press)
The Boston Bruins are in and the Chicago Black Hawks are out. So ended the season-long play-off berth struggle in the National Hockey league.
The Hawks' hopes to step over the Bruins into fourth spot disintegrated last night when they lost 5-3 to Boston at Chicago. The defeat wrote a decisive finish to the fourth-place battle which has been the only significant feature of N. H. L. picture since Montreal's Canadiens, Detroit's Red Wings and Toronto's Maple Leafs, in that order, seized the first three positions in the standing early in the season.

LEARN TO BOWL
at the Bowling Center
York St., Gettysburg

CLARENCE SWISHER
GROCERY
Stevens Street Phone 345-W

CASH
FOR YOUR CAR
Gettysburg Motor Sales
204 Chambersburg St.

Dine Out Sunday

SPECIAL DINNER
Sunday, March 18th
Roast or Fried Chicken
Country Ham or Steaks
Served Family Style $1.00
We Cater to Special Clubs, Parties and Banquets

The Battlefield Hotel
Baltimore St., Gettysburg
Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Knox

FIRST TIME IN GETTYSBURG

Don't Miss the BIG Broadcast Direct from Gettysburg High School Auditorium
Sat. Nite, March 17
8:30 TH 12
Adm. 30c 6 to 14 — 60c Adults
Including Tax

IN PERSON
The Entire WFMD RADIO JAMBOREE

All Your Favorite Stars from Your Favorite Station
WFMD Frederick, Md.
930 on Your Dial
Proudly Presents Radio's
BRIGHTEST STARS

★ UNCLE JOE and his Barn-dance Gang
★ Dixie Rogers "The Yodeling Cowgirl"
★ The Helton Bros. "From Tenn."
★ Herb and Joe "The Carolina Buddies"
★ Crazy Elmer "Funniest Man in the World"
★ ED MOOSE and his South Mountain Rangers
★ Leona "The Accordion Girl"
★ Gary Epply "A Boy and His Guitar"
★ Little Willie and His Blue Valley Boys and Girls
★ Dusty the Wonder Boy
★ Helen and Bonnie "The Blue Valley Girls"

THE BIGGEST JAMBOREE YOU'LL EVER SEE Broadcasting Direct from the Stage of
GETTYSBURG HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM
This Coming Saturday Night
March 17
Doors Open 7
Show Starts 8:30 Sharp

A SHOW YOU'LL NEVER FORGET — DON'T MISS IT

FINANCING BUSINESS is Bank BUSINESS

FIRST NATIONAL FERTILIZER LOANS

Good crops come from good soil that has been treated with plenty of fertilizer. You know that.

You know, too, that the First National Bank will lend money to responsible farmers to buy fertilizer.

For friendly cooperation in all farm matters the place to come is Center Square, Gettysburg—farm headquarters for 88 years.

The First National Bank
Gettysburg, Pennsylvania
ON CENTER SQUARE SINCE 1857
Member of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

EASTER Fashions for Men!

SUITS and TOPCOATS

$22.50 to $40.00

Beautiful new Easter suits and topcoats for men—first quality and range of sizes.

BOY'S SUITS

$7.95 to $20.00
Sundial Shoes . . . $3.95

FOOTWEAR for EASTER

Florsheim Shoes for Men
$10.00 up

Jarman Shoes . . . $5.85 to $8.85
Fortune Shoes . . . $5.00 to $5.50
Sundial Shoes . . . $4.50 to $5.00

Stetson HATS

$7.50 to $10.00

CHAMP HATS

$6.50 - $7.50

Sugar & Spice Ties $1.00
Dress Shirts $1.95-$3.50

HARRIS BROS.

30-32 BALTIMORE STREET GETTYSBURG, PA.

FOR OUR NEXT AUCTION

Tuesday, March 20, 1945, at 1 P. M., Sharp

I will have one truck load of blood tested Susquehanna County cows—those good big Holsteins that milk up to 80 lbs. of milk per day; all second and third calf cows. Also I will have 15 York and Adams County cows—fresh and close springers, good as money can buy—Holstein and Guernsey.

I have 4 horses, 6 and 8 years old—all good leaders, broke for any child or old man to work; one pair bay horse colts, coming 3 yrs. old; spotted mare pony, 2 yrs. old.

I have 5 Hereford stock bulls, all fit for service, good as grow, 10 fat steers, weighing 1100 lbs. each, 3 reg. Hereford cows, carrying second calves, 3 steer calves, weighing 450 lbs. a piece out of the above cows.

Also I have 10 Brood Sows for this sale—2 have 10 pigs each by their side; the rest will farrow in March and April. One Reg. Berkshire seed hog. The above sows are all bred to this registered hog.

Also there will be a lot of Dairy cows, fat bulls, steers and heifers; fat hogs, pigs and shoats; fat cows and trimmers; stock bulls and heifers, sold here on commission for near and far farmers and dealers.

This will be one of the largest Auctions we have held yet.

EVERYBODY COME!

If you have any kind of livestock to sell, be sure to bring it in. Sale Every Two Weeks, Rain or Shine at 1:00 in the Afternoon. Commission charge is 3% plus a small feed charge of 50c per head each day.

Also want to buy all kinds of livestock. Drop me a card.

F. M. ANDERSON,
R. D. No. 1 York Springs, Pa.

AUTOMOBILE PARTS

FOR EVERYBODY
DISCOUNT TO DEALERS
"If we don't have it, We know where to get it."
GETTYSBURG MOTOR SALES
GATES Glenn C. Bream
TIRES and TUBES FORD, CHRYSLER, ALERITE LUBRICATION
Open 7 to 9 — PHONE 484 — Closed Sundays

WANTED!

1½ Ton Truck, Stake Body, Long Wheel-base, 1940 Model, or Later
DODGE or CHEVROLET, PREFERRED
Answer by
LETTER 325, TIMES OFFICE, GETTYSBURG, PA.
BUY U. S. WAR BONDS

NEGRO IS GIVEN LIFE TERM; 3 ARE PAROLED TODAY

John W. Peck, colored, Gettysburg, Pa., was sentenced to one and a half to three years in the Eastern Penitentiary after entering a plea of guilty to a serious offense in court today.

Peck was arrested last month by a member of the local substation of the police on the charge which involved a 15-year-old boy in the offense which it was alleged occurred in Straban township. The court also posed a $5 fine on Peck.

Peck's parents, his former employer and the employer of his parents all appeared in court to testify to the boy's character.

Three Paroled
In addition, the court paroled three men who had been serving sentences in the county jail. William Vaughn, who was sentenced last November 25 to six months to one year on a charge of robbery of a 1st watch from a sleeping man in a car parked near Haines' roadside stand, was paroled for one year following a hearing. It was testified at Vaughn was needed to care for a farm of Leslie and Carrie Vaughn, because both of the farm owners are in ill health.

Chauncey Laughman, of Abbotstown, was placed on parole for two years after it was certified to the court that he would be assured of a job. The court was told of a plan deducting from Laughman's salary for driving for a trucking firm which would be used to pay off the rearing of a support order previously entered against him as well as other costs.

The third parole was for Tim Young, who was serving a sentence of 180 days. Young walked out of the county jail last August. He was placed on parole for a year.

Hear Argument
One of the longest proceedings in the court Monday morning was the hearing of an argument for a new trial in the action in trespass of John A. Luckenbaugh, Spring Grove, Md., versus J. P. Haughawout and Charles Haughawout, proprietors of the Glen Rock dairy, at Sunbury. Luckenbaugh won a suit against the dairy last fall for damages and personal injuries suffered when the automobile in which Luckenbaugh was riding collided with a truck owned by the dairy.

Luckenbaugh was severely burned about the face by blazing gasoline ignited after the crash. The gasoline came from a jug which was being used in a gas mileage test on the car. In his argument for a new trial, Edward A. Brown, Esq., attorney for the defendants, said that the jury was confused by the court by language used to explain supervising cause when the charge was being given to the jurors. He stated that there was "no question of contributory negligence," and that on the grounds a new trial should be granted.

Decision to Come Later
Eugene V. Bullett, Esq., attorney for the plaintiff, argued that the case had previously been disposed of in accordance to correct procedure and on the basis of other court decisions in similar cases, and asked that the motion for a new trial be denied by the court.

The court took the case under advisement and will issue an order in a near future.
A non-support action brought by Evelyn Stoner, Biglerville, versus her husband, Murray Stoner, Gettysburg, R. 2, was settled when the plaintiff ordered the defendant to pay $7.50 per week for the support of the couple's nine-year-old boy.

Appointment Master
J. Francis Yake, Jr., Esq., was appointed master in the divorce action of Lawrence W. Hays, also known as Lawrence W. Hayes, Jr., against Frances M. Adams Hayes.
Other court business concerned the hearing of several petitions in connection with estates and the confirmation and approval of distribution in two other estates.

Dr. Franklin Fry To Give Baccalaureate

Dr. Franklin C. Fry, Akron, Ohio, resident of the United Lutheran Church in America, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class at Gettysburg college today morning, May 27, at the majestic theater. It has been announced by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, college president.

The 113th annual commencement exercises will be held Monday morning, May 28, in front of the Beach Memorial auditorium on the north side of Old Dorm. The speaker has not yet been announced. The Valley Forge Military band will provide special numbers at the commencement exercises and will render a concert Sunday evening.

Promoted

Ensign Donald Ulrich, son of Mrs. John Ulrich, of Gettysburg, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant (j.g.) in the Navy. A veteran of service in the European theater where he commanded an LCI during the invasion of southern France, he now receives his mail in care of the fleet postmaster at San Francisco. He is on military leave from the teaching staff of Lincoln school and entered service nearly two years ago.

2 EMMITSBURG MEN KILLED ON EUROPE FRONTS

Two Emmitsburg men were reported killed in action in Europe in War Department telegrams received by relatives over the week-end.

Second Lieut. Fred P. Timmerman, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Timmerman, Sr., previously reported slightly wounded last November 14, was reported killed in France on February 26.

Pfc. John W. "Bill" Little, 35, son of the late Mrs. and Mrs. John Little, previously reported missing in action in Belgium as of last January 8, was formally reported killed in action on that date.

Brother in Navy
Lt. Timmerman attended the University of Maryland and received his basic training at Camp Croft, N. C. He returned to the University of Maryland for a short course in specialized training and then went to Ft. Benning, Ga., where he completed Officers' Candidate school. He went overseas last September and had returned to active duty after being wounded in November.

Pfc. Little, who was a tankman in General Patton's army, was also wounded last November when his tank was splintered. His relatives have reason to believe he was transferred to an infantry outfit upon his return to duty.

Lieut. Timmerman had been in service little more than a year. He is survived by his parents and the following brothers and sisters: Seaman 2/C Joseph Henry Timmerman, U. S. Navy; John Harold, Christine, Ann Frances and William Francis, at home, and Catherine Timmerman, Washington.

Pfc. Little is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Eugene Cramer, Emmitsburg, and Ann, now married and residing at McSherrystown, and three brothers, Robert and Roy Little, Emmitsburg, and James Little, McSherrystown.

Pfc. Little went overseas in February, 1944, after having been home for his father's funeral in December, 1943. He was employed at St. Joseph's college before entering service.

SGT. MILLER IS SLAIN IN FRANCE

Tech. Sgt. Earl F. Miller, son of Ruth M. Miller, of Gettysburg, was killed in action in France January 5, according to War Department telegram received Friday morning by his mother.

Tech. Sgt. Miller had previously been reported as missing since January 5.

He enlisted in the regular Army March 24, 1938, and was assigned to the 21st Infantry Regiment at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. He was stationed at Pearl Harbor during the Jap attack and received a citation for seizing a machine-gun and gunning Jap planes without orders and on his own initiative.

Early in 1943 he returned to the United States and was assigned to training recruits at Camp Gruber, Okla. He went overseas with a heavy machine-gun unit last December.

EX-SUPERVISOR RESIGNS RELIEF BOARD POSITION

Mrs. Rosalie C. Raffensperger, Ardenstville, resigned Tuesday evening as senior visitor for the local office of the Pennsylvania Public Assistance board at regular monthly board meeting held at the office on North Washington street.

The board accepted "with regret" Mrs. Raffensperger's resignation. Mrs. Raffensperger has been serving in assistance work in the county since 1933 when she first directed the local emergency relief program. After two years in that position she went with the mother's assistance program with which she worked until 1938 when all of the assistance agencies were consolidated.

After the consolidation she served as county supervisor until October 1, 1943, and from that date she has been in the field service. The 12-year period she was engaged in assistance work, Mrs. Raffensperger had only one prolonged absence from duty. That was a one-year leave of absence for illness after she was severely burned in an explosion several years ago at her home.

Has No Plans
The board said today no steps had been taken to secure a replacement for Mrs. Raffensperger's position. Chairman M. Stuart Danner presided at the board meeting with members Harold H. Reuning, Mrs. Rasmus S. Saby and J. Hayes Beard in attendance. Mrs. Raffensperger said today she has no business plans for the immediate future.

With the exception of Mrs. Raffensperger's resignation, chiefly routine business was handled and general discussions were held on board policy. A report by Mrs. Verma O. Myers, board secretary, showed that the present case load of the local board was six less than a year ago. The present total was given as 667 as compared with 673 on the comparable date in 1944.

The breakdown of the various types of assistance for the two years, with 1945 being given first, was as follows: Old-age pensions, 445, 443; blind pensions, 78, 74; aid to dependent children, 80, 93, and general assistance 59 and 63 for last year.

The next meeting will be held April 10.

CAPT. LOWE IS BACK IN ACTION

Capt. Donald H. Lowe, son of Theodore A. Low, Fairfield, has recovered from a leg wound received about February 1 and has rejoined his company with the Seventh Army at the western front, his father has been informed.

Capt. Lowe received his wound from machinegun fire while cleaning out a German pocket with the French First Army in the Colmar section. He has been awarded the Purple Heart, Combat Infantry Badge and two Bronze Stars. The French Army is awarding the Croix de Guerre to Capt. Lowe's company for its gallantry in cleaning out the pocket.

The Fairfield officer enlisted December 11, 1935, and served in Hawaii until 1942 and was there during the attack on Pearl Harbor. He returned to the United States in 1942 and was assigned to the Officer Training School at Ft. Benning, Ga., from where he graduated in May with a commission as second lieutenant. In the same year he was promoted to first lieutenant and then to captain at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

He was later assigned to Camp Forrest, Tenn., and Camp McCain, Miss., before returning to Ft. Benning at attend Advance Officer Training School. Upon graduation in major training he was assigned as instructor to Camp Vandorn, Miss. He was sent overseas early last December and is now serving with the Seventh Army.

Dr. Coleman's Sister Is Freed From Japs

Sister Mary Colman, member of the Maryknoll order and sister of Dr. J. Walter Coleman, Gettysburg National Park superintendent, was among the civilian prisoners liberated from the Los Banos internment camp below Manila, Doctor Coleman has been notified.

Sister Colman, who has been in the Philippines since 1929, had been interned by the Japs after the fall of Manila about three years ago. In a letter written to Doctor Coleman in the fall of 1943, she said she was then held in the Santo Tomas camp, but apparently had been moved since that time.

The message from her said she is in good health.

Two Ex - Sailors Record Discharges

Two honorable discharges from the United States Navy were filed Wednesday at office of Registrar and Recorder Winfield G. Horner by county service veterans.

Both service men were discharged from the same U. S. Navy Receiving barracks at the Lido Beach, Long Island, Naval Training Center. The first was Glenn William Arenz, of Gettysburg, who was discharged February 27. He enlisted in the navy April 3, 1944, at Harrisburg, and trained at the Bainbridge Naval Training center. He also served at Philadelphia before going to the post at Lido Beach. He had earned the rating of seaman second class.

A second discharge was for Jackson Sampson Scott, Littlestown, who served as an apprentice seaman. He enlisted January 5, this year, at Harrisburg. He was discharged February 28.

DONALD DIEHL PROMOTED TO FULL COLONEL

Dover Army Air Field, Dover, Del. Two promotions were announced March 10 for Colonel Donald B. Diehl, of Gettysburg, Pa., veteran Army pilot and armament specialist who has assumed command of an experimental project at the Dover Army Air Field and also has been elevated to the rank of a full colonel.

The officer succeeds Colonel Harry L. Donich who has been given an overseas assignment, according to announcement by Dover's base commander, Colonel Harold J. Rau. Colonel Donich had served at Dover for six months.

Colonel Diehl has been identified with aircraft armament since he was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Air Corps Reserve in June, 1933, at Kelly Field, Tex.

Prior to his assignment at Dover, he served 15 months at Headquarters of the Army Air Forces in Washington as chief of the armament section of the Materiel Division. He was chief of the bombing branch in the armament laboratory at Wright Field, O., for three years before he was sent to Washington.

College Graduate
A native of Gettysburg, Pa., where his mother, Mrs. Robert B. Diehl now resides at 27 East High street, the officer graduated from York high school in 1928 and from Gettysburg college in 1932 with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering.

The colonel entered the service as an air cadet in 1932 and upon being commissioned as a pilot was assigned to a pursuit squadron at Langley Field, Va., for two years until 1935.

Returning to active duty in October, 1936, he was sent to the Panama Canal department for more than three years' service during which he shifted to piloting bombers.

Th. colonel is a senior pilot and during his 13 years of Army flying has flown nearly every type of Army aircraft.

His wife, the former Ruth E. Kirby, resides with him in Dover. They have three sons: Robert, 7, Donald, Jr., 5, and four-month-old Geoffrey. During a short period on inactive status in 1936, he was employed by the York Corporation at York, Pa.

College, Charities Share In Estate

Three $200 bequests to a college and two charitable causes were included in the will of the late Ellen B. Trimmer, of Huntington township, filed for probate Monday morning.

The bequests were to Huntington Central college (United Brethren college) in Indiana, the "Foreign Missionary cause in China" and to the "Milton Wright home." George W. Howe, was named executor of the estate which was valued at about $650 in personal property.

With Our Service Men

Pvt. Olden H. Shultz now receives his mail 316th General hospital, Camp Crowder, Mo.

Pfc. Clyde A. Beamer, son of Mrs. C. J. Beamer, Orrtanna, who is now in Germany, went overseas last September. Previously he was in England, France, Belgium and Holland. He receives his mail in care of the postmaster at New York city.

Pvt. Charles W. Smith is receiving his mail in care of the postmaster at New York city.

S. Sgt. Charles A. Karas, a radio operator on a B-29 bomber is stationed in France and receives his mail in care of the postmaster at New York city.

S. 1-c AOM Charles L. Bollinger receives his mail Comfair NAAF, Nantucket, Mass.

Pvt. Eileen P. Bushman now receives her mail Med. Dept. Enlisted Technical school, William Beaumont General hospital, El Paso, Texas.

Ensign George C. Boehner now receives his mail Advanced Line Officers school, Miami, Fla.

Cpl. George M. Gilbert is receiving his mail 470th ASF Band, Camp Planche, New Orleans 12, La.

Cpl. R. P. Miller receives his mail in care of the postmaster at New York city.

Pfc. Clair Spertzel has been transferred to Sec. Sq. M. A. G. 34, 9th MAW-FMF, MCAAF, Oak Grove, New Bern, N. C.

MINISTERS TO ASK STATE-WIDE DAY OF PRAYER

The Adams County Ministerium held its regular meeting Monday noon at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville, with the Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, Ardenstville, president, presiding. A luncheon was held at 1 o'clock at Fidler's restaurant.

It was decided to designate Sunday, April 22, as a Day of Prayer in behalf of the conference of United Nations to be held in San Francisco for the establishment of an international organization for peace and World Security.

All churches are asked to unite in making the conference the theme of their morning worship service that day. A committee, composed of the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman and the Rev. H. S. Ecker, both of Gettysburg, was appointed to prepare a special order of service for use in the churches on that occasion. Action was taken to request the state Council of Churches to set aside that day as a state-wide day of prayer for the conference.

Ask Delay On Universal Service
Dr. Putman presented a report on the recent conference in Cleveland on a just and durable peace.

The Rev. Mr. Frantz was elected to serve as the key-man in Adams county for the Pennsylvania State Council of Churches.

The Ministerium took action in line with the recent Cleveland conference asking postponement of congressional action on universal military training until after the war.

SUICIDE PROBE BRINGS ARREST

State police from the local substation announced Tuesday that the ownership of the gun which was used in the suicide shooting last Thursday of Eugene Hertz, 16-year-old eighth grade pupil in the Lincoln building has been traced.

A warrant was issued at the office of Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore for the arrest of James Seibert, 22, Gettysburg R. 4, for a violation of the uniform firearms act.

Seibert was accused of having sold the small .22 caliber revolver to a 16-year-old juvenile who in turn sold the weapon to young Hertz. Police said that the juvenile is to get a hearing in juvenile court.

He, too, was charged with a violation of the section of the Uniform Firearms act relating with sales of firearms to minors. Although the warrant for Seibert's arrest was issued Tuesday, he had not been apprehended by this afternoon. Police said they expect to take him into custody this evening.

CADET NURSE CAPPED

Miss Elizabeth Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Small, Gettysburg, was capped as a cadet nurse at Temple university hospital, Philadelphia, last Sunday following her nurse's probation period of six months. She was one of a class of 80 to receive caps. Her parents attended the exercises.

JUDGE SHEELY IS CANDIDATE FOR SECOND TERM; IS BACKED BY BAR

Judge W. C. Sheely, serving his tenth year as president judge of the courts of Adams and Fulton counties, made formal announcement today of his candidacy for re-election for a second term.

His public statement followed action taken Tuesday afternoon at a special meeting of the Adams County Bar association at the court house at which all of the present active members of the bar unanimously endorsed the candidacy of Judge Sheely.

The bar named a committee to arrange for a dinner "at an early date" honoring the judge. The committee includes John P. Butt, Franklin R. Bigham and Richard A. Brown, Esqs.

JUDGE SHEELY

The Adams county attorneys also directed that the bar association of Fulton county be advised of the action of the local bar. The meeting was held in the law library with the president, William L. Meals, Esq., presiding.

May Be Unopposed
At the close of the bar meeting, Judge Sheely was called from his offices to the library and advised of the bar's action. The judge thanked the attorneys and added: "If the people of Adams county agree with you in that endorsement, I'll be very glad to serve."

In view of the action of the county bar, which involved members of both major parties, and the fact that the petition period already has begun, political observers in the county today were of the opinion that Judge Sheely will be unopposed in his campaign—not only at the early primaries on June 19 but also at the general election next November.

Asked today by The Gettysburg Times if the Republicans will put forth a candidate, GOP County Chairman John H. Baschore said he does not know of any Republican candidate for the judgeship. "I am not in position to say today, however, that there will not be any."

When Judge Sheely was elected president judge of the Fifty-first judicial district, including Adams and Fulton counties, in the fall of 1935, he became one of the youngest presiding judges in the state. He succeeded the late Donald P. McPherson on the two-county district bench.

PVT. PLANK IS WOUNDED FEB. 23

Pvt. Richard (Fred) Plank, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Plank of Gettysburg, was wounded in action in Germany February 23, his parents have learned from a letter from their son.

The Plank's received a letter from Private Plank last week in which he stated that he was "banged up" on Feb. 23, and Friday morning they received a card from an Army base hospital informing them that "Fred" had been wounded on the scalp, both hands and both legs.

Private Plank has been overseas since December. He went into Belgium January 10 and then crossed into Holland. He wrote home that he joined the Ninth Army January 29. He has been fighting as an infantryman with that unit since that date.

The young soldier was inducted into the service last July 20 and took his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla. A brother, Pay Clerk G. Weldon Plank, is serving with the Navy in the South Pacific. The Plank's also have a son-in-law in the service. He is Pvt. William G. Rupp, Jr., who was wounded in action last September 25. He reported back to action with his outfit, the first of February.

Flyer Convalescing; Meets Ex-Schoolmate

Mr. and Mrs. George Naugle, of Gettysburg received word Wednesday their son, Cpl. Richard B. Naugle, of the Air Forces, has been transferred to a convalescent replacement center in England.

Cpl. Naugle was hospitalized in France after a plane crash on August 28, 1944, and later was transferred to a hospital in England. He submitted to an operation January 10 for a kidney injury.

While exercising by walking at his new station recently, Cpl. Naugle met Lt. Donald Drake, a former schoolmate. Lt. Drake is the first person Cpl. Naugle has met from Adams county since he arrived in England over a year ago.

'Y' DIRECTORS HOLD MEETING HERE MONDAY

The hearing of a number of routine reports and preliminary reports for the annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian association and considerable discussion occupied most of the time at the regular meeting of the "Y," board held Monday afternoon.

Plans were discussed for the annual meeting which will be held Friday, March 23, in the form of a dinner. Details for the affair will be announced later.

Board President Mrs. A. R. Wentz presided at the session. Mrs. Lila Craig led the devotions and also acted as secretary in the absence of the regular secretary, Mrs. C. C. Rasmussen.

Discussion was centered on the possibility of securing a full- or part-time professional secretary for the "Y." It was developed that perhaps a part-time secretary could be hired in conjunction with another "Y," such as Hanover.

Take Library Membership
The report on the membership drive, for which funds are still being received, showed that a total of $2,592, more than 25 per cent above the original $2,000 goal, had been contributed to date.

The board voted to take out a $5 group membership in the Adams County Free Library association. Announcement was made that additional funds had been received for the furnace fund and it was voted to use that money for the purchase of war bonds until the new furnace is purchased for the "Y" building.

Announcement was made that girls from Fairfield will have charge of the Lenten devotions which will be held at the "Y" Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

2 EX - STUDENTS LOST IN ACTION

Lt. Robert L. Nissley, 33, a naval communications officer who saw duty with the staff Commander of Air Forces in the South Pacific, at Guadalcanal, Bougainville and New Guinea, and was with an aircraft carrier, has been reported missing. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Nissley, of Hummelstown.

Following his tour of duty with the air force staff, he served with the flagship St. Louis and was hurt in the Keela Gulf battle July 4, 1943.

A graduate of Hummelstown high school and Gettysburg college with the class of 1933, Lieutenant Nissley was a high school teacher in Salem, N. J., before he entered the service. He was a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. His wife and daughter, Jean, reside in that city.

Pvt. Bowman Also Missing
Pvt. Philip R. Bowman, previously reported missing in action, was killed in action in France January 9, according to a telegram received Friday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Bowman, Seven Valleys. He had been serving with the 56th Armored Infantry Battalion, 12th Division. He had received training in armored infantry at Camp Barkerley, Texas, after the disbanding of the Army Specialized Training Unit at the College of Mines and Metallurgy, El Paso, Texas, where he had been studying. He had also studied at the University of Louisiana under ASTP. Basic training was received at Fort Lewis, Wash.

When he was called up for service Private Bowman was a sophomore at Gettysburg college where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Besides his parents he is survived by two sisters, Florence and Geneva, the latter a teacher in the York city school system and a brother, Pvt. Russell W. Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schartiger, Gettysburg R. 3, announce the birth of a son at the Hanover hospital Monday evening.

REA OFFICIALS CLOSE MEETING WITH BANQUET

Judge W. C. Sheely and Andrew Beshore, Wormleysburg humorist, were the guest speakers at a Hotel Gettysburg banquet last Friday evening at which the Pennsylvania Cooperative association brought to a close all-day sessions of their quarterly meeting which brought officials of the 13 Rural Electrification Cooperatives of Pennsylvania to Gettysburg with the Adams Electric Cooperative, Inc., youngest and one of the largest in the state, as host.

Calvin A. Cluck, Adams Electric superintendent and president of the association, served as toastmaster. Official greetings of the community were extended by Burgess Fred G. Pfeiffer.

In his address Judge Sheely emphasized the responsibilities that are attached to the exercise of the "four freedoms" and stressed specially individual and community responsibility for meeting the diversified needs of returning veterans.

Outlining to his audience a citizen's responsibilities to "himself and his family, his community, his country and his God," he applied those duties specially toward the necessity for helping returning servicemen find their new berths in civilian life.

He described in a general way the government's plan for making information service available to the veterans and praising draft board members as the "unsung heroes" of this war, said it is fitting that Selective Service have a major role in returning to civilian life the men they drafted for the military. He urged the REA officials to give particular attention to finding opportunities in their organization for veterans, especially those who have physical disabilities.

Speaking chiefly in humorous vein, Mr. Beshore, a former official in the state department of labor and industry, closed with a plea "to substitute the magnanimous for the intolerant and keep faith with our soldier dead who are buried all over the world." Mr. Beshore has four sons in service, two of them war casualties.

"American Pioneers"
In his greeting to the cooperative officials, Burgess Pfeiffer praised their organization as "one that is doing much for human progress." He told them they are "pioneering in newly discovered frontiers in America with a faith and foresight that is comparable to that of American pioneers of earlier centuries."

President Cluck introduced guests including William W. Arnett, assistant rate specialist for the REA from St. Louis, national headquarters for the federal agency.

Meet Next In Crawford County
Morning and afternoon sessions of the association were devoted to discussions of operating problems including costs, management, engineering and labor. Mr. Arnett and William Nivison, also from the St. Louis office, joined the discussions.

Wesley S. Thomas, Forksville, Sullivan county, association secretary said the 13 cooperatives serve 30,000 customers in rural areas throughout the state, most of the users being farmers.

The next association meeting will be held Friday, June 15, at Cambridge Springs, Crawford county.

S. SGT. REEVER IS DECORATED

S. Sgt. Samuel J. Reever, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Luther Reever, Gettysburg R. 2, has been awarded the Bronze Star medal in connection with military operations against the enemy in the vicinity of La-Macta, Algeria, November 9, 1942. The medal was issued last fall and a copy of the accompanying citation has just been received by his parents.

Sergeant Reever, then a private first class, was decorated for "heroic achievement" in combat. The citation follows in part: "When communication wires between mortars and an observation post were severed by enemy fire, Sergeant Reever voluntarily crossed open terrain and made necessary repairs. His inspiring devotion to duty accelerated the capture of an important objective."

Sergeant Reever serves with the First Army and has been in Germany since last fall. He continues to serve in an infantry outfit. He took part in the invasions of North Africa and Sicily and was among the first waves to hit Normandy beaches on D-day last June 6.

He entered service January 16, 1941. He has been overseas for 32 months. A brother, James D. Reever is serving in the Navy.

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

Truth Our Guide—The Public Good Our Aim

With Honor To Ourselves and Profit To Our Patrons

This special SERVICE EDITION is mailed exclusively to the men and women from Adams County who are serving in the Armed Forces of their country.

Volume 3

Leased Wire Member of The Associated Press

GETTYSBURG, PA., U. S. A., FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1945

Read by Nearly Everybody in Adams County

No. 21

NEGRO IS GIVEN PEN TERM; 3 ARE PAROLED TODAY

John W. Peck, colored, Gettysburg, R. 1, was sentenced to one and a half to three years in the Eastern penitentiary after entering a plea of guilty to a serious offense in court Monday.

Peck was arrested last month by a member of the local substation of state police on the charge which involved a 15-year-old boy in the offense which was alleged occurred in Straban township. The court also imposed a $5 fine on Peck.

Peck's parents, his former employer and the employer of his parents all appeared in court to testify as to the boy's character.

Three Paroled

In addition, the court paroled three men who had been serving sentences in the county jail. William M. Vaughn, who was sentenced last November 25 to six months to one year on a charge of robbery of a wrist watch from a sleeping man in his car parked near Haines' roadside stand, was paroled for one year following a hearing. It was testified that Vaughn was needed to care for the farm of Leslie and Carrie Vaughn, because both of the farm owners are in ill health.

Chauncey Laughman, of Abbotstown, was placed on parole for two years after it was certified to the court that he would be assured of a job. The court was told of a plan of deducting from Laughman's salary for driving for a trucking firm which would be used to pay off the arrearage of a support order previously entered against him as well as other costs.

The third parole was for Tim Young, who was serving a sentence for jail break. Young walked out of the county jail last August. He was placed on parole for a year.

Hear Argument

One of the longest proceedings in the court Monday morning was the hearing of an argument for a new trial in the action in trespass of John A. Luckenbaugh, Spring Grove R. D., versus J. P. Haughawout and Charles Haughawout, proprietors of the Glen Lock dairy, at Sunbury. Luckenbaugh won a suit against the dairy last fall for damages and personal injuries suffered when the automobile in which Luckenbaugh was riding collided with a truck owned by the dairy.

Luckenbaugh was severely burned about the face by blazing gasoline ignited after the crash. The gasoline was from a jug which was being used in a gas mileage test on the car. In his argument for a new trial, Richard A. Brown, Esq., attorney for the defendants, said that the "jury was confused by the court by the language used to explain superceding cause" when the charge was being given to the jurors. He stated that there was "no question of contributory negligence," and that on such grounds a new trial should be granted.

Decision to Come Later

Eugene V. Bullett, Esq., attorney for the plaintiff, argued that the case had previously been disposed of in accordance to correct procedure and on the basis of other court decisions in similar cases, and asked that the motion for a new trial be denied by the court.

The court took the case under advisement and will issue an order in the near future.

A non-suspension action brought by Evelyn Stoner, Biglerville, versus her husband, Murray Stoner, Gettysburg R. 2, was settled when the court ordered the defendant to pay $7.50 per week for the support of the couple's nine-year-old boy.

Appoint Master

J. Francis Yake, Jr., Esq., was appointed master in the divorce action of Lawrence W. Hays, also known as Lawrence W. Hays, Jr., against Frances M. Adams Hays.

Other court business concerned the hearing of several petitions in connection with estates and the confirmation and approval of distribution in two other estates.

Dr. Franklin Fry To Give Baccalaureate

Dr. Franklin C. Fry, Akron, Ohio, president of the United Lutheran Church in America, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class at Gettysburg college Sunday morning, May 27, at the Majestic theater. It has been announced by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, college president.

The 113th annual commencement exercises will be held Monday morning, May 28, in front of the Beachem memorial portico on the north side of Old Dorm. The speaker has not yet been announced. The Valley Forge Military band will provide special numbers at the commencement exercises and will render a concert Sunday evening.

Promoted

Ensign Donald Ulrich, son of Mrs. John Ulrich, of Gettysburg, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant (j.g.) in the Navy. A veteran of service in the European theater where he commanded an LCI during the invasion of southern France, he now receives his mail in care of the fleet postmaster at San Francisco. He is on military leave from the teaching staff of Lincoln school and entered service nearly two years ago.

2 EMMITSBURG MEN KILLED ON EUROPE FRONTS

Two Emmitsburg men were reported killed in action in Europe in War Department telegrams received by relatives over the weekend.

Second Lieut. Fred P. Timmerman, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Timmerman, Sr., previously reported slightly wounded last November 14, was reported killed in France on February 26.

Pfc. John W. "Bill" Little, 35, son of the late Mrs. and Mrs. John Little, previously reported missing in action in Belgium as of last January 8, was formally reported killed in action on that date.

Brother in Navy

Lt. Timmerman attended the University of Maryland and received his basic training at Camp Croft, N. C. He returned to the University of Maryland for a short course in specialized training and then went to Ft. Benning, Ga., where he completed Officers' Candidate school. He went overseas last September and had returned to active duty after being wounded in November.

Pfc. Little, who was a tankman in General Patton's army, was also wounded last November when his tank was splintered. His relatives have reason to believe he was transferred to an infantry outfit upon his return to duty.

Lieut. Timmerman had been in service little more than a year. He is survived by his parents and the following brothers and sisters: Seaman 2 C Joseph Henry Timmerman, U. S. Navy; John Harold, Christine, Ann Frances and William Francis, at home, and Catherine Timmerman, Washington.

Pfc. Little is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Eugene Cramer, Emmitsburg, and Ann, now married and residing at McSherrystown, and three brothers, Robert and Roy Little, Emmitsburg, and James Little, McSherrystown.

Pfc. Little went overseas in February, 1944, after having been home for his father's funeral in December, 1943. He was employed at St. Joseph's college before entering service.

SGT. MILLER IS SLAIN IN FRANCE

Tech. Sgt. Earl F. Miller, son of Ruth M. Miller, of Gettysburg, was killed in action in France January 5, according to War Department telegram received Friday morning by his mother.

Tech. Sgt. Miller had previously been reported as missing since January 5.

He enlisted in the regular Army March 24, 1938, and was assigned to the 21st Infantry Regiment at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. He was stationed at Pearl Harbor during the Jap attack and received a citation for seizing a machine-gun and gunning Jap planes without orders and on his own initiative.

Early in 1943 he returned to the United States and was assigned to training recruits at Camp Gruber, Okla. He went overseas with a heavy machine-gun unit last December.

EX-SUPERVISOR RESIGNS RELIEF BOARD POSITION

Mrs. Rosalie C. Raffensperger, Ardenstville, resigned Tuesday evening as senior visitor for the local office of the Pennsylvania Public Assistance board at regular monthly board meeting held at the office on North Washington street.

The board accepted "with regret" Mrs. Raffensperger's resignation. Mrs. Raffensperger has been serving in assistance work in the county since 1933 when she first directed the local emergency relief program. After two years in that position she went with the mother's assistance program with which she worked until 1938 when all of the assistance agencies were consolidated.

After the consolidation she served as county supervisor until October 1, 1943, and from that date she has been in the field service. The 12-year period she was engaged in assistance work, Mrs. Raffensperger had only one prolonged absence from duty. That was a one-year leave of absence for illness after she was severely burned in an explosion several years ago at her home.

Has No Plans

The board said today no steps had been taken to secure a replacement for Mrs. Raffensperger's position. Chairman M. Stuart Danner presided at the board meeting with members Harold H. Reuning, Mrs. Rasmus S. Baby and J. Hayes Beard in attendance. Mrs. Raffensperger said today she has no business plans for the immediate future.

With the exception of Mrs. Raffensperger's resignation, chiefly routine business was handled and general discussions were held on board policy. A report by Mrs. Verma O. Myers, board secretary, showed that the present case load of the local board was six less than a year ago. The present total was given as 667 as compared with 673 on the comparable date in 1944.

The breakdown of the various types of assistance for the two years, with 1945 being given first, was as follows: Old-age pensions, 445, 443; blind pensions, 78, 74; aid to dependent children, 80, 93; and general assistance 59 and 63 for last year.

The next meeting will be held April 10.

CAPT. LOWE IS BACK IN ACTION

Capt. Donald H. Lowe, son of Theodore A. Low, Fairfield, has recovered from a leg wound received about February 1 and has rejoined his company with the Seventh Army at the western front, his father has been informed.

Capt. Lowe received his wound from machine-gun fire while cleaning out a German pocket with the French First Army in the Colmar section. He has been awarded the Purple Heart, Combat Infantry Badge and two Bronze Stars. The French Army is awarding the Croix de Guerre to Capt. Lowe's company for its gallantry in cleaning out the pocket.

The Fairfield officer enlisted December 11, 1935, and served in Hawaii until 1942 and was there during the attack on Pearl Harbor.

He returned to the United States in 1942 and was assigned to the Officer Training School at Ft. Benning, Ga., from where he graduated in May with a commission as second lieutenant. In the same year he was promoted to first lieutenant and then to captain at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

He was later assigned to Camp Forrest, Tenn., and Camp McCain, Miss., before returning to Ft. Benning at attend Advance Officer Training School. Upon graduation in major training he was assigned as instructor to Camp Vandorn, Miss. He was sent overseas early last December and is now serving with the Seventh Army.

Dr. Coleman's Sister Is Freed From Japs

Sister Mary Colman, member of the Maryknoll order and sister of Dr. J. Walter Coleman, Gettysburg National Park superintendent, was among the civilian prisoners liberated from the Los Banos internment camp below Manila, Doctor Coleman has been notified.

Sister Colman, who has been in the Philippines since 1929, had been interned by the Japs after the fall of Manila about three years ago. In a letter written to Doctor Coleman in the fall of 1943, she said she was then held in the Santo Tomas camp, but apparently had been moved since that time.

The message from her said she is in good health.

Two Ex-Sailors Record Discharges

Two honorable discharges from the United States Navy were filed Wednesday at office of Register and Recorder Winfield G. Horner by county service veterans.

Both service men were discharged from the same U. S. Navy Receiving barracks at the Lido Beach, Long Island, Naval Training Center. The first was Glenn William Arentz, of Gettysburg, who was discharged February 27. He enlisted in the navy April 3, 1944, at Harrisburg, and trained at the Bainbridge Naval Training center. He also served at Philadelphia before going to the post at Lido Beach. He had earned the rating of seaman second class.

A second discharge was for Jackson Sampson Scott, Littlestown, who served as an apprentice seaman. He enlisted January 5, this year, at Harrisburg. He was discharged February 28.

DONALD DIEHL PROMOTED TO FULL COLONEL

Dover Army Air Field, Dover, Del., Two promotions were announced March 10 for Colonel Donald B. Diehl, of Gettysburg, Pa., veteran Army pilot and armament specialist, who has assumed command of an experimental project at the Dover Army Air Field and also has been elevated to the rank of a full colonel.

The officer succeeds Colonel Harry L. Donicht who has been given an overseas assignment, according to announcement by Dover's base commander, Colonel Harold J. Rau. Colonel Donicht had served at Dover for six months.

Colonel Diehl has been identified with aircraft armament since he was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Air Corps Reserve in June, 1933, at Kelly Field, Tex.

DONALD B. DIEHL

Prior to his assignment at Dover, he served 15 months at Headquarters of the Army Air Forces in Washington as chief of the armament section of the Material Division. He was chief of the bombing branch in the armament laboratory at Wright Field, O., for three years before he was sent to Washington.

College Graduate

A native of Gettysburg, Pa., where his mother, Mrs. Robert B. Diehl now resides at 27 East High street, the flier graduated from York high school in 1928 and from Gettysburg college in 1932 with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering.

The colonel entered the service as an air cadet in 1932 and upon being commissioned as a pilot was assigned to a pursuit squadron at Langley Field, Va., for two years until 1935.

Returning to active duty in October, 1936, he was sent to the Panama Canal department for more than three years' service during which he shifted to piloting bombers.

The colonel is a senior pilot and during his 13 years of Army flying has flown nearly every type of Army aircraft.

His wife, the former Ruth E. Kirby, resides with him in Dover. They have three sons: Robert, 7, Donald, Jr., 5, and four-month-old Geoffrey. During a short period on inactive status in 1936, he was employed by the York Corporation at York, Pa.

College, Charities Share In Estate

Three $200 bequests to a college and two charitable causes were included in the will of the late Ellen B. Trimmer, of Huntington township, filed for probate Monday morning.

The bequests were to Huntington central college (United Brethren college) in Indiana, the "Foreign Missionary cause in China" and to the "Milton Wright home." George W. Howe, was named executor of the estate which was valued at about $850 in personal property.

With Our Service Men

Pvt. Olden H. Shultz now receives his mail 316th General hospital, Camp Crowder, Mo.

Pfc. Clyde A. Beamer, son of Mrs. C. J. Beamer, Orrtanna, who is now in Germany, went overseas last September. Previously he was in England, France, Belgium and Holland. He receives his mail in care of the postmaster at New York city.

Pvt. Charles W. Smith is receiving his mail in care of the postmaster at New York city.

S. Sgt. Charles A. Karas, a radio operator on a B-29 bomber is stationed in France and receives his mail in care of the postmaster at New York city.

S. 1-c AOM Charles L. Bollinger receives his mail Comfair NAAF, Nantucket, Mass.

Pvt. Eileen P. Bushman now receives her mail Med. Dept. Enlisted Technical school, William Beaumont general hospital, El Paso, Texas.

Ensign George C. Boehner now receives his mail Advanced Line Officers school, Miami, Fla.

Cpl. George M. Gilbert is receiving his mail 470th ASF Band, Camp Planche, New Orleans 12, La.

Cpl. R. P. Miller receives his mail in care of the postmaster at New York city.

Pfc. Clair Spertzel has been transferred to Sec. Sq. M. A. G. 34, 9th MAW-PMP, MCAAF, Oak Grove, New Bern, N. C.

MINISTERS TO ASK STATE-WIDE DAY OF PRAYER

The Adams County Ministerium held its regular meeting Monday noon at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville, with the Rev. Nevin R. Prantz, Ardenstville, president, presiding. A luncheon was held at 1 o'clock at Fidler's restaurant.

It was decided to designate Sunday, April 22, as a Day of Prayer in behalf of the conference of United Nations to be held in San Francisco for the establishment of an international organization for peace and World Security.

All churches are asked to unite in making the conference the theme of their morning worship service that day. A committee, composed of the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putnam and the Rev. H. S. Ecker, both of Gettysburg, was appointed to prepare a special order of service for use in the churches on that occasion. Action was taken to request the state Council of Churches to set aside that day as a state-wide day of prayer for the conference.

Ask Delay On Universal Service

Dr. Putnam presented a report on the recent conference in Cleveland on a just and durable peace.

The Rev. Mr. Prantz was elected to serve as the key-man in Adams county for the Pennsylvania State Council of Churches.

The Ministerium took action in line with the recent Cleveland conference asking postponement of congressional action on universal military training until after the war.

May Be Unopposed

At the close of the bar meeting, Judge Sheely was called from his offices to the library and advised of the bar's action. The judge thanked the attorneys and added: "If the people of Adams county agree with you in that endorsement, I'll be very glad to serve."

In view of the action of the county bar, which involved members of both major parties, and the fact that the petition period already has begun, political observers in the county today were of the opinion that Judge Sheely will be unopposed in his campaign—not only at the early primaries on June 19 but also at the general election next November.

Asked today by The Gettysburg Times if the Republicans will put forth a candidate, GOP County Chairman John H. Basehore said he does not know of any Republican candidate for the judgeship. "I am not in position to say today, however, that there will not be any."

When Judge Sheely was elected president judge of the Fifty-first judicial district, including Adams and Fulton counties, in the fall of 1935, he became one of the youngest presiding judges in the state. He succeeded the late Donald P. McPherson on the two-county district bench.

State police from the local substation announced Tuesday that the ownership of the gun which was used in the suicide shooting last Thursday of Eugene Hertz, 16-year-old eighth grade pupil in the Lincoln building has been traced.

A warrant was issued at the office of Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore for the arrest of James Seibert, 22, Gettysburg R. 4, for a violation of the uniform firearms act.

Seibert was accused of having sold the small 22 caliber revolver to a 16-year-old juvenile who in turn sold the weapon to young Hertz. Police said that the juvenile is to get a hearing in juvenile court.

He, too, was charged with a violation of the section of the Uniform Firearms act relating with sales of firearms to minors. Although the warrant for Seibert's arrest was issued Tuesday, he had not been apprehended by this afternoon. Police said they expect to take him into custody this evening.

CADET NURSE CAPPED

Miss Elizabeth Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Small, Gettysburg, was capped as a cadet nurse at Temple university hospital, Philadelphia, last Sunday following her nurse's probation period of six months. She was one of a class of 80 to receive caps. Her parents attended the exercises.

JUDGE SHEELY IS CANDIDATE FOR SECOND TERM; IS BACKED BY BAR

Judge W. C. Sheely, serving his tenth year as president judge of the courts of Adams and Fulton counties, made formal announcement today of his candidacy for re-election for a second term.

His public statement followed action taken Tuesday afternoon at a special meeting of the Adams County Bar association at the court house at which all of the present active members of the bar unanimously endorsed the candidacy of Judge Sheely.

The bar named a committee to arrange for a dinner "at an early date" honoring the judge. The committee includes John P. Butt, Franklin R. Bigham and Richard A. Brown, Esqs.

JUDGE SHEELY

The Adams county attorneys also directed that the bar association of Fulton county be advised of the action of the local bar. The meeting was held in the law library with the president, William L. Meals, Esq., presiding.

At the close of the bar meeting, Judge Sheely was called from his offices to the library and advised of the bar's action. The judge thanked the attorneys and added:

"If the people of Adams county agree with you in that endorsement, I'll be very glad to serve."

In view of the action of the county bar, which involved members of both major parties, and the fact that the petition period already has begun, political observers in the county today were of the opinion that Judge Sheely will be unopposed in his campaign—not only at the early primaries on June 19 but also at the general election next November.

Asked today by The Gettysburg Times if the Republicans will put forth a candidate, GOP County Chairman John H. Basehore said he does not know of any Republican candidate for the judgeship. "I am not in position to say today, however, that there will not be any."

When Judge Sheely was elected president judge of the Fifty-first judicial district, including Adams and Fulton counties, in the fall of 1935, he became one of the youngest presiding judges in the state. He succeeded the late Donald P. McPherson on the two-county district bench.

PVT. PLANK IS WOUNDED FEB. 23

Pvt. Richard (Fred) Plank, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Plank of Gettysburg, was wounded in action in Germany February 23. His parents have learned from a letter from their son.

The Plank's received a letter from Private Plank last week in which he stated that he was "banged up" on Feb. 23, and Friday morning they received a card from an Army base hospital informing them that "Fred" had been wounded on the scalp, both hands and both legs.

Private Plank has been overseas since December. He went into Belgium January 10 and then crossed into Holland. He wrote home that he joined the Ninth Army January 29. He has been fighting as an infantryman with that unit since that date.

The young soldier was inducted into the service last July 20 and took his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla. A brother, Pay Clerk G. Weldon Plank, is serving with the Navy in the South Pacific. The Planks also have a son-in-law in the service. He is Pvt. William G. Rupp, Jr., who was wounded in action last September 25. He reported back to action with his outfit, the first of February.

Flyer Convalescing; Meets Ex-Schoolmate

Mr. and Mrs. George Naugle, of Gettysburg received word Wednesday their son, Cpl. Richard B. Naugle, of the Air Forces, has been transferred to a convalescent replacement center in England.

Cpl. Naugle was hospitalized in France after a plane crash on August 28, 1944, and later was transferred to a hospital in England. He submitted to an operation January 10 for a kidney injury.

While exercising by walking at his new station recently, Cpl. Naugle met Lt. Donald Drake, a former schoolmate. Lt. Drake is the first person Cpl. Naugle has met from Adams county since he arrived in England over a year ago.

'Y' DIRECTORS HOLD MEETING HERE MONDAY

The hearing of a number of routine reports and preliminary reports for the annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian association and considerable discussion occupied most of the time at the regular meeting of the "Y," board held Monday afternoon.

Plans were discussed for the annual meeting which will be held Friday, March 23, in the form of a dinner. Details for the affair will be announced later.

Board President Mrs. A. R. Wentz presided at the session. Mrs. Lila Craig led the devotions and also acted as secretary in the absence of the regular secretary, Mrs. C. C. Rasmussen.

Discussion was centered on the possibility of securing a full- or part-time professional secretary for the "Y." It was developed that perhaps a part-time secretary could be hired in conjunction with another "Y" such as Hanover.

Take Library Membership

The report on the membership drive, for which funds are still being received, showed that a total of $2,592, more than 25 per cent above the original $2,000 goal, had been contributed to date.

The board voted to take out a $5 group membership in the Adams County Free Library association. Announcement was made that additional funds had been received for the furnace fund and it was voted to use that money for the purchase of war bonds until the new furnace is purchased for the "Y" building.

Announcement was made that girls from Fairfield will have charge of the Lenten devotions which will be held at the "Y" Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

2 EX-STUDENTS LOST IN ACTION

Lt. Robert L. Nissley, 33, a naval communications officer who saw duty with the staff Commander of Air Forces in the South Pacific, at Guadalcanal, Bougainville and New Guinea, and was with an aircraft carrier, has been reported missing. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Nissley, of Hummelstown.

Following his tour of duty with the air force staff, he served with the flag ship St. Louis and was hurt in the Keela Gulf battle July 4, 1943.

A graduate of Hummelstown high school and Gettysburg college with the class of 1933, Lieutenant Nissley was a high school teacher in Salem, N. J., before he entered the service. He was a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. His wife and daughter, Jean, reside in that city.

Pvt. Bowman Also Missing

Pvt. Philip R. Bowman, previously reported missing in action, was killed in action in France January 9, according to a telegram received Friday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Bowman, Seven Valleys. He had been serving with the 56th Armored Infantry Battalion, 12th Division. He had received training in armored infantry at Camp Barkeley, Texas, after the disbanding of the Army Specialized Training Unit at the College of Mines and Metallurgy, El Paso, Texas, where he had been studying. He had also studied at the University of Louisiana under ASTP. Basic training was received at Fort Lewis, Wash.

When he was called up for service Private Bowman was a sophomore at Gettysburg college where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Besides his parents he is survived by two sisters, Florence and Geneva, the latter a teacher in the York city school system and a brother, Pvt. Russell W. Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schartiger, Gettysburg R. 3, announce the birth of a son at the Hanover hospital Monday evening.

REA OFFICIALS CLOSE MEETING WITH BANQUET

Judge W. C. Sheely and Andrew Beshore, Wormleysburg humorist, were the guest speakers at a Hotel Gettysburg banquet last Friday evening at which the Pennsylvania Cooperative association brought to a close all-day sessions of their quarterly meeting which brought officials of the 13 Rural Electrification Cooperatives of Pennsylvania to Gettysburg with the Adams Electric Cooperative, Inc., youngest and one of the largest in the state, as host.

Calvin A. Cluck, Adams Electric superintendent and president of the association, served as toastmaster. Official greetings of the community were extended by Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer.

In his address Judge Sheely emphasized the responsibilities that are attached to the exercise of the "four freedoms" and stressed specially individual and community responsibility for meeting the diversified needs of returning veterans.

"Help The Veterans"

Outlining to his audience a citizen's responsibilities to "himself and his family, his community, his country and his God," he applied those duties specially toward the necessity for helping returning servicemen find their new berths in civilian life.

He described in a general way the government's plan for making information service available to the veterans and praising draft board members as the "unsung heroes" of this war, said it is fitting that Selective Service have a major role in returning to civilian life the men they drafted for the military. He urged the REA officials to give particular attention to finding opportunities in their organization for veterans, especially those who have physical disabilities.

Speaking chiefly in humorous vein, Mr. Beshore, a former official in the state department of labor and industry, closed with a plea "to substitute the magnanimous for the intolerant and keep faith with our soldier dead who are buried all over the world." Mr. Beshore has four sons in service, two of them war casualties.

"American Pioneers"

In his greeting to the cooperative officials, Burgess Pfeffer praised their organization as "one that is doing much for human progress." He told them they are "pioneering in newly discovered frontiers in America with a faith and foresight that is comparable to that of American pioneers of earlier centuries."

President Cluck introduced guests including William W. Arnett, assistant rate specialist for the REA from St. Louis, national headquarters for the federal agency.

Meet Next In Crawford County

Morning and afternoon sessions of the association were devoted to discussions of operating problems including costs, management, engineering and

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES
(A Daily Newspaper)
18-20 Carlisle Street
Telephone-340

Published at regular intervals
on each weekday

Times and News Publishing Co.
A Pennsylvania corporation.

President—Samuel G. Spangler
Manager—Carl A. Baum
Editor—Paul L. Roy

Non-partisan in Politics
Entered at the Postoffice at Gettysburg as second class matter under the Act of March 3, 1879

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One Week (By Carrier).....12 cents
One Month (By Carrier).....50 cents
One year.....$6.00
Single copies.....Three cents

Member of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association and the Interstate Advertising Managers Association.

AN ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWSPAPER
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use, for republication, of all news dispatches, credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

National Advertising Representative: Fred Kimball, Incorporated, 67 W. 44th Street, New York City.

JOSEPH E. SMITH NAMED TO VETS' FARM LOAN UNIT

Joseph E. Smith, Gettysburg, has just been appointed as the fourth member of the Adams county Veterans' Agricultural Loan Certifying committee which will certify to the Veterans' Administration all applications for agricultural loan guarantees under Title III of Servicemen's Readjustment Act, the so-called GI Bill of Rights.

Mr. Smith, who is a veteran of World War I, is an electrical contractor. He is service officer of the local American Legion post. Serving with Mr. Smith are O. H. Benson, Gettysburg R. 5, Edgar W. Weaver, Gettysburg R. 4, and Felix J. Klunk, Hanover R. 4. This four-man committee will cooperate with the Farm Security Administration supervisor, Clarence A. Myers, who will serve as secretary of the committee.

Mr. Myers said that the certifying committee serves only as a "recommending body" and that the actual administration of the GI Bill remains in the hands of the veteran who desires to secure the benefits of the agricultural provisions of the act. He must take several steps before his application comes before the certifying committee.

Explains Procedure
"First and most important step," he said, "which a veteran must take, is to locate the property which he desires to purchase and find a lender who will supply the needed credit. The county Advisory committee, sponsored by the Extension Service and now being organized locally by the county agent, M. T. Hartman, will know of available farms and will be able to suggest credit sources and give the veteran much valuable information."

"The lender and the veteran sign an application for a loan guarantee, and send it to the Veterans' Administration to determine the eligibility of the veteran. The act says that a veteran must have received a discharge other than dishonorable, have served a minimum of 90 days in the armed forces of the United States after September 16, 1940, or have been given a discharge as a result of service-induced disability regardless of the period served."

What Committee Decides
"If the loan guarantee is for the purchase of real estate it must be appraised by an approved appraiser or immediately in the case of chattel loan guarantees, the application is forwarded to our certifying committee."

Mr. Myers explained that his committee certifies to the Veterans' Administration that in their opinion the loan will be used for the purpose planned, and proposed farming venture has a reasonable chance of success, and that they believe the veteran will be capable because of training or experience to carry out the proposed farming program. The Veterans' Administration makes the final decision as to whether or not the loan will be guaranteed.

MISSING MAN IS PRISONER

Pfc Robert B. Jones, 24, is now a prisoner of the Germans according to a card received Tuesday from the Red Cross by his wife, the former Miss Betty Biessecker, who resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Biessecker, Ottumwa.

Pfc. Jones had previously been reported as missing in action on the western front since November 19, 1944.

Prior to his induction in December, 1942, he was employed by the Hershey chocolate company. Pfc. Jones, whose parents are deceased, formerly resided in Seaton, He trained at Camp Hovez, Texas, and Camp Claiborne, La., and went overseas last September as a member of an infantry outfit.

Three brothers are in the service. They are, Pfc. Thomas, who returned last fall after 18 months in Europe, Sgt. Morgan, somewhere in Europe, and Kenneth, serving with the Coast Guard.

PCBL Contributes $10 To Red Cross

A $10 donation to the Adams county American Red Cross War fund was voted by the Pennsylvania Catholic Beneficial League at its regular meeting Monday night at St. Francis Xavier hall.

Mrs. Salena Menchey, president, presided at the session at which other business was chiefly routine. Following the business meeting a bingo party was held.

DR. E. J. HOH IS NEW DIRECTOR FOR NAWAKWA

The Rev. Dr. Ernest J. Hoh, Lancaster, member of the faculty at Camp Nawakwa for the last four years and now secretary of the camp's board of directors, has been named as the new director of the Lutheran leadership training camp near Bismarck, for the coming season.

That announcement was made Tuesday by Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, member of the faculty of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary and vice president of the camp's board of directors, following a recent meeting of the board.

Doctor Hoh, an alumnus of Muhlenberg college and Mt. Airy Lutheran seminary, has been promised a three-month leave of absence from his pastoral duties at Emmanuel Lutheran church in Lancaster so that he may devote his full time to the leadership camp during the coming season.

He succeeds the Rev. Marshall Breneman, who entered the chaplaincy early this year as an officer in the United States Naval Reserve. He is now serving at a naval training station at Dayton, Fla.

Miss LaVene Grove of Harrisburg is to continue as assistant director of the camp, it was announced.

The camp's board of directors has made plans to replace the present swimming pool on the Nawakwa grounds with a larger pool, possibly at a new location. A new well will be drilled and considerable new equipment is to be provided including beds and mattresses. New buildings are to be erected but that work will be delayed until after the war.

Robert W. Young of the seminary again will be camp chef.

The camping period this year, the seventeenth in the camp's history, will begin June 18 with a camp for intermediate girls. Successive camps are scheduled until August 20 when a special one-week leadership training school will be conducted, concluding the season.

JUDGE PRAISES PHONE WORKERS

In a talk to employees of The United Telephone Company of Pennsylvania at the Hotel Gettysburg Monday evening, Judge W. C. Sheely commended telephone workers in Adams county for their efficiency and cooperation in handling civil air raid warning calls during the early emergency days of the war. He said, "The Adams county Civil Defense organization had one of the finest systems of speeding air raid warnings in the state and the work and efforts of the telephone people helped make it so."

L. R. Thurston, Harrisburg president of the telephone company, told workers: "The war is far from being over and we in the telephone business still have our work cut out for us and must continue to contribute our full share toward the attainment of victory." He commended fellow workers for their part in handling the tremendous task placed on the telephone system by war.

Mr. Thurston cited the company's policy on returning veterans who will receive reemployment with all wage advantages and all other benefits which have accrued to full-time active employees.

E. V. Timmer, Gettysburg manager, said 85 persons attended Monday night's third annual "Family Rally." A buffet luncheon was served.

Member Of Unit To Receive Citation

Tech Sgt. Albert S. Townsend, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Townsend, of York Springs, is a member of a liaison squadron in Italy which was recently awarded the Meritorious Service Unit Plaque for superior performance of duty during the period from August 15 to December 31, 1944.

The citation accompanying the award, states that "Flying from Italy via Corsica to southern France, the first planes of the squadron immediately performed their mission of supplying messenger service and emergency passenger service between the Seventh Army command port and widely separated subordinate command posts. These missions were performed in a superior manner although maintenance personnel and shop equipment had not yet arrived in France. During the Seventh Army's advance northward, the squadron continued to provide the same superior service. The squadron has contributed much to the successful operation of the Seventh Army in France."

FARMERS NIGHT OBSERVED BY LIONS MONDAY

The nation's food supply is shorter now than at any time since the war began but there will be enough of most kinds of food, Dr. Kenneth Hood, agricultural economist from Pennsylvania State college, asserted in a Farmers' Night address before the Gettysburg Lions club Monday evening.

He praised the farmers for doing a "magnificent job" of production in war time with "short and inferior" labor and machinery and other war restrictions and said the achievement was due in large measure to the willingness of the farmer and his family to put in "an 80-hour work week" regularly.

"The green light is still on for production," he declared, "but with less labor, less livestock and more severe shortages in almost everything the farmer needs excepting machinery repair parts, the food situation may become tight, especially in view of the fact that we have no reason to expect an exceptional growing weather as the nation has enjoyed for the last three seasons."

District Governor Speaks

Declaring that increased farm efficiency and improved management methods are modern essentials of successful farming, Doctor Hood placed special emphasis on the improvement of city-rural relations, both social and business. He declared that 40 percent of the nation's population is directly dependent upon farm income and that the remainder constantly are affected indirectly by farm conditions.

Doctor Hood was introduced by County Agent M. T. Hartman who was presented by Clarence J. Waybright, Lion in charge of the program. President J. Milton Bender presided at the meeting with 52 members and guests present.

District Governor Lewis Knepper of Huntingdon paid his official visit to the club and spoke to the group on "Serving Youth," slogan for the current year in this district of Lions International. He said six new Lions club have been organized in the district during the current club year. An additional guest was Deputy District Governor C. Glenn Fry of Waynesboro. Most of the officers and members of the Adams county Farm Bureau were additional guests. Radford H. Lippy was presented as a new member of the local club.

Charles W. Myers Observes Birthday

Charles W. Myers, agent for the Western Maryland railroad here, Wednesday observed his 79th birthday.

As the local railroader enters his 80th year he holds the distinction of being the oldest Western Maryland employee in service in point of years. No other employee of the company has been with the Western Maryland as long as Mr. Myers. Despite his advanced years he enjoys exceptionally good health. Although he has been eligible for retirement a number of years ago, Mr. Myers steadfastly refuses to leave his post. He prefers an active life to one of retirement.

SOROPTIMISTS MEET TUESDAY

Members of the Soroptimist club held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilmer Bream, Biglerville R. 1, with the president, Mrs. John H. Pape presiding.

Following routine business, Miss Julia Peters, chairman of the finance committee, appointed a committee to take charge of a rummage sale to be held April 20 and 21 in the former People's cash store rooms on Baltimore street. Members of the committee are Mrs. C. T. Ziegler, Mrs. Clyde Daley, Mrs. Besse Hennle, all of Gettysburg; Mrs. Harvey Raffensperger, Arundelville; Miss Evelyn Altkoff, Littlestown; Mrs. Genevieve Siegal, McKnightstown, and Mrs. Fred Grist, Flora Dale.

Shoes For Six Kiddies

Mrs. Guyon H. Buchler, chairman of the resolutions committee, read resolutions on the death of Miss Mabel Grenoble, one of the club's charter members. A report by Miss Elizabeth Grieb, club civic and welfare chairman, told of a family with six children, all under 14 years of age, who need shoes. The club voted to furnish shoes for the children.

The club also decided to meet with the Associated Charities at a dinner meeting in May. Other service clubs also will attend the dinner. Mrs. Raffensperger won a war stamp prize in a drawing.

Because the date of the next regular dinner meeting of the club was scheduled for March 28, in Holy Week, the group decided to hold the dinner on April 3 instead. Mrs. Grieb was named chairman of the dinner, hostess committee with Miss Clyde Berger and Mrs. Floranna Fowler as committee members.

ARRIVES IN ENGLAND

Mrs. Lillian W. Riddlemoser, McKnightstown, has received word her son, Pfc. John B. Riddlemoser, has arrived safely in England.

Local Officer In Greenland

Lt. William L. Keefauver (extreme right), son of Supt. and Mrs. L. C. Keefauver, Springs avenue, and four other soldiers watch Ed Zantrini, athletic trainer from Dartmouth college, demonstrate a correct knee wrap application, at a Greenland army base. Others in the group are (left to right): Pfc. Ralph Maese, Brooklyn; Lt. Donald Hawkins, Roberts, Wis.; S. Sgt. Thomas McSpedon, Yonkers, N. Y., and T-5 Albert Colabella, Scarsdale, N. Y.

The instruction is part of a Special Services Division program that sends well known sports experts to training service bases to instruct in the phases of participation and officiation in all types of sports. The Greenland base was selected as the first base to receive the experts who are demonstrating the help sports can be in conditioning soldiers for the rugged life in the "land of the midnight sun."

T. Sgt. K. R. Carbaugh Awarded Air Medal

T. Sgt. Kenneth R. Carbaugh, 26, son of Mrs. John Herr, Fairfield R. 2, has written his mother that he has been awarded the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, the Presidential Unit citation, the ETO ribbon with two stars and a Good Conduct medal.

Sergeant Carbaugh serves with the USAAF in England. He has been overseas since March 25 of last year and has been in the army for three years.

ALLEN TOWN 5 LACES TROJANS; FAVORITES WIN

Harrisburg, Pa., (AP)—Favorites had little trouble winning Tuesday night in opening regional games of the annual P.T.A.A. basketball tournament. One team moved directly into the eastern finals, and three others qualified for sectional semi-finals.

Allen town's lanky Canaries made it 26 wins in 27 starts by turning back Chambersburg, 58-32, as Coach Butler Crum made free use of substitutes throughout the game. Joe Skula, a reserve forward, accounted for 15 points. The victory put the Lehigh county nine safely in the eastern finals.

Plymouth's undefeated Indians made it 34 straight by turning back unbeaten Shamokin, 60-42, on the Bloomsburg floor. Huntington, another unbeaten squad, defeated Somerset, 45-29, while Sharpville, the lone "dark horse" among the seven survivors, eliminated Bradford, 42-35.

The class A teams now meet until Saturday when three more games are listed, sending last night's winners against a trio of rivals that drew byes in the regional games.

Plymouth, District Two champions face Radnor, District One "whiz kid," at Rockie Memorial hall, Allentown, for the right to meet Crum's Canaries next week.

Huntingdon took its 25 game winning streak to McKeesport to meet Donora, considered by many the class of the west while Sharpville will be close to home when the "dark horses" face Langley at Fairview.

Allen town	G.	I.	Pts.
Chambersburg	3	2	7
Hoffman	3	0	6
Skullin	7	1	15
Shuttler	0	0	0
Elchok	0	0	0
Wanish	6	1	13
Cawelli	0	0	0
Pfaffert	1	3	9
Dini	3	3	9
Rampola	0	0	0
Hornung	1	0	2
J. Ritter	0	0	0
Totals	24	10	58

Chambersburg	G.	I.	Pts.
J. Howard	5	0	19
Palmer	1	0	2
Schuman	0	0	0
C. Lecher	2	3	5
M. Lecher	1	3	5
Koutlis	2	3	8
Totals	11	10	32

Allen town 12 17 11 38
Chambersburg 5 7 11 32
Referees, Morgan and Hekke

Becomes First Coed To Solo At Airport

Miss Betty H. Outwater, 19-year-old Gettysburg college junior from near Caldwell, N. Y., on Sunday evening became the first girl student from Gettysburg college to "solo" at the Gettysburg airport. She made her initial solo flight about 8 o'clock Sunday evening and her instructor credited her with a successful three-point landing. She made the flight after 10 hours of instruction.

Miss Outwater earned the money for the flying course by working at the college library after classes.

COLLEGE GRAD IS KILLED ON LUZON

Captain Frederick M. Fair, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Fair, Harrisburg, was killed in action on Luzon February 5, the War Department has announced.

Three weeks ago the War Department announced he was commended for heroism in action as he destroyed a Japanese tank which was overrunning American positions on Luzon.

A graduate of John Harris high school, where he was captain of the football team he obtained his college degree at Gettysburg college in 1938 where he received his Reserve Corps commission as a second lieutenant in the ROTC. He also played football at college and was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

After entering the army in June, 1941, he was trained at Indiantown Gap, Fort Benning, Ga., and Camp White, Ore. While at these camps he served with three different divisions and finally was selected as an officer for the Twenty-fifth (Tropic Lightning) Division and sent overseas last August.

In addition to his wife and parents, he is survived by two daughters, Jacqueline and Deborah; two sisters, Mrs. R. L. Kitch and Mrs. G. W. Wolfe, and two brothers, Charles L. Fair and Edgar L. Fair.

PRESBYTERIAN GUILD MEETS

Members of the Ladies' Guild of the Presbyterian church re-elected Mrs. Harold J. Pegg as their president, selected other officers for the coming year and voted contributions of $10 to the Red Cross and $5 to the local YWCA at their March meeting Tuesday evening at the church.

Mrs. Anna Plank was named vice president, Mrs. C. Ross Shuman, recording secretary and Mrs. Walter Johns, treasurer. Because of the size of the organization it also has been decided to name a corresponding secretary. That election will take place next month when all new officers will be installed.

Fifty women attended the meeting with Mrs. Pegg presiding. Dr. Betty Paulsen of the seminary faculty was the guest speaker. She discussed church and family relationships.

The group voted to send 20 women's dresses for use of Filipinos under a "bundle for America" plan described. The materials will be sent here. The group also is filling a number of Russian war relief boxes. That project was reported on by Mrs. Paul Ketterman.

Devotions were conducted by Miss J. Allen Dickson. Circle reports were presented by Mrs. E. Donald Scott, Mrs. Charles H. Heldt, Mrs. Robert Ditchburn and Miss Plank.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Miss Dorothy Warner Is Banquet Speaker

Fifty-five members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's club attended the World-Wide Observance Banquet held at the YWCA Tuesday evening.

Miss Esther Tipton, the toastmistress for the occasion, introduced Miss Dorothy Warner, the guest speaker whose topic was "Reaching Individual Security Through World Cooperation by Growth and Action." Incidents descriptive of her work as Educational Adviser of Adams county were expressed in her talk.

Miss Anna Shields performed an Irish Waltz Dance with Jeanne Spangler as the accompanist.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Guyon Buchler. The committee in charge of refreshments and entertainment included Mrs. Jane Maest, chairman; Roberta Buttner, Mildred Benner, Jean Spangler, Jeanne Spangler, Rosa Arrior, Ann Bracy, Marion Zhea, Mary Blittinger, Elsie Kessel and Leona Finkbner.

Wounded

Tech. Sgt. Robert M. Musselman, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Musselman, Fairfield, was seriously wounded in action in Burma on February 2. In a recent letter he advised his parents his leg had been broken but revealed no details. Musselman has been overseas since May, 1943.

ALTAR GUILD PICKS OFFICERS

Mrs. Harry Lower was elected new president of the Altar Guild of the Trinity Reformed church at a meeting of that group held last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Paul Myers, West Middle street.

Other new officers picked included Mrs. Donald Fissel, vice president; Mrs. Charles Ogden, secretary, and Mrs. Robert P. Snyder, treasurer.

Mrs. John Teeter, the retiring president, presided at the meeting. During the business session a communication from Homewood home for aged folks at Hagerstown was read. The letter thanked the members of the local guild for a number of Christmas gifts which had been sent to the home.

Mrs. Lower and Mrs. Ogden were named as a committee to mark the altar paraments and another committee was named to purchase flowers for Easter. Those chosen for that group were Mrs. Howard S. Fox, Mrs. Teeter, Mrs. Preston Hull, Mrs. Fissel, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. C. T. Ziegler. Plans were made also for a covered dish supper to be held in June. The husbands of guild members will be invited to the supper, it was decided.

Hostesses for the evening included Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Sara Bollinger and Mrs. J. D. Kendeichart.

Marine To Study Special Course

Charles LeRoy Eisenhart, only son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy E. Eisenhart, East Berlin, a member of the U. S. Marine Corps, has passed the physical examination and aptitude test for entrance to Villanova college, near Philadelphia where he will spend the next two years pursuing a course of specialized training. Eisenhart, who has been in the service for two years, was graduated from the East Berlin high school in 1942 and was awarded a scholarship to Temple university, Philadelphia, as the result of a competitive examination. He was studying in the physical education department of the university when he entered the Marine Corps. He was active in athletic and musical performances while a high school and college student.

His engagement to Miss Shirley Young, Philadelphia, a teacher of public school music, was announced last year.

Rodgers Freed Without Fine

Anton Albert Rodgers, alias Pete Rodgers, of near Hampton, was released from the county jail Thursday after serving a three-month term for selling malt beverages without a license.

He was sentenced to the prison term and also fined $200 and costs of the case last November 25 in the county court, but was released from the jail today without payment of the fine. Rodgers presented a petition to the court asking that he be freed without having to pay the fine because he was without funds.

The court certified the petition to the county commissioners who were given the authority to order the release of Rodgers if they were satisfied that he was without funds or property to pay the fine. The court also ordered that if such was the case, Rodgers was to be released without requiring compliance under the insolvency laws.

The commissioners acted on the petition at their regular weekly meeting Wednesday and ordered Rodgers' release. John P. Butt, Esq., presented Rodgers' petition to the court.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wert, Ottumwa R. 1, announce the birth of a son, Terry Edward, at the Warner hospital March 6. This is the couple's third child and second son.

J. W. Barnes, Pittsburgh, was committed to county jail last Thursday night on a vagrancy charge, state police from the local station reported today.

SENIOR CLASS TO GIVE PLAY MARCH 22, 23

"Only an Orphan Girl," a four-act drama by Henning Neils, will be presented by the Gettysburg high school senior class in the school auditorium Thursday and Friday evenings, March 22 and 23, at 8 o'clock under the direction of Miss Ruth K. Scott, dramatics instructor.

The cast follows: "Arthur Rutherford," William Croner; "Dick Perkins," William Sperry; "Swam Perkins," Richard Altomose; "Nellie," Doris Ann Gaines; "Ethel Rutherford," Barbara Wolff; "Mrs. Perkins," Betty Lou Baughman; "Widow Appleby," Doris Gittlin, and "Lucy," Eloise Coffelt.

"Only an Orphan Girl" is the story of Mr. Swam Perkins, a New England farmer, and his wife, who have in the past taken an orphan child, Nellie, to rear. Nellie's parentage is unknown to both the Perkins and Nellie herself. Dick, the Perkins' son, falls in love with Nellie; however, he has never professed his admiration.

Into these lives comes Arthur Rutherford, the villain from the city, with the secret of Nellie's parentage as well as an inheritance left by her parents. As all old-fashioned melodrama, the story would be incomplete without the mortgage, which the villain possesses by foul means. Arthur and his wife, Ethel, stop short of nothing, even murder, in attempts to secure the inheritance. Dick, the hero, true to fashion, arrives in time to save the plot from a tragic ending.

Tickets On Sale
Tickets were placed on sale last week. A chart reserved for townspeople will be located at the People's drug store today and Saturday. Special tickets are available for grade school pupils at 30c. They are to be exchanged for reserved seats.

Members of the ticket committee include Jane Winebrenner, chairman, Margaret Jones, Hermine Topper, Mary Yingling, Eugene Fidler and Richard Fidler under the supervision of Fred P. Haehnle of the faculty.

Committee Personnel
Other committees are as follows: Costumes, Mrs. LaRue Ridinger, adviser; Jean Garbaugh, construction chairman; Carolyn Blocher, collecting chairman; Viola Pisco, Phyllis Reaver, Marcelle Kennel, Nancy Wagner, Gloria Stansbury, Jeanne Spahr; typing, Kathleen Jones.

Make-up—Miss Ruth Scott, adviser; Helen Lazos, chairman; Johanna Grieb; Property, Miss Fague Hargrove, adviser; John Redding, chairman, Thelma Drake, co-chairman, Virginia Ansegruber, Robert Sheads; Stage, Mr. Elmer Schriver, adviser, James Smith, chairman, Harry Spangler, Edward Carbaugh, Richard Weaver, Harold Smith, Gene Walker, Freda Coffman, Shirley Sharpless, Robert Wentz, Charles Bushman, William Meals.

Ticket, Mrs. Samuel Hogue, adviser, Norman Rasmussen, chairman, William Ogden, Mary Milhines, Jean Stitt, Arlene Rohrbough, Patricia Scott, Janet King, Vincent Conti, Richard Epley, Leo Gallagher, Jean Kuhn, Ardella Herr, Kathleen Jones, Richard Shealer, Doris Pepple, LeRoy Rudisill, John Sheffer.

Publicity, Mrs. Anna B. Heintzelman, adviser, Gloria Ecker, chairman, Richard Jacobs, Janet Enoch, Gertrude Williams, Freda Coffman, Betty Evans, Rachel Myers, Cornelius Knorr, William Horner, Anna Kepner, Treva Sentz, Sara Mirkley, Fred Haehnle, Ruth Sorlie, Alice Tresler, Phyllis Bowler, Helen Sterner; Business, Barbara Johnson and Joseph Strong.

Music, Mr. Edwin Longenecker and Mr. Richard Shade, advisers; Harold Settle, Luther Smith, Walter Keeney, Harold Small, vocal, Charles Rodgers, John Schwartz, Jack Cromwell, instrumental.

Ushers, Miss Gertrude B. Little and Miss Catherine Ross, advisers; Kathryn Bucher, chairman, Lois Waybright, Myrtle Jo Southern, Mildred Wentz, Betty Wildman, Virginia Taylor, Rita Crouse, Helen Bucher, Sarah Sanders, Mildred Reaver, Viola Fissel, Phyllis Reaver, Jane Bucher, Myrns Harbaugh, Doris Smith, Janice Sachs, Alice Shealer, Mildred Walter.

Ticket Seller, Mr. Guy Wolf, Program, Mildred Reaver and Virginia Taylor.

USE COUNTY PICTURE

The March 3 issue of Money and Planner, official organ of the Pennsylvania and West Virginia Bankers' association, used on its front cover a reproduction of a scene in the orchard of John W. Lucabaugh, last fall in which Mr. Lucabaugh and his son, Stewart, are shown buying war bonds from Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the Adams County War Finance committee, and Edgar W. Weaver, chairman of the agricultural division of that committee.

NEW FEVER CASE

William I. Shields, state sanitary officer for this county, reported Wednesday there are three new cases of scarlet fever among the eight children in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Witter, Reading township, New Oxford R. 2. Janet, aged three; Roland, seven, and Geraldine 11, are the new patients. Two other children in the home were previously reported ill with the disease. Roland and Geraldine are Round Hill school pupils.

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES
(A Daily Newspaper)
16-20 Carlisle Street
Telephone—640
Published at regular intervals
on each weekday by
Times and News Publishing Co.
A Pennsylvania corporation.
President—Samuel G. Spangler
Manager—Carl A. Baum
Editor—Paul L. Roy
Non-partisan in Politics
Entered at the Postoffice at Gettysburg as second class matter under the Act of March 3, 1879
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One Week (By Carrier).....12 cents
One Month (By Carrier).....50 cents
One Year.....$6.00
Single copies.....Three cents
Member of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association and the Interstate Advertising Managers' Association.
An Associated Press Newspaper
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use, for republication, of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.
National Advertising Representative: Fred Kimball, Incorporated, 67 W. 44th Street, New York City.

JOSEPH E. SMITH NAMED TO VETS' FARM LOAN UNIT

Joseph E. Smith, Gettysburg, has just been appointed as the fourth member of the Adams county Veterans' Agricultural Loan Certifying committee which will certify to the Veterans' Administration all applications for agricultural loan guarantees under Title III of Servicemen's Readjustment Act, the so-called GI Bill of Rights.

Mr. Smith, who is a veteran of World War I, is an electrical contractor. He is service officer of the local American Legion post. Serving with Mr. Smith are O. H. Benson, Gettysburg R. 5; Edgar W. Weaver, Gettysburg R. 4; and Felix J. Klunk, Hanover R. 4. This four-man committee will cooperate with the Farm Security Administration supervisor, Clarence A. Myers, who will serve as secretary of the committee.

Mr. Myers said that his instructions state that the certifying committee serves only as a "recommending body," and that the actual administration of the GI Bill remains in the hands of the veteran who desires to secure the benefits of the agricultural provisions of the act. He must take several steps before his application comes before the certifying committee.

Explains Procedure
"First and most important step," he said, "which a veteran must take is to locate the property which he desires to purchase and find a lender who will supply the needed credit. The county Advisory committee, sponsored by the Extension Service and now being organized locally by the county agent, M. T. Hartman, will know of available farms and will be able to suggest credit sources and give the veteran much valuable information."

"The lender and the veteran sign an application for a loan guarantee, and send it to the Veterans' Administration to determine the eligibility of the veteran. The act says that a veteran must have received a discharge other than dishonorable, have served a minimum of 90 days in the armed forces of the United States after September 16, 1940, or have been given a discharge as a result of service-induced disability regardless of the period served."

What Committee Decides
"If the loan guarantee is for the purchase of real estate it must be appraised by an approved appraiser or immediately in the case of chattel loan guarantees, the application is forwarded to our certifying committee."

Mr. Myers explained that his committee certifies to the Veterans' Administration that in their opinion the loan will be used for the purpose planned, and proposed farming venture has a reasonable chance of success; and that they believe the veteran will be capable because of training or experience to carry out the proposed farming program. The Veterans' Administration makes the final decision as to whether or not the loan will be guaranteed.

MISSING MAN IS PRISONER

Pfc. Robert B. Jones, 24, is now a prisoner of the Germans according to a card received Tuesday from the Red Cross by his wife, the former Miss Betty Bieseker, who resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Bieseker, Orrtanna.

Pfc. Jones had previously been reported as missing in action on the western front since November 19, 1944.

Prior to his induction in December, 1942, he was employed by the Hershey chocolate company. Pfc. Jones, whose parents are deceased, formerly resided in Scranton. He trained at Camp Howze, Texas, and Camp Cialborne, La., and went overseas last September as a member of an infantry outfit.

Three brothers are in the service. They are, Pvt. Thomas, who returned last fall after 18 months in Europe; Sgt. Morgan, somewhere in Europe; and Kenneth, serving with the Coast Guard.

PCBL Contributes $10 To Red Cross

A $10 donation to the Adams county American Red Cross War fund was voted by the Pennsylvania Catholic Beneficial League at its regular meeting Monday night at St. Francis Xavier hall.

Mrs. Salena Menchey, president, presided at the session at which other business was chiefly routine. Following the business meeting a bingo party was held.

DR. E. J. HOH IS NEW DIRECTOR FOR NAWAKWA

The Rev. Dr. Ernest J. Hoh, Lancaster, member of the faculty at Camp Nawakwa for the last four years and now secretary of the camp's board of directors, has been named as the new director of the Lutheran leadership training camp, near Brysonia, for the coming season.

That announcement was made Tuesday by Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, member of the faculty of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary and vice president of the camp's board of directors, following a recent meeting of the board.

Doctor Hoh, an alumnus of Muhlenberg college and Mt. Airy Lutheran seminary, has been promised a three-month leave of absence from his pastoral duties at Emmanuel Lutheran church in Lancaster so that he may devote his full time to the leadership camp during the coming season.

He succeeds the Rev. Marshall Brenneman, who entered the chaplaincy early this year as an officer in the United States Naval Reserve. He is now serving at a naval training station at Daytona, Fla.

Miss LaVene Grove of Harrisburg is to continue as assistant director of the camp, it was announced.

The camp's board of directors has made plans to replace the present swimming pool on the Nawakwa grounds with a larger pool, possibly at a new location. A new well will be drilled and considerable new equipment is to be provided including beds and mattresses. New buildings are to be erected but that work will be delayed until after the war.

Robert W. Young of the seminary again will be camp chef.

The camping period this year, the seventeenth in the camp's history, will begin June 18 with a camp for intermediate girls. Successive camps are scheduled until August 20 when a special one-week leadership training school will be conducted, concluding the season.

JUDGE PRAISES PHONE WORKERS

In a talk to employees of The United Telephone Company of Pennsylvania at the Hotel Gettysburg Monday evening, Judge W. C. Sheely commended telephone workers in Adams county for their efficiency and cooperation in handling civil air raid warning calls during the early emergency days of the war. He said, "The Adams county Civil Defense organization had one of the finest systems of spreading air raid warnings in the state and the work and efforts of the telephone people helped make it so."

L. R. Thurston, Harrisburg, president of the telephone company, told workers: "The war is far from being over and we in the telephone business still have our work cut out for us and must continue to contribute our full share toward the attainment of victory." He commended fellow workers for their part in handling the tremendous task placed on the telephone system by war.

Mr. Thurston cited the company's policy on returning veterans who will receive reemployment with all wage advantages and all other benefits which have accrued to full-time active employees.

E. V. Trimmer, Gettysburg manager, said 85 persons attended Monday night's third annual "Family Rally." A buffet luncheon was served.

Member Of Unit To Receive Citation

Tech. Sgt. Albert S. Townsend, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Townsend, of York Springs, is a member of a liaison squadron in Italy, which was recently awarded the Meritorious Service Unit Plaque for superior performance of duty during the period from August 15 to December 31, 1944.

The citation, accompanying the award, states that "Flying from Italy via Corsica to southern France, the first planes of the squadron immediately performed their mission of supplying messenger service and emergency passenger service between the Seventh Army command post and widely separated subordinate command posts. These missions were performed in a superior manner although maintenance personnel and shop equipment had not yet arrived in France. During the Seventh Army's advance northward, the squadron continued to provide the same superior service. The squadron has contributed much to the successful operation of the Seventh Army in France."

FARMERS NIGHT OBSERVED BY LIONS MONDAY

The nation's food supply is shorter now than at any time since the war began but there will be enough of most kinds of food, Dr. Kenneth Hood, agricultural economist from Pennsylvania State college, asserted in a Farmers' Night address before the Gettysburg Lions club Monday evening.

He praised the farmers for doing a "magnificent job" of production in war time with "short and inferior" labor and machinery and other war restrictions and said the achievement was due in large measure to the willingness of the farmer and his family to put in "an 80-hour work week" regularly.

"The green light is still on for production," he declared, "but with less labor, less livestock and more severe shortages in almost everything the farmer needs excepting machinery repair parts, the food situation may become tight, especially in view of the fact that we have no reason to expect an exceptional growing weather as the nation has enjoyed for the last three seasons."

District Governor Speaks
Declaring that increased farm efficiency and improved management methods are modern essentials of successful farming, Doctor Hood placed special emphasis on the improvement of city-rural relations, both social and business. He declared that 40 percent of the nation's population is directly dependent upon farm income and that the remainder constantly are affected indirectly by farm conditions.

Doctor Hood was introduced by County Agent M. T. Hartman who was presented by Clarence J. Waybright, Lion in charge of the program. President J. Milton Bender presided at the meeting with 52 members and guests present.

District Governor Lewis Knepper of Huntingdon paid his official visit to the club and spoke to the group on "Serving Youth," slogan for the current year in this district of Lions International. He said six new Lions club have been organized in the district during the current club year. An additional guest was Deputy District Governor C. Glenn Fry of Waynesboro. Most of the officers and members of the Adams county Farm Bureau were additional guests.

Radford H. Lippy was presented as a new member of the local club.

T. Sgt. K. R. Carbaugh Awarded Air Medal

T. Sgt. Kenneth R. Carbaugh, 26, son of Mrs. John Herr, Fairfield R. 2, has written his mother that he has been awarded the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, the Presidential Unit citation, the ETO ribbon with two stars and a Good Conduct medal.

Sergeant Carbaugh serves with the USAAF in England. He has been overseas since March 25 of last year and has been in the army for three years.

ALLEN TOWN 5 LACES TROJANS; FAVORITES WIN

By TOM SHRIVER
Harrisburg, Pa., (AP)—Favorites had little trouble winning Tuesday night in opening regional games of the annual PIAA basketball tournament. One team moved directly into the eastern finals, and three others qualified for sectional semi-finals.

Allen town's lanky Canaries made it 26 wins in 27 starts by turning back Chambersburg, 58-32, as Coach Birney Crum made free use of substitutes throughout the game. Joe Skurla, a reserve forward, accounted for 15 points. The victory put the Lehigh county nine safely in the eastern finals.

Plymouth's undefeated Indians made it 24 straight by turning back unbeaten Shamokin, 60-42, on the Bloomsburg floor; Huntingdon, another unbeaten squad, defeated Somerset, 45-29; while Sharpsville, the lone "dark horse" among the seven survivors, eliminated Bradford, 42-35.

The class A teams now rest until Saturday when three more games are listed, sending last night's winners against a trio of rivals that drew byes in the regional games.

Plymouth, District Two champions, face Radnor, District One "whiz kids," at Rockne Memorial hall, Allentown, for the right to meet Crum's Canaries next week.

Huntingdon takes its 26-game winning streak to McKeesport to meet Donora, considered by many the class of the west, while Sharpsville will be close to home when the "dark horses" face Langley at Parrel.

SOROPTIMISTS MEET TUESDAY

Members of the Soroptimist club held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilmer Bream, Biglerville R. 1, with the president, Mrs. John H. Pape, presiding.

Following routine business, Miss Julia Peters, chairman of the finance committee, appointed a committee to take charge of a rummage sale to be held April 20 and 21 in the former People's cash store rooms on Baltimore street. Members of the committee are Mrs. C. T. Ziegler, Mrs. Clyde Daley, Mrs. Besie Hennig, all of Gettysburg; Mrs. Harvey Raffensperger, Arendtsville; Miss Evelyn Altoff, Littlestown; Mrs. Genevieve Siegal, McKnightstown, and Mrs. Fred Griest, Flora Dale.

Shoes For Six Kiddies
Mrs. Guyon H. Buehler, chairman of the resolutions committee, read resolutions on the death of Miss Mabel Grenoble, one of the club's charter members. A report by Mrs. Elizabeth Grieb, club civic and welfare chairman, told of a family with six children, all under 14 years of age, who need shoes. The club voted to furnish shoes for the children.

The club also decided to meet with the Associated Charities at a dinner meeting in May. Other service clubs also will attend the dinner Mrs. Raffensperger won a war stamp prize in a drawing.

Because the date of the next regular dinner meeting of the club was scheduled for March 28, in Holy Week, the group decided to hold the dinner on April 3 instead. Mrs. Grieb was named chairman of the dinner hostess committee with Mrs. Clyde Berger and Mrs. Floranna Fowler as committee members.

Shoes For Six Kiddies

Mrs. Guyon H. Buehler, chairman of the resolutions committee, read resolutions on the death of Miss Mabel Grenoble, one of the club's charter members. A report by Mrs. Elizabeth Grieb, club civic and welfare chairman, told of a family with six children, all under 14 years of age, who need shoes. The club voted to furnish shoes for the children.

The club also decided to meet with the Associated Charities at a dinner meeting in May. Other service clubs also will attend the dinner Mrs. Raffensperger won a war stamp prize in a drawing.

Because the date of the next regular dinner meeting of the club was scheduled for March 28, in Holy Week, the group decided to hold the dinner on April 3 instead. Mrs. Grieb was named chairman of the dinner hostess committee with Mrs. Clyde Berger and Mrs. Floranna Fowler as committee members.

Local Officer In Greenland

Lt. William L. Keefauver (extreme right), son of Supt. and Mrs. L. C. Keefauver, Springs avenue, and four other soldiers watch Ed Zantrini, athletic trainer from Dartmouth college, demonstrate a correct knee wrap application, at a Greenland army base. Officers in the group are (left to right): Pfc. Ralph Maese, Brooklyn; Lt. Donald Hawkins, Roberts, Wis.; S. Sgt. Thomas McSpedon, Yonkers, N. Y., and T-5 Albert Colabella, Scarsdale, N. Y.

The instruction is part of a Special Services Division program that sends well known sports experts to farflung service bases to instruct in the phases of participation and officiation in all types of sports. The Greenland base was selected as the first base to receive the experts who are demonstrating the help sports can be in conditioning soldiers for the rugged life in the "land of the midnight sun."

COLLEGE GRAD IS KILLED ON LUZON

Captain Frederick M. Fair, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fair, Harrisburg, was killed in action on Luzon February 5, the War Department has announced.

Three weeks ago the War Department announced he was commended for heroism in action as he destroyed a Japanese tank which was overrunning American positions on Luzon.

A graduate of John Harris high school, where he was captain of the football team, he obtained his college degree at Gettysburg college in 1938 where he received his Reserve Corps commission as a second lieutenant in the ROTC. He also played football at college and was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

After entering the army in June, 1941, he was trained at Indiantown Gap, Fort Benning, Ga., and Camp White, Ore. While at these camps he served with three different divisions and finally was selected as an officer for the Twenty-fifth (Tropic Lightning) Division and sent overseas last August.

In addition to his wife and parents, he is survived by two daughters, Jacqueline and Deborah; two sisters, Mrs. R. L. Kitch and Mrs. G. W. Wolfe, and two brothers, Charles L. Fair and Edgar L. Fair.

MISS DOROTHY WARNER IS BANQUET SPEAKER

Forty-five members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's club attended the World-Wide Observance Banquet held at the Y.W.C.A. Tuesday evening.

Miss Esther Tipton, the toastmistress for the occasion, introduced Miss Dorothy Warner, the guest speaker whose topic was, "Reaching Individual Security Through World Cooperation by Growth and Action." Incidents descriptive of her work as Educational Adviser of Adams county were expressed in her talk.

Miss Anna Shields performed an Irish Lilt Dance with Jeanne Spangler as the accompanist.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Guyon Buehler. The committee in charge of refreshments and entertainment included Bess Jane Maest, chairman; Roberta Bittinger, Mildred Benner, Jean Spangler, Jeanne Spangler, Rosea Arroy, Ann Bracey, Marlon Zhea, Mary Bittinger, Elsie Kessel and Leona Pinkboner.

MISS DOROTHY WARNER IS BANQUET SPEAKER

Forty-five members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's club attended the World-Wide Observance Banquet held at the Y.W.C.A. Tuesday evening.

Miss Esther Tipton, the toastmistress for the occasion, introduced Miss Dorothy Warner, the guest speaker whose topic was, "Reaching Individual Security Through World Cooperation by Growth and Action." Incidents descriptive of her work as Educational Adviser of Adams county were expressed in her talk.

Miss Anna Shields performed an Irish Lilt Dance with Jeanne Spangler as the accompanist.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Guyon Buehler. The committee in charge of refreshments and entertainment included Bess Jane Maest, chairman; Roberta Bittinger, Mildred Benner, Jean Spangler, Jeanne Spangler, Rosea Arroy, Ann Bracey, Marlon Zhea, Mary Bittinger, Elsie Kessel and Leona Pinkboner.

MISS DOROTHY WARNER IS BANQUET SPEAKER

Forty-five members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's club attended the World-Wide Observance Banquet held at the Y.W.C.A. Tuesday evening.

Miss Esther Tipton, the toastmistress for the occasion, introduced Miss Dorothy Warner, the guest speaker whose topic was, "Reaching Individual Security Through World Cooperation by Growth and Action." Incidents descriptive of her work as Educational Adviser of Adams county were expressed in her talk.

Miss Anna Shields performed an Irish Lilt Dance with Jeanne Spangler as the accompanist.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Guyon Buehler. The committee in charge of refreshments and entertainment included Bess Jane Maest, chairman; Roberta Bittinger, Mildred Benner, Jean Spangler, Jeanne Spangler, Rosea Arroy, Ann Bracey, Marlon Zhea, Mary Bittinger, Elsie Kessel and Leona Pinkboner.

MISS DOROTHY WARNER IS BANQUET SPEAKER

Forty-five members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's club attended the World-Wide Observance Banquet held at the Y.W.C.A. Tuesday evening.

Miss Esther Tipton, the toastmistress for the occasion, introduced Miss Dorothy Warner, the guest speaker whose topic was, "Reaching Individual Security Through World Cooperation by Growth and Action." Incidents descriptive of her work as Educational Adviser of Adams county were expressed in her talk.

Miss Anna Shields performed an Irish Lilt Dance with Jeanne Spangler as the accompanist.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Guyon Buehler. The committee in charge of refreshments and entertainment included Bess Jane Maest, chairman; Roberta Bittinger, Mildred Benner, Jean Spangler, Jeanne Spangler, Rosea Arroy, Ann Bracey, Marlon Zhea, Mary Bittinger, Elsie Kessel and Leona Pinkboner.

MISS DOROTHY WARNER IS BANQUET SPEAKER

Forty-five members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's club attended the World-Wide Observance Banquet held at the Y.W.C.A. Tuesday evening.

Miss Esther Tipton, the toastmistress for the occasion, introduced Miss Dorothy Warner, the guest speaker whose topic was, "Reaching Individual Security Through World Cooperation by Growth and Action." Incidents descriptive of her work as Educational Adviser of Adams county were expressed in her talk.

Miss Anna Shields performed an Irish Lilt Dance with Jeanne Spangler as the accompanist.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Guyon Buehler. The committee in charge of refreshments and entertainment included Bess Jane Maest, chairman; Roberta Bittinger, Mildred Benner, Jean Spangler, Jeanne Spangler, Rosea Arroy, Ann Bracey, Marlon Zhea, Mary Bittinger, Elsie Kessel and Leona Pinkboner.

COLLEGE LEAGUE HOLDS MEETING HERE TUESDAY

The Women's League of Gettysburg college met Tuesday afternoon at Christ Lutheran church with Mrs. Frank H. Kramer, president, in charge of the meeting. Mrs. H. C. Michael, who was in charge of the devotionals had as her theme, "Ye Are the Light." Mrs. Ralph Gresh, as chairman of the membership committee, presented the name of Miss Alice M. Snyder as a new member.

The following nominating committee was appointed by the president: Mrs. John Mumper, Mrs. H. B. Bender and Mrs. Walter Danforth. The committee members for a rummage sale to be held the latter part of April are as follows: Mrs. Carl E. Oyler, chairman, Mrs. Paul Thomas, Mrs. Marie Zeigler, Mrs. Luther Sachs, Mrs. Earl Deardorff, Mrs. George Zerfling, Mrs. F. K. Schwartz, Mrs. Fred Troxell, Mrs. Dunning Idle, Sr., and Mrs. Harold Pegg.

It was announced the $25,000 which the general league had pledged to the Chapel Fund several years ago has been paid off. The new project of the general league is to raise $50,000 to establish a music department at the college.

Dr. Cline Speaks
Members voted to change the date of the next meeting from May 8 to May 10 in order to secure Mrs. Baker, Duquesne, president of the general league as speaker. Mrs. L. C. Keefauver, program chairman for the afternoon, announced a chorus of senior high school girls who sang two selections. The chorus was under the direction of Prof. Richard B. Shade, superintendent of public school music in Gettysburg.

Dr. Thomas L. Cline of the English department of the college, was introduced by Mrs. Keefauver. Dr. Cline spoke on "Compulsory Military Training." Two piano duets were played by Professor and Mrs. Shade and the meeting was concluded with the singing of the "Alma Mater" with Mrs. Keefauver at the piano. Tea was served at the conclusion of the program.

The hostess committee for the meeting included: Mrs. L. C. Keefauver, Mrs. Dunning Idle, Sr., Mrs. George March, Mrs. Mahlon Hartzell, Mrs. J. E. Musselman, Miss Bess Hoke, Mrs. C. H. Hett, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Dwight Putman, Mrs. Herbert G. Hamme, Mrs. Radford Lippy and Mrs. John Kaltrider.

COLLEGE GRAD IS KILLED ON LUZON

Captain Frederick M. Fair, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fair, Harrisburg, was killed in action on Luzon February 5, the War Department has announced.

Three weeks ago the War Department announced he was commended for heroism in action as he destroyed a Japanese tank which was overrunning American positions on Luzon.

A graduate of John Harris high school, where he was captain of the football team, he obtained his college degree at Gettysburg college in 1938 where he received his Reserve Corps commission as a second lieutenant in the ROTC. He also played football at college and was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

After entering the army in June, 1941, he was trained at Indiantown Gap, Fort Benning, Ga., and Camp White, Ore. While at these camps he served with three different divisions and finally was selected as an officer for the Twenty-fifth (Tropic Lightning) Division and sent overseas last August.

In addition to his wife and parents, he is survived by two daughters, Jacqueline and Deborah; two sisters, Mrs. R. L. Kitch and Mrs. G. W. Wolfe, and two brothers, Charles L. Fair and Edgar L. Fair.

COLLEGE GRAD IS KILLED ON LUZON

Captain Frederick M. Fair, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fair, Harrisburg, was killed in action on Luzon February 5, the War Department has announced.

Three weeks ago the War Department announced he was commended for heroism in action as he destroyed a Japanese tank which was overrunning American positions on Luzon.

A graduate of John Harris high school, where he was captain of the football team, he obtained his college degree at Gettysburg college in 1938 where he received his Reserve Corps commission as a second lieutenant in the ROTC. He also played football at college and was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

After entering the army in June, 1941, he was trained at Indiantown Gap, Fort Benning, Ga., and Camp White, Ore. While at these camps he served with three different divisions and finally was selected as an officer for the Twenty-fifth (Tropic Lightning) Division and sent overseas last August.

In addition to his wife and parents, he is survived by two daughters, Jacqueline and Deborah; two sisters, Mrs. R. L. Kitch and Mrs. G. W. Wolfe, and two brothers, Charles L. Fair and Edgar L. Fair.

BIBLE SOCIETY MEETS FRIDAY

The executive committee of the Gettysburg Bible society met last Friday afternoon at the YWCA with Mrs. H. E. Berkey, president of the group, presiding. Mrs. Berkey also conducted the devotional service of Bible reading and prayer.

Mrs. E. J. Bowman, the treasurer, reported total receipts for the group of $295.51 since last November 9. That amount included a balance from last year and plate offerings and individual gifts from the Church of the Brethren, the Episcopal, Evangelical and Reformed, Christ Lutheran, St. James Lutheran, Methodist and Presbyterian churches. It also includes $48.35, the amount of the offerings of two of the Union Week of Prayer services held in January.

The treasurer reported $14.80 paid out for four dozen soldiers' testaments, one large print Bible and 200 64-page booklets of portions of the New Testament. The soldier Testaments have been on sale at cost at the YWCA while the booklets were distributed at the county home, jail, USO and 60 printed in German were given to the prisoner-of-war camp near town.

The treasurer also sent $100 to the Pennsylvania branch of the American Bible society, and has been instructed to forward an additional $150, to make a total contribution of $250 for the Gettysburg society for 1944-45. The executive committee was told that that sum represents the largest annual amount sent in a number of years and is $100 more than was given last year.

BIBLE SOCIETY MEETS FRIDAY

The executive committee of the Gettysburg Bible society met last Friday afternoon at the YWCA with Mrs. H. E. Berkey, president of the group, presiding. Mrs. Berkey also conducted the devotional service of Bible reading and prayer.

Mrs. E. J. Bowman, the treasurer, reported total receipts for the group of $295.51 since last November 9. That amount included a balance from last year and plate offerings and individual gifts from the Church of the Brethren, the Episcopal, Evangelical and Reformed, Christ Lutheran, St. James Lutheran, Methodist and Presbyterian churches. It also includes $48.35, the amount of the offerings of two of the Union Week of Prayer services held in January.

The treasurer reported $14.80 paid out for four dozen soldiers' testaments, one large print Bible and 200 64-page booklets of portions of the New Testament. The soldier Testaments have been on sale at cost at the YWCA while the booklets were distributed at the county home, jail, USO and 60 printed in German were given to the prisoner-of-war camp near town.

The treasurer also sent $100 to the Pennsylvania branch of the American Bible society, and has been instructed to forward an additional $150, to make a total contribution of $250 for the Gettysburg society for 1944-45. The executive committee was told that that sum represents the largest annual amount sent in a number of years and is $100 more than was given last year.

Cpl. Stoops Back From Western Front

Cpl. Daniel B. Stoops, husband of Mrs. Lillian Stoops, Carlisle street, returned Sunday evening after serving 27 months in the European theatre of war. He has been awarded the Bronze Star medal and wears four stars on his campaign ribbon.

Cpl. and Mrs. Stoops left Wednesday to spend several days with the former's parents in Chambersburg.

CPL. STOOPS BACK FROM WESTERN FRONT

Cpl. Daniel B. Stoops, husband of Mrs. Lillian Stoops, Carlisle street, returned Sunday evening after serving 27 months in the European theatre of war. He has been awarded the Bronze Star medal and wears four stars on his campaign ribbon.

Cpl. and Mrs. Stoops left Wednesday to spend several days with the former's parents in Chambersburg.

Wounded

Tech. Sgt. Robert M. Musselman, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Musselman, Fairfield, was seriously wounded in action in Burma on February 2. In a recent letter he advised his parents his leg had been broken but revealed no details. Musselman has been overseas since May, 1943.

ALTAR GUILD PICKS OFFICERS

Mrs. Harry Lower was elected new president of the Altar Guild of the Trinity Reformed church at a meeting of that group held last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Paul Myers, West Middle street.

Other new officers picked included Mrs. Donald Fissel, vice president; Mrs. Charles Ogden, secretary, and Mrs. Robert P. Snyder, treasurer.

Mrs. John Teeter, the retiring president, presided at the meeting. During the business session a communication from Homewood home for aged folks at Hagerstown was read. The letter thanked the members of the local guild for a number of Christmas gifts which had been sent to the home.

Mrs. Lower and Mrs. Ogden were named as a committee to mark the altar paraments and another committee was named to purchase flowers for Easter. Those chosen for that group were Mrs. Howard S. Fox, Mrs. Teeter, Mrs. Preston Hull, Mrs. Fissel, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. C. T. Ziegler. Plans were made also for a covered dish supper to be held in June. The husbands of guild members will be invited to the supper, it was decided.

Hostesses for the evening included Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Sara Bollinger and Mrs. J. D. Kendeilhart.

ALTAR GUILD PICKS OFFICERS

Mrs. Harry Lower was elected new president of the Altar Guild of the Trinity Reformed church at a meeting of that group held last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Paul Myers, West Middle street.

Other new officers picked included Mrs. Donald Fissel, vice president; Mrs. Charles Ogden, secretary, and Mrs. Robert P. Snyder, treasurer.

Mrs. John Teeter, the retiring president, presided at the meeting. During the business session a communication from Homewood home for aged folks at Hagerstown was read. The letter thanked the members of the local guild for a number of Christmas gifts which had been sent to the home.

Mrs. Lower and Mrs. Ogden were named as a committee to mark the altar paraments and another committee was named to purchase flowers for Easter. Those chosen for that group were Mrs. Howard S. Fox, Mrs. Teeter, Mrs. Preston Hull, Mrs. Fissel, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. C. T. Ziegler. Plans were made also for a covered dish supper to be held in June. The husbands of guild members will be invited to the supper, it was decided.

Hostesses for the evening included Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Sara Bollinger and Mrs. J. D. Kendeilhart.

MARINE TO STUDY SPECIAL COURSE

Charles LeRoy Eisenhart, only son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy E. Eisenhart, East Berlin, a member of the U. S. Marine Corps, has passed the physical examination and aptitude test for entrance to Villanova college, near Philadelphia, where he will spend the next two years pursuing a course of specialized training.

Eisenhart, who has been in the service for two years, was graduated from the East Berlin high school in 1942 and was awarded a scholarship to Temple university, Philadelphia, as the result of a competitive examination. He was studying in the physical education department of the university when he entered the Marine Corps. He was active in athletic and musical performances while a high school and college student.

His engagement to Miss Shirley Young, Philadelphia, a teacher of public school music, was announced last year.

RODGERS FREED WITHOUT FINE

Aaron Albert Rodgers, alias Pete Rodgers, of near Hampton, was released from the county jail Thursday after serving a three-month term for selling malt beverages without a license.

He was sentenced to the prison term and also fined $200 and costs of the case last November 25 in the county court, but was released from the jail today without payment of the fine. Rodgers presented a petition to the court asking that he be freed without having to pay the fine because he was without funds.

The court certified the petition to the county commissioners who were given the authority to order the release of Rodgers if they were satisfied that he was without funds or property to pay the fine. The court also ordered that if such was the case, Rodgers was to be released without requiring compliance under the insolvency laws.

The commissioners acted on the petition at their regular weekly meeting Wednesday and ordered Rodgers' release. John P. Butt, Esq., presented Rodgers' petition to the court.

RODGERS FREED WITHOUT FINE

Aaron Albert Rodgers, alias Pete Rodgers, of near Hampton, was released from the county jail Thursday after serving a three-month term for selling malt beverages without a license.

He was sentenced to the prison term and also fined $200 and costs of the case last November 25 in the county court, but was released from the jail today without payment of the fine. Rodgers presented a petition to the court asking that he be freed without having to pay the fine because he was without funds.

The court certified the petition to the county commissioners who were given the authority to order the release of Rodgers if they were satisfied that he was without funds or property to pay the fine. The court also ordered that if such was the case, Rodgers was to be released without requiring compliance under the insolvency laws.

The commissioners acted on the petition at their regular weekly meeting Wednesday and ordered Rodgers' release. John P. Butt, Esq., presented Rodgers' petition to the court.

SENIOR CLASS TO GIVE PLAY MARCH 22, 23

"Only an Orphan Girl," a four-act drama by Henning Nelms, will be presented by the Gettysburg high school senior class in the school auditorium Thursday and Friday evenings, March 22 and 23, at 8 o'clock under the direction of Miss Ruth K. Scott, dramatics instructor.

The cast follows: "Arthur Rutherford," William Cromer; "Dick Perkins," William Sperry; "Swam Perkins," Richard Altomose; "Nellie," Doris Ann Gahnes; "Ethel Rutherford," Barbara Wolff; "Mrs. Perkins," Betty Lou Baughman; "Widow Appleby," Doris Gitlin, and "Lucy," Eloise Coffelt.

"Only an Orphan Girl" is the story of Mr. Swam Perkins, a New England farmer, and his wife, who have in the past taken an orphan child, Nellie, to rear. Nellie's parentage is unknown to both the Perkins and Nellie herself. Dick, the Perkins' son, falls in love with Nellie; however, he has never professed his admiration.

Into these lives comes Arthur Rutherford, the villain from the city, with the secret of Nellie's parentage as well as an inheritance left by her parents. As all old-fashioned melodrama, the story would be incomplete without the mortgage, which the villain possesses by foul means. Arthur and his wife, Ethel, stop short of nothing, even murder, in attempts to secure the inheritance. Dick, the hero, true to fashion, arrives in time to save the plot from a tragic ending.

TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets were placed on sale last week. A chart reserved for townspeople will be located at the People's drug store today and Saturday. Special tickets are available for grade school pupils at 30c. They are to be exchanged for reserved seats.

Members of the ticket committee include Jane Winebrenner, chairman, Margaret Jones, Hermine Topper, Mary Yingling, Eugene Fidler and Richard Fidler under the supervision of Fred P. Haelmlen of the faculty.

COMMITTEE PERSONNEL

Other committees are as follows: Costumes, Mrs. LaRue Ridinger, adviser; Jean Harbaugh, construction chairman; Carolyn Blocher, collecting chairman; Viola Fissel, Phyllis Reaver, Marcette Kennel, Nancy Wagner, Gloria Stansbury, Jeanne Spahr; typing, Kathleen Jones.

Make-up—Miss Ruth Scott, adviser; Helen Lazos, chairman; Johanna Grieb; Property, Miss Pague Hargleroad, adviser; John Redding, chairman; Thelma Drake, co-chairman, Virginia Anzenberger, Robert Sheads; Stage, Mr. Elmer Schriver, adviser, James Smith, chairman, Harry Spangler, Edward Carbaugh, Richard Weaver, Harold Smith, Gene Walker, Freda Coffman, Shirley Sharpless, Robert Wentz, Charles Bushman, William Means.

Ticket, Mrs. Samuel Hogue, adviser, Norman Rasmussen, chairman, William Ogden, Mary Milhines, Jean Stitt, Arlene Rohrbaugh, Patricia Scott, Janet King, Vincent Conti, Richard Epley, Leo Gallagher, Jean Kuhn, Ardella Herr, Kathleen Jones, Richard Shealer, Doris Pepple, LeRoy Rudisill, John Sheffer.

Publicity, Mrs. Anna B. Heitzelmann, adviser, Gloria Ecker, chairman, Richard Jacobs, Janet Enoch, Gertrude Williams, Freda Coffman, Betty Evans, Rachel Myers, Cornelius Knorr, William Horner, Anna Kepner, Treva Sontz, Sara Micklef, Fred Haelmlen, Ruth Sorlie, Alice Tressler, Phyllis Bower, Helen Sterner; Business, Barbara Johnson and Joseph Strong.

Music, Mr. Edwin Longanecker and Mr. Richard Shade, advisers; Harold Settle, Luther Smith, Walter Keeney, Harold Small, vocal; Charles Rodgers, John Schwartz, Jack Cromwell, instrumental.

Ushers, Miss Gertrude B. Little and Miss Catherine Ross, advisers, Kathryn Bucher, chairman, Lois Waybright, Myrtle Jo Southern, Mildred Wentz, Betty Wildasin, Virginia Taylor, Rita Crouse, Helen Bucher, Sarah Sanders, Mildred Reaver, Viola Fissel, Phyllis Reaver, Jane Buehler, Myrna Harbaugh, Doris Smith, Janice Sachs, Alice Shealer, Mildred Walter.

Ticket Seller, Mr. Guy Wolf, Program, Mildred Reaver and Virginia Taylor.

USE COUNTY PICTURE

The March 3 issue of Money and Finance, official organ of the Pennsylvania and West Virginia Bankers' association, used on its front cover a reproduction of a scene in the orchard of John W. Lucabaugh, last fall in which Mr. Lucabaugh and his son

SGT. STERNER LAIN IN ACTION Y NAZIS MAR. 2

Sgt. Robert E. Sterner, 22, formerly of 146 Baltimore street, and band of the former Miss Frances Iden, Gettysburg R. 1, was killed action in Germany, March 2, according to a War department telegram received Wednesday by his mother, Mrs. Treva Arter, Hanover 2.

Sgt. Sterner was a member of Infantry outfit with the First Army. Associated Press dispatches March 2 reported the First Army that day was fighting within five miles of Cologne.

The slain soldier was employed at the Rice, Trew and Rice company, Biglerville, before his induction in December, 1942. He received training at Camp Van Dorn, Tex.; Camp Barkeley, Texas, and Camp Maxey, Texas. He was sent overseas last August. The deceased was a member of Bender's Lutheran church.

To Hold Services
Surviving in addition to his widow are his father, Willis Sterner, residing in Baltimore; two brothers, Herman, serving with the Merchant Marine, and Willis, Jr., Baltimore, and three sisters, Mrs. C. Hanover R. 2; Mrs. Dennis R. 1, Hanover, and Miss Virginia R. 1, Baltimore.

Memorial services will be held Friday evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock at Bender's church conducted by the Rev. H. W. Sternat, pastor.

Returns To Duty

Wounded twice since D-Day and awarded the Purple Heart Medal with an Oak Leaf Cluster, Pfc. Calvin Heinzelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Heinzelman, Gettysburg, Pa., has returned from a hospital in England to military police duty with the Seventh Army in France. Serving since February 7, 1941, he has been overseas for nine months. A brother, Sgt. Charles A. Heinzelman, is in the Third Army.

Littlestown. The Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Littlestown, officiated interment in Mt. Carmel cemetery, Littlestown.

Miss Ella Kuhns
Mrs. Ella Kuhns, Mechanicburg, widow of James Kuhns, died on Monday at the Seide Memorial hospital, Mechanicburg, after an illness of several weeks.

She was a member of Trinity Lutheran church.

Surviving are a son, C. O. Kuhns, Chicago, Ill., and two brothers, W. H. Smith, York Springs, and George M. Smith, Bartlettville, Okla.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Myers funeral home, Mechanicburg. Burial in the Chestnut Hill cemetery.

Miss Josephine R. Forney

Miss Josephine Roedel Forney, formerly of Gettysburg, died at the home of her niece, Nancy Barwell, Tulsa, Okla., Wednesday evening.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David S. Forney.

Surviving are one brother, Samuel, Jefferson City, Mo.; one sister, Mrs. David Porter, Pottsville, Mass., and her niece.

Graveside services and interment in Evergreen cemetery Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Rev. Dr. H. C. Alleman officiated.

John A. Schuchart

John Aloysius Schuchart, 54, a farmer residing at Hanover R. 3, died Saturday morning at the Hanover hospital, where he had been admitted as a patient Thursday noon. Mr. Schuchart had been ill for two weeks. He was a son of the late Gilbert and Mary Schuchart, and was married February 15, 1924, to Mary Matilda Althoff. He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose, McSherrystown. Surviving are his widow, nine children, Lester, Cyril, Arthur, Rosemary, Virginia, Earl, Corinne and Patricia, all at home, and Richard Schuchart, Hanover R. D., and six brothers and four sisters. Tuesday morning a requiem mass was conducted in Conewago chapel. The rectory, the Very Rev. John P. O'Donnell, was celebrant. Interment was made in the Conewago Chapel cemetery.

The pallbearers were Joseph Klunk, Benjamin Liversberger, Frank Todd, Roger Buntz, Emory Kruse and Raymond Timmins.

Shaw Rites Held

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the county home for Edward Shaw, 55, Cleveland native who died last Friday at the Warner hospital. He had worked at the Keystone Cabinet company plant in Littlestown two weeks before being taken ill and admitted to the hospital.

Pallbearers were C. E. Bupp, John Eyer, Samuel Group and Calvin Palmer. The officiating minister was the Rev. H. V. March, pastor of the Memorial United Brethren church here. Interment was made in the county cemetery.

Harold E. Shaffer

Harold Eugene Shaffer, four and one-half month old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shaffer, South Washington street, died at the Warner hospital Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Shaffer is serving with the Navy overseas.

Surviving are five brothers and sisters, Shirley, William, Robert, John and Charles, all at home; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Shaffer, Gardeners R. D.; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCauslin, Bendersville; great-grandfather, A. W. McCauslin, Biglerville R. D., and step-grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Fair, Bendersville.

Private funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Routsong-Dugan funeral home, Bendersville. Interment in the Bendersville cemetery.

William E. Eyer

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the J. W. Little and son funeral home, Maple avenue.

L. EARL MILLER DIES THURSDAY IN YORK SPRINGS

L. Earl Miller, 67, York Springs lodge man and former borough councilman, died Thursday evening of last week at his home here from a complication of diseases after having been in failing health for the last five years. He was well known in the York Springs community.

A former member of the borough council there, Mr. Miller recently ended a period of service on that body that extended through several terms. He had been assessor in York Springs for 18 years and was judge on the borough election board.

He had been engaged in the milling business in York Springs for the last 20 years. Prior to that he was a farmer and star route mail carrier covering the routes from York Springs to Dillsburg and York Springs to Gardeners.

He was a member of the York Springs Lutheran church, the community fire company, the York Springs lodge No. 211 of the IOOF for the last 44 years; the Past Grands' association of the county IOOF; the Latimore council of the Order of Independent Americans; the Red Men of East Berlin and Commandery No. 66 of the POS of A of Hanover. He had held offices at various times in all of these organizations.

The deceased was a son of the late Benjamin S. and Emma (Trimmer) Miller.

Survivors include the widow; three children: Benjamin Miller, Hanover; Milton, Utica, N. Y.; Mrs. Eugene Bowers, York; Paul, at home; Jesse, York; Miss Mary, at home; Corporal Glenn Miller, serving with the army in England; and Mrs. Guy Deardorff, at home. There is one grandchild, Ruth Bowers.

These brothers and sisters also survive: Mrs. Frank Menges, York Springs; Andrew Miller, York Springs R. 2; Abraham, Franklin Grove, Ill.; L. J. Miller, Harrisburg; Mrs. Charles Weaver, Gardeners Station; Mrs. Charles Smith, York Springs R. 2, and Gilbert Miller, York Springs R. 2. There are a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Pittsford funeral home in York Springs with the Rev. Ralph Meckley, Lutheran pastor, officiating. Interment in Sunnyside cemetery, York Springs.

Sabbatville, died Sunday at noon at the Frederick hospital of acute pericarditis. He was a son of Joseph Eyer, Emmitsburg, and the late Nettie Harbaugh Eyer. He was also survived by his wife, Mrs. Viola Wetzler Eyer; a brother, Reynolds Eyer, Baltimore, and a sister, Mrs. Paul Ripper, Baltimore. Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the United Brethren church, Thurmont, conducted by Rev. Ivan G. Naugle. Interment in the church cemetery.

John A. Schuchart

John Aloysius Schuchart, 54, a farmer residing at Hanover R. D. 3, died Saturday morning at 7 o'clock, at the Hanover hospital, where he had been admitted as a patient Thursday noon. Mr. Schuchart had been ill for the past two weeks.

Mr. Schuchart was a son of the late Gilbert and Mary Schuchart, and was married February 15, 1924, to Mary Matilda Althoff. He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose, McSherrystown. Surviving are his wife; nine children, Lester, Cyril, Arthur, Rosemary, Virginia, Earl, Corinne and Patricia, all at home, and Richard Schuchart, Hanover R. D., and six brothers and four sisters. Tuesday morning a requiem mass was conducted in Conewago chapel. The rectory, the Very Rev. John P. O'Donnell, was celebrant. Interment was made in the Conewago Chapel cemetery.

The pallbearers were Joseph Klunk, Benjamin Liversberger, Frank Todd, Roger Buntz, Emory Kruse and Raymond Timmins.

Shaw Rites Held

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the county home for Edward Shaw, 55, Cleveland native who died last Friday at the Warner hospital. He had worked at the Keystone Cabinet company plant in Littlestown two weeks before being taken ill and admitted to the hospital.

Pallbearers were C. E. Bupp, John Eyer, Samuel Group and Calvin Palmer. The officiating minister was the Rev. H. V. March, pastor of the Memorial United Brethren church here. Interment was made in the county cemetery.

Harold E. Shaffer

Harold Eugene Shaffer, four and one-half month old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shaffer, South Washington street, died at the Warner hospital Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Shaffer is serving with the Navy overseas.

Surviving are five brothers and sisters, Shirley, William, Robert, John and Charles, all at home; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Shaffer, Gardeners R. D.; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCauslin, Bendersville; great-grandfather, A. W. McCauslin, Biglerville R. D., and step-grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Fair, Bendersville.

Private funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Routsong-Dugan funeral home, Bendersville. Interment in the Bendersville cemetery.

William E. Eyer

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the J. W. Little and son funeral home, Maple avenue.

HARRY C. PITZER EXPIRES THURS.

Harry C. Pitzer, 72, a retired fruit grower, died at his home, Aspers R. D., Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from a complication of diseases. He had been in ill health and was bedfast for the last nine days.

Mr. Pitzer was a native of Adams county, a son of the late Samuel M. and Caroline Pitzer. He was a member of the Bendersville Lutheran church. His first wife, the former Clara Taylor, died in 1935.

Surviving are his second wife, the former Mary Heagy; four sons by his first marriage, H. Earl, Aspers R. D., Charles, Gettysburg; John, Biglerville, and Robert, Carlisle, now serving with the Navy in the South Pacific; three brothers, Samuel, Bendersville; Willis, Arendtsville, and Ar. Biglerville R. D. Three daughters also survive, Mrs. Iode Childs, Lancaster; Mrs. Catherine Chronister and Mrs. Marguerite Grist, both of Hanover.

MRS. JOHN WILT DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Mary Anna Wilt, Iron Springs, wife of John S. Wilt, died of a heart attack Saturday morning about 1:30 o'clock as she was climbing a hill at the home of a neighbor, Maurice Emyr.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, who investigated, signed a death certificate. Mrs. Wilt was 64 years old.

She was a daughter of the late George W. and Anna Rebecca Heist Reese. She is survived, in addition to her husband by these children: George E. Harry, Mrs. Lula Bucher, Mrs. Evelyn Pyle, all of Hagerstown; Mrs. Elsie Sanders, Mt. Leona, Md.; Mrs. Rhoda Shultz, Orrianna, Oliver, C., Carlisle; Harvey E., serving with the army in England; Amanda Miller, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Ida Harbaugh, Fairfield R. D. A step-brother, John McGee, Iron Springs, and a step-sister, Mrs. Kathryn Seifert, Fairfield, also survive.

Funeral Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Allison funeral home, Fairfield, with the Rev. John Garman, pastor of the Brethren in Christ church at Iron Springs, officiating. Burial in Union cemetery.

E. E. HAVERSTOCK RITES THURSDAY

Funeral services for Elmer Ellsworth Haverstock, 81, who was found dead Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of his brother, Charles F. Haverstock, Mt. Pleasant township, Hanover R. 4, with whom he made his home, were held from the W. A. Feiser funeral home, Hanover, this Thursday morning conducted by the Rev. Howard Sheely, interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Hanover. Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, who investigated, attributed death to acute dilatation of the heart.

The deceased was a son of the late Edwin and Wilhelmina (Frank) Haverstock. He was employed for 35 years at the Hanover Shoe company. Mr. Haverstock was a member of Trinity Reformed church, Hanover, and the Hanover Eagles. His wife, the former Sarah J. Trone, died some time ago.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Charles Alwine, York, and three grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Names New Deputy Register, Recorder

Register and Recorder Winfield G. Horner announced today that Miss Irene Day, of Gettysburg, has been appointed a deputy in that office. Raymond Day, of Gettysburg.

The appointment was effective Tuesday. Miss Day has been employed in the office of the register and recorder as a clerk for nearly three years. She is a graduate of Gettysburg high school in the class of 1940 and before being employed in the court house had served as secretary of Charles Wolf, Esq., Gettysburg attorney now in the service. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Day, Gettysburg.

Miss Day is the second deputy in the recorder's office. Miss Viola Sachs also holds that title. Mr. Horner said today that the new appointment had been made "to better serve the people of the county."

county, a daughter of the late John and Mary A. (Craig) Goodermuth, and resided in Gettysburg since 1906. She was a member of the Memorial United Brethren church. Daughters of Liberty and Ladies of the GAR. Her husband died in 1935.

Surviving are two sons, John H. and Edward E., both of Gettysburg; eight grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; two brothers, Daniel Goodermuth, Gettysburg, and George Goodermuth, New Windsor, Md., and two sisters, Mrs. Susan Robinson and Miss Katie Goodermuth, 522 York street.

Funeral services from the Bender funeral home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock conducted by the Rev. H. V. March interment in Polih's cemetery.

The deceased was born in Adams

Countians Members Of Honored Outfit

A meritorious service unit plaque has been awarded the 728th Ordnance company of the 26th Infantry division "for outstanding devotion to duty in the performance of exceptionally difficult tasks during the period July 24, 1944, to September 22, 1944," by Major General Norman D. Cota.

The award states further that "during this period, a high standard of discipline was maintained, based on superior military courtesy, appearance of personal, installations and equipment, in spite of the fast moving situations and difficult operational conditions. Their efficient and enthusiastic execution of orders was also a contributing factor to their outstanding accomplishments."

Among Adams countians who are members of the company are Sgt. Fred Wright, Sgt. Frank Linn, T. Sgt. Harold Sharpe, Sgt. "Buzz" Shealer, Sgt. Richard Kuhn and Dale Kime. The outfit is somewhere on the western front.

Weddings

Diehl-Worley
Miss Doris Worley, daughter of C. W. Worley, Hanover and Pvt. Harold G. Diehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clair Diehl, Spring Grove R. D. 3, were married Sunday afternoon in Grace Evangelical Lutheran church, Westminster, Md. The single ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Elwood S. Falkenstein.

The groom's father and mother formerly resided near Cedar Ridge. His mother was Miss Esther Sanders before her marriage.

Klunk-Sharrah

Miss Margaret E. Sharrar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Sharrar, Hanover, and Sgt. Robert J. Klunk, son of Joseph C. Klunk, McSherrystown, were married March 3 in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Hanover. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Edward O'Flynn. They were attended by Miss Helen Klunk, sister of the bridegroom, and Harry Klunk, United States Navy, cousin of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the New Central hotel. Upon completion of a 30-day furlough, Sgt. Klunk will return to duty overseas.

Bruce-Fisher

Miss Edna E. Fisher, daughter of Major and Mrs. John Ward Fisher, Los Angeles, Calif., and Cpl. John William Bruce, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bruce, Short Hills, N. J., were united in marriage last Friday afternoon at 4:30 p. m. in Christ Lutheran church by the Rev. George Sheffer, pastor of the New Oxford Lutheran church.

They were attended by Miss Grace Fisher, sister of the bride, and Harry Bruce, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride graduated from Gettysburg college in 1944 and is a member of the Chi Omega sorority. She is now attending the graduate school of the Foreign Service Education Foundation, Washington, D. C. Cpl. Bruce, who is stationed at Savannah, Ga., attended Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute before joining the armed forces.

Baker-Cromer

The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Cromer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleason Cromer, Carlisle, formerly of Gettysburg, to John Stanley Baker, United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, Davenport, Fla., took place Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in First Lutheran church, Carlisle.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Harry L. Saul.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Mary Gentile, of Gettysburg, attended the bride as matron of honor.

Miss Mildred Lunn, of Gettysburg, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Richard Cromer, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were Ted S. Tolar, SK first class; Granville Gray, SK first class, and Robert L. Mays, SK first class, all of Carlisle Naval Barracks.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Esther Elizabeth Royer, soprano, and Mrs. Leslie M. Karper, organist, gave a brief recital.

A reception was held at the bride's home after the ceremony and was attended by guests from Hagerstown, Baltimore, Gettysburg, Lancaster and Emmitsburg, Md.

The pair left Monday for Davenport, Fla., on a wedding trip.

Tully-Kaykendall

Miss Hazel L. Kaykendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaykendall, Biglerville R. D., and S. C. Joseph R. Tully, son of Mrs. Joseph Tully, Gettysburg R. D., were united in marriage last Thursday in St. John's Lutheran church, Thurmont, by the Rev. Charles H. Corbett.

At the conclusion of a nine-day leave the bridegroom will report to his base at Bainbridge, Md.

BIGLER F.F.A. GROUP TO HOLD 6TH BANQUET

The sixth annual Future Farmers of America banquet of the Biglerville high school will be held this evening at 7 o'clock in the school auditorium with the fathers and mothers as guests. The general chairman of the dinner is Theodore Myers.

Andrew S. Beshore, of Harrisburg, will be the principal speaker. Dale Stock will act as toastmaster and the invocation will be given by the Rev. H. W. Sternat. An official opening ceremony will be presented by the FFA officers who are as follows: President, Dale Stock; vice president, Glenn C. Funt; secretary, Richard Rice; treasurer, Arthur Myers; reporter, Maurice Black; advisor, Cecil R. Snyder; sentinel, Robert Smeyers. A welcome speech will be given by Fred Baker and Myles Starnier will deliver a Keystone Farmer's talk, Professor C. L. Yost will be in charge of the music and the closing ceremony will be given by the FFA officers.

The dinner will be prepared and served by the Home Economics department, Miss Mary Auvil, teacher. The Art department in charge of Miss Caroline Rex, will do the decorations and Mrs. Minam Frank is in charge of printing the programs and song sheets.

The dinner will be prepared and served by the Home Economics department, Miss Mary Auvil, teacher. The Art department in charge of Miss Caroline Rex, will do the decorations and Mrs. Minam Frank is in charge of printing the programs and song sheets.

Committees in Charge
Committees for the dinner are as follows: Food—Richard Rice, chairman; Howard Guise Wayne Ecker, and Raymond Hollabaugh; program—Arthur Myers, chairman; Harry Hoffman, Clifford Rice, and Cecil R. Snyder; printing—Maurice Black, chairman; Glenn Funt and Calvin Group; decorating—Fred Casman, chairman; Kenneth Taylor, Robert Decker, Clifford Rice, William Walker, Wayne Ecker.

Property—Glenn Funt, chairman; Richard Rice, Dale Stock; dish washing—Sherrill Guise, chairman; Robert Smeyers, Fred Casman, Stanley Thomas, Ralph Culp, Rene Black, Aldous Gochenour and Fred Snyder; meat carving—John Hoffman, chairman; Robert Stevens, William Walker, Samuel Ehlman, chairman; Paul Miller, Ivan Dunlap, Samuel Ehlman; clean-up—Howard Guise, chairman; Kenneth Taylor, Robert Decker, Dale Leer, John Miller and Arthur Myers.

Purchase Bond

Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, vice president, presided at the meeting. The club litany was led by Mrs. John Mumper. The club voted to take a $5 membership in the Adams County Free Library association. It was also decided to purchase a $25 war bond.

The following nominating committee was appointed: Mrs. Thomas L. Cline, Mrs. Mark Eckert, Mrs. Edgar L. Deardorff, Mrs. Ralph Z. Oyer and Mrs. A. L. Barr.

Approximately $30 was cleared at the "White Elephant" and food sale held in connection with the meeting and sponsored by the Ways and Means committee.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Frank Kramer, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Walter Africa, Mrs. Dwight Putman, Mrs. Albert Partner, Mrs. LeRoy Winebrenner and Mrs. A. B. Plank.

Littlestown Soldier

Serving In Italy

(Special to The Times)

With the Fifth Army, Italy—Pfc. Reid C. Pittenturf, wireman, son of Mrs. Virgie Pittenturf, 157 Cemetery street, Littlestown, is a member of the 631st Field Artillery battalion, currently pumping 95-pound howitzer shells into German positions in Italy's Po valley.

On its 44th day in combat, the 631st had fired 132,000 shells at the enemy, or more than 6,000 tons of metal. The battalion has fought through the Sicilian campaign, been under counterbattery fire coming from three sides and bombing from above at Cassino, fired 3,000 rounds in the first day of the Fifth Army's spring offensive from the Garigliano river, seized two German depots in one day near Rome, smashed a troop concentration forming for counter-attack and hammered holes in the Gustav, Hitler and Gothic Lines.

Operating close to its targets, the battalion once sustained casualties simultaneously in all three of its firing batteries. Its big ammunition dump was fired by enemy action recently, but the artillerymen smothered the blaze quickly, saving most of their shells.

February Sales

At Booth $905.55

War bonds and stamps sold at the booth at the Majestic theatre from February 1 to February 28 totaled $905.55 it was reported today by Mrs. Paul Thomas, chairman, and Sydney Poppay, manager. The total for the year is now $1,934.45.

Those assisting during February include Rita C. Byard, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Eleanor Fox, Lona M. Jacob, Mrs. C. Arthur Brame, Mrs. Jack Small, Mrs. J. J. Munley, Mrs. Charles Lauer, Mrs. George March, Nina Merrow, Mrs. Erle Deardorff, Catharine Small, Teresa Riley, Mrs. Carl E. Oyer, Mrs. L. B. Smith, Margaret L. Spangler, Mrs. Winebrenner, Mrs. J. D. Harrow, Miss Anna C. McSherry, L. Hemler, Mrs. Virginia Lauer, Mrs. G. W. Adlesberger, Elsie Kessel, Mrs. W. M. Conover and Mrs. E. P. Hamilton.

AWARDED MEDAL

Register and Recorder Winfield G. Horner and Recorder Winfield G. Horner announced today that Miss Irene Day, of Gettysburg, has been appointed a deputy in that office. Raymond Day, of Gettysburg.

The appointment was effective Tuesday. Miss Day has been employed in the office of the register and recorder as a clerk for nearly three years. She is a graduate of Gettysburg high school in the class of 1940 and before being employed in the court house had served as secretary of Charles Wolf, Esq., Gettysburg attorney now in the service. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Day, Gettysburg.

Miss Day is the second deputy in the recorder's office. Miss Viola Sachs also holds that title. Mr. Horner said today that the new appointment had been made "to better serve the people of the county."

county, a daughter of the late John and Mary A. (Craig) Goodermuth, and resided in Gettysburg since 1906. She was a member of the Memorial United Brethren church. Daughters of Liberty and Ladies of the GAR. Her husband died in 1935.

Surviving are two sons, John H. and Edward E., both of Gettysburg; eight grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; two brothers, Daniel Goodermuth, Gettysburg, and George Goodermuth, New Windsor, Md., and two sisters, Mrs. Susan Robinson and Miss Katie Goodermuth, 522 York street.

Funeral services from the Bender funeral home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock conducted by the Rev. H. V. March interment in Polih's cemetery.

Gardners Soldier On Italian Front

With the Fifth Army, Italy—Pvt. Stanley A. Starnier, telephone operator, son of Clarence Starnier, Gardeners R. 2, is a member of the 403rd Field Artillery Battalion, which smashed a wealth of German installations recently in the path of Fifth Army doughboys who took a mountain overlooking the Po valley in Italy.

All their 155-millimeter howitzers pumping shells at Mt. Grande continuously for nine hours on two consecutive days, the artillerymen blew up a German ammunition dump, knocked out two antitank guns, a self-propelled gun and a 105-millimeter howitzer and accounted for at least 25 German dead.

WAR PROGRAM PRESENTED BY WOMAN'S CLUB

An address by Mrs. Henry W. A. Hanson on the growing interest in wide-spread parts of the world due to war conditions and a display of medals, souvenirs and other curios sent back by personnel from overseas featured the program of the March meeting of the Woman's club held Wednesday afternoon at the YWCA building.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Thomas L. Cline, chairman of the International Relations group, who introduced the speaker.

Fifteen mothers in attendance read excerpts of letters received from overseas.

During the program it was revealed 39 members have 48 sons in service, 27 of whom are overseas; 13 members have husbands in the service, eight of whom are overseas; one son and one husband have given their lives in service; one husband is a Jap prisoner; one son and one husband are serving as chaplains; one son is with the American Red Cross overseas and one member is in the Waves.

Purchase Bond

Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, vice president, presided at the meeting. The club litany was led by Mrs. John Mumper. The club voted to take a $5 membership in the Adams County Free Library association. It was also decided to purchase a $25 war bond.

The following nominating committee was appointed: Mrs. Thomas L. Cline, Mrs. Mark Eckert, Mrs. Edgar L. Deardorff, Mrs. Ralph Z. Oyer and Mrs. A. L. Barr.

Approximately $30 was cleared at the "White Elephant" and food sale held in connection with the meeting and sponsored by the Ways and Means committee.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Frank Kramer, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Walter Africa, Mrs. Dwight Putman, Mrs. Albert Partner, Mrs. LeRoy Winebrenner and Mrs. A. B. Plank.

Littlestown Soldier

Serving In Italy

(Special to The Times)

With the Fifth Army, Italy—Pfc. Reid C. Pittenturf, wireman, son of Mrs. Virgie Pittenturf, 157 Cemetery street, Littlestown, is a member of the 631st Field Artillery battalion, currently pumping

S. SGT. STERNER SLAIN IN ACTION BY NAZIS MAR. 2

S. Sgt. Hobart E. Sterner, 22, formerly of 146 Baltimore street, and husband of the former Miss Frances Gilden, Gettysburg R. 1, was killed in action in Germany, March 2, according to a War department telegram received Wednesday by his sister, Mrs. Treva Arter, Hanover R. 2.

S. Sgt. Sterner was a member of an infantry outfit with the First Army. Associated Press dispatches on March 2 reported the First Army on that day was fighting within five miles of Cologne.

The slain soldier was employed by the Rice, Trew and Rice company, Biglerville, before his induction in December, 1942. He received training at Camp Van Dorn, Miss.; Camp Berkeley, Texas, and Camp Maxey, Texas. He was sent overseas last August. The deceased was a member of Bender's Lutheran church.

To Hold Services

Surviving in addition to his widow are his father, Willis Sterner, now residing in Baltimore; two brothers, Herman, serving with the Merchant Marine, and Willis, Jr., Baltimore, and three sisters, Mrs. Arter, Hanover R. 2; Mrs. Dennis Smith, Hanover, and Miss Virginia Sterner, Baltimore.

Memorial services will be held Sunday evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock at Bender's church conducted by the Rev. H. W. Sternat, pastor.

Deaths

Mrs. Samuel A. Noel

Mrs. Della E. Noel, 62, wife of Samuel A. Noel, 122 South Franklin street, died at her home Sunday afternoon at 4:35 o'clock from a complication of diseases.

She was born in Baltimore, a daughter of the late Joseph and Margaret (Badford) LeBrun. For the last 14 months she resided in Gettysburg and prior to that lived on a farm in the county. She had been married 45 years.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by four children, Mrs. Elias Swisher, Little; Miss Leona M. Noel, New York city; Samuel A. Noel, Jr., Gettysburg; S. 2-C Richard L. Norfolk, Va.; four grandchildren; one great-grandchild; five brothers, Joseph LeBrun, Fowlesburg, Md.; Fuller LeBrun, Hampstead, Md.; William and Osborn LeBrun, both of Baltimore, and Harry LeBrun, Sykesville, Md.

Funeral services from the Bender funeral home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. R. R. Gresh, interment in Evergreen cemetery.

William E. Angevine

William E. Angevine, 71, formerly of Frederick, died at the home of his son, George Angevine, Baltimore, Thursday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock after an illness of some weeks. He was a son of the late William E. and Rosetta Himmel Angevine and a member of All Saints Episcopal church. Surviving him are a son, George Angevine, Baltimore; three daughters, Mrs. J. Wilkins Trew, Gettysburg; Mrs. Lawrence Haller, Brunswick; Mrs. Harry Nokes, Jr., Hagerstown; two brothers, Otis Angevine, Washington; Ross Angevine, Thurmont.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Frederick. Interment in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Luther A. Anders

Luther A. Anders, 55, Taneytown, veteran of World War I, died in the Veterans' hospital at Fort Howard March 6. He had been in failing health for four years. The deceased was a son of the late John A. and Mary (Heck) Anders. During the first World War he served as a corporal in Company G, Eighty-Third Infantry Regiment. For fourteen years Mr. Anders was superintendent of the Lutheran cemetery at Taneytown. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran church and Sunday school, and was affiliated with the Hesson Snyder post, American Legion.

Surviving are a brother, William M. Anders, Taneytown R. D., and three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Alt-horn, Littlestown; Mrs. Martha Overholtzer, Taneytown, and Miss Sadie Anders, at home.

Funeral services were held Friday at 2 p. m., in Trinity Lutheran church, Taneytown, with Rev. A. T. Sutcliffe, pastor, officiating. Interment in church cemetery.

George W. Bowman

George W. Bowman, 80, South Queen street, Littlestown, died suddenly at 4:45 o'clock Mr. Bowman had been in fairly good health, and his death was unexpected. He was a son of the late George and Caroline Willet Bowman. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Littlestown, and fraternally was affiliated with the Patriotic Order Sons of America.

Surviving are his widow, who before marriage was Mary A. Wantz; one daughter, Mary K. Bowman, at home; one brother, Augustus Bowman, Silver Run, Md., and two sisters, Mrs. George Leppo, Silver Run, Md., and Mrs. Alberta Kesselring, Hanover.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the J. W. Little and Son funeral home, Maple avenue.

Returns To Duty

Wounded twice since D-Day and awarded the Purple Heart Medal with an Oak Leaf Cluster, Pfc. Calvin Heintzelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Heintzelman, Gettysburg R. 2, has returned from a hospital in England to military police duty with the Seventh Army in France. Serving since February 7, 1941, he has been overseas for nine months. A brother, Sgt. Charles A. Heintzelman, is in the Third Army.

Littlestown. The Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Littlestown, officiated Interment in Mt. Carmel cemetery, Littlestown.

Miss Ella Kuhns

Mrs. Ella Kuhns, Mechanicsburg, widow of James Kuhns, died on Monday at the Seidle Memorial hospital, Mechanicsburg, after an illness of several weeks.

She was a member of Trinity Lutheran church.

Surviving are a son, C. O. Kuhns, Chicago, Ill., and two brothers, W. H. Smith, York Springs, and George M. Smith, Bartlettville, Okla.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Myers funeral home, Mechanicsburg. Burial in the Chestnut Hill cemetery.

Miss Josephine R. Forney

Miss Josephine Roedel Forney, formerly of Gettysburg, died at the home of her niece, Nancy Barwell, Tulaski, Va., Wednesday evening.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David S. Forney.

Surviving are one brother, Samuel, Jefferson City, Mo.; one sister, Mrs. David Porter, Pittsburg, Mass., and her niece.

Graveside services and interment in Evergreen cemetery Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Rev. Dr. H. C. Alleman officiated.

John A. Schuchart

John Aloysius Schuchart, 54, a farmer residing at Hanover R. 3, died Saturday morning at the Hanover hospital, where he had been admitted as a patient Thursday noon. Mr. Schuchart had been ill for two weeks. He was a son of the late Gilbert and Mary Schuchart, and was married February 15, 1934, to Mary Matilda Althoff. He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose, McSherrytown. Surviving are his widow, nine children, Lester, Cyril, Arthur, Rosemary, Virginia, Earl, Corinne and Patricia, all at home, and Richard Schuchart, Hanover R. D., and six brothers and four sisters. Tuesday morning a requiem mass was conducted in Conewago chapel. The rector, the Very Rev. John P. O'Donnell, was celebrant. Interment was made in the Conewago Chapel cemetery.

The pallbearers were Joseph Klunk, Benjamin Livelberger, Frank Todd, Roger Bundy, Emory Krise and Raymond Timmins.

Shaw Rites Held

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the county home for Edward Shaw, 55, Cleveland native who died last Friday at the Warner hospital. He had worked at the Keystone Cabinet company plant in Littlestown two weeks before being taken ill and admitted to the hospital.

Pallbearers were C. E. Bupp, John Eyer, Samuel Group and Calvin Palmer. The officiating minister was the Rev. H. V. March, pastor of the Memorial United Brethren church here. Interment was made in the county cemetery.

Harold E. Shaffer

Harold Eugene Shaffer, four and one-half month old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shaffer, South Washington street, died at the Warner hospital Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Shaffer is serving with the Navy overseas.

Surviving are five brothers and sisters, Shirley, William, Robert, Jolene and Charles, all at home; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Shaffer, Gardner R. D.; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCauslin, Benderville; great-grandfather, A. W. McCauslin, Biglerville R. D., and step-grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Fair, Benderville.

Private funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Routsong-Dugan funeral home, Benderville, interment in the Benderville cemetery.

William E. Eyer

William Edward Eyer, 40, of Lantz, Md., for the past twelve years a carpenter at the State Sanatorium,

L. EARL MILLER DIES THURSDAY IN YORK SPRINGS

L. Earl Miller, 67, York Springs, lodgeman and former borough councilman, died Thursday evening of last week at his home here from a complication of diseases after having been in failing health for the last five years. He was well known in the York Springs community.

A former member of the borough council there, Mr. Miller recently ended a period of service on that body that extended through several terms. He had been assessor in York Springs for 18 years and was judge on the borough election board.

He had been engaged in the milling business in York Springs for the last 20 years. Prior to that he was a farmer and star route mail carrier covering the routes from York Springs to Dillsburg and York Springs to Gardner.

He was a member of the York Springs Lutheran church, the community fire company, the York Springs lodge No. 211 of the IOOF for the last 44 years; the Past Grands' association of the county IOOF; the Latimore council of the Order of Independent Americans; the Red Men of East Berlin and Commandery No. 66 of the POG of A of Hanover. He had held offices at various times in all of these organizations.

The deceased was a son of the late Benjamin S. and Emma (Trimmer) Miller.

Survivors include the widow; these children: Benjamin Miller, Hanover; Milton, Utica, N. Y.; Eugene Bowers, York; Paul, at home; Jesse, York; Miss Mary, at home; Corral Glenn Miller, serving with the army in England; and Mrs. Guy Deardorff, at home. There is one grandchild, Ruth Bowers.

These brothers and sisters also survive: Mrs. Frank Menges, York Springs; Andrew Miller, York Springs R. 2; Abraham, Franklin Grove, Ill.; L. J. Miller, Harrisburg; Mrs. Charles Weaver, Gardner Station; Mrs. Charles Smith, York Springs R. 2, and Gilbert Miller, York Springs R. 2. There are a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Pittenturf funeral home in York Springs with the Rev. Ralph Meckley, Lutheran pastor, officiating. Interment in Sunnyside cemetery, York Springs.

Sabillasville, died Sunday at noon at the Frederick hospital of acute pericarditis. He was a son of Joseph Eyer, Emmitsburg, and the late Nettie Harbaugh Eyer. He is also survived by his wife, Mrs. Viola Wetzel Eyer; a brother, Reynolds Eyer, Baltimore, and a sister, Mrs. Paul Ripper, Baltimore. Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the United Brethren church, Thurmont, conducted by Rev. Ivan G. Naugle. Interment in the church cemetery.

John A. Schuchart

John Aloysius Schuchart, 54, a farmer residing at Hanover R. D. 3, died Saturday morning at 7 o'clock, at the Hanover hospital, where he had been admitted as a patient Thursday noon. Mr. Schuchart had been ill for the past two weeks.

Mr. Schuchart was a son of the late Gilbert and Mary Schuchart, and was married February 15, 1934, to Mary Matilda Althoff. He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose, McSherrytown. Surviving are his wife; nine children, Lester, Cyril, Arthur, Rosemary, Virginia, Earl Corinne and Patricia, all at home, and Richard Schuchart, Hanover R. D., and the following brothers and sisters, Edward Schuchart, Frank Schuchart and William Schuchart, all of Hanover; Mrs. Annie Blessing, Westminster, Md.; Mrs. Margaret Bisgner, New Freedom; Nicholas Schuchart, Albert Schuchart, both of Silver Run, Md.; Mrs. Rose Franz and Anthony Schuchart, both of Seven Valleys, and Mrs. Mabel Hemler, Red Lion. Funeral services Tuesday morning, meeting at his late residence at 8:30 o'clock. A requiem mass was conducted at 9 a. m. in Conewago chapel. The rector, the Very Rev. John P. O'Donnell, was the celebrant. Interment in the Conewago Chapel cemetery.

Helen Smith

Helen Smith, two-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Smith, New Oxford R. 1, died Sunday evening at 9:15 o'clock in the Hanover hospital, where she was admitted as a patient on Saturday. The infant had been ill for one week. Surviving are the parents, George Aloysius and Margaret (Myers) Smith, a sister, Stella Smith, at home, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Myers, Bonneville, and Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Smith, Hanover R. D. Funeral services Tuesday, meeting at the home at 3:30 p. m., with further services at 4 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Bonneville. The Rev. Leo J. Krichen, rector, officiated. Interment in the parish cemetery.

Mrs. Emma Anzengruber

Mrs. Emma E. Anzengruber, 76, widow of George Anzengruber, died Sunday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock at her home, 522 York street, from a complication of diseases. She had been in ill health two years and was bedfast a week.

The deceased was born in Adams

HARRY C. PITZER DIES THURSDAY EXPIRES THURS.

Harry C. Pitzer, 72, a retired fruit grower, died at his home, Aspers R. D., Thursday afternoon at 1:20 o'clock from a complication of diseases. He had been in ill health and was bedfast for the last nine days.

Mr. Pitzer was a native of Adams county, a son of the late Samuel M. and Caroline Pitzer. He was a member of the Benderville Lutheran church. His first wife, the former Clara Taylor, died in 1935.

Surviving are his second wife, the former Mary Heagy; four sons by his first marriage, H. Earl, Aspers R. D.; Charles, Gettysburg; John, Biglerville, and Robert, Carlisle, now serving with the Navy in the South Pacific; three brothers, Samuel, Benderville; Willis, Arendtsville, and Ira, Biglerville R. D. Three step-daughters also survive, Mrs. Ione Childs, Lancaster; Mrs. Catherine Chronister and Mrs. Marguerite Grist, both of Hampton.

MRS. JOHN WILT DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Mary Anna Wilt, Iron Springs, wife of John S. Wilt, died of a heart attack Saturday morning about 1:30 o'clock as she was climbing a hill at the home of a neighbor, Maurice Emory.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, who investigated, signed a death certificate. Mrs. Wilt was 64 years old.

She was a daughter of the late George W. and Anna Rebecca Heist Reese. She is survived, in addition to her husband by these children: George E. Harry, Mrs. Lula Bucher, Mrs. Evelyn Pyle, all of Hagerstown; Mrs. Elsie Sanders, Mt. Leona, Md.; Mrs. Rhoda Shultz, Orrtanna; Oliver C. Carlisle; Harvey E., serving with the army in England; Mrs. Amanda Miller, Pittsburg, and Mrs. Ida Harbaugh, Fairfield R. D. A step-brother, John McCleaf, Iron Springs, and a step-sister, Mrs. Kathryn Seifert, Fairfield, also survive.

Funeral Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Allison funeral home, Fairfield, with the Rev. John Garman, pastor of the Brethren in Christ church at Iron Springs, officiating. Burial in Union cemetery.

E. E. HAVERSTOCK RITES THURSDAY

Funeral services for Elmer Ellsworth Haverstock, 81, who was found dead Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of his brother, Charles F. Haverstock, Mt. Pleasant township, Hanover R. 4, with whom he made his home, were held from the W. A. Felsner funeral home, Hanover this Thursday morning conducted by the Rev. Howard Sheely, interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery. Hanover. Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, who investigated attributed death to acute dilatation of the heart.

The deceased was a son of the late Edwin and Wilhelmina (Frank) Haverstock. He was employed for 35 years at the Hanover Shoe company. Mr. Haverstock was a member of Trinity Reformed church, Hanover, and the Hanover Eagles. His wife, the former Sarah J. Trone, died some time ago.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Charles Alwine, York, and one brother, Charles F.; three grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Names New Deputy Register, Recorder

Register and Recorder Winfield G. Horner announced today that Miss Irene Day, of Gettysburg, has been appointed a deputy in that office. Raymond Day, of Gettysburg.

The appointment was effective Tuesday. Miss Day has been employed in the office of the register and recorder as a clerk for nearly three years. She is a graduate of Gettysburg high school in the class of 1940 and before being employed in the court house had served as secretary of Charles Wolf, Esq., Gettysburg attorney now in the service. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, Day, Gettysburg.

Miss Day is the second deputy in the recorder's office. Miss Viola Sachs also holds that title. Mr. Horner said today that the new appointment had been made "to better serve the people of the county."

county, a daughter of the late John and Mary A. (Craig) Goodermuth, and resided in Gettysburg since 1906. She was a member of the Memorial United Brethren church, Daughters of Liberty and Ladies of the GAR. Her husband died in 1935.

Surviving are two sons, John H. and Edward E., both of Gettysburg; eight grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; two brothers, Daniel Goodermuth, Gettysburg, and George Goodermuth, New Windsor, Md., and two sisters, Mrs. Susan Robinson and Miss Katie Goodermuth, 522 York street.

Funeral services from the Bender funeral home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock conducted by the Rev. H. V. March. Interment in Fohr's cemetery.

Countians Members Of Honored Outfit

A meritorious service unit plaque has been awarded the 728th Ordnance company of the 28th Infantry division "for outstanding devotion to duty in the performance of exceptionally difficult tasks during the period July 24, 1944, to September 22, 1944," by Major General Norman D. Cota.

The award states further that "during this period, a high standard of discipline was maintained, based on superior military courtesy, appearance of personal, installations and equipment, in spite of the fast moving situations and difficult operational conditions. Their efficient and enthusiastic execution of orders was also a contributing factor to their outstanding accomplishments."

Among Adams countians who are members of the company are Sgt. Fred Wright, S. Sgt. Frank Linn, T. Sgt. Harold Sharpe, Sgt. "Buzz" Shealer, Sgt. Richard Kuhn and Dale Kime. The outfit is somewhere on the western front.

Weddings

Diehl-Worley

Miss Doris Worley, daughter of C. W. Worley, Hanover and Pvt. Harold G. Diehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clair Diehl, Spring Grove R. D. 3, were married Sunday afternoon in Grace Evangelical Lutheran church, Westminster, Md. The single ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Elwood S. Falkenstein. The groom's father and mother formerly resided near Cedar Ridge. His mother was Miss Esther Sanders before her marriage.

Klunk-Sharrah

Miss Margaret E. Sharrah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sharrah, Hanover, and Sgt. Robert J. Klunk, son of Joseph C. Klunk, McSherrytown, were married March 3 in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Hanover. The double ring ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. Edward O'Flynn. They were attended by Miss Helen Klunk, sister of the bridegroom, and Harry Klunk, United States Navy, cousin of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the New Central hotel. Upon completion of a 30-day furlough, Sgt. Klunk will return to duty overseas.

Bruce-Fisher

Miss Edna E. Fisher, daughter of Major and Mrs. John Ward Fisher, Los Angeles, Calif., and Cpl. John William Bruce, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bruce, Short Hills, N. J., were united in marriage last Friday afternoon at 4:30 p. m. in Christ Lutheran church by the Rev. George Sheffer, pastor of the New Oxford Lutheran church.

They were attended by Miss Grace Fisher, sister of the bride, and Harry Bruce, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride graduated from Gettysburg college in 1944 and is a member of the Chi Omega sorority. She is now attending the graduate school of the Foreign Service Education Foundation, Washington, D. C. Cpl. Bruce, who is stationed at Savannah, Ga., attended Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute before joining the armed forces.

Baker-Cromer

The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Cromer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleason Cromer, Carlisle, formerly of Gettysburg, to John Stanley Baker, United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, Davenport, Fla., took place Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in First Lutheran church, Carlisle.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Harry L. Saul.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Mary Gentile, of Gettysburg, attended the bride as matron of honor.

Miss Mildred Linn, of Gettysburg, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Richard Cromer, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were Ted S. Tolar, SK first class; Granville Grigg, SK first class, and Robert L. May, SK first class, all of Carlisle Naval Barracks.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Esther Elizabeth Royer, soprano, and Mrs. Leslie M. Kasper, organist, gave a brief recital.

A reception was held at the bride's home after the ceremony and was attended by guests from Hagerstown, Baltimore, Gettysburg, Lancaster and Emmitsburg, Md.

The pair left Monday for Davenport, Fla., on a wedding trip.

Tully-Kuykendall

Miss Hazel L. Kuykendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kuykendall, Biglerville R. D., and S. 2-C Joseph R. Tully, son of Mrs. Joseph Tully, Gettysburg R. D., were united in marriage last Thursday in St. John's Lutheran church, Thurmont, by the Rev. Charles H. Corbett.

At the conclusion of a nine-day leave the bridegroom will report to his base at Bainbridge, Md.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Clerk of the Courts Mrs. Howard W. Sheffer Tuesday issued a marriage license to George Wesley Gawick, son of Wesley Gawick, Hanover, and Rose Agnes Strausbaugh, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Strausbaugh, Conewago township.

BIGLER F.F.A. GROUP TO HOLD 6TH BANQUET

The sixth annual Future Farmers of America banquet of the Biglerville high school will be held this evening at 7 o'clock in the school auditorium with the fathers and mothers as guests. The general chairman of the dinner is Theodore Myers.

Andrew S. Beshore, of Harrisburg, will be the principal speaker. Dale Stock will act as toastmaster and the invocation will be given by the Rev. H. W. Sternat. An official opening ceremony will be presented by the FFA officers who are as follows: President, Dale Stock; vice president, Glenn C. Funt; secretary, Richard Rice; treasurer, Arthur Myers; reporter, Maurice Black; advisor, Cecil R. Snyder; sentinel, Robert Smysers. A welcome speech will be given by Fred Baker and Myles Starner will deliver a Keystone Farmer's talk. Professor C. L. Yost will be in charge of the music and the closing ceremony will be given by the FFA officers.

The dinner will be prepared and served by the Home Economics department, Miss Mary Auvil, teacher. The Art department in charge of Miss Caroline Rex, will do the decorations and Mrs. Miriam Frank is in charge of printing the programs and song sheets.

Committees in Charge

Committees for the dinner are as follows: Food—Richard Rice, chairman; Howard Guise Wayne Ecker, and Raymond Hollabaugh; program—Arthur Myers, chairman; Harry Hoffman, Clifford Rice, and Cecil R. Snyder; printing—Maurice Black, chairman; Glenn Funt and Calvin Group; decorating—Fred Cashman, chairman; Kenneth Taylor, Robert Decker, Clifford Rice, William Walker, Wayne Ecker.

Property—Glenn Funt, chairman; Richard Rice, Dale Stock; dish washing—Sherrill Guise, chairman; Robert Smysers, Fred Cashman, Stanley Thomas, Ralph Culp, Rene Black, Aldous Gochenour and Fred Snyder; meat carving—John Hoffman, chairman; Robert Stevens, William Walker, Samuel Ehlman; potato mashing—Wayne Ecker, chairman; Paul Miller, Ivan Dunlap, Samuel Ehlman; clean-up—Howard Guise, chairman; Kenneth Taylor, Robert Decker, Dale Leer, John Miller and Arthur Myers.

EMMITSBURG GIRL IS WED

Mr. and Mrs. Francis S. Matthews, 302 West Main street, Emmitsburg, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Mary Eugenia, to Lt. Earl A. Rice, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rice, Mercersburg.

The double-ring ceremony was performed Saturday afternoon, February 24, at 5 o'clock in St. Paul's M. E. church, San Bernardino, Cal. The bride graduated from St. Joseph's college, Emmitsburg, in June, 1944, and until her marriage was home economics instructor at Thurmont high school.

Lt. Rice graduated from Mercersburg high school in 1941 and attended Mercersburg academy. Before enlisting in the Air Corps he was employed as a draftsman by the J. P. Miller company, Hagerstown.

He received his basic training in North Carolina and then attended Syracuse university before being transferred to the west coast. He received his bombardier wings and commission at Victorville Air Field last December. At present he is attending Radar School at Victorville.

The couple is residing at 2457 Serano road, San Bernardino, Cal.

Mr. Matthews, who accompanied his daughter to the coast, has returned home.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the California hotel after which the couple took a short wedding trip to Los Angeles.

February Sales At Booth $905.55

War bonds and stamps sold at the booth at the Majestic theatre from February 1 to February 28 totaled $905.55 it was reported today by Sidney Paul Thomas, chairman, and Mrs. Poppa, manager. The total for the year is now $1,934.45.

Those assisting during February include Mrs. C. Byard, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Eleanor Fox, Lona M. Black, Mrs. C. Arthur Brame, Mrs. Jacob Small, Mrs. J. J. Munley, Mrs. Charles Lauver, Mrs. George March, Nina Morrow, Mrs. Eric Deardorff, Catharine Small, Teresa Riley, Mrs. Carl E. Oyler, Mrs. L. B. Smith, Margaret L. Spangler, Mrs. Winebrenner, Mrs. J. D. Harrow, Mrs. Anna C. McSherry, L. Hemler, Mrs. Virginia Lauver, Mrs. G. W. Adlesberger, Elsie Kessel, Mrs. W. M. Conover and Mrs. E. P. Hamilton.

AWARDED MEDAL

Register and Recorder Winfield G. Horner and Mrs. Horner, Gettysburg R. 1, received Thursday a Good Conduct Medal which was awarded their son, Cpl. John Horner now stationed with army air corps division of service and supply in Newfoundland. Corporal Horner was given the award for "exemplary service" during the past year. He has been stationed in Newfoundland for almost a year and recently completed a furlough at his home.

Gardners Soldier On Italian Front

With the Fifth Army, Italy—Pvt. Stanley A. Starner, telephone operator, son of Clarence Starner, Gardner R. 2, is a member of the 403rd Field Artillery Battalion, which smashed a wealth of German installations recently in the path of Fifth Army doughboys who took a mountain overlooking the Po valley in Italy.

All their 155-millimeter howitzers pumping shells at Mt. Grande continuously for nine hours on two consecutive days, the artillerymen blew up a German ammunition dump, knocked out two antitank guns, a self-propelled gun and a 105-millimeter howitzer and accounted for at least 25 German dead.

WAR PROGRAM PRESENTED BY WOMAN'S CLUB

An address by Mrs. Henry W. A. Hanson on the growing interest in wide-spread parts of the world due to war conditions and a display of medals, souvenirs and other curios sent back by personnel from overseas featured the program of the March meeting of the Woman's club held Wednesday afternoon at the YWCA building.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Thomas L. Cline, chairman of the International Relations group, who introduced the speaker.

FIREMEN SEEK ENFORCEMENT OF STATE FIRE LAWS LOCALLY

Members of the Gettysburg fire company, at their March meeting Monday evening initiated steps to secure enforcement in Gettysburg of state laws requiring fire escape facilities on apartment houses and store and office buildings in Gettysburg.

At the same time the firemen decided to send a committee before the Gettysburg council to inquire what borough help will be given toward the purchase of a ladder truck or new pumper and to suggest that council again earmark returned beer and liquor license fees for the use of the fire company.

Officials and several members of the company joined in the discussion of the need for additional ladder equipment for fighting fires in Gettysburg. The firemen pointed out that there are buildings in Gettysburg for which the company does not have adequate ladder equipment—that also are without fire escapes.

One company officer declared: "The state Department of Labor and Industry has been notified time and again about fire hazards in Gettysburg which exist because owners are not complying with state laws regarding exits and fire escapes. Investigations have been made but about the time we think something is going to be done, the whole case goes 'bloody'."

Seek State Aid
At the direction of the company, President James B. Aumen named Chief James A. Aumen, Fire Marshal Raymond Bisbing, Joseph E. Codori, George D. March and Vernon Corle to a committee to go to the state department and demand elimination of local fire hazards by enforcement of already existing laws.

President Aumen declared there are buildings on West Middle street, Chambersburg street and center square that house apartments on upper floors and do not have fire escapes. Other firemen added other buildings to the list in the business section and on the college campus.

The firemen's committee to go before council to ask regular appropriations of borough funds for new fire fighting equipment here includes Mr. Codori, Chief Aumen and Secretary Raymond E. Menges.

Firemen inspected photos of a $12,000 ladder truck which they agreed is too costly to consider now. Without a vote the company's feeling seemed to be that the new ladder truck and pumper should be listed as a postwar project with preparations to be started now.

Chief Aumen announced that in the future only the old GMC truck and the service truck will be sent to rural fires, excepting in cases of "big fires" where additional equipment will be sent.

Will Send Cards
The company also voted to launch a program to educate persons living in the area served by the local company on the proper way to report a fire, giving the type of fire, the location and the best route for the firemen to use to reach it. Firemen will have instruction cards printed and mailed to residents on all of the rural routes out of Gettysburg.

Time and equipment frequently is wasted by poor directions on country fires, firemen declared.

George D. Burgen, East Stevens street, was elected to membership in the company and Raymond Herr was proposed for membership. George D. March announced the last salvage drive netted the company $85 and Vernon Corle said members will be asked to help load tin cans for shipment to Baltimore.

A letter was read from Kenneth Tawney, member of the company now in Germany, and it was reported that Donald Jacobs, also a fireman, is probably at Iwo Jima. Secretary Menges was directed to answer Tawney's letter. A donation of $20 from Mrs. George Shearer was accepted with thanks.

SEIBERT ADMITS GUN CASE GUILT

James Seibert, 22, Gettysburg R. 4, who was charged Wednesday with the sale of firearms to a minor, was arrested and given a hearing before Justice of the Peace John H. Basenhore, it was reported Thursday.

Seibert pleaded guilty to the charge, Justice Basenhore said, and was released on bail for his appearance in the April sentence court.

He is accused of the sale of a small .22-caliber revolver to a minor, 16 years of age, who in turn sold the gun to Eugene Hertz, 16-year-old eighth grade student in the Lincoln building who committed suicide with the weapon March 8.

The other 16-year-old boy involved is to have a hearing in juvenile court. The warrant was issued and the arrest made by a member of the local detachment of state police.

LEGION BACKS LIBRARY
The Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion has enrolled as a member of the Adams County Free Library association and has sent with its $5 membership check a letter of commendation of the library project, O. H. Benson, library association president, reported Monday.

Uncle And Nephew Meet In France

Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Ridinger, 28 Fourth street, have received word their son, Lt. George Richard Ridinger, who is a platoon leader of a rifle company with the 66th Division, stationed somewhere in France, while on a three-day pass to Paris met his uncle, Major J. M. Sheads, who is stationed in Paris. They spent three hours together.

Major Sheads formerly taught history at Gettysburg high school. Lt. Ridinger was a member of the class of 1944 of Gettysburg college.

RITES SUNDAY FOR SCHOOLBOY

Funeral services for Eugene Hertz, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hertz, Baltimore street, who died at the Warner hospital Thursday afternoon from a self-inflicted revolver wound, were held from the Bender funeral home Sunday afternoon conducted by the Rev. Howard Schley Fox. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

Pallbearers were Jack Moser, Thomas McGlaughlin, Harry Spangler, William Snyder, Harry Smith and Howard Fox.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, said Monday that there will be no inquest into the suicide shooting. Doctor Crist also said there had been a "lag" in the investigation of the ownership of the gun which the lad used. It will take "from 10 days to four weeks" before that report will be developed and made public, the coroner said. Inquiries to both borough and state police concerning the matter were referred to the coroner. Doctor Crist has "assumed full charge" of the investigation and is preparing his report at the present time. The Gettysburg Times was informed.

Papers Are Filed In Four Estates

Petitions for letters of administration in four estates were on file today at the office of Register and Recorder Winfield G. Horner.

The first was by Lloyd W. Hoffman, Gardner R. 1, in the estate of J. Alex Group, Huntington township, who died January 16. The estate included a property along the York Springs-Idaville road improved with a two and a half story brick house.

Two sons of Calvin Davis, late of York Springs, filed the petition for letters in his estate. They were Ralph B. Davis, York Springs R. 2, and Lester Davis, Peach Glen, who were named executors and sole heirs. The estate was valued at about $2,000 in personal property and $6,500 in real estate.

Eugene J. Althoff, Gettysburg, filed a petition in the estate of the late John A. Schuhart, Oxford township. The estate was valued at about $2,500 in personal property with no real estate.

The fourth petition was by Theresa Miller, widow of L. Earl Miller, of York Springs. That estate was listed at about $1,000 in personal property with no real estate.

Long Session By Co. Commissioners

The county commissioners put in an unusually long day Wednesday when they worked, chiefly over routine business and bridge inspection in the county, until 6 o'clock in the evening.

Final decisions on repairs to one of the county bridges will be made in a few days. The commissioners decided to try to secure two married couples for work at the county home. One couple will be needed to replace Mr. and Mrs. Charles Overholtzer, former janitor and head cook, respectively, who have resigned. The other couple is needed to help with the farm work and work as an attendant.

How Pa. Senators Voted Last Week

Both Senators Joseph P. Guffey and Francis Myers, Democrats, were recorded as voting against the Bushfield amendment to eliminate penalty provisions from the second War Powers Act which passed 44 to 35; against the Bailey amendment to make all men 18 to 45 subject either to induction or direction into war industry by their local draft boards unless engaged in a war-supporting activity, rejected 23 to 60, and against the Revercomb substitute work-or-jail measure to the O'Mahoney-Kilgore Manpower bill, which was rejected 27 to 54.

In the House Congressman Gross was recorded as not voting on the resolution $50,000 to the Hart committee on Un-American activities and on the Nurse Draft bill.

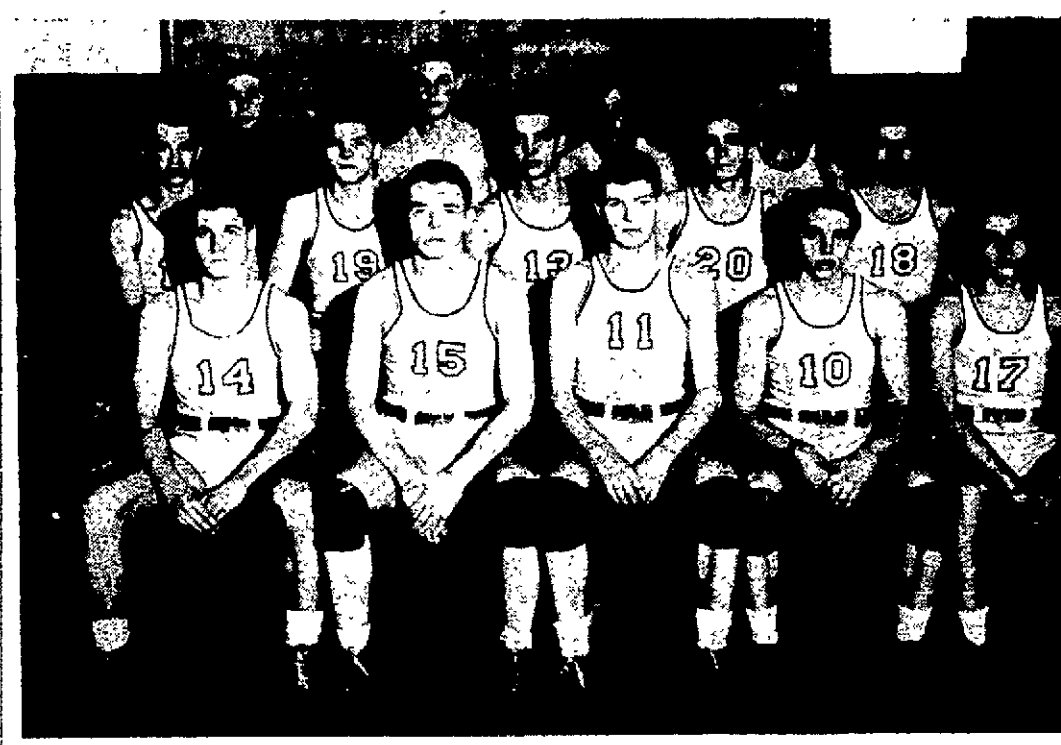

IN FLOOD ZONE

Three employees of the Gettysburg Gas corporation, Robert Brubaker, Thomas Small and William Holtzworth, went to Wheeling, W. Va., late Tuesday to help handle extra utility work caused by flood conditions there.

SAILOR PROMOTED

Richard S. Codori, of Gettysburg, has been promoted to radar man third class, according to word received by his wife. He is serving on a destroyer escort in the Atlantic ocean.

Winners Of 11 Of 16 Cage Games

But three members of the Gettysburg high school basketball squad pictured above will be available for next year. They are George Gorman and Richard Heintzelman, regular forwards, and Donald Raffensperger, sub guard.

Those in the picture include: First row, left to right, Dick Fittler, Sefton Eisenhart, Billy Ogden, Gorman and Heintzelman; second row, Luther Sachs, Dick Espley, Milton Moyer, Fred Haehnlein; third row, Robert Heysler, student manager; Norman Rasmussen, Raffensperger and Harold Small.

Fish, Game Group Numbers Over 300

William Zinkand, past president of the Adams County Fish and Game association, reported that he had signed up 210 new members for the coming year, at the regular monthly meeting of the group last Friday night in the basement of the First National bank building.

Zinkand's new members brought to "over 300" the total membership in the organization. President J. Frank Dougherty presided at the session at which it was voted to contribute $5 to the 1945 Red Cross War Fund drive. The report of Treasurer George Raffensperger showed a balance of $610.87 in the association treasury.

It was announced that the next meeting will be held April 13 when J. Allen Barrett, a lecturer for the State Fish Commission, will give a talk and show colored motion pictures. The fish and game associations from Littlestown and East Berlin will be invited to that meeting. It was decided.

LIBRARY BOARD MEETS MONDAY

The March meeting of the directors of the Adams County Free Library association will be held Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock in the office of the county superintendent of schools at the court house. President O. H. Benson will preside at the meeting to which committee chairmen and members have been invited.

There will be a showing of motion picture films made of the operation of county libraries elsewhere in this state and in other states.

Mr. Benson announced today that Mrs. Virginia O'Neal Huddle, Carlisle street, now in St. Petersburg, Fla., has sent a $25 check for her life membership in the county library association.

The library association's drive for 3,000 charter members is underway throughout the county. Mr. Benson said today that the charter membership fees are necessary to start county-wide library service, purchase book shelving, reading tables, chairs, desks, files and help finance the purchase of a bookmobile which will carry the library's books to all parts of the county.

The library head explained that plans call for the establishment of library or reading rooms in towns and community centers throughout the county.

In the current drive, the association seeks 100 life memberships at $25 each. Checks may be sent to Richard A. Brown, Esq., membership chairman for the drive.

Harney Soldier In Colorado Hospital

Pfc Ralph Vaughn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Vaughn, Harney, has arrived from overseas and is now at the U. S. Army hospital, Camp Carson, Colo., for treatment for trench foot.

Vaughn was inducted February, 1942, and was overseas three months. He spent eight days and nights in combat zone where he contracted trench foot. He is expected to arrive home in the near future on a 28-day furlough.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Forsythe, Gettysburg R. 2, announce the birth of a son at the Warner hospital Saturday morning.

A daughter was born at the hospital Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Augusta Sanchez, Emmitsburg. The father is serving with the Army.

SERVING OVERSEAS

Pfc. Claude Klinedinst, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Klinedinst, York Springs R. 2, is serving with the Blackhawk regiment overseas.

Pfc. Walter M. Johns has been awarded the Combat Infantry Badge according to a letter received by his wife recently. Pfc. Johns went overseas last November.

DR. SABA HEADS SOCIETY AGAIN

Dr. R. S. Saba was re-elected president of the Adams County Society for Crippled Children at the group's annual reorganization meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Hotel Eberhart.

Other officers are: Vice president, the Rev. Dr. Dwight P. Putman; secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Grieb; and treasurer, C. A. Willis.

Dr. William F. Quilliam, Jr., member of the Gettysburg college faculty, was elected as a new member of the board of directors to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. Donald Heiges. The other members of the board, representing the three local service clubs, the Ministerium, the assistance board office, the Red Cross and state and school nurses, includes: Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, C. P. Keefe, Fred G. Pfeffer, Mrs. Ira Henderson, Mrs. Edna Sterner, Mrs. Pius I. Topper, Miss Margaret McMillan, George F. Eberhart, Mrs. Mildred Shover, Mrs. Rosalie C. Raffensperger, Miss Mildred Eden, Miss Dorothy Warner, Hugh C. McIlhenny, Mrs. Verna Myers, Mrs. Wilda MacBeth, Miss Ruth Crawford, Rev. Howard S. Fox, Frank L. Britcher, and Mrs. Brenda Walker.

Except for the election of officers only routine business was transacted including officers' reports and discussion of pending cases.

Lt. Maurice Weaver Wins Decoration

Second Lieutenant Maurice S. Weaver, commander of a heavy machine gun platoon in the 66th Division on the western front and son of Mrs. Maurice Weaver, West Broadway, has been awarded the combat infantryman's badge, his mother learned in a V-mail letter from her son Monday.

The medal is awarded for "performance of duty in ground combat with the enemy" and is a special recognition for infantry troops. Lt. Weaver wrote that six men in his platoon have received the badge. He went overseas last November and has been at the front for several months.

Chaplain Hunt Goes To Marine Air Base

Chaplain Robert M. Hunt, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, who is on military leave from his parish as a lieutenant (jg) in the USNR, has been assigned to the Marine Corps Air Base at Cherry Point, N. C., he announced to his congregation here Sunday morning.

The Rev. Mr. Hunt, who is now on a brief leave of absence after having completed an eight-week indoctrination course at the training school for chaplains at Williams and Mary college, Williamsport, Va., conducted the morning worship service in his church Sunday. He told of his training and experiences in the chaplains' school.

Major Gifford Is Transferred To Texas

Major R. W. Gifford, formerly of the staff at the Warner hospital, has been transferred from Ft. Meade, Md., where he was assistant chief of the medical staff, to McCuskey General hospital, Temple, Texas. He will report the latter part of this month.

Major Gifford was commissioned as a captain and entered the service September 4, 1942. Last fall he was promoted to major.

COURT HOUSE BIRTHDAYS

Three court house workers observed their respective birthdays Saturday. They are Miss Viola Sachs, deputy register and recorder; M. T. Hartman, county agent, and Mrs. Martha B. McClellan, deputy clerk of the courts.

Dr. Hoover Speaks At Lenten Service

Dr. H. D. Hoover delivered the message at the special Lenten service at the YWCA building Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock sponsored by the High School Girl Reserves, Mrs. J. August Boeris, leader. The speaker was introduced by Phyllis Lawver.

The service was opened with a musical meditation by Ruth Fortenbaugh, devotions by Jane Swope and prayer by Catherine Bucher. Betty Teeter sang "My Task," with accompaniment by Lillian Boeris. A chorus from the senior high school choir at St. James Lutheran church sang several selections.

Following the service tea was served with Doris Oyler and Jean Bream pouring.

Next Sunday the service will be in charge of a group of young people from Fairfield.

MARCH SCORES 214 POINTS TO LEAD BULLETS

Bobby March, former Gettysburg high school cage star, rolled up a total of 214 points for an average of 14.4 per game as a freshman on the Gettysburg college quintet to top the individual scorers during the season which just ended.

March collected 75 goals and netted 64 fouls to give him exactly twice as many as the second high man on the team, George Shepherd, center, who accounted for 107 tallies.

In winning seven of 12 games, the Bullets netted 525 points while their opponents looped 473.

The individual scoring marks follow:

	G.	F.	Pts.
March	75	64	214
Shepherd	44	19	107
Martini	30	12	72
Moore	25	9	54
Andrews	12	9	33
Tripler	9	10	28
Pegg	4	2	10
Seft	0	3	3
Ries	1	0	2
Neel	1	0	2
Calvin	0	0	0
Johnson	0	0	0
Knusley	0	0	0
Uehling	0	0	0

Totals 201 123 525

Charge Man With Defrauding Farmers

For several years a man who gave his name as H. S. Zimmerman, and home address as Allentown, sold stock in a non-existing real estate company to farmers in York, Adams and Franklin counties, with the understanding that their investments would be doubled in several weeks' time.

Partners who purchased such stock failed to get any returns, and Pennsylvania state police were notified. A search for Zimmerman was conducted recently in the three counties by Corporal Poehyba, Chambersburg; Private Leslie Jackson, York barracks, of the Pennsylvania state police. Zimmerman was placed under arrest last week in Chambersburg and was committed to the Franklin county jail when he was unable to furnish $10,000 bail to answer to a charge of fraudulent conversion.

Thousands upon thousands of dollars were promised to the Allentown man who handed his victims that the money would be doubled in a short period of time. A resident of Adams county alone purchased $12,000 worth of stock, police said.

TO MEET FRIDAY

The National Council of Catholic Women will meet tonight at the church hall when Miss Mary Weaver, Littlestown, of the Conewago deanery, will give an account of a NCCW national convention held at Toledo, Ohio.

COUNTY PUPILS WIN HONORS IN 6TH BOND DRIVE

Dr. Robert A. Bream, education chairman of the county War Finance committee, announced Tuesday the final tabulations of awards to county school children for their participation in the war bond and war stamp salesmen during the Sixth War Loan drive.

"The most of the special awards went to the Littlestown public schools where pupils qualified for the issuance of a United States Treasury citation, the right to fly the Schools-at-War flag, and three special decalcomanias for the purchase of three pieces of Army equipment.

The Treasury citation to the school was for the all-over general effort made by the pupils; the flag was awarded for 100 per cent participation in the drive by all the school rooms during December, January and February, and the decals were awarded for bond sales equal to the purchase prices of an army scout car at $6,175, a two-and-a-half-ton truck (duck) at $8,275, and a one-quarter-ton truck (jeep) at $1,165.

Student Winners

Miss Ann Manbeck was the teacher in charge of bond sales in the Littlestown schools during the campaign. One pupil, Mary Kay Crouse, received a Treasury citation and service bar for sales of 10 or more bonds to 10 or more persons. She sold 11 bonds totalling $1,300 to 10 persons. Four other high school students received bars for sales. They were Anna Mae Adams, for selling seven bonds worth $150 to seven persons; Freda Little, eight bonds worth $350 to seven persons; Shirley Mackley, seven bonds worth $175 to seven people, and Shirley Spangler, 12 bonds worth $2,375 to eight people.

Jack Mackley, a pupil in the elementary schools, took second county prize in his division for selling nine bonds to nine different persons. A student in the sixth grade, taught by Miss Sara Basehoar, he was awarded $5 in war stamps.

Other elementary grade students who received honorable mention for their efforts were Alma Reaver, Suzanne Harner, Loise Waltman and Garry Waltman.

William Guise, a student at the Allentown vocational school, was awarded the third high school prize of a $25 war bond, for the largest number of sales to the largest number of individuals. He sold 21 bonds with a total value of $12,750 to 18 individuals and also was awarded a Treasury citation, Roll of Honor citation and bar. An Allentown elementary pupil, Janet Baltzley, won the third prize of $5 in War Stamps for similar sales. She sold six bonds to five persons.

Two other Allentown students were awarded service bars. They were Glenn Woodward, 15 bonds worth $650 to nine people, and Helen Hartman, for six bonds, worth $475 to six persons.

Largest Group at East Berlin

The East Berlin high school had the largest number of pupils receiving Treasury citations and bars. Those to receive both awards were Warren Schimmel, 11 bonds to 11 persons; Eugene Gruver, 10 bonds to 10 persons; Earl Myers, 11 bonds to 10 persons, and William Robinson, 11 bonds to 11 persons. The bars only were awarded to Dolores Gochonour, for sales of nine bonds worth $525 to seven persons; Mary Myers, eight bonds to seven persons; Norma Gruver, six bonds to six people, and Lawrence Hammie, six bonds to six individuals.

Jean Tate, a Biglerville high school pupil, who sold 18 bonds worth $450 to 15 people, was awarded a Treasury citation and service bar. Other Biglerville students to receive bars were R. L. Kime, sales of 10 bonds worth $600 to nine persons, and Barbara Kleinfelter, sales of 13 bonds worth $3,100 to eight people.

Two Treasury citations were awarded to York Springs high school pupils. They were Lorene Leer, for sales of 10 bonds worth $850 to 10 people, and Jean Cashman for sales of 18 bonds worth $6,950 to 18 persons. They also were awarded the service bars as was Fayette Shank for seven bond sales worth $225 to seven persons.

Flyer Appointed A Flight Officer

Elton L. Kessel, son of Evers E. Kessel, 143 Baltimore street, was awarded the silver wings of a pilot and appointed flight officer in the Army Air Corps at graduation exercises March 11 at the AAF Pilot School, Spence Field, Moultrie, Ga. P/O Kessel attended Petersburg high school, Petersburg, W. Va.

Harvey J. Yingst Receives Promotion

Harvey J. Yingst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Yingst, 325 South Washington street, has been promoted to first lieutenant at the Harlingen Army Air Field, Texas. Lt. Yingst is an aircraft maintenance officer at the Texas installation of the AAF Training Command.

ACCEPTS POSITION

Miss Mary C. Bollinger, East Middle street, has taken over the management of the Warner Novelty company, Chambersburg street, formerly known as the Granoble Gift Shop.

Delone, Allentown Will Play In York

Coach Eddie Waleski's Delone Catholic high school basketball team will meet Allentown Central for the Eastern Pennsylvania Catholic scholastic cage title this evening at 9:30 o'clock on the York high school court. The late hour was set due to another event being scheduled at the York school earlier in the evening.

Delone, Harrisburg Diocese champion, eliminated St. Paul's of Scranton Tuesday evening 44-34 to gain the eastern final.

The western title will be decided Saturday night when Cathedral Prep of Erie meets Central Catholic at Pittsburgh.

The state title game will be played March 20 at a site to be determined by the western title winner.

COMMUNISTS CALLED MAJOR PERIL IN CHINA

Communists in China were pictured as being as great a menace to the future of that country as the Japs themselves by Miss Margaret Donaldson, missionary returned from China in an address before the members of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon.

Defending Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek as "a Christian who lives his religion," Miss Donaldson blamed communist propaganda for the reports of his quarrel with General Stilwell. "For every Japanese the communists kill in China, they have killed five Chinese," the speaker declared as she described atrocities of both the communists and the Japs in China.

She contrasted the historical backgrounds of China and Japan and pointed out that while the Japs have "no ethic but follow shintoism," the Chinese have had an ethical religion since 500 years B. C. She denied the reports that the Chinese generalissimo and his famous wife have separated, spiked other malicious rumors involving the Chinese leaders and recommended reliable current books on China and its problems.

Add New Members

Miss Donaldson stated it has been impossible for Chiang to maintain friendly relations with the communists and had found it necessary to maintain a "standing armed wall" of protection against the communists. She told of guerrilla and underground activities in China and declared that Russia, England and this country owe China a debt for rejecting five Japanese peace offers at a time when such an acceptance would have freed the Japs to attack Russia.

Mrs. Rudolph Rosenstengel, president, was in charge of the meeting. Devotional was in charge of Mrs. G. W. Lefever. Mrs. Murray B. Frazier, Jr., was soprano soloist and was accompanied on the piano by her mother, Mrs. J. Donald Swope. The members of the Missionary society of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian church were guests for the meeting. Mrs. John Lott introduced the speaker.

New members of the Society include: Mrs. J. Willis Beldier, Mrs. E. Frank Harbaugh, Mrs. Thelma Long, Mrs. W. Scott Mountain, Mrs. Edward Utz, Miss Lee Harper, Miss Sue Harper, Miss Ruth Warman and Mrs. Spurgeon A. Messner.

Hostesses in charge were: Mrs. C. H. Heldt, Mrs. Wayne Keel, Mrs. Richard Brown, Mr. Robert Hunt, Mrs. Mark Snyder, and Miss Reba Adams. Tea was served at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. E. Donald Scott will be in charge of the devotionals for the April meeting and the hostesses will be: Mrs. J. Donald Swope, Miss Effa Chapman, Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas, Mrs. Ada Givler and Mrs. William Bigham. The program will be on "Visual Education."

George R. Lighty Receives Wings

George R. Lighty, 19, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Lighty, East Berlin R. 1, recently completed his course of training for flexible gunner at Harlingen, Tex., and received his wings and promotion to corporal.

Cpl. Lighty was the youngest member to graduate with the class of 1942 from the East Berlin high school. He was trained as an airplane mechanic at Keesler Field, Miss., completing this course last September. He received further training at Willow Run, Mich., and was awarded a diploma as mechanic for a B-24 late in December.

His elder brother, Pfc. Herbert S. Lighty, is also in the army, now serving in Germany. He has been overseas since August, 1942 when he landed in Scotland. Pfc. Lighty, a graduate of the East Berlin high school in 1935, has seen action in England, Italy, Sicily, France, and Africa. He had previously served in the army during peacetime, enlisting shortly after his high school graduation and being stationed in Central America. He was honorably discharged in 1938 but re-enlisted since the passage of the Selective Service act.

SAILOR DISCHARGED

William L. Burgoon, Littlestown, was recently discharged from the Navy. He trained at Great Lakes and served several months in Hawaii.

FUND FOR RED CROSS NEARING $9,000 TOTAL

New contributions listed Thursday brought the total collected to date in the Adams county 1945 American Red Cross War Fund drive to near the $9,000 mark.

Chapter officials reported a total to 11 a. m. Thursday morning of $8,681.02, with Thursday's gifts headed by a $50 donation from the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter 392, Gettysburg.

A gift of $35 was received from Dr. and Mrs. C. Harold Johnson, while three $25 donations also were received. They were from Judge and Mrs. W. C. Sheely, the Adams County Cold Storage company and Lt. and Mrs. Philip Jones.

Mrs. William Raffensperger made a contribution of $20 to the fund. An additional donation of $15 was received from the Soroptimist club of Gettysburg, to boost to $25 the sum given by that organization. Contributions of $15 also were received from the Mite society of St. James Lutheran church and Mrs. Edwin H. Johnson.

Donations of $10 were recorded from the Pennsylvania Catholic Beneficial League of St. Francis Xavier church; Miss Margaret McMillan, executive secretary of the local Red Cross chapter; Mrs. Effa Chapman, staff assistant at the Red Cross office; Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Donley, Miss Emily Dock, Miss Lavinia Dock, Mrs. A. C. Troup and Mrs. John D. Eckert.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Grab gave $6 to the fund as did Mr. and Mrs. Norman McClellan, and contribution of $5.50 was received from Mrs. George E. Trogler, Joanne and Jimmie Trogler.

Included in the $5 contributions listed today were the following: Thrift Plan of Pennsylvania, Inc., Mr. and Mrs. Winfield G. Horner, Miss E. Kate Gilbert, Dr. Charles H. Huber, the Acorn club, Mrs. Robert Codori, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Troxell, Mrs. Charles W. Stock, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steinburger, Miss Edith Vivien, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Redding, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Price, Mrs. Carrie Weikert and Mrs. Clarence Wright.

GAR

FIREMEN SEEK ENFORCEMENT OF STATE FIRE LAWS LOCALLY

Members of the Gettysburg fire company at their March meeting Monday evening initiated steps to secure enforcement in Gettysburg of state laws requiring fire escape facilities on apartment houses and store and office buildings in Gettysburg.

At the same time the firemen decided to send a committee before the Gettysburg council to inquire what borough help will be given toward the purchase of a ladder truck or new pumper and to suggest that council again earmark returned beer and liquor license fees for the use of the fire company.

Officials and several members of the company joined in the discussion of the need for additional ladder equipment for fighting fires in Gettysburg. The firemen pointed out that there are buildings in Gettysburg for which the company does not have adequate ladder equipment—that also are without fire escapes.

One company officer declared: "The state department of Labor and Industry has been notified time and again about fire hazards in Gettysburg which exist because owners are not complying with state laws regarding exits and fire escapes. Investigations have been made but about the time we think something is going to be done, the whole case goes 'bloey'."

Seek State Aid

At the direction of the company, President James B. Aumen named Chief James A. Aumen, Fire Marshal Raymond Bisbing, Joseph E. Codori, George D. March and Vernon Corle to a committee to go to the state department and demand elimination of local fire hazards by enforcement of already existing laws.

President Aumen declared there are buildings on West Middle street, Chambersburg street and center square that house apartments on upper floors and do not have fire escapes. Other firemen added other buildings to the list in the business section and on the college campus.

The firemen's committee to go before council to ask regular appropriations of borough funds for new fire fighting equipment here includes Mr. Codori, Chief Aumen and Secretary Raymond E. Menges.

Firemen inspected photos of a $12,000 ladder truck which they agreed is too costly to consider now. Without a vote the company's feeling seemed to be that the new ladder truck and pumper should be listed as a postwar project with preparations to be started now.

Chief Aumen announced that in the future only the old GMC truck and the service truck will be sent to rural fires, excepting in cases of "big fires" where additional equipment will be sent.

Will Send Cards

The company also voted to launch a program to educate persons living in the area served by the local company on the proper way to report a fire, giving the type of fire, the location and the best route for the firemen to use to reach it. Firemen will have instruction cards printed and mailed to residents on all of the rural routes out of Gettysburg.

Time and equipment frequently is wasted by poor directions on country fires, firemen declared.

George D. Burner, East Stevens street, was elected to membership in the company and Raymond Herr was proposed for membership. George D. March announced the last salvage drive netted the company $85 and Vernon Corle said members will be asked to help lead tin cans for shipment to Baltimore.

A letter was read from Kenneth Tawney, member of the company now in Germany, and it was reported that Donald Jacobs, also a fireman, is probably at Iwo Jima. Secretary Menges was directed to answer Tawney's letter. A donation of $20 from Mrs. George Shealer was accepted with thanks.

SEIBERT ADMITS GUN CASE GUILT

James Seibert, 22, Gettysburg R. 4, who was charged Wednesday with the sale of firearms to a minor, was arrested and given a hearing before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore, it was reported Thursday.

Seibert pleaded guilty to the charge, Justice Basehore said, and was released on bail for his appearance in the April sentence court.

He is accused of the sale of a small .22-caliber revolver to a minor, 16 years of age, who in turn sold the gun to Eugene Hertz, 16-year-old eighth grade student in the Lincoln building who committed suicide with the weapon March 8.

The other 16-year-old boy involved is to have a hearing in juvenile court. The warrant was issued and the arrest made by a member of the local detachment of state police.

LEGION BACKS LIBRARY

The Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion has enrolled as a member of the Adams County Free Library association and has sent with its $5 membership check a letter of commendation of the library project. O. H. Benson, library association president, reported Monday.

Uncle And Nephew Meet In France

Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Ridinger, 28 Fourth street, have received word their son, Lt. George Richard Ridinger, who is a platoon leader of a rifle company with the 66th Division, stationed somewhere in France, while on a three-day pass to Paris met his uncle, Major J. M. Sheads, who is stationed in Paris. They spent three hours together.

Major Sheads formerly taught history at Gettysburg high school. Lt. Ridinger was a member of the class of 1944 of Gettysburg college.

RITES SUNDAY FOR SCHOOLBOY

Funeral services for Eugene Hertz, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hertz, Baltimore street, who died at the Warner hospital Thursday afternoon from a self-inflicted revolver wound, were held from the Bender funeral home Sunday afternoon conducted by the Rev. Howard Schley Fox. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

Pallbearers were Jack Moser, Thomas McGlaughlin, Harry Spangler, William Snyder, Harry Smith and Howard Fox.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, said Monday that there will be no inquest into the suicide shooting.

Doctor Crist also said there had been a "lag" in the investigation of the ownership of the gun which the lad used. It will take "from 10 days to four weeks" before that report will be developed and made public, the coroner said. Inquiries to both borough and state police concerning the matter were referred to the coroner. Doctor Crist has "assumed full charge" of the investigation and is preparing his report at the present time. The Gettysburg Times was informed.

Papers Are Filed In Four Estates

Petitions for letters of administration in four estates were on file today at the office of Register and Recorder Winfield G. Horner.

The first was by Lloyd W. Hoffman Gardner R. 1, in the estate of J. Alex Group, Huntington township, who died January 16. The estate included a property along the York Springs-Idaville road improved with a two and a half story brick house.

Two sons of Calvin Davis, late of York Springs, filed the petition for letters in his estate. They were Ralph B. Davis, York Springs R. 2, and Lester Davis, Peach Glen, who were named executors and sole heirs. The estate was valued at about $2,000 in personal property and $6,500 in real estate.

Eugene J. Althoff, Gettysburg, filed a petition in the estate of the late John A. Schuhart, Oxford township. The estate was valued at about $2,500 in personal property with no real estate.

The fourth petition was by Theresa Miller, widow of L. Earl Miller, of York Springs. That estate was listed at about $1,000 in personal property with no real estate.

Long Session By Co. Commissioners

The county commissioners put in an unusually long day Wednesday when they worked, chiefly over routine business and bridge inspection in the county, until 6 o'clock in the evening.

Final decisions on repairs to one of the county bridges will be made in a few days. The commissioners decided to try to secure two married couples for work at the county home. One couple will be needed to replace Mr. and Mrs. Charles Overholtzer, former janitor and head cook, respectively, who have resigned. The other couple is needed to help with the farm work and work as an attendant.

How Pa. Senators Voted Last Week

Both Senators Joseph F. Guffey and Francis Myers, Democrats, were recorded as voting against the Bushfield amendment to eliminate penalty provisions from the second War Powers Act which passed 44 to 35; against the Bailey amendment to make all men 18 to 45 subject either to induction or direction into war industry by their local draft boards unless engaged in a war-supporting activity, rejected 23 to 60, and against the Revercomb substitute work-or-jail measure to the O'Mahoney-Kilgore Manpower bill, which was rejected 27 to 54.

In the House Congressman Gross was recorded as not voting on the resolution $50,000 to the Hart committee on Un-American activities and on the Nurse Draft bill.

IN FLOOD ZONE

Three employees of the Gettysburg Gas corporation, Robert Brubaker, Thomas Small and William Holtzworth, went to Wheeling, W. Va., late Tuesday to help handle extra utility work caused by flood conditions there.

SAILOR PROMOTED

Richard S. Codori, of Gettysburg, has been promoted to radar mar third class, according to word received by his wife. He is serving on a destroyer escort in the Atlantic ocean.

Winners Of 11 Of 16 Cage Games

But three members of the Gettysburg high school basketball squad pictured above will be available for next year. They are George Gorman and Richard Heintzelman, regular forwards, and Donald Raffensperger, sub guard.

Those in the picture include: First row, left to right, Dick Fidler, Sefton Eisenhart, Billy Ogden, Gorman and Heintzelman; second row, Luther Sachs, Dick Epley, George Thrush, Milton Moyer, Fred Hachlen; third row, Robert Heyser, student manager; Norman Rasmussen, Raffensperger and Harold Small.

Fish, Game Group Numbers Over 300

William Zinkand, past president of the Adams County Fish and Game association, reported that he had signed up 210 new members for the coming year, at the regular monthly meeting of the group last Friday night in the basement of the First National bank building.

Zinkand's new members brought to "over 300" the total membership in the organization. President J. Frank Dougherty presided at the session at which it was voted to contribute $5 to the 1945 Red Cross War Fund drive. The report of Treasurer George Raffensperger showed a balance of $610.87 in the association treasury.

It was announced that the next meeting will be held April 13 when J. Allen Barrett, a lecturer for the State Fish Commission, will give a talk and show colored motion pictures. The fish and game associations from Littlestown and East Berlin will be invited to that meeting. It was decided.

LIBRARY BOARD MEETS MONDAY

The March meeting of the directors of the Adams County Free Library association will be held Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock in the office of the county superintendent of schools at the court house. President O. H. Benson will preside at the meeting to which committee chairmen and members have been invited.

There will be a showing of motion picture films made of the operation of county libraries elsewhere in this state and in other states.

Mr. Benson announced today that Mrs. Virginia O'Neal Huddle, Carlisle street, now in St. Petersburg, Fla., has sent a $25 check for her life membership in the county library association.

The library association's drive for 3,000 charter members is underway throughout the county. Mr. Benson said today that the charter membership fees are necessary to start county-wide library service, purchase book shelving, reading tables, chairs, desks, files and help finance the purchase of a bookmobile which will carry the library's books to all parts of the county.

The library head explained that plans call for the establishment of library or reading rooms in towns and community centers throughout the county.

In the current drive, the association seeks 100 life memberships at $25 each. Checks may be sent to Richard A. Brown, Esq., membership chairman for the drive.

Harney Soldier In Colorado Hospital

Pfc. Ralph Vaughn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Vaughn, Harney, has arrived from overseas and is now at the U. S. Army hospital, Camp Carson, Col., for treatment for trench foot.

Vaughn was inducted February, 1942, and was overseas three months. He spent eight days and nights in combat zone where he contracted trench foot. He is expected to arrive home in the near future on a 28-day furlough.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Forsythe, Gettysburg R. 2, announce the birth of a son at the Warner hospital Saturday morning.

A daughter was born at the hospital Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Augusta Sanchez, Emmitsburg. The father is serving with the Army.

SERVING OVERSEAS

Pfc. Claude Klinedinst, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Klinedinst, York Springs R. 2, is serving with the Blackhawk regiment overseas.

Pfc. Walter M. Johns has been awarded the Combat Infantry Badge according to a letter received by his wife recently. Pfc. Johns went overseas last November.

DR. SABY HEADS SOCIETY AGAIN

Dr. R. S. Saby was re-elected president of the Adams County Society for Crippled Children at the group's annual reorganization meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Hotel Eberhart.

Other officers are: Vice president, the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putnam; secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Grieb; and treasurer, C. A. Wills.

Dr. William F. Quillian, Jr., member of the Gettysburg college faculty, was elected as a new member of the board of directors to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. Donald Heiges.

Other members of the board, representing the three local service clubs, the Ministerium, the assistance board office, the Red Cross and state and school nurses, includes: Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, C. P. Keifer, Fred G. Pfeffer, Mrs. Ira Henderson, Mrs. Edna Sterner, Mrs. Plus I. Topper, Miss Margaret McMillan, George F. Eberhart, Mrs. Mildred Shover, Mrs. Rosalie C. Raffensperger, Miss Mildred Eden, Miss Dorothy Warner, Hugh C. McIlhenny, Mrs. Verna Myers, Mrs. Wilda MacBeth, Miss Ruth Crawford, Rev. Howard S. Fox, Frank N. Britcher, and Mrs. Brenda Walker.

Except for the election of officers only routine business was transacted including officers' reports and discussion of pending cases.

Lt. Maurice Weaver Wins Decoration

Second Lieutenant Maurice S. Weaver, commander of a heavy machine gun platoon in the 66th Division on the western front and son of Mrs. Maurice Weaver, West Broadway, has been awarded the combat infantryman's badge, his mother learned in a V-mail letter from her son Monday.

The medal is awarded for "performance of duty in ground combat with the enemy" and is a special recognition for infantry troops. Lt. Weaver wrote that six men in his platoon have received the badge. He went overseas last November and has been at the front for several months.

Chaplain Hunt Goes To Marine Air Base

Chaplain Robert M. Hunt, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, who is on military leave from his parish as a lieutenant (j.g.) in the USNR, has been assigned to the Marine Corps Air Base at Cherry Point, N. C., he announced to his congregation here Sunday morning.

The Rev. Mr. Hunt, who is now on a brief leave of absence after having completed an eight-week indoctrination course at the training school for chaplains at William and Mary college, Williamsport, Va., conducted the morning worship service in his church Sunday. He told of his training and experiences in the chaplains' school.

Major Gifford Is Transferred To Texas

Major R. W. Gifford, formerly of the staff at the Warner hospital, has been transferred from Ft. Meade, Md., where he was assistant chief of the medical staff, to McCuskey General hospital, Temple, Texas. He will report the latter part of this month.

Major Gifford was commissioned as a captain and entered the service September 4, 1942. Last fall he was promoted to major.

COURT HOUSE BIRTHDAYS

Three court house workers observed their respective birthdays Saturday. They are Miss Viola Sachs, deputy register and recorder; M. T. Hartman, county agent, and Mrs. Martha B. McClellan, deputy clerk of the courts.

Dr. Hoover Speaks At Lenten Service

Dr. H. D. Hoover delivered the message at the special Lenten service at the YWCA building Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock sponsored by the High School Girl Reserves, Mrs. J. August Borles, leader. The speaker was introduced by Phyllis Lawver.

The service was opened with a musical meditation by Ruth Fortenbaugh, devotions by Jane Swope and prayer by Catherine Bucher. Betty Teeter sang "My Task," with accompaniment by Lillian Borles. A chorus from the senior high school choir at St. James Lutheran church sang several selections.

Following the service tea was served with Doris Oyler and Jean Bream pouring.

Next Sunday the service will be in charge of a group of young people from Fairfield.

MARCH SCORES 214 POINTS TO LEAD BULLETS

Bobby March, former Gettysburg high school cage star, rolled up a total of 214 points for an average of 14.4 per game as a freshman on the Gettysburg college quintet to top the individual scorers during the season which just ended.

March collected 75 goals and netted 64 fouls to give him exactly twice as many as the second high man on the team, George Shepherd, center, who accounted for 31 tallies.

In winning seven of 12 games, the Bullets netted 525 points while their opponents looped 473.

The individual scoring marks follow:

	G.	F.	Pts.
March	75	64	214
Shepherd	44	19	107
Martini	30	12	72
Moore	25	4	54
Andrews	12	9	33
Tripler	9	10	28
Pegg	4	2	10
Seft	0	3	3
Ries	1	0	2
Neal	1	0	2
Calvin	0	0	0
Johnson	0	0	0
Kniesly	0	0	0
Uehling	0	0	0
Totals	201	123	525

Charge Man With Defrauding Farmers

For several years a man who gave his name as H. S. Zimmerman, and home address as Allentown, sold stock in a non-existing real estate company to farmers in York, Adams and Franklin counties, with the understanding that their investments would be doubled in several weeks' time.

Farmers who purchased such stock failed to get any return, and Pennsylvania state police were notified. A search for Zimmerman was conducted recently in the three counties by Corporal Pochyba, Chambersburg, Private Walsh, Gettysburg, and Private Leslie Jackson, York barracks of the Pennsylvania state police. Zimmerman was placed under arrest last week in Chambersburg and was committed to the Franklin county jail when he was unable to furnish $10,000 bail to answer to a charge of fraudulent conversion.

Thousands upon thousands of dollars were handed to the Allentown man who promised his victims that the money would be doubled in a short period of time. A resident of Adams county alone purchased $12,000 worth of stock, police said.

TO MEET FRIDAY

The National Council of Catholic Women will meet tonight at the church hall when Miss Mary Weaver, Littlestown, of the Cone-wago deanery, will give an account of a NCCW national convention held at Toledo, Ohio.

COUNTY PUPILS WIN HONORS IN 6TH BOND DRIVE

Dr. Robert A. Bream, education chairman of the county War Finance committee, announced Tuesday the final tabulations of awards to county school children for their participation as war bond and war stamp salesmen during the Sixth War Loan drive.

"The most of the special awards went to the Littlestown public schools where pupils qualified for the issuance of a United States Treasury citation, the right to fly the Schools-at-War flag, and three special dealcomanias for the purchase of three pieces of Army equipment.

The Treasury citation to the school was for the all-over general effort made by the pupils; the flag was awarded for 100 per cent participation in the drive by all the school rooms during December, January and February, and the decals were awarded for bond sales equal to the purchase prices of an army scout car at $6,175, a two-and-a-half-ton truck (duck) at $8,275, and a one-quarter-ton truck (jeep) at $1,165.

Student Winners

Miss Ann Manbeck was the teacher in charge of bond sales in the Littlestown schools during the campaign. One pupil, Mary Kay Crouse, received a Treasury citation and service bar for sales of 10 or more bonds to 10 or more persons. She sold 11 bonds totalling $1,300 to 10 persons. Four other high school students received bars for sales. They were Anna Mae Adams, for selling seven bonds worth $150 to seven persons; Freda Little, eight bonds worth $350 to seven persons; Shirley Mackley, seven bonds worth $175 to seven people; and Shirley Spangler, 12 bonds worth $2,375 to eight people.

Jack Mackley, a pupil in the elementary schools, took second county prize in his division for selling nine bonds to nine different persons. A student in the sixth grade, taught by Miss Sara Basehoar, he was awarded $5 in war stamps.

Other elementary grade students who received honorable mention for their efforts were Alma Reaver, Suzanne Harner, Loise Waltman and Garry Waltman.

William Guise, a student at the Arendtsville vocational school, was awarded the third high school prize of a $25 war bond, for the largest number of sales to the largest number of individuals. He sold 21 bonds with a total value of $12,750 to 18 individuals and also was awarded a Treasury citation, Roll of Honor citation and bar. An Arendtsville elementary pupil, Janet Bailley, won the third prize of $5 in War Stamps for similar sales. She sold six bonds to five persons.

Two other Arendtsville students were awarded service bars. They were Glenn Woodward, 15 bonds worth $650 to nine people, and Helen Hartman, for six bonds worth $475 to six persons.

Largest Group at East Berlin

The East Berlin high school had the largest number of pupils receiving Treasury citations and bars. Those to receive both awards were Warren Schimmel, 11 bonds to 11 persons; Eugene Gruver, 10 bonds to 10 persons; Earl Myers, 11 bonds to 10 persons; and William Robinson, 11 bonds to 11 persons. The bars only were awarded to Dolores Goch-enour, for sales of nine bonds worth $525 to seven persons; Mary Myers, eight bonds to seven persons; Norma Gruver, six bonds to six people; and Lawrence Hammie, six bonds to six individuals.

Jean Tate, a Biglerville high school pupil, who sold 18 bonds worth $450 to 13 people, was awarded a Treasury citation and service bar. Other Biglerville students to receive bars were R. L. Kime, sales of 10 bonds worth $600 to nine persons, and Barbara Kleinfelter, sales of 13 bonds worth $3,100 to eight people.

Two Treasury citations were awarded to York Springs high school pupils. They were Lorene Leer, for sales of 10 bonds worth $850 to 10 people, and Jean Cashman for sales of 18 bonds worth $6,950 to 18 persons. They also were awarded the service bars as was Fayette Shank for seven bond sales worth $225 to seven persons.

Flyer Appointed A Flight Officer

Elton L. Kessel, son of Evers E. Kessel, 143 Baltimore street, was awarded the silver wings of a pilot and appointed flight officer in the Army Air Corps at graduation exercises March 11 at the AAF Pilot School, Spence Field, Moultrie, Ga.

F. O. Kessel attended Petersburg high school, Petersburg, W. Va.

Harvey J. Yingst Receives Promotion

Harvey J. Yingst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Yingst, 325 South Washington street, has been promoted to first lieutenant at the Harlingen Army Air Field, Texas.

Lt. Yingst is an aircraft maintenance officer at the Texas installation of the AAF Training Command.

ACCEPTS POSITION

Miss Mary C. Bollinger, East Middle street, has taken over the management of the Warner Novelty company, Chambersburg street, formerly known as the Grenoble Gift shop.

Delone, Allentown Will Play In York

Coach Eddie Waleski's Delone Catholic high school basketball team will meet Allentown Central for the Eastern Pennsylvania Catholic scholastic cage title this evening at 9:30 o'clock on the York high school court. The late hour was set due to another event being scheduled at the York school earlier in the evening.

Delone, Harrisburg Diocese champion, eliminated St. Paul's of Scranton Tuesday evening 44-34 to gain the eastern final.

The western title will be decided Saturday night when Cathedral Prep of Erie meets Central Catholic at Pittsburgh.

The state title game will be played March 20 at a site to be determined by the western title winner.

COMMUNISTS CALLED MAJOR PERIL IN CHINA

Communists in China were pictured as being as great a menace to the future of that country as the Japs themselves by Miss Margaret Donaldson, missionary returned from China in an address before the members of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon.

Defending Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek as "a Christian who lives his religion," Miss Donaldson blamed communist propaganda for the reports of his quarrel with General Stilwell. "For every Japanese the communists kill in China, they have killed five Chinese," the speaker declared as she described atrocities of both the communists and the Japs in China.

She contrasted the historical backgrounds of China and Japan and pointed out that while the Japs have "no ethic but follow shintoism," the Chinese have had an ethical religion since 500 years B. C. She denied the reports that the Chinese generalissimo and his famous wife have separated, spiked other malicious rumors involving the Chinese leaders and recommended reliable current books on China and its problems.

Add New Members

Miss Donaldson stated it has been impossible for Chiang to maintain friendly relations with the communists and had found it necessary to maintain a "standing armed wall" of protection against the communists. She told of guerrilla and underground activities in China and declared that Russia, England and this country owe China a debt for rejecting five Japanese peace offers at a time when such an acceptance would have freed the Japs to attack Russia.

Mrs. Rudolph Rosenstengel, president, was in charge of the meeting. Devotionals were in charge of Mrs. G. W. Lefever. Mrs. Murray B. Frazee, Jr., was soprano soloist and was accompanied on the piano by her mother, Mrs. J. Donald Swope. The members of the Missionary society of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian church were guests for the meeting. Mrs. John Lott introduced the speaker.

New members of the Society include: Mrs. J. Willis Beidler, Mrs. E. Frank Harbaugh, Mrs. Thelma Long, Mrs. W. Scott Mountain, Mrs. Edward Utz, Miss Ruth Harper, Miss Sue Harper, Miss Ruth Warman and Mrs. Spurgeon A. Messner.

Hostesses in charge were: Mrs. C. H. Heidt, Mrs. Wayne Keet, Mrs. Richard Brown, Mr. Robert Hunt, Mrs. Mark Snyder, and Miss Reba Adams. Tea was served at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. E. Donald Scott will be in charge of the devotionals for the April meeting and the hostesses will be: Mrs. J. Donald Swope, Miss Effa Chapman, Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas, Mrs. Ada Givler and Mrs. William Bigham. The program will be on "Visual Education."

George R. Lighty Receives Wings

George R. Lighty, 19, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Lighty, East Berlin R. 1, recently completed his course of training for flexible gunner at Harlingen, Tex., and received his wings and promotion to corporal.

Cpl. Lighty was the youngest member to graduate with the class of 1942 from the East Berlin high school. He was trained as an airplane mechanic at Keesler Field, Miss., completing this course last September. He received further training at Willow Run, Mich., and was awarded a diploma as mechanic for a B-24 late in December.

His elder brother, Pfc. Herbert S. Lighty, is also in the army, now serving in Germany. He has been overseas since August, 1942 when he landed in Scotland. Pfc. Lighty, a graduate of the East Berlin high school in 1935, has seen action in England, Italy, Sicily, France, and Africa. He had previously served in the army during peacetime, enlisting shortly after his high school graduation and being stationed in Central America. He was honorably discharged in 1938 but re-enlisted since the passage of the Selective Service act.

SAILOR DISCHARGED